

READING'S LOSSES WERE HEAVY.

Isaac L. Rice's Statement Says They Were Over $1,500,000. PHILADELPHIA, May 16.—Isaac L. Rice, who, under the regime of Mr. McLeod, was the foreign representative of the Reading Railroad Company, with offices in London, and who after the appointment of the receivers for the road, made an examination of the employee's books in the interest of the bondholders, last night made public the results of his examination of the Boston and Maine and New York and New England stock transactions.

DID IT FOR READING'S BENEFIT.

McLeod is Out With a Reply to I. L. Rice's Report. PHILADELPHIA, May 17.—Mr. McLeod has night made a lengthy reply to the implied censure of himself that was contained in I. L. Rice's report of the Boston and Maine and New York and New England stock deals, in which among other things he says: "Everything I did from the beginning to the end in the purchase of shares of the Boston and Maine Railroad Company, and of the New York and New England Railroad Company was done solely and exclusively for the purpose of insuring to the Philadelphia and Reading company for its benefit and not at all for my own, or the control necessary to accomplish this alliance."

THEY MUST NOT VIOLATE THE LAWS.

"We Sam May Not Allow the Fair to be Open Sundays. WASHINGTON, May 15.—The treasury department has not received any official notice of the action of the World's Fair commission on the Sabbath closing question, but Assistant Secretary Curtis, who has charge of all that matter, had a conference with Mr. Carlisle on the matter, and evidently prepared a plan for action, but he refuses to talk until some official notice is brought to the department.

A Freight Wreck on the Reading.

HAMBURG, May 17.—A freight wreck occurred yesterday on the Reading railroad at the sharp curve a short distance south of this station. A north-bound freight train ran into the rear end of a coal train, piling up a number of cars and wrecking them badly. The locomotive of the freight train was thrown down the embankment, and is now lying near the edge of a ravine. The crash was heard nearly a mile away. Engineer Frank Fry, of the freight train was slightly injured. He was taken to his home in Philadelphia.

Jumped From a Bridge to Death.

PITTSFIELD, Mass., May 17.—Mrs. Vernah E. Couch, aged 32, committed suicide by jumping from a bridge near her home into the Housatonic river. She left home early in the evening, during her husband's temporary absence, after putting her three children to bed. Mrs. Couch had been in a state of melancholy since the death of a little daughter a year ago.

Hall's Body Found in the River.

NEWBURGH, N. Y., May 17.—The body of Richard B. Hall was found in the river at Poughkeepsie. Hall's home was at Union Vale, Dutchess county. He made a trip to Poughkeepsie and was last seen in that city on April 6. The case has attracted much attention. Hall was a middle-aged man of considerable means, and he had quite a sum of money with him when last seen.

More Banks Suspend.

OTTAWA, Ill., May 13.—Richard J. Hornick, banker, merchant and speculator, of Grand Ridge, made an assignment yesterday to Laeri Hibbs and Caleb P. Porter. The cause of the assignment is given as a run on his bank, caused by the financial entanglement of his brother, his banker, John Hornick, of Sioux City, Iowa.

Indiana National Bank Claim.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 13.—The directors of the Capital National bank claim that there has been no loss on discounts and that no department has lost a dollar. The bank they say is more than solvent. They will ask the examiner to permit resumption after an examination.

Kokomo, Ind., May 13.—The bank on Greentown has closed its doors. The suspension is due to the suspension of the Chemical National bank, of Chicago.

Toledo, O., May 13.—The Ottawa county bank at Elmore, a branch of the Chicago Columbia, has closed its doors and the bank officials are not to be found.

Brookston, Ind., May 13.—The Commercial bank, of this place, has closed its doors.

THE GREAT BROOKLYN HANDICAP

Diablo Captures First Prize and Wins a Purse of $18,000. GRAVENSEND TRACK, May 16.—In the Brooklyn handicap yesterday Diablo showed a tremendous burst of speed on the home stretch and came in winner of first money after one of the most spirited exhibitions of racing ever witnessed on the Gravesend track.

The purse for the winner was $18,000. Lamplighter won second, and Lemanwell third, the two latter receiving respectively $5,000 and $2,000.

The great race was witnessed by more people than have ever turned out to a like event in the history of the track. There were admission tickets sold to 29,800 people and besides these there were at least 300 free tickets given out which would swell the crowd to fully 31,000 spectators.

The weather was beautiful throughout the entire day and betting on the result was at fever heat until the sixteen "spiketails" were off to try conclusions for the big purse.

The winner's time was 2:09, made fractionally as follows: Quarter, 35 1/4; half, 51; three-quarters, 1:16; mile, 1:42 1/2; mile and a quarter, 2:09. Diablo was an extreme "outsider" so far as betting was concerned.

PALLISTER PROBABLY SHOT DEAD.

What the Autopsy on the Dead Convict's Body Revealed. SING SING, N. Y., May 17.—The autopsy on the body of Pallister was completed yesterday afternoon. Dr. Irvine said that the cause of death was a pistol shot wound in the head.

The bullet was 32-calibre, and had passed through the cheek, under the left eye. It lodged in the base of the brain, which was in a ragged condition.

In the opinion of the two physicians Pallister was dead before reaching the water. The organs were in good condition, and the lungs were found to be inflated with air.

It is believed that the two physicians Pallister was dead before reaching the water. The organs were in good condition, and the lungs were found to be inflated with air.

How is this, Belle?

Bellefonte has voted to allow the cows the freedom of the streets. A town with no more enterprise than that probably has grass enough growing in its streets to afford pasture for a good-sized herd.

Unclaimed letters: Miss Sue E. Bullack, Robert Dixon, J. H. Jacobs, Miss Kate Jackson, Dr. S. L. Kistler, Lizzie Rossmann, Dan. B. Rider, J. H. Whitman & Co. When called for they advertised.

840 Found.

Mr. Editor:—California is a lovely country, the sick get well, the poor get rich, cyclones and frosts are practically unknown. A hundred to three hundred dollars per acre is made each year on fruits with irrigation. The California Land and Water Exchange, of Dayton, O., control large quantities of land in California, which they plant, cultivate, pay taxes for ten years, paying you $40 per acre as your part of the profit, they keeping the balance for the care and cultivation. They give an acre of land away with each certificate. All they ask you to do is to pay for irrigation, which can be done in small payments each month. They will send you the names of 90 persons who last year received from $25 to $500 on one year's investment. President Harrison says, "Half of the good things of California have not been told." The Hon. Jeremiah Rusk says, "Truly California is a poor man's paradise." To five-acreholders, the California Land and Water Exchange, of Dayton, O., give a free return ticket to view the property. Why should any one be poor when such a chance remains open and you do not have to do any labor or work. To get the profits and do not have to leave home. Write them to-day and get full particulars.

A Californian.
