

ECKELS' CONFIDENCE.

The Comptroller of the Currency on the Money Question.

THERE NEED BE NO FEAR OF PANIC.

The Existing Condition of Affairs the Result of Unwise Legislation and Undue Speculation—Nothing to be Gained by Taking a Fright That is Unwarranted.

NEW YORK, July 19.—Comptroller of the Currency James H. Eckels was a guest of his predecessor, ex-Comptroller A. B. Hepburn, at dinner at the Union League club last evening. The gathering of so many of the leading financiers of the country at this particular time, and the presence in this city of the comptroller of the currency, attracted much attention, and the meeting between Mr. Eckels and the bankers was regarded more as a conference on the monetary situation and the prospective measures for its relief than for a purely social gathering.

President George C. Williams, of the Chemical National bank and president of the Clearing House association, presided. Mr. Williams made a short speech introducing Mr. Eckels, who spoke as follows: "The condition which confronts the American people is one that deserves the thoughtful attention of every citizen who has at heart the interests of the country. It is not a time of panic, because we have passed the period in our history when a panic is a possibility, but it is one of a slow liquidation, the result of undue speculation and unwise financial legislation. Nothing is to be gained by taking on a fright that is unwarranted by either the immediate past or the immediate future. "What the American people ought to do in the midst of the failures that have occurred is not to give way to uncalled for alarm, but to study the character of the institutions which have failed, the causes which have produced them, and the local and nationalities in which they have occurred. After such a study let them view the solvent institutions everywhere about them, and the conclusion that must irresistibly follow is that the legitimate life of the country is not threatened, but instead will come out of the present turmoil the stronger for having passed through it.

"In conservative business centers the failures have been few, either in banking or other lines. Bad banking at any and all times is dangerous, and must inevitably bring disaster upon those who engage in it. The present stringency has simply hastened the closing of some banks because they were inherently weak, others have closed as a resultant effect of having kept alive the operations of speculators in the extreme west and in portions of the south. The art has not as yet been discovered of making something out of nothing, and the financier who stakes his all upon an unbuild city reaching out into the waste places of the earth must bring about the ruin of his own and kindred institutions which have trusted in him and pinned their faith to assets yet unborn.

"Let those who have so long transacted business with the banking institutions have sufficient confidence in them to know and feel that if in years past they have proved safe, that they are likely to do so in the present emergency. Run upon banks but destroy the interest which otherwise would be protected, and those who indulge in them cause to come about the thing which they say they wish to avert. In conclusion permit me to say that I indulge neither in extravagance of speech or undue flattery when I say that the course followed by the banks of this great city throughout the stress has been such as to commend them to the good wishes of every citizen of the republic. There has been displayed a wisdom that has met every emergency, and the safe financial condition on the part of the banks has been a constant source of inspiration to all the country."

Dempsey Convicted by Jury.

PITTSBURGH, July 15.—Patrick J. Gallagher and J. M. Davidson, who are serving terms in the western penitentiary for self confessed complicity in the alleged poisoning of the non-union workmen in the Homestead mill, have made another confession, in which they swear that they were paid to swear away the liberty of Hugh F. Dempsey and Robert J. Beatty, both of whom they now assert were innocent of the crime of which they were convicted. They further state that so far as they know there was no poison administered to the men in the Homestead mill. Gallagher's confession is written by himself and sworn to before Squire S. D. White, of Haysville. Davidson's was given verbally in the presence of witnesses.

Murdered While Asleep.

RICHMOND, Va., July 19.—A special dispatch from Dublin, Va., says that Mrs. Nancy Taylor, while asleep beside her baby, had her brains beaten out with an ax. Children of the family testified that their parents had quarreled a great deal of late, and that their father had threatened to kill their mother. Taylor was held by the coroner's jury and committed to jail.

Death of a Famous Chief.

PINE RIDGE AGENCY, July 17.—Young-Man-Afraid-of-His-Horses, the head chief of the whole Sioux nation, dropped dead at Newcastle, Wyo. By his death without descendants, the mantle of chieftain falls on Little Wound. Young-Man-Afraid-of-His-Horses was a great friend of the government, as was proved by his actions in the outbreak at this agency in 1890-91.

