

MRS. WHITNEY BURIED.

One of the Most Notable Funerals Ever Held in New York City.

LAIN IN A TOMB OF ROSES.

The Grave in Woodlawn Cemetery Hidden Beneath a Mass of Magnificent Flowers—Distinguished and Representative Mourners.

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—A very fitting tribute to the memory of a lovely woman was the great concourse of people that crowded St. Bartholomew's church at the corner of Forty-fourth street and Madison avenue to pay the last respects to Mrs. William C. Whitney, the wife of ex-Secretary Whitney.

A more distinguished gathering never attended a funeral service in this city. There were all the people who compose the exclusive circles of the city represented in the gathering which soon crowded the edifice to the doors.

A wreath of white violets, which were the favorite flowers of the deceased, was carried to the grave by Mrs. William C. Whitney.

Other floral tributes were a large wreath of white carnations and violets, to which the card of Mrs. Paron Stevens was attached.

At the close of the service, Mrs. Whitney's remains were placed in a simple wooden coffin, which was then lowered into the earth.

Mr. W. C. Whitney, with his sister-in-law, Mrs. Bingham of Cleveland, leaning on his arm, came first, followed by Colonel Oliver Payne, Mrs. Whitney's sister, Mrs. Henry F. Dimock and Mrs. Charles F. Barney, her eldest daughter, Pauline, and the sons, Henry Payne and William Payne, together with Mrs. Cleveland, who was leaning on the arm of Mr. Don M. Dickinson.

The funeral was held in the parlors of the residence of Mrs. Whitney at 143 West 92d street, where the body was first laid out.

The service was conducted by the Rev. W. C. Whitney, with his sister-in-law, Mrs. Bingham of Cleveland, leaning on his arm, came first, followed by Colonel Oliver Payne, Mrs. Whitney's sister, Mrs. Henry F. Dimock and Mrs. Charles F. Barney, her eldest daughter, Pauline, and the sons, Henry Payne and William Payne, together with Mrs. Cleveland, who was leaning on the arm of Mr. Don M. Dickinson.

Following the reading of the opening words of the burial service a quartet, assisted by 35 voices, sang the anthem from the 96th and 97th psalms. The rest of the service followed the usual form of the Episcopal church.

The internment was in Woodlawn, and before the funeral cortege arrived there three flowers had covered the grave with white lilies and with the new rose known to florists as the Testout. Not a glimpse of earth was allowed to remain in sight by the time the funeral party reached the cemetery.

This new and rare rose was Mrs. Whitney's favorite flower, of which she was extremely fond.

The freight blockades raised. CINCINNATI, Feb. 8.—Ralph Peters, division superintendent of the Pennsylvania road, announces that the road will receive freight for shipment as usual. SENSATIONAL DEVELOPMENTS.

Gross Irregularities Charged in the Management of a County Prison. LANCASTER, Pa., Feb. 7.—Some racy developments were made at a meeting of the Lancaster county prison inspectors yesterday. It was developed that Levi Sensenig, a political boss and outsider, was negotiating for the purchase of the carpet chain for the institution and the accusation was made and not denied that he was given this privilege in lieu of his having had M. F. Kreider, the treasurer of the board, elected. The foreman of the carpet room, who was recently voted out of place, testified that the board was paying considerably higher than the market price for chain. Later it cropped out that he had been dismissed because he had called the board's attention to the alleged steal. Inspector Albert Smith was charged with having sold his votes for the under positions, in proof of which the baker of the prison told the board he had paid Smith $35 this year, and Underkeeper Harvey swore he had paid Smith $50 for his vote last year, and was defeated this year because he refused to pay $100.

Sudden Death of a Judge. POTTSVILLE, Pa., Feb. 7.—David B. Green, associate judge of Schuylkill county, died last night. He was stricken with paralysis at 8 o'clock in the morning and remained unconscious till his death in the evening. He was the only Republican of the three judges of this county's courts. Judge Pershing, the presiding judge, has been very sick since early in December, and is now sojourning at Atlantic City for the benefit of his health. Judge Green was 65 years old, and was born in Berks county. He was first appointed to the bench in 1867, and with one intermission of several years, he has served on the bench ever since.

INDIANS READY FOR WAR.

Ghost Dancing is Going on, and There May Be a Serious Outbreak. OMAHA, Feb. 8.—A dispatch from Sioux City to The Bee says that a government agent from the Black Hills country, who is in the city on his way to Sioux Falls and Pierre, and who refused to permit his name to be used publicly for the trouble it might create between him and Captain Brown, said last night that matters were much more serious in the Sioux reservation than the dispatches sent out from Pine Ridge would indicate. He said that Agent Brown refused to allow any dispatches sent out unless written by him, and that he changed the color of all the dispatches to suit his fancy.

