

MR. BLAINE'S RELAPSE.

The Eminent Statesman Has a Very Narrow Escape.

HIS PHYSICIANS NOW HOPEFUL

But All of His Family and Friends Admit That the Ex-Secretary's Condition Is Extremely Critical—Mrs. Blaine's Fortitude.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—All day yesterday the life of James G. Blaine hung trembling in the balance. For more than an hour in the forenoon hope was abandoned and the end was momentarily expected by physicians, family and friends.

The first crisis was reached between 10 and 11 o'clock in the forenoon, when a sinking spell set in, from which the worst was feared. His family were called round the bedside and the physicians sent messenger after messenger to the nearest drug store with prescriptions requiring hasty attention.

The distinguished patient lay unconscious, and to all appearance dying, until shortly before one o'clock p. m. when a slight rally set in. His pulse, which had almost ceased to beat, became again perceptible, and partial consciousness was restored. At 2 o'clock his physicians, Drs. Johnston and Hyatt, considered him so much improved as to render their constant presence at the bedside unnecessary.

While there had been no marked improvement, and no change in his condition upon which hopes of ultimate recovery could be based, the immediate crisis had passed.

From an intimate friend of the family it is learned that it was only when Mr. Blaine was suddenly seized with the sinking spell which threatened for some minutes to terminate in heart failure that his family fully realized how near he was to death.

For a few seconds he seemed to be "in extremis," and the watchers bent anxiously over him. The emaciated face of the dying statesman was white as marble, and his features sadly drawn.

At times he scarcely seemed to breathe, and at others gasped for breath. The physicians who had been hastily summoned were in the meantime not idle. They plied him with stimulative cordials, the trained nurses chafed his extremities, and it was only after working over the patient for upwards of thirty minutes and the application of every art known to the medical profession that Mr. Blaine slowly revived.

But the battle with death found him extremely weak, weaker than at any time when suffering a relapse. He was too weak even to whisper, and lay with no sign of recognition in his half closed eyes.

The family gathered around the bedside were all in tears, except Mrs. Blaine. She maintained outward composure throughout the trying scene, and calmly gave such directions to the attendants as were necessary. Her will power, when in fact her heart was breaking, is described as something pathetic and marvelous.

Whatever might have been Mrs. Blaine's suspicion or knowledge of her husband's condition through all of the intervening months of his illness she has given no outward sign that would indicate that she did not believe in his recovery. It has been her cheerfulness under most trying circumstances that has soothed her husband's despondency.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—Mr. Blaine is slightly better, but not sufficiently improved to justify hope of his ultimate recovery. For years he has undergone a perpetual mental strain sufficient to weaken less sternly fibred men in a week, but while his splendid physique gave no outward sign of debility, the system, overworked and taxed to its utmost, has gradually weakened until today it is doubtful whether Mr. Blaine will live to see Christmas day.

A recurrence of the alarming symptoms of Sunday last is what his physicians and the family most fear, as in his present weakened state he could not withstand the attack.

The last bulletin from his bedside states that he is resting easily, with no immediate danger of death.

Dishonor and Suicide.
ST. LOUIS, Dec. 20. Early in the morning fire was discovered in the closet in the private office of the city treasurer, in which papers and documents pertaining to the office were stored. Some of the office books were destroyed. Word was received later that Edward Forstel, son of City Treasurer W. J. Forstel, and his chief clerk, shot himself at his home, dying from the effect of the wound.

Firemen Buried Alive.
ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 20.—Seven men, six of them firemen, were buried under a falling wall while fighting a fire that destroyed the Fort Orange mill, on the Columbia street pier, yesterday. Three are dead, one is likely to die, one may recover and the other two were fortunate enough to escape with but slight (slight) gutted. The dead firemen are Foreman Charles E. Marshall, John Bridgford and Frederick Amthor.

Critchlow Still in Jail.
PITTSBURGH, Dec. 20.—Attorney W. J. Brennan yesterday made application before Judge Stowe for the release of Sylvester Critchlow on bail. Critchlow, it will be remembered, was recently acquitted on the charge of the murder of Pinkerton Detective Conners, but is in jail charged with complicity in the murder of Silas Wayne. Judge Stowe said he would hear the case Saturday morning.

TO REGULATE IMMIGRATION.

Mr. Stump Presents an Important Bill in the House.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—Mr. Stump, of Maryland, chairman of the house committee on immigration, introduced in the house yesterday a bill for the establishment of a foreign quarantine and suspension of immigration under certain conditions. It provides that after March 1, 1893, no alien immigrant shall be permitted to land at any port in the United States who has not been quarantined at the port of departure for at least seven days. Before embarkation the vessel is to be thoroughly fumigated and inspected. Two experienced surgeons are to be employed by vessels engaged in transporting immigrants and are required to make oath that the law has been complied with. In case the owners of any vessels willfully violate the provisions no alien immigrant is to be permitted to land in this country with any vessel owned by the same company without special permission of the treasury department, and vessels bringing immigrants who have not been quarantined as required are to be fined $5,000, and vessels so fined are to be detained until the fine is paid. The secretary of the treasury, with the approval of the president, is empowered, whenever in his judgment the public safety shall require it, to restrict, prohibit, suspend or exclude all alien immigrants who may embark from any designated foreign port.

