LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

There will be but one more issue of this paper for the year 1893. "The Burglar" at the opera house on Saturday evening, Dec. 16. Ex-Sheriff Robert Cooke is reported quite ill at his home in Howard. Editor Bailey, of the Centre Magnet, was on the sick list during the past week. The attendance at court this week is not as large as it was during the past two weeks. The appearance of the store windows about town is a reminder that Christmas is coming. A number of severe cases of the grip have broken out in Bellefonte during the past week. The Howard rolling mill resumed operations last Thursday morning with all the departments in full turn. Mr. Edward Tyson, of Philipsburg, is still in a critical condition, with some hopes of recovery from his serious illness. Miss Winifred Meek, who has been attending a conservatory of music in New York city, arrived home on Saturday evening. The school teachers of the county will take possession of Bellefonte next week. Institute week is always a lively time in Bellefonte. A camp of Patriotic Order Sons of America was instituted Saturday night at Woodward, this county, by District President Bathurst. No accidents occurred at the cantata on Monday or Tuesday night, was erroneously announced. Everything passed off lovely. The Bellefonte Steam Laundry began operations on Monday. Their plant is well equipped and can handle a large amount of work. The Philadelphia Branch is overstocked with an immense line of winter clothing. They have all weights in winter overcoats. Burglars entered the grocery store of Wm. Hess, Philipsburg, Sunday night and took $15 in cash, the contents of the money drawer. A first-class drama, "The Burglar," will be at the opera house on Saturday evening. The play is a strong one and enjoys a first-class reputation. Teachers living along the line of the new Central R. R. of Penna., will be able to come to Bellefonte next Monday morning over the new road. Deputy Sheriff C. A. Weaver will move to Bellefonte and will occupy a portion of the stone mansion on the hill with Sheriff Condo. The Karthaus times says that a hunting party led by Robert Haines, of Snow Shoe, killed seven deer and a large bear on Spruce Run last week. Harris' hardware are lettering the rear wall of their building so that passengers coming in on the Central will not fail to notice their place of business. Mr. Samuel Oris, of Central city, had two fingers cut off while feeding a sausage grinder. An accident policy is the only consolation he has over his misfortune. Cunningham's Palace cigar store is putting on a great deal of style. The interior has been handsomely papered and painted and does a credit to the name it bears. J. E. Alters, son of Mr. Joseph Alters, of Spring Mills, is now filling position at the P. R. R. freight station, in this place, made vacant by the resignation of Philip Waddle. Two young men named Flood, of Karthaus township, Clearfield county, killed five deer in one day last week and eight during the week. The largest weighed 165 pounds and the smallest 55. If some one will tell us who the next postmaster of Bellefonte will be, for publication, it would save us considerable time answering such inquiries. The time is drawing near for the change. Mr. Ed. C. Rowe, the furniture dealer is credited with making the first shipment over the Central R. R. of Penna. from Bellefonte. It consists of a lot of furniture for Mr. L. E. Swartz, of Hubblesburg. Prof. P. H. Meyer, of Boalsburg, will hold a musical convention in the Presbyterian church, at Hunters, Benner township during the first week of January, 1894. Prof. Meyer is an experienced instructor and his presence will guarantee a success every time.

COURT ITEMS.

SOME INTERESTING CASES TRIED.

An Expensive Horse Trade in Benner Township—Judge McPherson Presiding—Other Verdicts.

The case of Lot W. Kimpfort, of College township vs. M. G. Brown, lumberman, was to recover damages for lumber cut by defendant on what Mr. Kimpfort claimed was his land. The boundary line was in dispute between them and led to the difficulty. On Thursday afternoon the jury returned a verdict for Kimpfort of $97.97, being double damage for lumber and treble damage for bark.

On Friday the trial of John C. Motz vs. Harvey Bishop was taken up. Mr. Motz owned a saw mill and lumber yard in the mountains near Woodward. Harvey Bishop had a lumber tract above that and a tram road was built past Mr. Motz's saw mill to the Bishop operations to haul lumber out. A small dinkey engine was used for drawing the train. One day when the train stopped to take water near Motz's mill, sparks from the dinkey set fire to an old stable along the track. It being a windy day the sparks were carried to Motz's saw mill which was also burned to the ground. The amount of damages claimed was $5,000. The jury returned a verdict of $100 for Motz. A motion was made for a new trial.

