LATEST FROM HAWAII.

Willis in No Hurry to Restore Queen Liliuokalani.

HE DOES NOT AGREE WITH BLOUNT

That the Provisional Government Would Fall to Pieces When Notified That Annexation Was Impracticable - Willis May Be Only an Arbitrator.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Dec. 6.—The barkentine Klickett arrived from Honolulu yesterday. She left four days after the steamer Alameda sailed for San Francisco. All was quiet up to the time of the ship's departure.

In an interview Minister Willis stated that no change in the present situation will take place for several weeks. Since his arrival certain contingencies had arisen and Mr. Willis had thought best to submit these matters to Washington before proceeding further to carry out his original instructions. Any dissonance would be promptly quelled. The ex-queen's supporters were much incensed after the interview appeared.

After this statement rumors began to fly about that the queen's supporters would make a final rally in her behalf. The crews of the United States war vessels Philadelphia and Adams were held in readiness to be landed at a moment's notice. The queen's advocate came out the next day with a denial of the Willis interview, saying that he was misquoted, and by inference gave encouragement to the idea that Mr. Willis had or would receive an imperative order to restore the queen.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The state department was evidently already informed of the Hawaiian news received by the Associated Press so far as it conveyed the intention of Minister Willis to take no further steps towards carrying out his instructions until he should hear further from the department. But so far as it conveyed the public utterances in Honolulu by the minister of his intentions, it was news to the department, to the president and to the cabinet. There were evidences to show that it was not agreeable news, and the impression was conveyed that the administration is rather disappointed at the manner in which Minister Willis has thus far conducted his mission.

It is evident that the state department received by the last steamer the news that Minister Willis had determined to defer the carrying out of his instructions until he had heard further from his government. It is a fair presumption that the revenue cutter Corwin carries to him the further instructions for which he asked. The paragraph in the president's message referring to Hawaii was written after the additional instructions to Minister Willis had been dispatched.

An Associated Press representative received from a reliable source an intimation of the nature of the policy intended to be pursued in Hawaii. The extent of the active influence intended to be employed in behalf of reseatting Liliuokalani on the throne has probably been exaggerated. The purpose of the administration is believed to be rather to act as an arbitrator between the two parties in dispute, and to prevail upon them to agree between themselves. This was contingent upon the evident belief, based upon the explicit assertion contained in a letter of Mr. Blount, that the provisional government would fall to pieces when notified that annexation was impracticable.

Enough is known of Minister Willis' impressions, gained since his arrival in Honolulu, to make it certain that he does not agree with Mr. Blount in the belief that the new government will be short lived. Whether this impression caused his determination to await further instructions from Washington is a matter of conjecture.

Ex-Minister Stevens Retaliates.

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 1.—John L. Stevens, ex-minister to Hawaii, in reply to the recently published report of ex-Commissioner Blount, denies the imputation that he was in collusion with the opponents of Queen Liliuokalani, and that the troops were not landed until after the establishment of the provisional government, and then only to protect American interests. Stevens declares that Blount's manner was extremely offensive, and that he conferred with royalists, while ignoring the claims of those connected with the provisional government.

STANTON AT WASHINGTON.

The Suspended Naval Officer Seems to be Undismayed.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Commodore Stanton, whose action in saluting Admiral Mello, the Brazilian insurgent, caused him to be recalled from command of the United States fleet in Brazilian waters, has arrived in Washington and reported at the navy department.

Commodore Stanton was for a long time in the office of the secretary of the navy, and immediately afterward left the department in an apparently cheerful frame of mind. Nothing could be learned either from him or from Secretary Herbert as to the results of the consultation or as to any action that will be taken on his salute of Admiral Mello.

Commodore Stanton entered the Bay of Rio Oct. 29, having been assigned to command of the squadron on that station. He gave the customary salute of twenty-one guns and the flag of the Aquaban, Mello's ship, was dipped in reply, and an aid of the rebel admiral called on the American commodore. Stanton then called upon Mello, was saluted and Mello returned the call and was saluted. It has been claimed that Stanton had no official knowledge that Mello was a rebel, and only recognized the Brazilian flag, which he was floating. Nevertheless Commodore Stanton was ordered home. No one else has, however, been appointed to his command.

Murdered in a Polish Fight.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Dec. 6.—On Nov. 29 there was a free fight at Luzerne borough between some Poles. The next day there was a funeral and Ennos Moziakowski was laid to rest in a neighboring cemetery. Zoreski Reicheshi has been arrested for the murder.

Masked Robbers Caught.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 6.—Five masked robbers who tortured and robbed Mrs. Logan, at Corapolis, Pa., a few weeks ago, pleaded guilty when brought into court and were sentenced to the penitentiary, the combined sentences aggregating fifty years. It had been learned since, however, that they were engaged in numerous other mysterious robberies in western Pennsylvania last summer.

Urging Investigation of the Pension Bureau

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Senator Sherman presented in the senate a large batch of numerous signed petitions from ex-soldiers of the war of the rebellion without regard to party residing in Ohio, requesting the senate to thoroughly investigate the present administration of the pension bureau orders of suspension, and subsequent orders which claim to modify, but do not, and which leave us in doubt as to the exact relation we sustain to our government as survivors of the late war.

A Jealous Husband Suicides.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Dec. 6.—Louis Ek, a pot maker in the Belvedere Glass works, committed suicide at his home in Belvedere. His wife is much younger than he is, and has caused him considerable jealousy. He was 35 years old, and had one daughter 16 years old.

Virginia's Probable Senators.

RICHMOND, Dec. 4.—The Virginia legislature meets on Wednesday, and one of the chief features of interest as the day approaches for the assembling of this body is the contest for the United States senatorship. "Bad Spells" with the Heart

Dizzy, Faint, in Despair

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cured.

"I have suffered very much during the past few years from

Heart Trouble

Physicians said I might live a number of years, might die any day. I could usually tell when the worst attacks were coming on by feeling a sharp pain in the heart, then violent thumping, shortness of breath, followed by a coldness coming all over me, then DIZZINESS, FAINTNESS, and then, unless I could lie down at once I would fall wherever I was. I never dared to be left alone for I had to have help at once and that applied with vigor. I could not do any work, even to sweeping, and had to be careful of the least excitement. I got very much discouraged at the outlook and thought

There Was No Hope

Of ever finding anything to help me. One day a friend asked, 'Why don't you try Hood's Sarsaparilla?' I thought it over and decided to try it, and I thank God for it too. Since I began taking it three years ago, I have had but one 'bad spell' and that was due to carelessness on my part, and from that I quickly recovered. I can't tell you how much better I feel and how thankful I am. I feel as if I would like to tell every person in the world about it. I can and do now do all my housework, even to washing."
