PRESENTED IN BRIEFEST FORM.

Crimes and Casualties of Every Character Sent by the News Gatherers of the Different Localities and Carefully

SCRANTON, July 24.—Saturday was pay day at the mines at Priceburg, a populous borough of this county, and the Huns and Poles of the town, and there are hundreds of them there, began to drink heavily. At night a Hun and a Pole engaged in a fight in Bryan Fallon's saloon, and their countrymen took sides with them, a free fight resulting. The borough police arrested four Hungarians and lodged them in the Priceburg jail. The Hungarians held an indignation meeting and then proceeded in a body to the jail, where they overpowered the keeper and liberated the prisoners. This caused the largest riot that has occurred in this region in sixteen years. The Poles took exception, and a race war commenced, lasting three hours, during which there was a reign of terror. all the saloons in the town being taken session of and the officers driven off, Over thirty men were injured, three fatally, and one Pole had his ears cut off. Many windows were broken in with stones and clubs. Shortly before midnight Deputy Sheriff Craig arrived with a well armed posse and overawed the rioters and restored peace. Many arrests will follow.

An Ex-County Official in Trouble. WEST CHESTER, July 24.-Ex-Recorder of Deeds Richard Plank, of Uwchlan township, is in trouble. A few weeks ago he left his home and family, it was alleged, with a Mrs. Myers, of the same township. He returned in a very impecunious condi-tion, and was arrested on the charge of adultery preferred by Mr. Myers. He was taken before Squire McClintock, when he waived a hearing and gave security for his appearance at the next term of quarter sessions.

Death in a Sand Pit.

SCHUYLKILL HAVEN, July 22 .- The dead body of Harry Alfred Koch, aged 16, of this place, was found at the side of a sand pit, near Connor's crossing. His distorted features and the condition of things in the pit indicated plainly a heavy fall of sand while he was shoveling to the surface, which caught and covered him. Struggling in the agony of suffocation, he suc ceeded in releasing himself and reaching the surface only to expire.

A Blacksmith's Rich Find.

PITTSBURG, July 24 - James Keenan, 4 Duquesne Heights blacksmith, is a lucky He lives at 21 Meridan street, in the old Kirk Lewis mansion. This property was originally owned by Dr. J. G. Walters, an eccentric character. Mr. Keenan was doing some excavating about the place and he struck a rich find. Deep down into the earth an iron kettle was found nearly full of gold. There was $3,000 in Too Handy with Scissors. READING, July 25 .- Mrs. John Dedera is held at the police station on the charge of cutting her husband in the side with a pair of scissors. She does not deny the charge, but claims that she was angry at the time and did not know what she was doing The occurrence grew out of a quarrel be tween the young couple over the frequent visits of a fellow countryman, who was a former boarder in the family.

Two Brothers Drowned.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., July 24.—While three brothers, George, Willie and Lewis Schray, aged 13, 11 and 6 years respectively, sons of George A. Schray, were sitting along the banks of the Lehigh river in this city yesterday Willie toppled into the stream. The other brothers in trying to rescue him also fell into the river. Assistance came and Willie was reseated. His two brothers were drowned.

Death Beneath a Farm Wagon. NORRISTOWN, July 25.—William Gra-ham, employed on the stock farm of Samuel P. Ralph, in Plymouth township, fell off of a wagon load of oats, the wheels of the wagon passing over his breast fracturing several of his ribs, which penetrated his lungs, producing inward hemor rage and almost instant death. Miners Go on Strike.

HAZLETON, July 24,-The miners employed at the Beaver Meadow colliery. operated by the Evans Mining company, struck to enforce the semi-monthly pay If you want a nice juicy steak go to law. The situation has two sides, how ever, and from present indications is likely to resolve itself into a shutout.

Children Played with Matches. LANCASTER, July 24 .- While some children were playing with matches yesterday afternoon they set fire to the residence of Silas K. Eshleman, near Lemon Place. The house, barn, outbuildings and contents were destroyed. The loss is over

$6,000; insurance light. Locusts Destroying Chestnut Trees. MORGANTOWN, July 22.-Hundreds of acres of chestuut trees on the Welsh mountain are dying from the stings of locusts. These insects have been very numerous and destructive this season. Crushed by a Traveling Crane. SCRANTON, July 24.—Joseph Kelly, a painter, was caught between the wheels of a traveling crane and an iron column and almost instantly killed in the Dickson Manufacturing Company works.

Fatal Explosion of Gas. POTTSVILLE, July 24.-A terrible explo sion of sulphur gas occurred at the Will-iamstown colliery, in which Charles Mc-Millen was killed and his brother George fatally injured.

Burned to Death in a Coal Mine. Towen Cirv, July 25.—Charles Mc-Mullin single, aged 20 years, was burned to a crisp by an explosion of gas in the Williamstown coal mine.

FOUR FATALLY INJURED.

