News Gathered from all Sections of the Commonwealth,

PITTSBURG, May 1 .- A large section on the hillside below the Holy Ghost college Boyd's Hill, gave way Saturday night and crushed two houses like eggshells. In one of them lived Solomon Kelly and his wife and four children. They had no chance to escape, and were buried by the falling walls. Seven-year-old Fannie was standing in front of the stove when the latter was overturned, and as the child was knocked down the hot coals were thrown all over her. She slowly roasted to death within a few feet of her parents, who could hear her piteous cries for help, but their own helpless condition prevented them from doing anything.

When the girl's body was found in the debris half of her head was burned away. The little blackened and mangled body presented a horrible appearance. A peculiar escape was that of the five-months-old baby, sleeping in its crib near the open door. The collapsed walls forced the cradle through the open doorway and beyond, throwing the baby out on the ground, but did it no injury.

Mr. Kelly and his wife were badly crushed and injured internally and may die. One of their two boys was also infured so badly that he cannot recover. The other was taken out with but a few

O UR LETTER FROM HARRISBURG.

What Has Been Done in the Legislature-

Other News from the Capital. HARRISBURG, May 3. This week's proceedings in the senate were started off by the governor returning to that body without his approval the bill passed appropriating money for the payment of postage on the Legislative Record.

A resolution was passed in both the senate and house calling upon the governor to appoint a committee to investigate the charges of brutality and immorality at the insane asylum at Warren.

Among other thingsof special importance that has transpired in the legislature lately is the report to the house of the sub-comcommittee on centennial affairs, appointed some time ago to enquire into the affairs of the World's Fair commission. A message from Governor Pattison was read in the house announcing his approval of the bill amending the marriage license act, which increases the number of counties where licenses can be secured by the contracting parties, and the bill fixing the first Saturday in September as Labor Day.

The governor's veto of two concurrent resolution for the creation of investigating committees to look into the state printing and to find out how many aliens are in the insane hospitals and the resolution relating to paying postage on the Legislative Record was sustained by the house by almost a unanimous vote.

The liveliest kind of times from now until final adjournment in the way of turn-ing out legislative business is promised by the lawmakers, and this promise will have to be realized if all of the work before both branches is gotten out of the way.

Dizzy, Faint, in Despair

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cured. "I have suffered very much during the past few years from Heart Trouble

Physicians said I might live a number of years. might die any day. I could usually tell when the worst attacks were coming on by feeling a sharp pain in the heart, then violent thumping, shortness of breath, followed by a coldness com ing all over me, then DIZZINESS, FAINTNESS, and then, unless I could lie down at once I would fall wherever I was. I never dared to be left alone for I had to have help at once and that applied with vigor. I could not do any work, even to sweeping, and had to be careful of the least excitement. I got very much discouraged at the outlook and thought

There Was No Hope

Of ever finding anything to help me. One day a friend asked, 'Why don't you try Hood's Sarsaparilla? I thought it over and decided to try it, and I thank God for it too. Since I began taking it, three years ago, I have had but one 'bad spell' and that was due to carelessness on my part, and from that I quickly recovered. I cannot bell you how much better I feel and how thankful I am. I feel as if I would like to tell every person in the world about it. I can and do now do all my housework, even to washing."
