GENERAL RUSK DEAD.

The Ex-Cabinet Officer Succumbs at His Wisconsin Home.

A BRAVE VETERAN OF THE WAR.

Won His Military Advancement by Distinguished Services on the Field of Battle—All the Members of His Family Present When the End Came.

VIROQUA, Wis., Nov. 22.—General J. M. Rusk, ex-secretary of agriculture, died at his home here yesterday. One of his attending physicians, Dr. Gott, and the general's eldest daughter, Mrs. Craig, watched with him during the night. He slept a considerable portion of the time. He was so cheerful that he urged the surgeon to go and take a nap, which he did. At 9 o'clock the attendants changed the general's position in bed, and he expressed gratification that he was feeling so well. At this time Mrs. Craig was relieved by JEREMIAH RUSK, her sister Mary, the general's youngest daughter. At daylight the patient showed signs of weakness, and very soon lapsed into a convulsion. The daughter called for the physician, who on his admission to the sick room quickly took in the situation, and caused the whole family to be summoned. They were all at his bedside when the general breathed his last. There was no pain or gasping. He was unable to speak a word to any one except to say, "I am dying, I am dying." The funeral will be held in this city on Friday and the remains will lie in state at the Methodist church the day previous.

Jeremiah M. Rusk was born in Morgan county, O., June 17, 1830. He was educated in the common schools of the neighborhood, which he attended during the winter months, and worked on his father's farm in the summer time. In 1858 he removed to a farm in Wisconsin. He held several county offices in Wisconsin, and was elected a member of the legislature of that state in 1862. In July, 1862, he was commissioned major of the Twenty-fifth Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry, and was soon after promoted to the colonelcy. Mr. Rusk served with General Sherman from the siege of Vicksburg until mustered out at the close of the war, and was brevetted brigadier general for bravery at the battle of Salkahatchie. After returning home from the war he was elected bank controller of the state of Wisconsin, and re-elected in 1868. He was elected to the Forty-second, Forty-third and Forty-fourth congresses, and was chairman of the committee on invalid pensions in the Forty-third congress. He was also a member of the congressional Republican committee for several years, and was a delegate to the national convention in 1880. President Garfield appointed General Rusk as minister to Paraguay and Uruguay, which appointment he declined. He was also tendered by President Garfield the mission to Denmark, and the position of chief of the bureau of printing and engraving, both of which he declined. He was elected governor of Wisconsin in 1881, re-elected in 1884, and elected for a third term in 1888. He was appointed secretary of agriculture in President Harrison's cabinet on March 4, 1889. At the close of President Harrison's term of office General Rusk returned to his Wisconsin home.

The Coming Tariff Bill. WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—The ways and means committee will probably give out the new tariff bill on Monday next. The Democratic members are now devoting most of their time in conference attempting to discover the exact amount of revenue that will be yielded by the various schedules under the revision contemplated by the committee. The income tax provision is still held in abeyance, though there seems to be no doubt of its final adoption.

Hazing Students Fined. TRENTON, Nov. 22.—Herbert W. Fitzgerald, of Philadelphia, and William H. Fulper, of Flemington, two of the seven Princeton students indicted for assault and battery for hazing Robert Leopold, a fellow student, appeared in Mercer court and pleaded non vult to the charge. They were each fined $100, which was promptly paid, and they were released, but not until Judge Woodruff had given them a severe reprimand.

Directum Defeats Allis. NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Under a lowering sky that threatened at every moment to let down the deluge, and amid chilly autumnal winds, 6,000 enthusiastic horsemen at Fleetwood Park yesterday afternoon saw the famous black stallion Directum win a $5,000 match race from the western bay mare Allis in three straight heats, the last heat being trotted in 2:08, the fastest mile ever done in November.

A Long Struggle Probable. PITTSBURG, Nov. 22.—The feeling today is that a settlement of the sheet scale controversy is very remote, and a long struggle between the manufacturers and Amalgamated Association is probable. Preparations are being made for the resumption of several plants with non-union men.

