DISCUSSING THE MONEY QUESTION.

Floods of Eloquence for and Against the Repeal of the Sherman Law—Messrs. Mantle and Allen Declared Not Entitled to Seats.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—The session of the house yesterday was not without interest, but the members are beginning to feel the effect of long hours of labor, and their attention to the speakers was rather hazy. Indeed, in the only speech which reached them from their lecturers, that delivered by Mr. Cummings, of New York. He spoke for less than twenty minutes, but within that time he concentrated a defense of New York democracy against the democracy of the south. The other star speaker was Mr. Cannon, of Illinois. Against the opinions of a large number of his Republican colleagues, he held—and held forcibly—that the repeal of the purchasing clause of the Sherman bill would be a mistake. He believed in standing by the Republican platform.

The resolution offered in the senate by Mr. Pepper (Kan.), calling for information as to the violation of law by the national banks of Boston, New York and Philadelphia, in refusing to pay promptly and in currency the checks of depositors, came up early in yesterday's session, and gave rise to an important and interesting discussion. Senators Hill and Butler, Democrats, spoke in support of the Pepper resolution, and Washburn and Mitchell, Republicans, opposed it.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—A rather amusing scene took place in the senate chamber yesterday on the question as to whether Mr. Pepper (Kan.) or Mr. Stewart (Nev.) should have the privilege of addressing the senate. Each had given notice of his intention to speak on Wednesday, but both had been crowded out by the discussion of Mr. Pepper's resolution as to the national banks. The Kansas senator claimed precedence because he had been the first to give the notice, while the Nevada senator insisted that that had nothing to do with the question, and that, as he had already been recognized by the chair, he was entitled to the floor. The vice president took that view of the situation, and recognized Mr. Stewart's right. As the latter then offered to yield to Mr. Pepper the vice president treated that offer as an abandonment of the floor, and immediately recognized Mr. Pepper, who thereupon began a three hours' speech on the silver question. He was followed by another Populist senator, Mr. Allen (Neb.), who spoke for an hour and a half in support of his amendment, proposing to add to the Voorhees bill a provision for the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1.

Yesterday was a field day in the house. Mr. Pence, the Populist member from Colorado, spoke and strengthened his position as one of the rising men of the house. A quiet, dignified speech by Mr. Dingley was the feature of the day, but his poor delivery detracted materially from the able presentation of his case.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—The speech made by Mr. Hill, of New York, in the senate yesterday was remarkable in many respects. When he declared that the president, if he deserted bimetallicism, could not rely upon support from him or from Democratic senators, and would have to rely upon the votes of Republican senators, a significant smile of amusement and self-complacency passed through the Democratic Republic group, while on the whole side of the chamber there were looks rather of annoyance than of pleasure. The speech occupied in its delivery a little over an hour and a half, and attracted close attention on the floor and in the well filled galleries.

Nothing sensational transpired in the house. Aside from the speeches delivered by Messrs. Burrows and Springer, there were none that commanded the attention of the members. And, indeed, these two speeches were not listened to with the interest they deserved. The day was a day of calm. A large number of members addressed the house, but, for the greater part they wasted their eloquence on empty benches.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—The great silver debate closed in the house on Saturday afternoon with speeches by ex-Senator Reed, Messrs. Bourke Cockran, Wilson (father of the repeal bill), McMillin, Bland, Boutelle and Colonel Fellows. The vice president and a number of senators were among the visitors on the floor, as were Secretary Carlisle and Secretary Herbert.

Then the house met at noon today and it began preparations for voting upon the several propositions included within the order adopted fifteen days ago for the consideration and disposal of the silver purchase question. The vote will be taken first upon the proposition to provide free coinage of silver at a ratio of 16 to 1. This falling other ratios up to 20 to 1 will be voted upon, then the house will be given an opportunity to say whether or not it will restore the Blank-Allison act. All these are connected with the repeal of the silver purchasing clause of the Sherman law of 1890, which is doomed.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—The question of the right of the governor of a state to appoint a senator to fill a vacancy caused by the expiration of a regular term (and not happening by resignation or otherwise) was decided by the senate in the negative. The final votes in the two cases from Montana and Washington declaring Mr. Mantle and Mr. Allen not entitled to seats were 32 to 20. There was no vote necessary to be taken on the third of these cases, that from Wyoming. Mr. Beckwith having resigned his appointment more than a month ago.

The remainder of the days session was occupied in the consideration of the bill allowing national banks to increase their circulation up to the par value of the bonds deposited by them to secure circulation. The amendment which Mr. Cockran (Nev. Mo.) had offered some time ago, to allow the redemption of $25,000,000 2 percent bonds and payment for them in a new issue of legal tender notes, was rejected 23 to 22.

How We Grow Old.

The thread that binds us to life is most frequently severed ere the meridian of life is reached in the case of persons who neglect obvious means to renew falling strength. Vigor, no less the source of happiness than the condition of long life, can be created and perpetuated where it does not exist. Those who have experienced or are cognizant—including many physicians of eminence—of the effects of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, bear testimony to its wondrous efficacy as a creator of strength in feeble constitutions, and debilitated and shattered systems. A steady performance of the bodily functions, renewed appetite, flesh and highly reposed attend the use of this thorough and standard renovant. Use no local tonic represented to be akin to or resembling it in effects in its place. Demand the genuine, which is an acknowledged remedy for indigestion, malaria, nervousness, constipation, liver and kidney complaints and rheumatism.

Items of Interest from All Over the Commonwealth.