The government agent says that the murder of the four cowboys was the outgrowth of ghost dancing indulged in by the followers of the chief Two Strikes, and fully as many Indians are in sympathy with Two Strikes as two years ago. He adds that the weather is all that is holding the Indians in check, and that at the first show of spring an uprising will take place unless the government put troops enough on the reservation to intimidate the Indians.

A dispatch to The Bee from Pine Ridge agency, S. D., says: "It is now definitely settled that only two of the four white men murdered belonged to Humphrey camp. They were Rodney Royce of Wisconsin and Emanuel Bennett of Breckinridge. The two strangers were James Bacon and William Kelly, two boys aged 13 and 16 years respectively."

Every particular obtained points to a premeditated murder. Policeman Bear-Runs-in-the-Woods reports to Captain Brown, Indian agent, that he talked to the murderers, and they told him that the murder was planned before its execution. Each one was to select his man after they had killed his man they should empty their revolvers into their victims.

"Young-Man-Afraid-of-His-Horse and He-Dog, son-in-law of Red Cloud, came to the agency and asked for authority to arrest the two escaped murderers and bring Two Strikes, who is mortally wounded, to the agency. He-Dog promises that he will arrest and bring every one to the agency who participated in the murder. The agent will not give his consent to this arrangement until he sees that the police are unable to make the arrest."

Walter Wellman's Fiat Denied.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—Walter Wellman, the famous Washington correspondent, was asked about the rumor that he was to be President Cleveland's private secretary. Mr. Wellman said: "I am not a candidate, have not been a candidate, shall not be a candidate and have not the slightest notion that my name has ever been discussed, considered or even suggested. I do not want the place, probably should decline it were it offered, and couldn't get it if I wanted it."

FIFTY-THIRD CONGRESS. Condensed Report of Proceedings in Senate and House. WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—Both houses devoted yesterday to appropriation bills. In the senate the fortifications bill and the army appropriation bill passed finally.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—In the senate yesterday the extradition treaty negotiated by Minister Reich of France was amended so as to exclude political offenders, and then ratified. The district appropriation bill was passed, and Senator Chandler's amendment resolution referred to the foreign relations committee. In the house the anti-option bill was discussed, without action.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—In the senate yesterday Mr. Hill (N. Y.) gave notice that on Monday he would bring the question of the repeal of the silver bullion provision of the Sherman act before the house by moving its passage. The bill to promote the safety of railway travelers and employes was laid aside. The house passed the diplomatic and consular and military academy bills.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—In the senate yesterday Mr. Hill (N. Y.) brought up his motion to proceed to the consideration of the bill to repeal the Sherman silver purchase act. In his speech on the motion he declared himself in favor of free coinage. The motion was rejected by a vote of 22 to 12. In the house Mr. Kilgore (Tex.) and Mr. Burrows (Mich.) succeeded in filibustering tactics in preventing the accomplishment of any business.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—In the senate yesterday Senator Chandler charged the Democratic majority with inconsistency for supporting the automatic coupler bill, while the party platform denounced Republicans for neglecting legislation to protect railroad employes. He twitted them, too, with the fact that only eleven had voted to take up the bill for the repeal of the Sherman act. In the house little progress was made with the legislative appropriation bill.

Abnett to Succeed Scudder.

TRENTON, Feb. 8.—There is the best authority for the statement that ex-Governor Abnett is to be appointed to the supreme bench. His name would have been sent in yesterday but for the fact that Judge Scudder's funeral had not yet taken place. It will undoubtedly come in on Monday night. Senators Winton and Adrain are leading the opposition to the ex-governor, and it is believed that he will not be confirmed. The senators who opposed him for United States senator will also oppose him for the new honor.

"How Nature Cures" scientifically demonstrates that bread, cereals, and all starch foods are unwholesome and unwholesome. Scientists and laymen alike will find it worth their while critically to examine this evidence. Dr. Densmore, although a graduate of one of the oldest of old school medical colleges, is resolutely opposed to drastic drugs and mineral medicine; and enthusiastically in favor of overcoming disease by diet and exercises (hygienic laws). The "Natural Food Magazine," Sept. 2, 1890, editorially stated: "Dr. Densmore is one of the most open-minded men we have ever met in print." Dr. Densmore is well known in England as the founder of the Natural Food Society, and of its organ, the "NATURAL FOOD MAGAZINE," and he has brought considerable notice to the ranks of the vegetarians by the new lights he has brought to bear upon their favorite food.
