UNCONDITIONAL REPEAL

That Is the Senato's Verdict on the Sherman Law.

THE MEASURE BEFORE THE HOUSE.

Mcantime the New York and New Jersey Bridge Bill Has Passed the Senate, and Now Only Awaits Executive Sanction to Become Law.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 81 .- At 7:26 last night. by a vote of forty-three to thirty-two, the senate, after one of the most remarkable parliamentary battles of a generation, passed the bill unconditionally repealing the purchase clause of the Sherman silver law. The end was reached at the conclusion of a continuous session of fourteen days, after sixty-one days of debate, during which five volumes of The Congressional Record had been filled with speeches amounting in the aggregate to about 20, 000,000 words, a stream of talk that would stretch in cold type from the seaboard 1,600 miles into the interior, from Liberty Enlightening the World in New York harbor to the foot hills of the Rocky mountains

The vote in detail was as follows:

Yeas-Aldrich, Brice, Caffrey, Camden, Carey, Cullom, Davis, Dixon, Dolph, Carey, Cullom, Davis, Dixon, Dolph, Faulkner, Frye, Gallinger, Gibson, Gor-man, Gray, Hale, Hawley, Higgins, Hill, Hoar, Hunton, Lindsay, Lodge, McMillan, McPherson, Manderson, Mills, Mitchell (Wis) Morrill Murche, Platt Doctor (Wis.), Morrill, Murphy, Platt, Proctor, Quay, Ransom, Sherman, Smith, Squire, Stockbridge, Turpie, Vilas, Voorhees, Washburn, White (La.)-43. Nays-Allen, Bate, Berry, Blackburn, Butler, Call, Cameron, Cockrell, Coke, Daniel, Dubois (Ga.), George, Harris, James, Jubois (Ark.), Jones (Nev.), Kyle, Martin, Pasco, Peffer, Perkins, Pet-tigrew, Power, Pugh, Roach, Shoupe, Stewart, Teller, Vance, Vest, Walthall, Walcott-32.

The following pairs were announced; the first named would vote in the affirmative: Allison and Mitchell (Ore.), Chandler and White (Cal.), Wilson and Col-quitt, Gordon and Morgan, Palmer and Hanshrough.

At the conclusion of the vote the Senate, on motion of Mr. Voorhees, adjourned until noon to-day.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1 .- The senate opened with prayer yesterday for the first time since the 17th of October. The attendance of senators was not large, and there were only a few people scattered through the galleries. The most important measure that came up for consideration was the New York and New Jersey bridge bill, which was brought up on a motion of Senator Hill. The remainder of the day's session was almost wholly consumed with debate on the measure, Mr. McPherson failing to secure an amendment providing that the approaches and piers shall be sub-ject to the approval of the board of free-holders of Hudson county, N. J. The bill was then passed without division, as it came from the house.

Public interest was transferred yesterday to the house end of the capital, where it was expected that the last act in the great financial drama that has been riveting the attention of the country on Washington for three months past would be enacted. But the crowds which surged into the galleries were doomed to disappointment. The silver men had discovered a parliamentary obstacle which would delay the doom of the white metal for twenty-four hours. The rule of the house provides that the speaker shall lay before the house messages and bills coming over from the senate on the previous day.

THE FIGHTING MOORS.

They Terribly Maltreat the Spanlards Whom They Take Prisoners.

MADRID, Nov. 1.-The steamship Africa, from Melilla, arrived at Malaga. According to information brought by her the Spaniards have made another sortie from Melilla, and General Ortega at the head of a column of infantry and a body of cavalry has succeeded in relieving the garrisons of the detached forts Rostrogordo and Cabrerizas, which have been for me time sur-rounded by Moors. General Ortega also succeeded in replacing the garrisons of the forts with fresh troops. The Moors continue to make desultory attacks upon the Spanish lines, and lately fired upon the ship which landed General Marcias the new commander of the Spanish forces, at Melilla. The news that the Moors murdered and mutilated the Spanish wounded, and that the shrieks of the latter could be heard in the night by their comrades in the forts, has caused tremendous indignation here and further increased the war fever.

The reports read today confirm the statement that most serious fighting occurred on Saturday morning when eight batalions of infantry supported by three six pound guns were required to make way for the convoy of provisions which General Ortega was compelled to push forward in order to relieve the forts. Seven bours hard fighting followed, during which the Arabs are said to have lost a large number of men.

A special dispatch just received here from Melilla asserts that at least 100 Spaniards are killed, more than 300 wounded and over 100 captured, while others are re-ported missing. The fate of the wounded, captured and missing is said to be too horrible to contemplate, in view of the shocking manner in which a number of the wounded are already known to be have been mutilated.