A Convict Earns His Freedom.

DANEMARA, N. Y., July 15.—A convict at Clinton prison disclosed a plan of long term convicts to escape, which plan included the murder of several guards. On receiving corroborative evidence of the truth of his statement Governor Flower promptly pardoned the man, a four year prisoner, whose name is withheld.

Congressman Beckbridge Married.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 19.—Congressman W. C. P. Beckbridge, of Lexington, Ky., was married last evening to Mrs. Louise Scott Wing, widow of the late Hon. Ramsey Wing, who was appointed minister to Ecuador in 1864 by President Lincoln.

The President's Fishing Trip.

NEWPORT, R. I., July 19.—E. C. Benedict's steam yacht Oneida paid another unexpected visit to these waters last night with President Cleveland on board. It is probable that the cruise will end today.

THE IRON SCALE DISPUTE.

The Amalgamated Association and Manufacturers Fail to Adjust a Scale.

PITTSBURGH, July 19.—The failure of the Amalgamated Association and manufacturers' conferences to reach a settlement of the wage scale and the ending of all conferences has rendered the situation more than critical. As a result of the disagreement union mills, or at least those that paid union rates in the past, will continue closed or resume operations on a non-union basis. It is stated that it is not probable that any of the manufacturers will attempt to start their works for at least four, and probably six, weeks. In the meantime thousands of iron workers will be forced to seek employment elsewhere or remain idle. The Amalgamated Association will now have its modified scale printed and present it to individual firms for signature. President Garland said today that the situation does not now assume the aspect of a strike, and will not until the mill owners order a resumption on terms of their own making. The workers do not anticipate that this will be done and believe that the manufacturers will sign the scale as soon as they are ready to resume. The financial situation, together with small collections, has had much to do with the failure to reach a settlement at present.

Miss Kreider Seriously Ill.

HARRISBURG, July 18.—A friend of the family in this city says that Annie Kreider, whose parents and four brothers and sisters were murdered in Dakota last week, will probably lose her mind. She is now at her grandfather's, near Elizabethtown, and her condition is pitiable. She has slept little since the tragedy, and cannot eat. The attending physician is of the opinion that she will not recover, and if she does, that her mind will be shattered. A brother of the murdered man, who lives at Conowingo, Lancaster county, left for Dakota to superintend the harvesting of the crop and the sale of the property for the benefit of the surviving children. It is believed now that the reason Bomber did not kill Annie and the two little ones was because his ammunition was exhausted.

A Pipe in His Abdomen.

READING, July 19.—William Abraham, aged 14 years, son of August Abraham, was taken to the Reading hospital with an inch and a quarter pipe sticking in his abdomen. While at work in the pipe mill of the Reading Iron company the pipe, which comes from the machine red hot, caught in his clothing and began boring into his body, he being pinned between it and a wall. The pipe entered his abdomen several inches before help came and the machine was stopped. The pipe was subsequently taken out by means of an operation. The boy's condition is critical.

Lehigh Valley Employees Will Appeal.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 17.—A secret meeting was held yesterday afternoon in the armory here by the grievance committee and many of the employees of the Lehigh Valley Railroad company. Vice President Voorhees' letter was again discussed and reports were read from committees on the Geneva, Ithaca and Sayre railroad, a branch of the Lehigh Valley. It is learned that the men have decided to send another committee to confer with the Reading officials and endeavor to have them reconsider their action before taking any further steps.

Fatal Accident in a Tunnel.

PITTSBURGH, July 17.—Engine 139, of the Pittsburg and Western road, ran into a mass of stone at the mouth of tunnel No. 1, near Unterluff station, completely wrecking the engine and six cars and fatally injuring Engineer Frank Balley, Fireman John O'Neill, of the same train, and Engineer Charles Angell, of westbound train No. 25, were both badly hurt. The roof of the tunnel had caved in, depositing many tons of rock on the track.

Four Times Bitten by a Snake.

