TELLER ATTACKS THE PRESIDENT.

The Nevada Senator Attemps to Make Merry Over the Chief Magistrate's Record-The House Majority Will Try to Repeal the Federal Elections Law.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—The proposition for such a change of the rules of the senate ts would establish the principle of closure tras not mane yesterday. Mr. Platt [Conn.), who had given notice that he would propose that change, declined to do so because he did not wish to stand in the way of Mr. George (Miss.), who wished to address the senate, but said that he would offer it at some future time.

The federal elections repeal bill has been reported and has been placed upon the calendar of the house. Washington, Sept. 22.—The first hour of yesterday's session of the senate was ocsupled in a discussion of the resolution offered by Mr. Platt (Conn.) for the establishment of a closure rule. Mr. Platt made such a strong and clear argument to show the necessity for such a rule that Mr. Voorhees (Ind.) felt called upon to express the debt which the senate and the country pwed to him for it. The junior senator from Massachusetts, Mr. Lodge, also supported the proposed rule. Amendments to Mr. Platt's resolution were offered by Mr. Hoar (Mass.) and Mr. Hill (N. Y.), and the resolution went over until today, when Mr. Teller (Co'o.) will argue against it.

(Cal.) who spoke for over four hours. In the house the committee on rules reported a resolution, which was adopted, providing for the consideration of the federal elections bill on Sept. 23, the debate to continue until Oct. 10, when a vote will be

The repeal bill was then taken up, and an argument against it made by Mr. White

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.-The closure resplution, which was introduced in the sen-ate on Wednesday by Mr. Platt, was taken up yesterday and discussed until nearly 2 clock, when it went over in order to give Mr. Turple an opportunity to speak upon it. The only two speeches upon the resolution yesterday were made by the Colo-ido Senators, Messrs. Wolcott and Telley. An agreement was proposed by Mr. Voorbees, and assented to unanimously, that from Monday, and until further orders, the daily sessions shall be from 11 a. m. to 5 p. m. The session of the house was with-WASHINGTON, Sept. 26. - President Cleveland was the object of a prolonged personal attack in the senate yesterday on the part of Senator Stewart. Mr. Stewart spoke for nearly three hours on the resolution which he had offered last Saturday as to the relative independence of the three co-ordinate branches of the govern-ment. That independence he charged the president with disregarding in many ways, but particularly in not causing the silver purchase law and the Chinese expultion law to be faithfully executed. But worse than even the non-execution of these laws appeared to be, in Mr. Stewart's opinion, the contemptuous allusions to congress which he found in spite of Mr. Cleveland's letters and interviews. He was particularly embittered at the president's allusions in one of his letters to "having congress on his hands." This was an indignity beyond endurance. And then, in retaliation, the Nevada senator scoffed at the president for his want of a collegiate or any other liberal education that would fit him for his high office, and read the president's brief biography in the congressional directory, laying much stress on and seeking to extract humor from the points of Mr. Cleveland's career as assistant teacher of the blind, clerk, sheriff, mayor and practicing lawyer. Speeches against the repeal bill were then made by Mr. Cameron and Mr. Bate. After these speeches Mr. Stewart occupied the remainder of the day's session. The tession of the house was an uneventful one, without a quorum. WASHINGTON, Sept. 27 .- The Populist senator from Kansas met somewhat of a defeat yesterday in having a resolution of his laid on the table by a vote of 27 to 19. t was a call on the treasury department for information as to the anticipation of interest on United States bonds since 1861 information which Mr. Sherman said the senator could obtain for himself in any public library. Mr. Peffer intimated that the treasury department was trying to withhold information to which the people were entitled, but Mr. Sherman's view of the case was adopted by the senate. A resolution intended to have an important bearing on the repeal bill was offered by Mr. Dubois, proposing that no legislation relating to the federal elections law, tar-iff, or finance shall be considered until January, 1804, when the vacant seats in the states of Washington, Montana and Wyoming may be filled. The resolution went over. After the repeal bill was taken up Mr. Perkins made a speech against it, in which he declared himself a sincere believer in the use and coinage of both gold and silver. The remainder of the day's session was occupied by Mr. Stewart, in continuation of his remarks began on the previous day. The session was closed with a personal explanation by Mr. Morgan denying the imputation of unfriendliness between the president and himself, and a short speech by Mr. Voorbees eulogistic of the president and explanatory of why the Democratic side of the chamber had not answered Mr. Stewart's attacks during his two days' speech. The debate upon the federal elections repeal bill in the house was not as exciting as was expected. Mr. Tucker, of Virginia, delivered a carefully prepared and well considered speech upon the question, devoting himself principally to the constitutional points involved, although he took occasion to make some reference to John I. Davenport and his methods. Mr. Brosius, of Pennsylvania, replied, defending the election laws.