It seemed as though the majority of Benner township's citizens were in the court house when the famous and long delayed case of Foster Fannon, by his next best friend Robert Brennan, vs. D. R. Thomas was called for trial. It was an action to recover damages on a horse trade. John Rishel traded a stallion to Foster Fannon for a mare. Mr. Rishel did not like his bargain because she would get balky. One evening he returned the mare and took the stallion home again. Mr. Rishel sold the stallion to D. R. Thomas with the guarantee that his title was good to this property. Mr. Fannon got out a writ of replevin for his stallion and Mr. Thomas filed bonds, double the value of the animal with John Rishel as surety, and the case was carried to court to find who was the owner of the horse.

The old mare that Rishel left at Fannon's stable was returned to Rishel; he sent her back to Fannon's. No one would claim the animal. Finally Rishel advertised the old mare as an estray and bought her himself. There was considerable amusement in the trial; a large number of witnesses were heard. The case concluded by a verdict of $160 for Fannon which Rishel will have to pay. The costs in the case will amount to several hundred dollars, all the result of a horse trade.

The Danville Asylum for insane vs. Overseers of the Poor of Bellefonte. Verdict for plaintiff $843.48. Subject to the opinion of the court upon questions of law reserved.

An order was given for a special term of court beginning on the third Monday of January next, to continue for one week.

THIRD WEEK.

Hon. John B. McPherson, of the 12th Judicial District, Lebanon, Pa., is presiding with Associates Riley and Faulkner.

The first case taken up was Geo. W. Jackson vs. The Nittany Valley Railroad. Mr. Jackson has a tract of iron ore land over which this railroad is built. Only one acre is used but it interferes with the mining on the tract. A jury of viewers awarded him a verdict of $4,000 which the plaintiff claims is entirely too small. The case was concluded on Wednesday morning by the jury finding a verdict for defendant. That allows Mr. Jackson no damages. This result was somewhat of a surprise when the award of the viewers is considered.

The next case taken up was Lyman Korman vs. A. G. Morris. About two years ago, by the premature discharge of a blast, Lyman Korman, a workman employed by Mr. Morris, was injured so badly that he lost his eyesight. Korman claims that Morris furnished them with an inferior quality of fuse which caused the accident. Chas. P. Hewes and Harry Keller are conducting the case for the plaintiff and Gen. James A. Beaver and C. M. Bower, Esq., for the defendant. The trial is in progress as we go to press.

The Meaning of Red Hair.

Scientists say that it means that there is a superabundance of iron in the blood. And the analyst says that it is the matter that enters red hair that imparts the vigor, the elasticity, the great vitality, the overabundance, thoroughly healthy animal life which runs through the veins of the ruddy haired, and the strongest sentiment of animal life is what renders them more intense in their emotions than their more languid fellow creatures. Philosophers notice it, as a peculiar fact that red haired old maids are very rare.—Tid Bits.

The Jury List.

The jury commissioners will complete their work of filling out the list of men to serve as jurymen during the ensuing year by the latter part of this week. The list of jurors for January court will be drawn by them before leaving.

NEW SHEEP LAW.

A Case of Interest to Sheep Raisers in the County.

The Punxsutawney Spirit says: James McCracken, of Jefferson county, had his flock of sheep chased by dogs a week ago. Mr. McCracken claimed that the damage to the flock, although but two of them were killed, was more than the actual loss of the sheep. The township auditors were inclined to agree with him, but did not care to act solely upon their own judgement. A letter was therefore written to Hon. Frank N. Moore, of Bradford county, author of the new dog and sheep law, and a prominent lawyer in Brookville was also asked to give an opinion in the matter. Mr. Moore replied that the intent of the law was to cover all damages whatsoever from the killing, wounding or frightening of the sheep by the dogs. It is well known that pregnant ewes, after being chased by dogs, are very likely to lose their lambs, either by premature births or deformities that cause the lambs to die soon after birth. The damage is therefore a matter for auditors to judge, taking into consideration the number of pregnant ewes chased as well as the number of sheep killed or wounded. The attorney's opinion was to the same effect.

Wedding Announcement.

During the past week invitations were received by a number of persons in Bellefonte to attend the marriage ceremony of Miss Adella DeForest Fink, of Unionville, and Newton B. Spangler, Esq., of Bellefonte, Wednesday evening December 20th, 1893, at 6 p. m. The happy event will take place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Fisher, Unionville, the bride being their niece, who is an accomplished young lady and will make a model life companion for our young barrister and friend.