DERRY STATION, July 19.—Miss Annie Brant, a daughter of George Brant, who lives at the entrance of Ridgeview Park, two miles east of here, was bitten four times by a copperhead snake. Miss Brant stepped into the kitchen when the snake bit her twice in each foot. Bandages were applied to her ankles and whisky given, but all efforts to produce sleep have failed, and the young lady struggles violently. It is feared that she cannot recover.

Valuable Breaker Destroyed.

SHAMOKIN, July 19.—During a violent rain and wind storm last evening Royal Oak breaker, owned by the Reading Coal and Iron company, and operated by Kautner & Lewis, was blown down and totally destroyed. The structure stood on the side of a hill along the railroad, which was strewn with debris. A gang of men cleared the road for through trains. The colliery was idle the time of the collapse, and no one was injured.

Charged with a Heinous Crime.

WEST CHESTER, Pa., July 19.—The knowledge of a heinous crime having been committed here several days ago has just come to light. J. A. Davis was arrested on the charge of committing an outrageous assault upon the 14-year-old daughter of Isaac Smiley. Davis is a sewing machine agent here, a comparative stranger, and has a wife. He denies the charge entirely.

Fatal Explosion of Oil.

PITTSBURGH, July 15.—Mrs. Jane McVerry was fatally burned by an explosion of oil, which she was pouring into the kitchen stove to start a fire. Her 2-year-old child was also terribly burned, but will recover. Two young lady visitors, Emma Dean and Minnie Hamilton, made narrow escapes from the flames. They were all removed from the burning building by the firemen.

Fatal Explosion at Towanda.

TOWANDA, Pa., July 18.—The boiler in the Towanda nail works exploded last evening. Largest Electric Road in the State.

THE FIRE AT THE FAIR.

Director of Works Burnham Held for Criminal Negligence.

FIRE CHIEF MURPHY ALSO HELD.

The Two Fair Officials, with President Skinner and Secretary McDonald, of the Cold Storage Company, Must Stand Trial for Indirect Responsibility.

CHICAGO, July 19.—After its prolonged investigation the coroner's jury investigating the World's fair cold storage calamity reached a verdict at 5:30 last evening. The hearing of the evidence was concluded at 3:35 p. m., when Coroner McHale gave the cases to the jury.

The jury reached its conclusion much more quickly than the time they were out would indicate, as there were sixteen deaths, the causes of which they were called to consider, and each represented a separate case. The verdict was the same in all cases, and read as follows:

"We, the jury, find that the deceased came to their deaths from injuries and burns received at a fire of the Cold Storage building at the World's fair grounds on July 10, 1903; and we the jury, find from the evidence presented that Charles A. McDonald, John B. Skinner, D. H. Burnham and Edward W. Murphy, be held to the grand jury for criminal negligence, and there held until discharged by the course of law."

Director of Works Burnham, President Skinner, of the Hercules Iron company, and Secretary McDonald, of the same company, are held responsible for the flimsy construction of the building, while Chief Murphy, of the World's fair fire department, is charged with incompetent handling of his men at the fire.

Director of Works Burnham said: "This is a great surprise to me. I was never officially notified of the unsafe condition of the Cold Storage tower, and Engineer Shanklin never reported the tower as dangerous."

The men appeared in court at 10 o'clock this forenoon and gave bail for their appearance when wanted. The paid admissions at the World's fair yesterday were 98,671.

Terrific Tornado in Italy.

ROME, July 19.—A tornado swept down suddenly on Voghera and Costeggio, in Piedmont. Hundreds of buildings were wrecked. In one section of Voghera hardly a house was left standing. Not a structure in either town was left intact. Hundreds of persons were injured. The number of dead is not known, as the bodies are buried in the ruins. Only seven bodies have been recovered. The military have been called out to help in the work of rescue, and ambulance corps have been sent from nearby cities. Voghera is a manufacturing city with some 10,000 inhabitants. Costeggio, which is five miles from it, has about 4,000 inhabitants.

