TWO LEGISLATURES ORGANIZED.

The Two Houses in Full Blast Side by Side in the Same Room-Both Sides Holding the Fort-Supremacy a Question of Endurance.

TOPERA, Kan., Jan. 11.-The predicted clash between the Republicans and Populists of Kansas over the organization of the house has come, but in a totally unexpected manner. The Populists made a bold bluff to exclude from participation all those members against whom contests were pending. The Republicans would not listen to such a proposition, which would mean the surrender of the house to the enemy, and the result is that two houses are organized and are in full blast by side in the same room. It has settled down to a case of freeze out, and he side with the most endurance will win

At 1:25 yesterday Secretary of State Osoorn appeared at the speaker's stand and innounced that the law provided that he hould lay before the house a list of memers as he found it in the secretary of tate's office. George L. Douglass (Rep.) nterrupted with the statement that the ecretary should lay the list before the ouse and should not preside. He said hat for one he would not consent for Osorn to preside, and other members agreed with him.

Mr. Dunsmore, the Populist candidate or speaker, said that there was no preceent to be found in the state to settle questions that will be presented in this organiation. Somebody, he said, must pass on hese questions. The speaker declared that for the purpose of completing the roll of the house Mr. Osborn was the chairman. "Gentlemen," said Mr. Osborn, "I am aly here to act in a ministerial capacity. When the house informs me that it has a residing officer to receive this roll I will leliver it. With that Mr. Osborn abruptly left the sk and disappeared from the hall. Mr. Semper (Pop.) walked to the desk and then assumed the gavel, and Mr. Cubison, a Republican, quickly joined him nd sounded the gavel. The house was in onfusion, but the Republicans nominated officers, who were declared elected by Mr. Cubbison.

Then somebody moved that the house proceed to call the roll.

The certified roll was missing, having been carried away by Mr. Osborne, but a roll of some kind was found, and Mr. Remington, the Republican secretary, held it up, saying that he had the roll as certified by the secretary of state. Mr. Cubbison ordered Mr. Remington to call the roll. Shouts of objections were raised, but Mr. Remington proceeded. The Democrats responded as their names were called, while the Populists kept up a roar of protest.

Mr. Cubbison called for the members to come forward and be sworn, while the Republicans held up their hands and a To-peka lawyer named and administered the the oath. Then the Republican clerk again called the roll and Mr. Douglass was declared elected speaker. Judge Strong swore Mr. Douglass in and he assumed the chair.

By this time the Populists had progres so far in the organization as to elect Duns more speaker, and he soon had a full set of officers. Secretary Brown, of the senate, now appeared, and, recognizing Speaker Dunsmore, announced that the senate had organized.

As soon as Mr. Brown had finished the reading Speaker Douglass quickly said: "A message to me from the senate says that body is now organized." This was a horse on Mr. Dunsmore, and everybody laughed. It was now the Populists' turn to adopt the rules of the last house, and having done this, the Populists' clerk called the roll.

Through all the excitement Speaker Dunsmore and Speaker Douglass stood side by side, beating their gavels on the same block, and good naturedly crowding each other, the three Democrats quietly watching the row and taking part in the proceedings. The Populists had been provided with a large quantity of bologna sausage and made them into sausages, and these were served in lieu of supper. They announced that they were in the hall to stay, and are confident to rout the Republicans and finally capture the organization.

The situation is unique and interesting. Both sides camped on the field all night, and both say they will stay until the others tire out.

Extending the Embezzlement Laws. WASHINGTON, Jan. 11 .- Mr. Bacon, of New York, is of the opinion that the embezzlement section of the statutes is not broad enough, and yesterday he offered a bill amending it so as to provide that every president, director, cashier, teller, clerk or agent of any association who willfully falsifies any book, report or account of the association shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than five years or more than ten years. Every president or cashier who shall make oath to a report to the comptroller of the currency, knowing it to be false, is made liable to the same punishment.

Mr. Blaine Resting Easy.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11 .- Mr. Blaine's condition remains practically unchanged. He is hovering between life and death, with nothing between him and the "king of terrors" but his remarkable vitality, bearing him up in the face of the repeated attacks of his illness. After each relapse he rallies, almost in the face of death, the case baffling even his physicians. Last night he became conscious at intervals, and although very weak, was cheerful and lucid.