We cannot fail to compliment Mr. Spangler upon the commendable step he has taken. Since he has been admitted to the practice of law he has been advancing rapidly and it is only just and proper that a life partner be taken to share in his prosperity.

The remaining bachelor members of the Bellefonte bar should make all haste to follow Mr. Spangler's last move. Go plead your cause before some fair maiden; be firm and you will get a like verdict.

Skating Accident near Tyrone.

On a dam near Tyrone Saturday Lizzie Sholly and Ada Wooden broke through the ice while skating. Several persons attempted to reach them with rails, but they were so numb with cold that they were unable to retain their hold and every attempt to pull them from their perilous position proved unavailing. Several persons went to their rescue, but the ice broke beneath and they were compelled to give up the struggle, when Rosson Richards, of Harrisburg, plunged into the dam and succeeded in reaching the two girls. The water was very swift and fairly swept him from his feet, but by superhuman efforts and the aid of a friendly board which he had pushed in ahead of him, he soon got the girls out of the water and conducted them safely to shore.

The Cantata.

The cantata entitled "Jephthah and his Daughter" rendered in the opera house on Monday and Tuesday evening was a fine production. Its conception and adaptation to the stage afford elegant opportunities for strong acting, elegant music and magnificent scenic effects. And in this respect the cantata was well rendered. Of course there were some striking defects but too much could not be asked for when attending an amateur performance.

The cantata was rendered for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. and from latest accounts the benefit will be quite small.

Hotel Changes.

The Reporter, Centre Hall, says: The license of the Coburn hotel was at this week's court transferred from the late proprietor Willis Rishel to R. O. Braught who lately was engaged in the livery business at Coburn. Willis will go to Harrisburg where he will take possession of the Metropolitan hotel, corner 6th and Walnut streets. Mr. Braught takes possession of the Coburn house on Thursday of this week.

A Contract.

In Clearfield county the sheriff has thirty-four boarders and there are over one hundred criminal cases to be tried at the next session of court. In Centre County there is an average of about four prisoners in the jail during the year. Our criminal list is only about one-fourth as large as in Clearfield county.

Where Bears are Plenty.

The Raftmans Journal says that Jim Schofield and his brother, of Pennfield, killed eleven bears in one week on Bull's mountain. The bears were all hung up in a row in front of Schofield's last Saturday.

Americans Like Bananas.

It is estimated that the people of this country annually consume 800,000 tons of bananas. There are no statistics of the number of falls caused by the peelings on the sidewalks.

"The Little Czar" is a brand of clothing at Lewin's with double knees and double seats. You get double value.

ALMOST COMPLETED.

THE C. R. R. READY FOR PASSENGER SERVICE.

Trains will run Next Monday—Temporary Schedule—List of Station Agents Appointed—Other Information.

The new railroad is about completed. During the past week freight trains have made regular trips and considerable traffic has been offered along the line. All the track is laid but in some places it needs ballasting badly. At Bellefonte considerable work is being done. Painters, slaters and carpenters are finishing the new depot. The turn table arrived last week and is a ponderous piece of iron girders tressed together. It has been unloaded and by this time is in place, but not completed. The round house, near the nail works—and by the way it is a square house, but every body calls it a round house—is under roof and will soon be finished and ready for storing the iron steeds. Wire and poles have been put up along the entire road and both telephones and telegraph will be used for communication between stations. A round house and turn table are also being put up at Mill Hall.

At Mill Hall the Berch Creek station will be used. Jewett Hills will act as agent for both companies. Operations on the station at Salona are being pushed rapidly forward.

Marry L. Fritz, who is now employed as a clerk in the American Express company's office at Williamsport, will resign that position to accept one as express messenger on the new road. The new express wagon arrived last week.

The new passenger engine is a monster and has all the latest improvements, electric head light and the bell is rung by steam. It was built for the private use of Vice President Webb of the New York Central and was used on the Adirondack mountain road for a short time. It is the finest engine that comes to Bellefonte, and Engineer Chas. Gilmore is very proud of it. The new "hog" freight engines are also in use on the road.

On next Monday, the 18th, the regular passenger service will begin. The time table was not completed in time for this issue, and can only give an outline. An estimate can easily be made when the passenger train will be due at intermediate points. This schedule is only temporary and after January 1st, 1894, there will be some changes.

