HON, JOHN H. ORVIS.

In another column we chronicle the death of one of Centre county's most distinguished citizens-a great lawyer and an eminent jurist. Possessing a great intellect his superior attainments won for him universal respect wherever he was known. The influence of such a master-mind in any direction it might have turned, or of any cause it might have espoused, therefore was most effective.

While the subject of this sketch was a profound lawyer, he also was a close political student. He most firmly believed in the principles and traditions of the Democratic party, and was a man of profound thought and great force when he mounted the rostrum. From the date of Hon. John H.Orvis' advent, in 1862, in Centre county he became conspicuous in the counsels of the party and soon was recognized as an organizer, and a leader. The wisdom of his counsel in many campaigns was clearly demonstrated by the results. He always took a keen interest in the political affairs of this county.

In every campaign since 1862 he devoted time as well as means in this direction, and has spoken in almost every town and school district of the county. Earnest, frank and fair in manner; clear, clean and thorough in method of presentation; reliable in statement and honorable towards his opponents, he always gained the sympathy of his hearers. Then by his great force of charover foes to his cause.

His death will not only be a great loss to our organization, but will be keenly felt by every member of the party.

NO DANGER.

votes cast for him for the office of elements that we had to face. "Register of Wills, Recorder of Deeds taken of it by any of the parties.

We speak from good anthority when we say that Mr. Lyons is mistaken. At this writing, as we go to press, we have not time or space to discuss Mr. Lyons' erroneous position. Rumberger will be the Register and Morrison Recorder. Democrats need not be alarmed.

CRANKS of every description may look for a warm reception hereafter when they land in Washington. Since the assassination of Carter Harrison the crop of cranks has multiplied wonderfully. Men of public affairs have received threatening communications, and some of them have been badly frightened by the missives. Cranks at the White House have not been so plentiful in the past few weeks as usual of late, but "warnings" are almost daily received at the Executive Mansion.

Now that Congress is out of the way for a few weeks it is expected that a large number of important appointments will be made, and republicans who are filling offices, the commissions of which have expired, would be better be making their preparations to step down and out. This expectation has kept a considerable number of Senators and Representatives in Washington since congress adjourned.

-The Philadelphia Branch is overstocked with an immense line of winter clothing. They have all weights in winter overcoats.

The above tabulated vote was taken from the official returns. The totals, we think, are nearly correct: the official count may have some few slight changes. The Democratic pluralities on Commissioner are over Strohm, the highest Republican vote. The official count will be given in our next issue.

IN THE COUNTY.

The result of the election in Centre county is given in full in the tabulated form. The returns, as compared with last year, clearly show that a small vote was polled and the majorities have necessarily been reduced. The state ticket will have a majority of over 600, while the county ticket, in some cases, has fallen below that mark.

Considering the general Republican victory over in Clearfield and Clinton counties, we have just cause to rejoice on the result at he

The campaign was an unusually quiet one. As there was little hope of electacter and irresistable logic he won ing our State ticket, it was also an "off year" and many of our voters felt that it was not necessary for them to turn out at the polls. Centre county did nobly.

This is the sensible way that Senator Voorhees answers the sily talk that has to a certain extent been indulged in by some cracked-brained people about the repeal of the purchasing clause of the Sherman silver law resulting in a split in the democratic party: "On the democratic side of the chamber, while there were very strong differences of friendly feeling left by the protracted discussion. #### Given to the Children.

Every pupil of the common schools of Pennsylvania ought to have some conception of the great cost to the public by which the system of free schools is maintained. In round numbers 1,000, 000 children are getting the better part of their education at the expenses of the public, and that it should help some of portunity we give the following:

Pennsylvania has 24.012 schools in 5,-386 districts. There are employed 8,245 male and 17,718 female teachers, and the enrollment of pupils are 994,407. The average attendance is 593,858, and the tution is $8,468,436.99. Adding to this all other costs for maintaining the public schools of the commonwealth and it is found to be $16,410.976.99. Of this expense the state provides $5,000,
