News Gathered from all Sections of the Commonwealth,

ALTOONA, June 7 .- In the Blair county democratic convention, which met here yesterday, A. V. Divelly, of Altoona, and Hon. A. S. Landis, of Hollidaysburg, were placed in nomination for president judge. A dispute cose over a decision given by the committee on credentials, whereupon the Divelly delegation retired from the

The Landis delegation then unanimously nominated their candidate. More disputes arose than at any other similar meeting ever given in the county. Several of the Divelly men who remained in the room got up and stated that they would not sanction the Landis nomination. For more than an hour it was impossible for Chairman Thomas McKiernan to keep order in the house.

Media, June 5 .- A trolley car on the Media and Chester line ran into a lot of cattle instantly killing two cows and a bull. The cattle were not seen by the motorman until a moment before they were struck. They were walking up the track in a line, with their heads toward the approaching car. The car was thrown off the track and ditched. There were only five passengers aboard, and none of them were hurt. The cattle killed belonged to Rufus Ingram, a neighboring farmer, and had broken out of a field near where the accident occurred.

LANCASTER, June 5 .- Dr. S. E. Weber, who has been investigating the flea or louse plague in the northern part of the county, was summoned to Washington for conference with Secretary of Agriculture Morton and Professor Riley, of the Entomological bureau.

There is no doubt that the plague is spreading in the country and is growing in seriousness. At Petersburg the insects have been discovered in a tobacco warehouse, and a number of people have been deprived of work in consequence. Dr. Weber has been advised of their presence in two more houses in East Earl.

READING, June 6 .- In the equity pro ceedings brought by Mrs. Angeline Fox, widow of Adam Fox, against the children of her late husband by a former marriage, a decision has just been rendered in favor of Mrs. Fox, awarding her property of the value of $5,000. The decedent devised his property to his children, but his widow claimed that certain real estate did not belong to her husband, but was her separate property acquired by her personal earnings.

The writ of quo warranto asked for by ttorney General Hensel against the Tracion Company and the Union Passenger failway Company, of Philadelphia, will not be argued for some time, defendants naving thirty days in wihch to answer.

Two years ago the house appropriation mmittee had referred to it 234 bills, inlying an expenditure of $26,480,523.26. f these 66 were negatived and the comnittee granted a total sum of $20,341,-41.20, reducing the demands $5,138, 81.97. This session Chairman Marshall's ommittee received 282 bills and 84 were egatived. The original total was $36, 21,732,15, but the committee scaled this lown to $22,146,733.36, a cut of $14,774, 998.69. As it stands now, with the addi ional appropriation to the schools, the stimate of the committee has not been ex-seeded more than $10,000. It is the governor's intention to dispose of the bills as apidly as possible. Governor pattison has made the followppointments: Eastburn Reeder, of New lope, Bucks county, to be dairy and tood commissioner, under the State board of agriculture; Robert Watchorn, to be facfory inspector; Christian Heydrick, Venango; Norman Hall, Mercer; George A lenks, Jefferson; George Guthrie, Alle-gheny, and ex-Mayor W. Horace Rose, ambria, to be commissioners to select a site for the Western Pennsylvania Instituion for Feeble-Minded Children. As presilent of the State board of agriculture, the governor is empowered to appoint the dairy and food commissioner. It is claimed by the state administration that under the provisions of the new act relating to the employment and safety of women and children in manufacturing establishments, shildren in manufacturing establishments, and the appointment of inspectors to enforce the same, the governor has the right to appoint a factory inspector at once, and he re-appointed Robert Watchorn, who was rejected by the senate, and over whom the senate and governor had some trouble. Under the new act Watchorn's salary a doubled from $1,500 to $3,000 per year. He is given $4,000 for expenses and will appoint twelve deputies instead of six under the old act. ## DR. MORITZ SALM,

This eminent Physician has devoted a lifetime to his specialty-diseases of the Nose, Eye, Ear, Lung, Throat, and chronic Diseases.

The Doctor has been for years professor and lecturer in several of our largest medical colleges and earned great fame as an authority and author on all subjects concerning his specialty.

WILL BE AT THE BUSH HOUSE, BELLEFONTE, PA. on Saturdays of the following dates: May 20; June 17; July 15; August 12; Sep. 9; Oct. 7; Nov. 4; Dec. 2nd.

He will visit this county EVERY FOUR WEEKS, thus saving his patients the trouble and expense of visiting the city, as he is the only physician and surgeon in the country who carries his own manikins, models, diagrams, etc., to illustrate and make plain to all afflicted the cause and nature of their disease. This will give his numerous patients and others who are in need of medical treatment an opportunity to consult this distinguished physician, whose duties at the institute will permit only of monthly visits to your community.
