LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

—The public schools opened last Monday for a term of ten months. —The Bellefonte academy will begin the fall term on next Monday, Sept. 11. —Would-be-sheriff Dr. Harter and wife, of Millheim, have gone to World's Fair. —Mr. J. Irvin Morris, Milesburg's energetic justice of the peace paid us a call on Tuesday. —Lester Shaeffer won the novice race last Saturday at the bicycle tournament held at Houtzdale, Pa. —Mrs. Will Cowdick, of Johnstown, is at present visiting friends and relatives in Bellefonte. —Roland Curtin, son of Gen. J. I. Curtin, Annapolis Naval cadet, is home on his annual vacation. —The closing argument in the Armor will case, which was taken up Monday, was being made as we went to press.

—On Sunday a ten months old child, son of Mrs. Ostrander, of this place, died of cholera infantum. It was a bright and interesting child. —W. W. Bayard and wife, of Washington, D. C., visited friends at this place during the past week. They were on their return trip from the World's Fair.

—Prof. M. S. Ihleseng, for many years head of the Colorado School of Mines, has been chosen professor of engineering at the Pennsylvania State College.

—The following letters remain uncalled for in the post office: David Bailey, Harry Bressler, John Clark, Ed. Harson, Miss C. Kirk, Lojann Ludvekn. When called for say advertised.

—J. P. Gephart, Esq., and wife have returned from their trip of several weeks to Logansville. Mr. Gephart has improved considerably in health of late and is feeling better than when he left.

—The central synod of the Lutheran church will meet at this place on the 27th to continue in session until the following Monday. Their meetings will be held in the new edifice of the congregation.

—Centre county will be well represented at the World's Fair this week. A large number left to attend the Pennsylvania day exercises which occur today, Thursday. It will be conducted on an elaborate scale.

—Major George A. Hilton, a famous temperance lecturer, will hold a series of temperance meetings, in the court house, beginning on Tuesday evening August 19th. Bible meetings will also be held during the day.

—The Bellefonte Y. M. C. A., is to have a new secretary in the person of Mr. F. H. Cota, of Long Branch, N. J. He comes with the best of recommendations and we hope he will take a liking to the work of the association at this place.

—Mayor R. A. Cassidy, of Canton, Ohio, as usual managed to attend the annual Veterans picnic of Centre county. He went to the front with the boys from Centre county and naturally enjoys meeting his old comrades.

—Gen. and Mrs. Hastings are at present taking in the World's Fair. Quite a contingent of Bellefonters left on Saturday evening and Monday morning for the fair. Pennsylvania Day on the 7th has been the cause of the rush.

—Rev. D. O. Shoemaker, some years ago pastor of the Reformed church, at Jacksonsville, died at his home at Stoytown, Somerset county, on Saturday evening, 24th. His remains passed through Bellefonte to Aaronsburg, where interment was made.

—When a man gets mad and stops his paper, he doubtless expects the establishment to make an assignment and go into mourning. If you want to know the real effect of stopping your paper, just poke your finger into a barrel of water, then draw your finger out and see what a big hole it leaves.

—Hunter's Park on Saturday had a larger crowd within its limits than at any time since the park has been inaugurated. It is estimated that over five thousand people attended the soldiers reunion. Every train going to the park was crowded to its utmost capacity.

—Millheim will get the electric light and shortly the glittering bulbs will be sending forth their rays. The plant will be conducted by a stock company of citizens of the town, and the knitting factory building and engine has been purchased for $2,500.

THE WORLD'S FAIR.

THE GREATEST WORLD'S EXPOSITION.

Everybody Should Try and See It—Some of the Prices Charged—Cost of a Trip—Other Information.

A large number of Centre county people have been to the World's Fair, many are there now attending Pennsylvania Day exercises and many more will be going later on. On Tuesday of this week, the editor returned after having spent ten days seeing the sights at the Great White city. To give a description of this wonderful exposition would be impossible, first for want of space, and second because it would be difficult to do it justice. For several months each issue of the DEMOCRAT has contained three and four columns of illustrations and elaborate descriptions of the immense buildings, the elaborate displays in every department, and the great scope of this World's Fair which in conception, extent and complete execution surpasses anything of the kind ever attempted by any nation. The Philadelphia centennial is insignificant; the Paris exposition, the greatest Europe ever saw, can bear no comparison. That is the verdict of every person who returns from a trip to Chicago. You may read or hear elaborate descriptions, but that falls short. To fully appreciate you must see with your own eyes. It is only when standing upon the ground surrounded by the great, mammoth, white structures, of magnificent proportions and of artistic design, which are surrounded by lagoons and waterways, with here and there towering pieces of statuary and classical designs, that you can begin to appreciate its vast scope. Then the interior of each building contains exhibits that display the highest achievements of the human race at this period. Every industry and avocation is represented—it is complete.