An Explosion of Mine Gas Causes Sad Ravec at Edwardsville,

WILKESBARRE, July 22.—An awful ex-plosion took place in No. 4 shaft of the Kingston coal company, at Edwardsville, yesterday afternoon. A gang of men were at work driving a slope, when a naked lamp came in contact with a large body of gas. A shock of the explosion tore away that the state of the explosion tore away that the explosion tore away the state of the explosion tore away that the explosion tore away the explosion to the explosion tore away the explosion to the explo timbers, smashed mine cars, and horribly burned three men and one boy, who are not expected to recover.

The injured are: William Jones, miner, aged 43 years, widower with two children; Martin Brennan, driver boy, aged 16 years; Benjamin Wilson, miner, aged 40, wife and six children, and Patrick Malia, aged 46 years, wife and four children.

A rescuing party in charge of Superintendent Rosser went to the assistance of the victims, who were hurriedly brought to the surface. The flesh upon young Brennan and William Jones was literally cooked, and presented a sickening sight. The mine is very gaseous, an explosion hav-ing occurred at the same place some three weeks ago, in which several men were badly burned.

KINGSTON, Pa., July 24.-Three of the four victims of Friday's explosion in the Kingston Coal company's mine, William B. Jones, Matthew Brennan and Fatrick O'Malla, are dead. The fourth, Benjamin Wilson, cannot survive.

A Woman Mysteriously Shot.

WERNERSVILLE, July 26 .- Miss Tamsen Yoh, a servant employed at the Belle Alto House, a summer resort near this place, was shot and perhaps fatally wounded by an unknown person. Miss Yoh was at work on an outside porch, when suddenly there was a report of a gun and she was seen to throw up her hands. She fell back upon the porch. A hasty examination showed that a charge of shot had entered her left breast above the heart, causing a ghastly wound. The shot came from the direction of a woodshed. This was searched, and a gun was found lying upon a beach, but the person who had fired it was missing. The woman was reported to be dying at last accounts.

Tried to Hang Their Companion, READING, July 26 .- The suburb of West Reading was thrown into a fever of excitement by the report that a number of men were attempting to hang another to a telegraph pole. Sheriff Fahrenbach found a number of hard looking fellows, who were under the influence of liquor, dragging along by a wife around his beck a companion, with the intention, as they said, of hanging him. He arrested Charles Morris and John McManus, the latter still having the wire around his neck. The other members of the gang made their escape upon seeing the approach of the officers, but warrants have been issued for Fulton County Republican Ticket. McConnellsburg, July 26.-The Fulton county Republican convention nominated the following ticket: For associate judge, Jonathan W. Clevenger; prothonotary, Harry K. Markley; commissioners, Amos C. Palmer and A. N. Corbin; auditor, John H. Barney. Abel O. Griffith was elected delegate to the state convention, with instructions to vote for Hon. John Stewart for supreme judge. Dr. A. D. Dalbey was elected chairman of the county committee for the ensuing year.

Accidentally Shot His Mother.

READING, July 25 .- Mrs. Ellen Stout, a widow, of Cumru township, was engaged in rearranging the drawers of a bureau, when in one she found a revolver, which was rusty from long disuse. She laid the weapon on a shelf, intending to clean it later. Her son Charles, 15 years of age, picked up the revolver, and while exam-ining it it was discharged, the ball entering his mother's right side and lodging in her abdomen. She is not expected to re-

Destructive Barn Fire.

NORRISTOWN, July 25. - The barn of Charles S. Knapp, of Montgomery Square, was destroyed by fire with all its contents, including four valuable horses, its contents, including four valuable horses, the crops from a productive farm, and a large quantity of farm machinery. A half dozen pigs, which were kept in a sty adjoining the barn, also perished. The barn was stored to the roof with wheat, hay, oats and other farm crops.

The Gettysburg Trolley Stopped.

GETTYSBURG, Pa., July 25.-The Electric Railway company yesterday stopped work on the battlefield and discharged the construction corps. Railshad been laid within a short distance of the "den." This move is presumed to be owing to the notification of the United States commission that the railway must vacate the battlefield at once. The line now being operated runs through the town and out the Emmetsburg road to the Peach Orchard.

Republican League Convention. READING, July 25.—At a meeting of the Northwestern Republican league, of this city, a communication from President John B. Robinson was read, which stated that he, with Treasurer Mahlon D. Young, would be in Reading about Sept. 1 to confer with the local league committee. He further stated that he had prepared the call for the state convention, to be held in Reading on Sept. 7.

Struck on the Head with a Stone. LANCASTER, July 26 .- While a party of boys were indulging in a stone battle, Leonard, a 5-year-old son of Casper Metz, was struck on the head with a stone, the outer covering of the skull being crushed. He was picked up for dead, but rallied somewhat, and now lies in a critical condition. It is not known who threw the
