FIRE IN CUMBERLAND.

Fifteen Places of Business, Seven Houses

and a Restaurant Destroyed. CUMBERLAND, Md., April 5.-A few minutes after 6 o'clock last evening, a fire supposed to be of incendiary origin, was discovered in a stable in an alleyway in the very heart of the city. . There were a number of wooden structures in this alleyway, and as the wind was blowing half a gale, the rear of the block was soon a seething mass of flames.

After six hours hard struggle the fire was finally gotten under control, having consumed six buildings on Mechanic street and seven buildings on Baltimore street. In all fifteen places of business, a boarding house and restaurant and seven dwelling houses were completely destroyed.

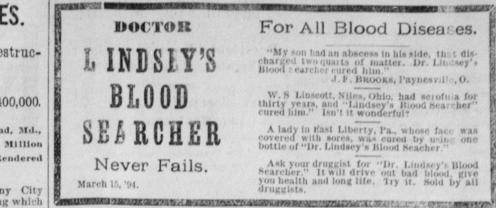

While the fire was at its heigth up town another was started by the careless dropping of a lighted match in a frame structure in the southern portion of the city. Twelve buildings were completely destroyed before this second fire was subdued. As nearly as can be estimated the total loss will foot up to $250,000.

HOLLIDAYSBURG, Pa., April 5 .- Reservoir mountain is a mass of flames, and the final outcome is problematical. There has been much destruction of farm property, and Pennsylvania railroad workmen are now fighting the flames. BETHLEBEM, Pa., April 5 .- Fierce mountain fires were raging last night in close proximity to St. Luke's hospital and Lehigh university park. The fire was started by tramps. Scores of men are out battling the flames and endeavoring to save valuable property.

A Man Ground to Pulp.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., April 5 .- A most hor rible accident occurred at the Henry Clay colliery yesterday, which resulted in a young man being ground to pieces. Benjamin Derk was in charge of the breaker rollers, it being his duty to see that no lumps of coal blocked them. He was in the act of putting a large piece of coal through the rollers when his foot slipped and in an instant it was between the cogs. Slowly his body was dragged into the machinery and ground to pieces.

A Useless Battle for Love.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 3.-Hugh Evans and David Morgan, young miners of Parsons, fought for two hours over a girl of whom both were enamored, Evans finally winning by knocking Morgan senseless. Both men were horribly cut up. The loser was to give up all claim to the girl. Within an hour after the fight the girl was quietly married to another.

The fire communicated with and destroyed the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg depot freight house and a store occupied by Leroy & Waldo as a grocery and feed store.

The firemen commenced searching in the ruins as soon as the embers cooled sufficiencly and the following bodies were recovered: ---- Pike, machinist, Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg shops; Frank Havelin, engineer, who came from Rochester to work for the railway, identified by railroad passes found on his person; Miss G. Bond and a child of Mrs. E. Tucker. Tom Cullen, a painter of Bradford, is missing and is undoubtedly another victim.

The Behring Sea Arbitration.

PARIS, April 5 .- The court of arbitration to pass upon the differences between Great Britain and America as to the seal fisheries in Behring sca, began its session yesterday in a large apartment in the office of the French foreign minister. Sir Charles Russell, counsel for Great Britain, opened the case by moving that the United States should furnish the report of Sir Henry Elliot on the Behring sea question. Messra. Phelps and Carter, for the United States, contended that the United States would be justified in refusing to produce the report asked for, but would produce it in order to remove the causes of British caviling.
