LARGE PAY ROLL.

$17.000 PUT INTO CIRCULA-TION.

Over 800 Men Employed on the Central Railroad of Penna -Rapid Work Being

On Tuesday morning a carriage drew up in front of Jackson, Crider & Hastings bank. A long wooden box was soon brought out and securely strapped to the seat. Contractor Highee, Inspector Harry Keim and L. T. Munson, head book-keeper, all connected with the Central Railroad of Penna, entered the carriage and they started for a trip down through Nittany Valley. Upon inquiry at the bank it was learned that Tuesday was the time fixed for the regular monthly pay, for the employees engaged in the construction of the new railroad from Bellefonte to Mill Hall. At present over 800 men are employed along the line and their pay roll, for work done during the past month, was over $17,000 which amount was carefully counted out and packed in the long box and would be paid out that day as -Epworth League of this place will they traveled along the line. That hold its annual picnic at Hunter's Park amount of money paid out to laboring men in this section means that a goodly portion of it will be put in circulation at once in our town, to purchase the necessaries of life.

The grading on the new road has been completed from near Bellefonte to Snydertown. Large gangs of laboring men are at work on the road bed from Washington Furnace to Mill Hall. A gang of men are also at work grading on this end of the road and are at work in the vicinity of Armor's Gap. Ties have been distributed all along and a large quantity of railroad iron was expected on Monday, but did not arrive. ### MILLHEIM'S POST OFFICE

During the past few months there has been quite an interesting family fight in the democratic household at Millheim. Mr. S. G. Gutilus, republican, is the present incumbent, but under the new order of things it will be necessary for him to get out later-as soon as the people of that vicinity can select his successor. Congressman Kribs made one recommendation for the place, but for some reason that arrangement did not go through. Since then no less than a half dozen aspirants have been lashing the democratic pool into a fury in their efforts to get the prize. All of them have friends who are urging an appointment. And under the circumstances congressman Kribs is in a sweat as to what course he should take.

Last week a notice appeared in the Millhem Journal, signed by a number of prominent democrats, calling for a special election to be held on Saturday August 12th, between the hours of 4 and 8 p. m., to ascertain the wishes of the people in the matter and in that manner try and bring about a solution of the difficulty.

We are told that when the time came for voting a number of the aspirants had notices posted at the voting place protesting against such a course, and that they urged their friends not to recognize the election in any manner. The result was that Capt. Eisenbuth received a large majority. What the effect of the election will be is hard to

ALMOST DECAPITATED.

An Aged Huntingdon County Man's Deplor able Death

John G. Smith, an aged resident and farmer of Barree township, Huntingdon county, whose home is situated about 15 miles north of Petersburg, met his death under peculiar and deplorable circumstances Tuesday of last week. He was out in the oats field cutting the erop with a reaper to which four horses were attached when the team ran over a nest of bees or hornets. The insects attacked the animals stinging them and rendering them unmanageable, and Mr. Smith was thrown in between the wheel horses, and caught by the machine, his head being grushed and almost severed from the body, one arm cut off, body mutilated, and meeting almost instant death.
