Commonwealth, RIDGWAY, June 23 .-- The Ridgway bank, a private institution, yesterday posted the following notice on its doors:

'Owing to the present depressed financial situation, rendering it impossible to realize on securities of any kind, and, therefore, being unable to meet all ouligations, we have decided that it is for the best interests of all creditors of the Ridgway bank to close its doors. We believe the assets to be in excess of the liabilities, and that all depositors will be paid in full as soon as the assets can be realized. full statement will be given to the public as soon as the same can be prepared.

The notice was signed by D. C. Oyster, president, and I. D. Bell, cashier. A gentleman, who was in close consultation with the officials of the bank during the night, estimates the assets at $364,000 and the liabilities at $216,000. This bank had the confidence of the working people, many of whom have all their wealth in the bank's care.

Easton, June 26.—The following resolu-tions were adopted Saturday afternoon at the meeting of the Bar Association of Northampton county relative to the death of Congressman Mutchler:

"The members of this association have learned with profound regret of the death of Hon. William Mutchler, our fellowmember, and offer this tribute to his memory. His was a life of unusual influence and prominence, and his death is a marked loss to the bar, society and the country. Mild in manner and retiring in disposition, yet his life was an aggressive force, far-reaching and beneficial. Gentle and conciliatory in all his acts, yet in his influence strong and assertive.

"As a citizen he was a living good to his community; as a representative a strength to his party and a benefactor to his country; as a lawyer clear, faithful and profound; as a man honorable, courteous, kind-hearted and true. To his friends a living pleasure; to the community a constant benefit; to the bar deservedly an ornament, his death is a public loss.

KANE, June 26 .- The second section of freight train No. 59 was wrecked about six miles west of here. Four sailors who were en route from Baltimore to Erie were stealing a ride in a box car, and two of the number, Harry Tray and John Stewart, of Philadelphia, were instantly killed, the former's body being literally ground to atoms. J. Kennedy, of Hartford, Conn., and Thomas Nolan, of Baltimore, were seriously hurt, but may recover.

The men had been shipped from Baltimore to join their boat at Erie, but at Renovo they stopped over and spent all the money provided for their car fare at a bar and chose to steal transportation to their lestination rather than walk. Fifteen cars were totally wrecked and the tracks were blocked for several hours. The accident was caused by the breaking of a wheel on WEST CHESTER, June 24 .- A delicate urgical operation was performed upon Miss Ella Manley, of this borough. cently she hit her head with a batchet, which caused a bruise, but no rupture of the skin.