To our many readers we say go and see the World's Fair if you can possibly do so. That involves another serious point—the cost. You can get accommodations in Chicago at the most reasonable prices. Comfortable and clean rooms, near the ground, can be had for 50 cents a night when two occupy a bed. For 75 cents splendid accommodations can easily be obtained, good enough for any one. Of course, if you are fastidious, you can get very handsome rooms at very handsome prices. Outside of the grounds restaurants can be found at every turn, where meals can be obtained. A good breakfast can be had, consisting of coffee, beefsteak or any other meats, fried potatoes, bread and butter, for from 25 to 35 cents. For $1.50 to $2 per day any person can get good board and lodging. On the fair ground the restaurants charge enormous prices, and most people carry the noon luncheon with them. The admission to the ground is 50 cents each day which gives you access to all the principal buildings.

The Midway Plaisance is a part of the fair ground, consisting of an entire street and is an interesting feature. There admission is charged to many of the exhibits and all theatres. Here are settlements of people from almost every section of the globe. They live in villages where they have their native dwellings erected and live in the same style as when in their own country. Here you see Germans, Austrians, Turks, Aztecs, Laplanders, Algerians, Egyptians, Persians, Javanese, Samoans, Dehomines, Jahores and some of the lowest, filthiest, uncivilized types of humanity that exist to-day in the jungles of Africa or the south sea islands. This is an interesting study for any one. The admission price to each group is 25 cents. If you visit one of the Turkish theatres and see their famous dancing girls, one is enough as the rest are alike. You can take a trip twice around the famous Ferris wheel, which will take some nearer to the Heavenly realms than they will ever get, about 275 feet high for 50 cents.

The above are mentioned in order to give some of our readers an idea of what a trip to the World's Fair will cost. Persons of ordinary means who are satisfied with reasonable accommodations can spend a week or ten days at Chicago, including car fare, for at least from $35 to $50 and not need to stint themselves or deny themselves of any comforts. To those of ample means, who demand luxuries, the prices will be accordingly; but at the Fair, which inside the ground the poor can see as much as the rich.

A FEW POINTERS.

Have your lodging as near the ground as possible. Don't try to see everything in a rush, take your time, or you will be played out from the start. On your way out buy a descriptive catalogue and study it carefully. Go over the ground in a systematic order and thus save much time and needless walking to and fro. Spend at least one day in Chicago, and in the evening see the play "America" at the Auditorium.

The World's Fair will close in eight weeks and now is the best time to go. Take our advice, if you have the time and can possibly spare the money, go and see the great World's Fair and you will never regret it.

A LARGE GATHERING.

Veterans Hold Their Picnic at Hunter's Park Last Week.

According to their custom the Veteran Association of this county held their annual gathering, in the form of a basket picnic, at Hunter's Park last Saturday. The weather being favorable the attendance was much larger than for some years, as it is estimated that there were over four thousand people on the ground.

Among the prominent speakers present were: Ex-Gov. A. G. Curtin, Senator Harry Hall of Pittsburgh; Mayor Cassidy of Canton, Ohio; T. P. Rynder, of Erie county; Prof. John Hamilton, of State College and others.

There were plenty of well filled baskets to feed all who were hungry. The gathering was the most interesting one of its kind held for some years.

Church Dedication.

The new Evangelical Lutheran church at this place was dedicated on last Sunday, Sept. 3rd. The new house of worship is a handsome brick structure and stands on the corner of Allegheny and Linn streets. It is hardly necessary to give a detailed description of the structure as most of our readers have seen it or read of it.

The morning sermon was delivered by Dr. E. J. Wolf, of Gettysburg seminary. Assisted by a number of other eminent divines. Dr. Wolf took for his text: "Upon this rock will I build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." He delivered a very able discourse and was attentively listened to throughout.