Murphy Selected for the Senate. ALBANY, Jan. 11 .- In the Democratic aucus last night all the senators voted for Edward Murphy, Jr., for United States senator except Senators McClelland and William L. Brown, who voted for W. PITTSBURG, Jan. 9 .- A somewhat sensational scene took place on car No. 223 of the Penn avenue division, on Saturday, in the sudden and utterly unlooked for death of Captain Frank O'Brien, a tipstaff in the court house. The car was well filled with passengers at the time. SCRANTON, Pa., Jan. 9.-While trying to save the life of Richard Alsop, who was entombed at the Olyphant colliery, Thomas Daniels was caught by a second fall and terribly crushed, death being instanta-Alsop was rescued alive, and though badly bruised may recover.

HONESDALE, Pa., Jan. 9.-Mrs. John W. Billard, of Cherry Ridge, while lighting a fire in the cook stove accidentally set her dress on fire. Her husband wrapped her in blankets and extinguished the flames, but she had inhaled so much smoke that her physician gives no hopes of her recovery.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 10.—At a meeting of the Democratic county chairmen of the counties of Dauphin, Franklin, Adams, Fulton, York, Juniata, Perry and Mifflin yesterday R. E. Shearer, of Cumberland, was chosen division chairman, and W. W. Trout, of Mifflin, secretary and treasurer.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Jan. 9 .- The board of prison inspectors have elected Deputy Warden E. T. Osenbach warden and Tilghman J. Despoy deputy warden. The dis-placing of Warden Creitz, who gained some notoriety on account of Murderer Keck's poisoning, has caused some gossip. HARRISBURG, Jan. 10 .- It was stated last night that the state accounting officers would not allow more than $50 for the contingent expenses of the electoral commission. They stand upon a strict construc-tion of the act of 1839. This will leave a number of clerks and assistant clerks without compensation. WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Jan. 9.—The postoffice at Billman, a suburb of this city, was entered by burglars and the safe blown open and robbed of $75 in stamps and money. The store of Postmaster Woodmansee, in the same building, was also robbed of goods worth over $100. There is no clew to the thieves.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 10,-The college cast the vote of the state for Benjamin Harri-son for president and Whitelaw Reid for vice president. Hon. William Wood, of Philadelphia, was selected to carry one certificate to Washington and J. Francis Dunlap the other to the United States district court in Philadelphia.

READING, Pa., Jan. 9.-The recent lease by a syndicate of Philadelphians of large granite quarries at Falls of French Creek s followed by the information that the Delaware and Lancaster railroad running to that place will probably be leased by the same party, and the quarries and railroad will be operated on a most extensive scale.

READING, Pa., Jan. 9 .- A special meeting of the district assembly, Knights of Labor, was held yesterday. One question considered was the reported action of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad company in employing more engineers in anticipation of trouble among those now in its employ. The legislature was requested to pass an anti-Pinkerton bill.

LANCASTER, Pa., Jan. 7.-A passenger train on the Downingtown and Lancaster railroad ran into a freight near Glen Moore, during the heavy snow storm. The passengers received a terrible shaking up, but were not injured. John Worth, fireman of the passenger engine; Henry Helms, baggage master, and Harry Myers, brakeman, were painfully but not seriously in-

LANSDALE, Pa., Jan. 7.—The snow which fell Thursday night is the heaviest since the memorable blizzard of 1888. The Reading Railroad company had a force of men at work all night on the Bethlehem branch to keep the tracks open for travel. At Bethlehem the snow is nearly two feet deep,but with the assistance of snow plows the Lehigh Valley road is kept open for CLEARFIELD, Pa., Jan. 9 .- Andrew Rankin, formerly postmaster and justice of the peace, but a fugitive from justice for eighteen months, has been placed in jail. He is charged with forgery, embezzlement, larceny and fraud. If all his victims would prefer separate charges, and he should be convicted on them, Rankin would be sentenced, it is calculated, to about 700 years in the penitentiary.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 7 .- It has been disgovered that the desk in the house of representatives claimed by William H. Andrews and W. F. Higby, the Crawford county contestant, has been looted, and is empty of the nice stationery and things placed in it by the resident clerk. Nobody knows who took the things. Higby's name is still on the desk, the card being unfastened, and that of Andrews has disap

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE.

There is an enemy with whom thousands are familiar all their lives, because they are born with a tendency to billousness. With this enemy they are constantly battling with ineffectual weapons. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will baffie it. Mere purgatives will not reform a disordered condition of the liver indicated, not by constipation alone, but also by sick headaches, yellowness of the skin and eye balls, nausea, furred tongue and uneasiness, more particular upon pressure on the right side upon and below the short ribs. Avoid drastic purgatives which gripe and weaken the intestines, and substitute this world famous antibillious cordial, which likewise removes maiarial, stomachic and kidney complaints, rheumatism and nervousness. Asa laxative of the bowels, painless but effectual, it improves appetite, sleep and the ability to digest, and possesses the additional advantage of a standard tonic. with a tendency to biliousness.
