KEYSTONE MUNICIPALITIES Results of Local Elections Held in the State Yesterday.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 22. - The municipal elections here ended the bitterest campaign in years. The result on the mayoralty is still in doubt, with the indications pointing to the election of Bernard McKenna (Dem.) over John S. Lambie (Rep.) and Messrs. Kerr and Beinhauer (Inds.). Hon. H. I. Gourley, the present mayor, elected on the Republican ticket three years ago, was elected controller on the Democratic ticket by at least 3,000 majority. Joseph C. Denniston, Republican, was re-elected treasurer. If McKenna should be success ful he will be the first Democratic mayor elected in twelve years. In Allegheny Mayor Kennedy (Rep.) was re-elected by about 2,500 plurality.

LANCASTER, Pa., Feb. 22.-The municipal election here was very quiet. The Democrats lose control of common council, but retain a majority of one in select council. The Republicans will have a majority on joint ballot, and will, therefore, control the election of city treasurer, street commissioner, superintendent of water works and chief of the fire department.

READING, Pa., Feb. 22.—The election here yesterday resulted in a victory for the Republicans, that party electing its entire ticket. William F. Shanaman is elected mayor over A. J. Darlington by from 600 to 800 majority. John M. Bartolette is elected city treasurer and Walter B. Koch controller. The Republican city assessors have also been elected.

LEBANON, Pa., Feb. 22.—The city election resulted as follows: Mayor, Albert Garrett (Dem.); treasurer, George H. Spang (Dem.); controller, J. A. Shindel ; city assessors, Isaac Miller, John T. Atkins, Levi H. Spotts (Reps.). The common council will be composed of seven Democrats and five Republicans, a Democratic gain of two.

ALTOONA, Pa., Feb. 22.-At the municipal election in this city a small vote was polled. Indications point to the election of S. M. Hoyer (Dem.) as mayor by about 100 majority. The rest of the Republican ticket has been elected, including H. E. Ferguson for treasurer and George Harpham for controller.

CHESTER, Pa., Feb. 22.—At the municipal election in this city John E. Hinkson (Dem.) was elected mayor over Dr. D. W. Jeffries (Rep.) by about 200 majority. Henry Hinkson and John I. Hawthorne (Reps.), for treasurer and solicitor, were elected by the usual Republican majority

YORK, Ha., Feb. 22.—The municipal election resulted in the election of G.W. Loucks (Rep.) over J. V. Giesey (Dem.) by about twenty majority, the first time York has had a Republican mayor. Common council will be a tie. The remainder of the Democratic ticket is probably elected.

HAZLETON, Pa., Feb. 12.—Returns from this city give the Republicans a gain of three councilmen. The contest for poor director of the middle coal fields is very close. Present indications point to the election of McDonald (Dem.) over Monroe CARLISLE, Pa., Feb. 22.-At the munitipal election yesterday John R. Miller (Dem.) was elected mayor of this city over N. W. Boyd (Rep.). The council will be a tie-six Democrats and six Republicans.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 22.-Indications point to the election of Maurice C. Eby (Dem.) for mayor. City Controller Verbeke (Dem.) is probably re-elected. A. C. McKee (Rep.) has been elected city treasurer. GETTYSBURG, Feb. 22.-The Democrats elected Major Henry S. Benner as burgess by fourteen majority. The Republicans secured control of the council. WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Feb. 22.-Returns indicate the election of a Republican mayor, and possibly the entire ticket.

Terrible Tragedy in Altoona. ALTOONA, Pa., Feb. 22.-James Ben aged 20, was employed as hostler at the Ingold hotel, on Fourth avenue. For some time past he has been ailing with St. Anthony's dance, which it is believed made him at times temporarily insane. Several days ago he had borrowed fifty cents from Emma, the 14 year-old daughter of the proprietor, and yesterday afternoon he offered to pay her providing she would accompany him to his room on the third When they had arrived at the second floor he suddenly drew a revolver and fired, the ball crashing through the girl's brain. She fell to the floor dead. Benson immediately fired again, this time sending a bullet into his own brain. He was taken to the city hospital, where he now lies in a hopeless condition, and cannot recover.

Italy's Bank Scandal.

