TWENTY-FOUR LOST.

Terrible Disaster to Two Steamers on Lake Michigan.

COLLIDED IN A DENSE FOG.

Both Vessels Sank in Two Hundred Feet of Water, and the Crews Started for the Shore in Small Boats-Only Twenty Men Escaped.

SAND BEACH, Mich., Nov. 8.—The propeller Albany, of the Western Transit company, loaded with grain, and the propeller Philadelphia, of the Anchor line. loaded with coal and general merchan-dise, collided off Port Aux Barques in a dense fog and sunk in 200 feet of water. The captains of both boats, with twenty men, got ashore at Port Aux Barques. The other boat, containing twenty-four men, was sunk, and it is believed that all hands were drowned. The boat contained eight of the Albany's crew and sixteen of the Philadelphia's crew, Life saving crews found this boat upside down. They piaked up eleven bodies with life preserv ers on, and it is supposed that the whole crew of twenty-four men are drowned. The bodies were put on the steamer Concord, bound south. The harbor master of San Beach is searching for the rest of the bodies with tugs.

The names of the Albany's crew drowned are: S. B. Muirhead, chief engineer; James Molley, second engineer: Thomas Pierce, second mate; Job Price, watchman; S. M. Murtrie, waiter; William Sturtch, porter; Frank Kerthen, deck hand; Albert Holm, deck hand.

The names of the lost crew of the Philadelphia are: C. M. Leggett, engineer; Jerre Moran, second engineer, J. Hunt, first mate; A. Hanna, second mate; W. Gibbs, wheelman; C. Linguist, wheelman; — Crown, lookout; — Renshaw, lookout; — Williams, watchman; S. Coffee firement John Paint firement. C Coffee, fireman; John Paint, fireman; C. Labelle, fireman; George Reiderwaster, cook; George Wise, second cook; A. Con-YOUNG MEN ners, porter; deck hand, name unknown.

The Albany was bound from Chicago to Buffalo with grain and general mer-chandise, and the Philadelphia was bound from Buffalo to Duluth. Both were steel steamers. The Albany was worth $160,-000, and is believed to be partially insured. The Philadelphia was built by David Bell at Buffalo in 1867, and was valued at Killed on an Oyster Dredger.

LAUREL, Del., Nov. 8 .- James Bernard, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is reported to have been knocked overboard and drowned near Nanticoke Point. Bernard was a dredger on the oyster sloop James Dixon. The captain, the story goes, remonstrated with three sailors for going ashore without leave. Bernard was abusive in his remarks and the captain knocked him down. Berdard drew a knife and dangerously stabbed the captain, who grabbed a bar of iron and knocked Bernard insensible into the water. It is said that Bernard was a New York journalist, under the guise of a tramp, who had embarked on the boat to get a foundation for a story from real life.

Reed's Presidential Boom.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 7.-Hon. John Dalzell, representing the Twenty-second Pennsylvania congressional district, started a presidential boom for Hon. Thomas B. Reed at a meeting of Republican ward workers at the Old City hall last night. The hall, which seats about 2,000, was crowded to the doors. Congressman Dalzell was called on for a speech, and, after congratulating the Republicans on the result of the election, launched the Reed boom, which was received with thunders of applause.

Driven Insane by Religion.

BELLE VERNON, Pa., Nov. 8.-A great religious revival is in progress here under the leadership of Rev. Messrs. Perching and Giles, of the Methodist church. Among the first to go forward was Mrs. S. M. Warrensford, and the excitement has weakened her mind until she is a maniac. Her insanity took a homicidal tendency, and Saturday she tried to kill one of her children with a butcher knife and threatened to kill herself and her family.

Defending Ex-Consul Hoge,

ROANORE, Va., Nov. 8.—Colonel John E. Penn prints a defense of J. Hampton the recently recalled consul to Amoy, China. He claims that Mr. Hoge is perfectly solvent, and that if wrong checks were given it was through inadvertence due to his hurried departure. The charges of forgery he believes to be groundless and made for sensational purposes.