After the sermon the pastor, Rev. Hoshour, made a statement of their financial standing and that they desired to raise four thousand dollars to free them of all indebtedness. Over two thousand dollars were subscribed.

The evening discourse was delivered by Rev. Dr. McKnight, president of Penna. College at Gettysburg. His theme was "The Love of God." After the sermon the financial situation of the church was again taken up and the full amount was finally guaranteed by the assistance of the church extension board.

The building committee then turned over the building to the congregation and the dedicatory services followed.

Delivered Satisfy.

On Tuesday evening Sheriff Ishler returned from his trip to the western penitentiary where he took three prisoners. He says the men were delivered without much trouble and are now at work.

Dr. Whan took his fate in a philosophical style. He admitted his guilt and said to the sheriff that the reason he did not appear on the witness stand in his own defense was that he did not wish to implicate others as he would have told the entire story.

Judge Furst in delivering his sentence in this case intimated strongly that others were concerned in the crime, as well as Dr. Whan.

That Strange Man.

For some time some of our people have been much exercised over the reports that a strange fellow wearing a mask is in the habit of late of appearing on certain streets of the town and following people. What truth there can be in such reports is hard to tell, but we doubt if anyone in the town is guilty of such conduct.

One explanation offered, by a fellow who pretends to know, is that this might be none other than Franey Speer out on a lark, chasing chippies on Linn street. It might be.

New Voting Places.

By a ruling of court the following changes will be made this year for holding the annual election:

North Ward, Bellefonte boro from the court house to the stone school building, Allegheny street.

West Ward, Bellefonte boro, from the court house to the United Brethren church.

Union township at the private residence of Samuel Brugger.

Good Ball.

The Bellefonte ball team during their trip last week met with fair success. They played two exhibition games, winning both, and four championship games, winning two from Renovo and Williamsport respectively. Tyrone and Bloomsburg each won one. This week they make a trip through Paxson-tawney, Brookville and several other places, playing exhibition games.

Prof. W. A. Krise Married.

Prof. W. A. Krise, of Johnstown, Pa., formerly of Spring Mills, this county, will be married to-day to Miss Ella G. Hammer, of Roxbury, Cambria county. Prof. Krise was an instructor in different sections of our county and is known to the teachers particularly. During the coming winter he has a school in Clearfield county.

The Hebrew New Year.

The Hebrew New Year will occur on Monday, September 11, and will be known as 5654 in the Jewish calendar. As seven out of every nineteen years contain thirteen Jewish months, next year will be a long one, extending from September 11, 1893, to October 1, 1894.

DOINGS IN COURT.

DR. WHAN SENT TO THE PENITENTIARY.

The Verdict and Sentence were Correct—Other Cases Tried Last Week—2nd Week of Court in Session.

The following is a brief summary of the doings of court last week after the DEMOCRAT had gone to press:

Com. vs. Robert Watkins, keeping a disorderly house at Watkins Glenn, in Howard township. Guilty and sentenced to fine of $25, costs, and one year in jail. Samuel Bennet, of Phillipsburg, pleaded guilty to the charge of larceny of $400 from the bank of R. J. Scheley, last April. He was arrested at Harrisburg and brought back. Sentence: fine of $1, costs of prosecution and one year in the western penitentiary.

THE WHAN TRIAL.

The most interesting case of the week was the trial of Dr. J. M. Whan, charged with causing the death of Mrs. Horace Winkelman, Nitany, Pa. The trial continued on Friday evening. Hon. J. H. Orvis and District Attorney Wm. J. Singer conducted the prosecution and Messrs. E. R. Chambers and Wilbur F. Reeder, Esq., appeared for the defendant. The testimony submitted practically substantiated the charges made which appeared in print heretofore. After the jury was out two hours they returned a verdict of guilty.

On Monday forenoon Dr. Whan was called before court to receive sentence, and Whan was given an opportunity to speak for himself. He made a short address in which he at the outset most solemnly declared himself to be innocent of the charge and then later on made certain statements which very clearly demonstrated that he was guilty of committing the deed.

The court then explained to him that he had been fairly tried, that the verdict was strictly in accord with the facts and that no fault could be found. He had criminally taken life in his own hands and that he now must submit to the penalty. The sentence imposed was: fine of $300, costs of prosecution and five years in the western penitentiary.