ROME, Feb. 22.-Taulongo, the director of the Banco Romana, who is now under arrest for complicity in the bank scandals which have caused so much excitement here, has handed to the judge a statement of his defense. In this statement Taulongo implicates many well known men in the scandal. Signor Monzelli, the government official who is also under arrest, and who is alleged to have declared that if he is prosecuted his appearance before the urts will be followed by that of several high personages, has made a statement similar to that furnished by Taulongo. Monzelli claims that his whole guilt consists in having obeyed his superiors.

The Imprisoned Cannibals. HAMBURG, Feb. 22 .- A reporter of the Hamburger Nachrichten has interviewed the three sailors of the Shekla who are in prison here awaiting trial for having eaten their Dutch companion after the wrecking of their ship at sea. All spoke of the killing as the only thing to be done under the circumstances. Lots were drawn with rags tern from their shirts. After the lot had fallen upon him twice the Dutchman, by turning his back, gave the sign for them to proceed. Anderson and Jacobsen held him by the shoulders and legs while Johannsen stabbed him to death. They ate his flesh from the time of the killing until they were rescued.

Twenty-eight Fishermen Drowned. LONDON, Feb. 21.-A fishing boat went down with its nine occupants yesterday in a storm off Banff, on the Scotch coast. The fishing boats Charlotte and Jessie foundered in a storm off Wick. All the nineteen men in the boats were drowned. A terrific storm swept the northeast coast of Scotland since early morning. Sleet and rain, and occasionally hail, fell along the whole northeastern coast. Much wreckage has drifted ashore, and reports of small losses of life at various points are received hourly.

For Solicitor of the State Department. WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—The nomination of Mr. Henry W. Raymond, of Pennsylvania, it is said, to be solicitor for the state department to succeed Mr. Partridge, apdepartment to succeed Mr. Partridge, appointed minister to Venezuela, will be sent to the senate this week. Mr. Raymond is at present private secretary to Secretary Tracy and is a son of the late Henry J. Raymond, so widely known as editor of the New York Times.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE. What Is Being Done by the Solons at Harrisburg. HARRISBURG, Feb. 16 .- In the senate yesterday a bill prohibiting the manufacture and sale of hoops and crinoline was referred to the committee on retrenchment and reform. Other bills introduced: To authorize cities to take property for park purposes not exceeding in value $25,000 in one year; to extend the mechanics' building lien law to the laying of pavements and setting the curbstones in front of such buildings. The bill abolishing the Phila delphia building commission passed finally by a vote of 36 to 3. In the house bills were reported favorably: Appropriating $163,000 for the re-equipment of the National Guard; the Boyer bill regulating fraternal beneficial societies, requiring instruction and practice of physical culture in public schools; empowering boards of education to sell school property; for the regulation and improvement of the civil service. The bill to protect associations and workingmen and persons in their labels, trade marks and forms of advertising was reported with a negative rec ommendation. Bills introduced: Provid-ing for a more equitable distribution of the school fund; to encourage the breeding and improvement of trotting and pacing horses, and to prevent fraudulent entries; authorizing chattel mortgage on certain forms of iron and steel.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 17.—In the senate yesterday Mr. Markley's bill to make Saturday a legal half holiday during the entire year was favorably reported; also a bill to incorporate smoked meat firms. Among the bills introduced were: Appropriating $20,000 to prosecute violators of the laws against oleomargarine; to authorize adjoining boroughs to consolidate; to repeal portion of an act so as to withdraw from natural gas companies the right of eminent domain. The bill appropriating $163,600 for the re-equipment of the state militia was read for the third time and finally passed. It now goes to the house for concurrence. Among the bills introduced in the house were: To avoid blocking highways with snow by providing that wire fences shall be substituted for rail or board fences; for the prevention and punishment of fraud, stealing or embezzling by any officer, conductor or agent, or other person in the employment of any passenger railway company; amending the liquor license law by increasing the penalty against minors misrepresenting their age; to pro-hibit the killing of quail or Virgina partridges for three years; providing for the selection of a site and the erection of an institute of mining and mechanical engineering in the bituminous region. Both houses met at 9 o'clock this morning, and after transacting some routine business adjourned until Feb. 27 at 8 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA NEWS IN BRIEF. GREENSBURG, Feb. 20. - Mrs. Kate

Painter, the accused poisoner of her husband, was acquitted by the jury. LEBANON, Pa., Feb. 20.-Isaac Hoffer, the first mayor of Lebanon, died of pneumenia, aged 70 years. He was a well known and highly respected citizen, and a prominent member of the Masonic fraternity.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 21.-Martha Buchanau, aged 17 years, was burned to death yesterday at her home here. The girl was alone at the time, and it is thought attempted to extinguish a lamp by blowing down the chimney.