Serious Boiler Explosion BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 8.—At Elrod's Mills, Sand mountain, the boiler of the large mill exploded. Engineer Charles R. Richardson and Superintendent Dick Elrod were killed. Fireman Robert Bullock was fatally hurt, and Phil Elrod seriously. The flour mill, cotton gins and saw mill were destroyed. Prendergast Will Ask a Change of Venue. CHICAGO, Nov. 8.-It is said that when the case of Prendergast, the murderer of Mayor Harrison, is called before Judge Hill the assassin's attorneys will ask for a change of venue. They will argue that public sentiment is so strong against the prisoner that he could not be given a fair trial in Cook county. Terrible Effects of an Explosion. WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 8 .- John Reda, Domerius Di Natale and John Luciama, Italians, who were terribly injured by a blast in a stone quarry on Oct. 25, will survive. Reda is totally blind and has one arm off, Luciama is minus both arms and Di Natale, in addition to being armless, is totally blind.

FIRED ON OUR FLAG.

Government Will Doubtless Send a Vigorous Protest to Honduras. WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—News received at the state department is to the effect that Minister Baker, United States minister to Nicaragua, Costa Rica and Salvador, boarded the steamer Costa Rica, an American ship, at Corrinth, for Salvador. The ship entered the port of Amapala, in Honduras, and while there the authorities of that government demanded of the captain the surrender of Barilla, a citizen of Honduras, who was a passenger on the ship on his way to Guatemala. Barilla, it is understood, had been engaged in All legal business pertaining to that position. left in his care, will be properly attended to, Collections a specialty. some insurrectionary movement in Honduras for which a criminal charge is pending. After the ship received her clearance papers, and while she was leaving port, with the American flag flying, six or seven shots were fired, whether directly at her or in front of her to bring her to is not clear.

The chance presence of the United States minister on the vessel in this case is not considered to make any difference in the diplomatic aspects of the case. Nothing could be learned at the depart ment of what reply was sent to Minister Baker, or what steps it is proposed to take in the matter. It would ordinarily be expected, under the circumstances, that an energetic protest will be lodged with the Honduras government.

"Old Liberty" Home Again.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6.—At noon today the old Liberty Bell was removed from the Reading terminal station and taken to Broad and Diamond streets. There a monster procession was formed, led by police and firemen, and augmented by military companies and cadets from the various schools, and the bell was started on a triumphal tour through the city. At the conclusion of the parade the historic bell was returned to its place in Independence Hall.

Moors Still Belligerent.

MADRID, Nov. 8.—The discontent over the situation at Melilla is growing. The latest reports state that all the forts, including Melilla, are practically besieged. There are repeated engagements and serious loss of life. While a detachment of dragoons was being landed at Melilla the Moors approached to within 200 yards of the steamship landing. The soldiers fired volley after volley at the Moors, who only retreated after several of their number had been killed.

Reappointed by the President.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The following reappointments of those left unconfirmed by the senate have been made by the president: John B. Riley, of New York, to be consul general of the United States at Ottawa, Ont. To be consuls of the United States: Newton B. Ashby, of Iowa, at Dublin; H. Clay Armstrong, Jr., of Alabama, at Grenoble, France; Benjamin Lenthier, of Massachusetts, at Sherbrooke, Quebec.

May Hold Peixoto's Fleet.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7 .- There is reason to believe that the vessels of Piexoto's fleet will not be allowed to leave port when the time for sailing arrives. It is now rumored Collector Kilbreth is quite likely to refuse the vessels' clearance papers, on the ground that the crews have been secured from American sailors and with the express purpose of going to Brazil to fight. This is contrary to the United States laws.

Imports and Exports.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7 .- The chief of the bureau of statistics has issued a sum-mary statement of the imports and exports of the United States. The imports for nine months ended Sept. 30, 1833, were $625,831,972, and for the nine months ended Sept. 30, 1892, $638,106,009. The exports for nine months ended Sept. 30 were $587,040,nd for the nine months of Sept. 30, 1892, $583,836.62.

Princeton linzers Indicted.