A Pair of Steek Swindlers.
CHICAGO, Dec. 21.—Edward N. Wildman and Herman Wittig, late of Philadelphia, and doing business in this city under the names of the "Illinois Lumber company, and Wildman & Co.," were arrested yesterday by federal officers on complaints charging them with use of the mails for the purpose of swindling, and sworn to by Postoffice Inspector Griggs, of Philadelphia. The method of the two men was to send out letters to small lumber men in the middle states, asking for quantities of lumber and giving as references Sherman & Co., a false concern in Philadelphia. When the lumber was sent on one of the men signed the bill of lading, while the other man made haste to sell the cargo as soon as possible. When the creditor tried to recover his money he found that none of the lumbermen's associations knew anything about Wildman & Co.

After the Iron Hall Officials.
INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 21.—Governor Chase was asked yesterday by State's Attorney Holzman for requisitions on the governors of Pennsylvania, Michigan and Maryland for the arrest of F. D. Somerby, Amos H. Hosmer, Joseph Gladding, J. Henry Hayes, L. W. Rousey, C. H. Baker and J. H. Reckert, officials of the Iron Hall, against whom an indictment was returned at the October session of the Marion county grand jury for the embezzlement of $170,000. Mark C. Davis, of this city, was arrested when the indictment was found and was placed under a bond of $200,000. When arrested the bond of Somerby et al., will probably be fixed at the same amount.

Mev's Arrest to be Investigated.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—Hon. John F. Durham, minister to Hayti, now in this country on leave of absence, has been informed by the secretary of state to return without delay to Port-au-Prince and investigate the facts attending the arrest and imprisonment of Frederick Mev, a respectable American merchant of that city. The secretary of the navy has placed the Atlanta at the disposal of the state department to take Minister Durham to his post, and he will sail from Norfolk within a few days. Mr. Mev is a citizen of Philadelphia doing business at Port-au-Prince. He was arrested on a charge of smuggling a box of small value and kept in prison several days.

To Sail Under American Colors.
PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 21.—When the Inman line steamship City of New York will leave New York on Feb. 25, her bow will point toward Southampton, the new European terminal of the International Navigation company. At the same time it is expected that she will initially fly the Stars and Stripes and become an American in reality as well as in name. On this date her sister ship, the City of Paris, will leave Southampton, thus formally opening the terminal, and upon the latter's departure from this side the American flag will also probably grace her.

Judge Maynard Denounced.
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—By an overwhelming vote, almost unanimously in fact, the Bar Association at its meeting last night adopted resolutions denouncing Judge Isaac H. Maynard and calling upon Governor Flower to appoint some one else to the office which he now holds, but will vacate on Dec. 31. When the vote upon the adoption of these resolutions was taken there were 125 lawyers present, of whom only eight voted in the negative.

General Rosecrans Going West.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—General Rosecrans, register of the treasury, left here this afternoon for Los Angeles, Cal., in the hope of recovering his health. He is accompanied by his daughter from Washington, and Governor Toole, his son-in-law, will join them at Chicago and go as far as La Junta, Kan. General Rosecrans has improved somewhat within the past week, and it is now believed he may be still further benefited by the milder climate of southern California.

Marsh in South Africa.
PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 21.—According to information brought by the Philadelphia ship Jacob E. Ridgway, from South Africa, Gideon W. Marsh, the fugitive Keystone bank president, who was supposed to have been in Brazil during the summer, was at Cape Town last October and soon left for the Rangoon when he was identified and had become known as a Philadelphia bank wrecker.

Missing and Defaulter.
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—Considerable excitement was created in the general post-office yesterday, when it was learned that Charles L. Cadman, a clerk at the wholesale window on the Broadway side, had disappeared, leaving a shortage of between $5,000 and $10,000. It was intimated that the defaulter clerk had committed suicide, but it is believed he will be found alive.

Carnot Will Not Resign.
VIENNA, Dec. 19.—President Carnot, says a dispatch from St. Petersburg, has informed the czar that he will remain at his post under any circumstances to save France from internal disturbances.

A freight train with thirty-six cars, under charge of Conductor William Nickey and Engineer John Maloney, crashed into a wreck train at that point, with the above result.

At Trenton yesterday Chancellor McGill filed an order appointing Judge A. Q. Garretson, of Jersey City, receiver of the Florida Construction company. An effort is being made to secure the pardon of Ralph K. Paige, the Painesville, O., bank wrecker, who was tried for forgery in Cleveland last spring and sent to the penitentiary for ten years.