WILKESPARRE, Pa., Feb. 21.-There is no foundation in the report sent out that Banker Rocaafellow nad been arrested. Intimate friends of his say that he is losing his mind, and that an application will be made in court for the appointment of a commission in lunacy.

READING, Pa., Feb. 18,-A sensation was created here yesterday by the discovery of an additional shortage of $2,000 in in the accounts of ex-City Treasurer John Obold. Last week a shortage of $800 was found. To date the amount foots up to about $18,000.

MYERSTOWN, Pa., Feb. 18.-It has just been definitely ascertained that a man perished in the burning of Rev. H. J. Walker's barn near this place. The charred trunk has been found in the ruins. Who the man was is not known. It is supposed that he was a tramp who sought shelter in WILKESBARRE, Pa., Feb. 21.-The drivers and runners in the collieries of the Susquehanna Coal company at Nanticoke were reduced in their wages yesterday afternoon, and last night they met and discussed the advisability of striking, and will probably not return to work unless they are assured that the reduction will not be carried out.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 22.-The arguments for a new trial for Bauer and Nold, convicted of conspiracy and of being accessories to the shooting of H. C. Frick, was heard yesterday by Judge Stowe and Judge Slagle. At its close Judge Slagle said: "I shall carefully consider this matter, but unless I have made some errors in law I shall sustain the verdicts."

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Feb. 21.-William L. Stewart, aged 73 years, a prominent resident of this city, and superintendent of the Oliver powder mills at Laurel Run, dropped dead in the office of the Susque hanna Coal company at Nanticoke yester day. His ailment is supposed to have been heart disease. He was one of the best known Masons in this section of the state. PITTSBURG, Feb. 20.-John H. Neeb, senator from the Forty-second district died at his home in Allegheny, of dropsy. yesterday. Senator Neeb was born in Allegheny in 1851. He was managing editor and one of the owners of the Freiheit Freund. He has been influential in Republican politics since his twenty-first year. He was elected state senator in 1890, his term expiring in 1894.

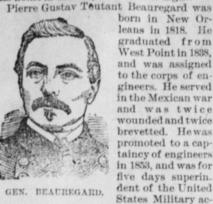

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—The steam barge Reliance, which sank yesterday off Block Island during the gale, was owned by the Philadelphia and Reading Coal company, and was bound from this port for Boston with a cargo of 1,500 tons of coal. The barge was commanded by Joseph B. Remington, and had an engineer and deck hand aboard besides the captain The three men were drowned. The barge was almost new and was valued at $50,000. WILKESBARRE, Pa., Feb. 18.-William Stoddart, assignee of the defunct banking house of F. V. Rockafellow & Co., give a brief statement that will bring sorrow to many a home where the savings of a life time have been swept away. The wreck is a complete one. The available assets amount to $37,737.13, while the liabilities will show $439,955.53. If the depositors realize from 8 to 10 per cent. after all ex-penses are paid they will be considered

HARRISBURG, Feb. 21,-The suspension of the Farmers' bank is the talk of the city. Colonel John Motter, a director, says the failure is due to the stock speculations of F. C. Fink, the cashier, who is alleged to be short about $40,000. The impairment of the capital has been made good, but until the assignee finishes his investigation the exact situation will not be known. The capital of the bank was $100,000 and the par value of the stock $60 a share.

GENERAL BEAUREGARD DEAD. He Was the Last of the Confederacy's Great Military Leaders.

FIFTY-THIRD CONGRESS. Condensed Report of Proceedings in

Senate and House. WASHINGTON, Feb. 16 .- In the senate yes terday the sundry civil appropriation bills (including the World's fair items) were disposed of, excepting the series relating to river and harbor improvements. The invalid pension bill monopolized the attention of the house, but there was no definite action taken. Washington, Feb. 17.—Yesterday's session of the senate was taken up with the consideration of the sundry civil appropriation bill. Senator Vest, of Missouri, charged the Republican party with dissipating the treasury surplus of a hundred millions. He criticised the unconstitutional annexation of the Ha-wailan islands. The house devoted its time to sonal collision between Turpin, of Alaban and Waugh, of Indiana, WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.-In the senate yesterday Mr. Sherman introduced an amendment to provide for the issue of 3 per cent. bonds to maintain the gold reserve. An adjournment came before the debate closed. The house passed the pension appropriation bill.