W. H. Young, guilty of larceny, was sentenced to 1 year in the penitentiary.

At 10.30 a. m., sheriff Ishler accompanied by deputies Wm. G. Runkle and Wm. Collins took the train west for the western penitentiary having with them Young, Bennet and Whan.

GRAND JURY REPORT.

Robert J. Haynes, foreman of the grand jury, submitted his report to the court on Thursday. They acted upon 29 indictments of which 21 were returned "true bills." A number of small repairs were suggested for the court house and jail and they especially commended the improvements about the front of the court house.

SECOND WEEK.

Court is not very largely attended this week as but one civil case has been on trial thus far. On Monday the famous Ruth Armor will case came up for trial. D. M. Butts, son-in-law of Mrs. Armor, is the defendant, and for a long term of years had the management of the estate which was of considerable importance under his management. When Mrs. Armor made her last will she was 91 years of age and as the heirs think the document is rather one sided they want the will disannulled upon the ground that the deceased was in feeble health at the time it was written.

This case was tried before a master and by an appeal to the supreme court was returned to the lower court for trial. Beaver, Gephart & Dale are the attorneys for Mr. Butts and Orvis, Bower & Orvis for the contestants.

Green-Dinges.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Catharine Green, of Bellefonte and Clevean Dinges, of Williamsport, in the Presbyterian church, Bellefonte, on September 20. Miss Green is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Green, of this place. She is one of Bellefonte's fairest, and possesses many rare accomplishments. Mr. Dinges, formerly of this place, whose early home was at Centre Hall, is now located at Williamsport where he is engaged in business as a broker and general insurance agency. He is strictly a self made man and of excellent business qualifications. To the young couple we extend the most hearty congratulations.

After October 18th their home will be at 323, west third street, Williamsport.

The Battle for the Pennant.

Following is a complete record of the games played by the clubs composing the River League, in their race for the championship flag, to date, the Milton team having dropped out of the contest:

Club	Wins	Losses	Games
Bellefonte	15	5	250
Demarest	10	5	288
Renovo	8	8	300
Tyrone	6	11	353
Bloomsburg	3	7	380

Who Drew His Pension.

A FRIEND'S WORK.

A Dastardly Attempt to Fire the Presbyterian Church.

On Saturday morning a fiendish attempt was made to fire the Presbyterian church on Spring street and it was only by a timely discovery that the attempt was unsuccessful. At about half past six o'clock in the morning, Mrs. Cleaver, wife of the sexton, went to the church to arrange for the Sunday services, and she discovered the audience room full of smoke.

She ran for assistance which soon arrived and a hurried search revealed the flames at the rear of the cellar, where a door was ablaze and a sill burned off. A few buckets of water extinguished the flames, which in a few minutes would have burned through the floor to the new pipe organ above.

The fire bug had forced the rear door and placed a peach basket of combustible material near the sill and made his escape in time to avoid detection. The work was accomplished some time during the early morning and it was but the timely discovery of the attempt that avoided the destruction of one of Bellefonte's finest sacred edifices.

Tyrone Coming.

An interesting game of ball will be played at Hunter's Park on Friday afternoon between Bellefonte and Tyrone league teams. This will be the last game between these two teams at Bellefonte. The Tyrone team has been materially strengthened of late and they are confident of defeating our home team. They have an old grudge and intend to give us a surprise. They are also coming with boodle to back their team. The Bellefonte boys have nothing to say, only smile at the idea.

There will be some fun at the Park next Friday. Don't miss the game.

How He Saw It.

Millerstown can boast of a 12 year old boy who spent six days at the World's Fair and did not spend a cent for railroad fare or boarding. The boy's name is Harry Seibert. He beat his way to Chicago and a kind-hearted gentleman paid his way into the grounds. Once inside the gates he stayed until he left for home. He slept in the coal bin at one of the boiler houses and begged his meals. He beat his way home, arriving one day last week, dirty, tired and hungry. The first thing he did was to eat a good square meal.

Harvest Service.

Sunday, September 10th, the annual harvest thanksgiving service will be held at St. John's Reformed church, in Bellefonte. All the members of the church are urged to be present, and the public are cordially invited to attend. The offerings of the occasion, as usual, will be devoted to benevolence.