The Agencia Liberte is authority for the statement that the European powers have no intention of protesting against the hostile action of the United States towards immigrants. The immigration societies have been notified that they must cease booking stowage passengers for American ports.

Friday, Dec. 23.
During a fire in Cincinnati last night, Fireman Emberon fell from a four-story building and was killed. Marie Nevins, the divorced wife of James G. Blaine, Jr., denies a published statement that she is to marry her physician. John and Mauritz Anderson, 14 and 10 years old, killed a lone farmer near Ogema, Wis., and took possession of his house. The older boy is being pursued by a posse. The younger has confessed.

The Mexican soldiers, forty-five in number, were compelled to surrender. Five refused and were burned at the government building. Five bandits were killed and several wounded. Estance Ramon was one of the leaders of the bandits.

Trustee and Trust Missing.
NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—The trustee of the $1,000,000 estate of John M. George, Edward P. Chamberlain, is missing and is said to have taken considerable money. He had been speculating and lost money, but his integrity was thought to be beyond temptation. Mr. George's son and only heir, Joseph, is searching for Chamberlain, who was an old friend of his father. Chamberlain is a southerner and 45 years old. His friends fear that he has killed himself from despondency.

Watson's Contest.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—Representative Watson, of Georgia, says the report that he intends to institute a series of individual prosecutions for illegal voting and intimidation at the recent congressional election in his district was unfounded and untrue. ### THE ALLEGED POISONERS.

A District Master Workman Arrested for Complicity.
PITTSBURGH, Dec. 20.—District Attorney Burleigh took a hand in the Homestead poisoning case yesterday, and as a result Hugh F. Dempsey, master workman of District No. 3, Knights of Labor, is under $2,500 bail for trial at court on a charge of felony and assault and battery in administering poison, or causing it to be administered, to the non-union men at the Homestead Steel works. Mr. Dempsey surrendered himself as soon as he learned that a warrant for his arrest had been issued. A similar charge was also made by County Detective Betzhoover against J. M. Davidson (one of the cooks who confessed to the alleged plot), but at this writing he has not been arrested. An information was also made against Patrick Gallagher by W. R. Griffiths, charging him with administering the poison on Oct. 5.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 21.—District Attorney Burleigh submitted the cases growing out of the alleged poisoning cases to the grand jury for its action today. The cases of Patrick Gallagher and J. M. Davidson, partners in the crime and confessors of poisoning Homestead non-union steel workers were given to the grand jury today. District Attorney Burleigh visited Alderman McMaster's office yesterday and asked some pointed questions as to why such energy had been expended in the attempt to arrest Hugh F. Dempsey and so little to apprehend the self confessed poisoners. He told the alderman that unless these warrants were served at once, or a reason given why they could not be served, something would drop. The alderman notified Captain Breck, of Carnegie counsel, to bring forward the men, and in a short time Gallagher was taken to jail by a Pinkerton detective. Bond for J. M. Davidson, assistant superintendent of Carnegie's Thirty-third street mill.

Valuable Property Burned.
ST. LOUIS, Dec. 20.—A very destructive fire broke out at 6:30 last evening in the four-story building occupied by the Uddell Woodware company, facing on Fourth street, between Vine and St. Charles. The building occupied half a block and the flames soon spread across the street to the upholstery department of the Scarrett Furniture company, which was gutted. From there the fire spread west to the building which is being remodeled for the Crane Furniture company, and then spread across to the warehouse or the same company, then to the four-story building adjoining, which is occupied by the Tyler Desk company, the United States and Pacific Express companies. Seventy-five thousand dollars worth of silver bullion was carried out of the building. The losses aggregate $218,000.

To Increase the Whisky Tax.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—Representative Owen Scott, of Illinois, is collecting facts and figures and will immediately after the holidays request the ways and means committee to accord him a hearing on his bill increasing the internal revenue tax on whisky. The bill increases the tax on distilled spirits from 90 cents to $1.25 per gallon. The present tax on whisky produces about $90,000,000 annually. The increase proposed in this bill will give almost 40 per cent. more revenue, or a total of $125,000,000 from distilled spirits alone. Mr. Scott also thinks that other large sums may be obtained by similar increase in the tax on other alcoholic products and tobacco.

A Youthful Desperado.
PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Dec. 19.—Albert Shattard, 16 years old, is terrorizing the ranchers near Duangness. He recently broke into a settler's cabin and carried off two rifles and a quantity of ammunition. Two deputy sheriffs with warrants were sent to arrest the boy, but he intercepted them, covered them with his rifle and forced them to lay down their arms and turn back, with their hands above their heads. Last week he held up two men and robbed them of their watches and money. Several cabins have also been robbed, and two petty thieves have joined the young highwayman. The boy has long been a terror to the community.

Soldiers Burned Alive.