Scotch Miners on Strike. GLASGOW, Nov. 22.—The Scotch miners, having taken heart at the success won by their English brethren in their long and bitter fight against a reduction of wages, went on strike this morning for an increase in wages of one shilling a day.

Ellison Denied a Stay. NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The application of Frank Ellison for a stay of proceedings pending an appeal from his conviction for an assault on Broker Henriques has been denied by Justice Barrett of the supreme court.

YORK, Nov. 20.—Sensational developments have grown out of the sudden death of Judge Donahue, of Adams county, which occurred recently. An autopsy proves that death resulted from strychnine poisoning. The reports of the chemists have been placed in the hands of the district attorney, who will investigate the matter.

LANCASTER, Pa., Nov. 22.—Emma Arch- ick, a notorious colored woman, and Harry Good, a white man, the son of Josiah Good, late recorder of deeds of this city, were convicted of sandbagging and robbing B. F. Schlegelmilch, a carpenter in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad company, of $63 and a gold watch. They were sentenced to five years and six months in the Eastern penitentiary.

SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 21.—Carl W. McKinney has been appointed manager of the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company, to succeed Edward S. Moffatt, who committed suicide in Edinburgh, Scotland, last August. HAZLETON, Pa., Nov. 18.—As Track Foreman Eck, with six Hungarian laborers, was going down a steep grade on the Beaver Meadow branch of the Lehigh Valley railroad on a hand car, the brake chain broke. The others were seriously hurt.

Then the trio jumped on him, beat him and robbed him of the balance of his money.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 22.—Ex-Banker F. V. Rockafellow, whose banking institutions went under last February, leaving depositors in the lurch to the sum of $440,000, was arraigned in court yesterday. There are twenty-seven indictments against him—enough to send him to jail for half a century.

NEWCASTLE, Pa., Nov. 20.—Mrs. Mary Williams, the aged wife of John Williams, living near Enon Valley, was brutally treated by three masked men who entered her home, where she was alone, at midnight. Mrs. Williams was found still bound and gagged. It is probable that she will not survive the shock.

LANCASTER, Pa., Nov. 22.—A passenger car attached to the rear end of a mixed train on the Lancaster and Downingtown branch of the Pennsylvania railroad jumped the track at Greenfield station, four miles east of this city, and plunged over a high embankment. WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 20.—Physicians having given her up as incurable, the parents of an epileptic, Mary Moors, aged 11 years, of Maitly, in this county, called in an Arabian woman, who said the girl was possessed of an evil spirit, and could not recover until the evil one was driven out. In case of a cure the girl's parents were to pay the woman $300. The woman took the girl to her home, and with a red hot iron branded her with crosses. Her hair was also cut off and a cross branded on the scalp. The doctors say the patient will die.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 22.—At a conference between a committee of the National Association of Tin, Iron and Steel Workers and the Machining and Shenango Valley Manufacturers' association, held at Youngstown, the demands of the manufacturers for a reduction of the wage scale were compromised. The mills in both valleys, employing about 25,000 men, which have been idle since July 1, resumed work this morning at a 94.75 rate. The action of the conference affects the wages of all the iron and steel workers in the United States working under the scale of the Amalgamated Association, probably numbering 50,000 persons.

A very sore eye cured by Dr. Salm after other Drs. had advised removal of the same.

My son Clement, now 9 years old, has had very sore eyes for four years; so much so that the Drs. advised the removal of one of them. We couldn't decide to have the eye taken out, so we brought him to Dr. Salm and today there isn't the least sign of the inflammation and he can see as well as ever. Just think of it, after only two months treatment and without any operation.

MRS. MAGGIE LOVE, Centre Hall, Centre co., Pa.

I can hear as well as ever and have no more aches nor pains nor running of the ears.
