

BAD CONVICTS REVOLT

Many of Them Make a Bold Break For Liberty.

KEEPERS MURDEROUSLY ATTACKED

The Iowa, Mich., Reformatory the Scene of a Bloody Battle—Three Convicts Killed and Several of the Prison Officials Dangerously Wounded.

DETROIT, July 11.—A special despatch from Ionia, Mich., says:

Fully 75 convicts at the House of Correction made a break for liberty yesterday afternoon. They were at work in the various shops. The first 10 or 15 left their work and started for the west wall.

The ringleader was convict William Smith, known as 808, a five-year man sent up from Detroit. Smith has lost time before, having made an attempt to escape a year ago last September, and he is a tough character.

Thirteen have been at work on shop No. 21 about 10 rods from the west wall repairing conductor pipes. Two long ladders were used and were standing against the building.

Smith started out and was followed by the others who were in the shop. He quickly clasped the ladder standing against the west wall.

Warden Parcell had discovered that something was brewing over Sunday, and had doubled the guards yesterday morning. Teacher Gourley was watching around in the vicinity of this building and when he saw Smith and the gang come out he fired a shot from his revolver into the ground and ordered them back. Smith urged them on, paying no attention to the order.

The men on the wall and about the yard quickly assembled at this point and were ordered by Warden Parcell to stop the break. A general fusillade commenced and a hand-to-hand fight followed.

The leaders were knocked down but the convicts replaced them, and Oscar Miller, an eight-year man, gained the top of the wall.

The guard shot at him and the ball went clear through his body and he dropped to the ground dead. In the meantime a terrible battle was going on below. Convict Smith struck at Deputy Warden Rowley with a hammer, but the latter dodged and escaped death. Rowley struck convict Charles F. Jones on the head and he dropped.

He will doubtless die, as his head is terribly cut. William Eager, sent from Grand Rapids, was badly wounded and his recovery is doubtful. He is serving a 15 year sentence for manslaughter. Smith, another convict, brought into play a long Billy made out of sheepskin, loaded with sand. This with three hammers, a large wrench and a round stone were afterwards taken from the leaders in the break.

How they got them is a mystery. Teacher Gourley was struck on the head with the stone which was hurled at him. It grazed his skull but did not seriously injure him.

It was only by prompt action that the wholesale liberation of the convicts was averted. Hallmaster Parcell grabbed up the hot irons used by some local tinners and commenced prodding the convicts, who ran back.

Four convicts were injured. Jones has concussion of the brain, and Smith, the leader, was found to have a bad cut on the back of the head.

On seeing the first ten follow Smith out of the shop the rest followed until they were driven back.

NARROWLY ESCAPED LYING

Murderer Bamberger Has a Close Shave For His Life.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 11.—A Cando, N. D., special to the Journal says:

Albert Bamberger, the young murderer who killed Ben Kreider, his wife and four children on Friday, narrowly escaped lynching here last evening. He had been caught at De Lorraine, Manitoba, a few miles from the border, and agreed to come back with Sheriff McCune, of Ramsey County, without extradition papers. The sheriff and his prisoner arrived here yesterday.

A mob of determined men were waiting for him with the fixed plan of hanging the murderer to the nearest telegraph pole. But Sheriff McCune had been amply warned of the danger and was equally determined to get his prisoner through this (Towner) county, into Ramsey.

He chose a circuitous route and succeeded in eluding a mob.

It is a question, though, whether Bamberger is any safer in Ramsey county than he would have been here, as there is the wildest excitement over his bloody crime.

Only 71 1-2 Cents Per Ounce Offered by the Government for the White Metal. The Offer Not Accepted.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—The Treasury department yesterday again arrayed itself firmly against the silver brokers. It was the customary day for making the proportional purchase of silver on the July account, and 488,900 ounces were offered. The prices asked ranged from 71 to 75 cents.

They were regarded as too high by Acting Director Preston, who made a counter proposition offering 71 1-2 cents per ounce.

That is one half cent less than the department paid for its silver last week, and apparently the silver men are reluctant to come to these terms, for up to the close of office hours no acceptances were received.