A Narrow Escape.

On Tuesday of last week, Mr Sampsell who lives on the Shugert's farm near Pleasant Gap, butchered and the work was nearly completed when an accident occurred which might have proved a sad blow to the Sampsell family. In going about the usual duties incident to butchering day Mrs Sampsell got too close to the fire and in an instant her clothing was all ablaze. The flames had completely enveloped her before her cries attracted the attention of her husband who ran to her rescue. He succeeded in putting them out and thus saved the life of his wife. Had he been a few moments later there can be no doubt but that we would have had a fatal accident to record.—Watchman.

County Newspapers.

The last legislature decided that county newspapers have become valuable as mediums of information, social, legal, political, and has enacted a law directing county commissioners to subscribe for three weekly papers, have them bound in separate volumes and keep them in their offices as books of reference for the use of the public. Each commissioner is to select one of the three weeklies.

Clinton County Appointments.

On Monday the following postoffice appointments were made for Clinton county: Beech Creek, E. P. Trexler; Hamersley's Fork, H. A. Wilson; McElhattan, J. H. Chatman; Mill Hall, W. H. Clarke. The Philad. Branch makes a specialty of childrens clothing this season. Four brands—"The Little General," "The Little Czar," "The Little Senator," "The Little King." All of them have double knees and double seats. You get double wear therefore the best value. This is positively the finest and best line in the market.

Winter Tours.

The final arrangements are now made by the Tourist Bureau of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for the running of its personally conducted tours for the coming season. First and foremost in point of magnitude and attractiveness come those to California and Florida. The dates for the former are January 31st and February 22d. California will command unusual attention this winter by reason of the Mid-Winter Exposition to be held at San Francisco. Florida, always a popular haven, still justly asserts its claim as the most delightful part of our country in which to pass the inclement months of the year. Five tours will be run there, January 30th, February 13th, February 27th, March 13th, and March 27th, have been chosen as the starting dates. $50 from New York, $48 from Philadelphia, and an equally low rate from other points will cover all expenses en route.

Old Point Comfort appeals strongly to those not caring to journey from, and on December 29th this historic spot will be visited by a special tour. Last come the tours to Washington, D. C., on December 14th and 28th, January 18th, February 8th, March 1st and 22d, April 12th, and May 3d and 24th.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company's guarantee that thorough and satisfactory methods will be pursued in conducting these trips needs no additional testimonial.

A Valuable Addition.

On Tuesday the World's Fair exhibit of minerals, mines and mining, etc., arrived at the State College. It took four large cars to transport the exhibit, which will now be arranged in the various departments at the College, where they will be kept until called for by the state. This will be a valuable addition to the collection at the College.

GARMANS.

BULLETIN FROM GARMAN'S.

One woman's fancy in the matter of color in dress runs to blue, another to green, another to red, another to brown, until their diversified tastes have run the whole gamut of colors, and it is safe to say that yet they unite on black. It is safe to say that not one woman in the country, who can afford it—and all can nowadays when the rage of fabric and price is so extensively varied, and a good black dress can be bought for so little—no matter what her preference in color, but has at least one black gown.

The usefulness of a black gown, owing to its adaptability to almost any occasion, makes it doubly desirable.

Many women who cannot afford to keep pace with the changing colors adopt black exclusively and preserve an appearance of gentility and refinement. Consider what an enormous quantity of black fabrics is distributed throughout this broad land of more than sixty million people, a large proportion of which is women—what buying and selling—and you can form some idea of the magnitude of the Black Goods Industry. And let us add that our Black Dress Goods Department cuts no mean figure in this branch of trade; in fact, that it stands boldly forth in the front rank.

We carry everything that is new and desirable in black goods besides the old ways, such as Cashmere, Henrietta, Serge, etc., which cannot be displaced—and we have always plenty of them.

FROM SAMPLE DEPARTMENT.

We cheerfully send samples of any kind or quality of piece goods without charge, on application by postal or otherwise, and would endeavor to impress upon you the advisability of being as explicit as possible as to color, price and width, and we can then send more suitable samples instead of a great lot that would be useless to you.

When any of the details are left to our judgment we invariably discriminate in the purchaser's favor, and rarely fail to give the utmost satisfaction provided, of course, that the order is plain and explicit and the articles desired can be procured.

GARMANS.