OLEAN, N. Y., Aug. 29.—The Frenchman who robbed D. A. Craig, the contractor for Goodyears, the Western Pennsylvania lumbermen, of $11,000, was arrested at Renovo, Pa.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Aug. 29.—Eight hundred men struck at Patterson colliery, throwing 1,400 men out of employment. The men struck because they did not receive their pay Saturday night.

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Aug. 29.—Alexander Baxter, 40 years old, a brakeman on the Stony Creek railroad, was knocked from a freight car at Hartranft Station, and falling under the cars, had both legs so shockingly mangled that it was necessary to amputate them.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 28.—The Edgar Thomson steel works has closed down for repairs and improvements. None of the blast furnaces will suspend operations, and only about 600 men will be laid off in the steel department. The shut down will probably last six weeks.

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Aug. 29.—Notices were posted on the doors of the Woodstock mills here to the effect that operations would be resumed on Wednesday next, providing the employes were willing to accept a reduction in their wages of 20 per cent. It is believed the men will accept.

HARRISBURG, Aug. 26.—A mysterious document is on file at the state treasury which cannot be opened until July 4, 2000. It gives notice of a certain sum deposited with the Girard Trust company, of Philadelphia, to the credit of the state by a peculiar testator, who stipulated that the letter should not be opened until 2000.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 29.—The lack of confidence in banks and saving institutions is proving a harvest for thieves. Mrs. Margaret Davis, of this city, buried $1,400 in her cellar last week and then went to Pittman Grove camp meeting. On her return the money was gone. She said no one knew of its whereabouts but herself.

MAUCH CHUNK, Pa., Aug. 29.—Thomas Turner, the superintendent of construction for the Mauch Chunk Electric railway, was arrested for a violation of the Sunday laws in working a gang of men on Sunday in the building of the road. The arrest was made at the instance of Rev. A. J. Amthor, the pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 28.—In revenge for the non-payment of a loan of $10 to George Vitell, 22 years old, Robert Rodway threw vitriol upon his debtor, seriously burning him, his mother, aged 54 years, and his son Edward, 5 years old. Rodway was arrested and committed to prison. The father and son are in a serious condition. Both will lose their eyesight, and the boy may die.

LOCK HAVEN, Pa., Aug. 30.—The Clinton county Republican convention nominated the following ticket: Sheriff, Lewis Hoover; prothonotary, J. B. Lesher; county treasurer, George R. McCreas; county commissioners, P. L. Keech and Isaac Shaffer; county auditors, Daniel Keister and H. C. Stoner; coroner, Dr. H. C. Lichtenhaller; delegate to state convention, H. D. Loveland, of Lamar.

NEW CASTLE, Pa., Aug. 30.—A huge landslide on the Pittsburgh and Western tracks near New Castle Junction, yesterday caused an engine and fourteen freight cars to be derailed. Two negroes, who were seen on the cars, are missing, and it is thought they have been killed and are buried beneath the wrecked cars. The train hands saved their lives by jumping, several of them being injured.

GETTYSBURG, Pa., Aug. 29.—The trial of Henry Heist for the murder of Emanuel Munn last February was begun before Judge McClean. Munn's body was found on March 14 under a stone pile in the South mountains, where, according to the theory of the commonwealth, it had been concealed since Feb. 2. Heist and Munn were wood choppers and lived together in a cabin. Jealousy over a girl is supposed to have been the cause.

GETTYSBURG, Aug. 28.—The Democratic county committee met here with a large representation. R. E. Shearer, of Carlisle, was unanimously endorsed for revenue collector of this district. Rule three, which prevented Democrats who cut their ticket from voting at primaries, was repealed. Dr. O. W. Thompson, of Ardenville; Dr. E. W. Cashman, of York Springs; Hugh E. Hinkle, of Littlestown, and W. Howard Dieks, of Hampton, were elected district chairmen.

ALLENTOWN, Aug. 28.—The most exciting convention held by the Republicans of Lehigh county for many years was that of Saturday, when a full county ticket was placed in nomination. There were nine candidates for commissioner and on the ninth ballot Milton Kurtz, of Catasauqua, was chosen. The rest of the ticket is as follows: Franklin L. Roth, for auditor; prothonotary, O. F. Marsteller, treasurer; John R. Gossler, register of wills; Charles W. Beldler, coroner; Dr. W. Niles Powell; poor director, David Shuler. The state delegates are unopposed.

HARRISBURG, Aug. 30.—The Republican state convention to choose candidates for supreme judge and state treasurer met in this city this morning. The ticket will be: For supreme judge, Hon. D. Newlin Fell, of Philadelphia, at present a judge of the court of common pleas of that city; for state treasurer, Colonel Samuel M. Jackson, of Armstrong county, president of the Apollo (Pa.) Savings bank.

The withdrawal of Speaker Thompson from the treasuryship contest left Colonel Jackson without opposition for the prize. Judge Fell's only opponent is Judge Archibald, of Scranton, and the outlook is that his name will not go before the convention.

Ex-Representative J. C. Johnson, of Cameron county was chosen temporary chairman and ex-Senator Horace B. Packer, of Tioga, the permanent presiding officer.

Senator Quay arrived here from his River home yesterday afternoon and was in a close conference with the leaders already on the ground, including C. L. Magee, of Allegheny; Charles A. Porter and David Martin, of Philadelphia; State Chairman Reeder and his prospective successor, B. F. Gilkeson, of Bucks. They worked until after midnight on the platform that is to be adopted this afternoon, and which was outlined in yesterday's discussion.