Weekly Crop Report.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The weekly crop report of the weather bureau states that the warm, dry weather has been especially favorable for harvest work and haying, which is well under way as far north as southern Minnesota. Some injury has resulted to crops in Kentucky, Tennessee and parts of Illinois, owing to the hot, dry weather, and rain is generally needed east of the Mississippi in Texas and in the upper Mississippi valley. Corn is reported in excellent condition in most states. The cotton crop is improving, except in South Carolina and Texas, although the plant is small.

China Refuses to Make Reparation.

SHANGHAI, July 19.—The government has refused to make reparation for the killing of two Swedish missionaries by a mob in Maching three weeks ago. Foreigners in Hankow and Shanghai have called mass meetings to urge the European powers to compel China to respect her treaties and punish the vicery and the city authorities in which the murders were committed. The situation promises trouble.

Revolt Charge Against Man and Wife.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 19.—Charles McGuire and wife, foreman and forewoman at the lace factory in this city, were committed to the county prison without bail. The former was charged with committing rape upon a girl named Katie Kelly, aged 15 years, his wife assisting him in forcing the crime. The details of the case are the most horrible on record.

Overcome in a Gas Well.

TORONTO, Ont., July 19.—Natural gas was struck near Newton Brook, Ont. William Holmes, at work in the well fifty feet below the surface, signaled that he was in trouble, and a man named Sharp descended to search for him. Here You Are.

Tell us not in idle jingle, marriage is an empty dream, for a girl is dead that's single, and things are not what they seem. "Life is real, life is earnest, single blessedness a fib." Man thou art, to man rethence, has been spoken of the rib. Not enjoyment and not sorrow, is our destined end or way, but to act that each to-morrow finds us nearer marriage day. Life is long and youth is fleeting, and our hearts though light and gay, still life's pleasant drams are beating wedding marches all the day. In the world's broad field of battle, in the bivouac of life, be not like dumb driven cattle—be a heroine—a wife. Trust no future, however pleasant, let the dead past bury its dead; act in living present, heart within and hope ahead. Lives of married folks remind us we can live our lives as well, and departing leave behind us examples that any other wasting time in idle sports, a forlorn, unmarried brother seeing, shall take heart and court. Let us then be up and doing with a heart on triumph set; still contriving, still pursuing and each one a husband get.

$500 FOUND.

The Review of Reviews says in the June number, "A woman in California last year made over $2,700 on fruit raising. Another lady bought land for $75 per acre and her land is now worth $2,000 per acre. E. M. Nivens says that his pig yield him $1,000 per acre. J. S. Dore says his tree net him $711 per acre.

The California Land and Water exchange, of Dayton Ohio, have the name of 90 persons who have after one year's purchase received sums as high as $500 profit.

They give you 5 acres of land free if you will buy for water and irrigating it. On these 5 acres they give a written guarantee to plant, cultivate, pay the taxes, and pay your pay your $200 profit as your half raised on the land.

They have as their purchasers doctors, judges, widows, orphans and clergymen.

They give you free return ticket to go to California on the harvest of any crop. They will plant the land this year and pay you a profit next year. They give references from banks, newspapers and officers in Dayton. Last year the same manager paid $5,000 to persons who bought the year before. This land with irrigation, will grow oranges, figs, lemons, olives, in fact, any fruits that is grown in any portion of the world. They only sell 5 acres and hold the other 5 acres themselves—they do not make any charge for the land. Your first payment is $22. If you send $22 we will send you the necessary papers and then you can pay $1 per month for a short time—depending how much is wanted.

Ex-President Harrison speaks very highly of California; ex-Secretary J. Rusk and ex-Postmaster General Wainman, during their visit to California speaks very highly in its favor. If you remit $22, the first payment, you will get into the 1884 planting and 1884 profit list, as they will pay a profit in December of next year. Do not let the opportunity go by, for it is surely a great opening for a person who wants a lasting income without any risk. You do not have to go on the land. They take care of it for 20 years. It is near railroad level, in the eastern portion of San Diego Co. California land bought to-day will, with irrigation, be worth $500 in three years to come.
