MESSAGE ON HAWAII.

Willis Not Authorized to Use Force in Restoring the Queen.

WHY SHE HAS NOT BEEN RESTORED

The President Named Conditions of General Amnesty, Which the Dusky Mon arch Would Not Accept-Minister Stevens Violated the Tradition and Policy of this Government.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—The president's message on the Hawaiian question was sent to both houses of congress yesterday. The president says:

In my recent annual message to congress I briefly referred to our relations with Hawaii, and expressed the intention of transmitting further information on the subject when additional advices permitted.

Though I am not able to report a defi-nite change in the actual situation, I am convinced that the difficulties lately created both here and in Hawaii, and now standing in the way of a solution through executive action of the problem presented, render it proper and expedient that the matter should be referred to the broader authority and discretion of congress.

When the present administration entered upon its duties the senate had under consideration a treaty providing for the annexation of the Hawaiian islands to the territory of the United States. Surely under our constitution and laws the enlargement of our limits is a manifestation of the highest attribute of soverignty, and if entered upon as an executive act, all things relating to the transaction should be clear and free from suspicion. Additional importance is attached to this particular treaty of annexation because it contemplated a departure from unbroken American tradition in providislands of the sea more than 2,000 miles removed from our nearest coast. These considerations might not of themselves call for interference with the com-plexion of a treaty entered upon by a previous administration. But it appeared from the documents accompanying the treaty that the ownership of Hawaii was tendered to us by a provisional govern-ment set up to succeed the constitutional ruler of the islands, who had been dethroned, and it did not appear that such provisional government had the sanction

ing for the addition to our territory of

of either popular revolution or suffrage. Two other remarkable features of the transaction naturally attracted attention. One was the extraordinary haste, not to say precipitancy, characterizing all the transactions connected with the treaty. It appeared that the so called committee of safety, ostensibly the source of the re-volt against the constitutional government of Hawaii, was organized on Saturday, the 14th day of January; that on Monday, the 16th, the United States forces were landed at Honolulu from a naval vessel lying in its harbor; that on the 17th the scheme of a provisional government was perfected, and a proclamation naming its officers was on the same day prepared and read at the government build-ing; that immediately thereupon the United States minister recognized the provisional government thus created; that two days afterwards commissioners representing such government sailed for this country in a steamer especially chartered for the occasion, arriving in San Francisco on the 28th day of January, and in Washington on the 3d day of February; that on the next day they had their first inter view with the secretary of state, and another on the 11th, when the treaty of annexation was practically agreed upon. and that on the 14th it was formally concluded, and on the 15th transmitted to the

The president then shows that a protest of the queen accompanied the treaty, and that she only yielded to the superior force of the United States. This raised the question of the truth or falsity of the pro-Ly n & Co., Bellefonte; S. R. Pringle, Port | test, as the executive message accompanyment by the United States forces.

The truth or falsity of the protest had not been investigated, and therefore Mr. Blount was selected as a suitable person to go to Hawaii and make an impartial investigation. His report justified the opinion that the president was misled in submitting the annexation treaty in saying that the overthrow of the monarchy was not in any way promoted by this gov-

The military demonstration was in itself an act of war unless made for the bona fide purpose of protecting American interests.

The military occupation was wholly unjustifiable. An invasion of this kind is called by an unpleasant name in private transactions.

The president expresses his sympathy for all efforts to establish republican forms of government, but it has been the settled policy of the United States to concede the same freedom and independence that we have always claimed for ourselves.

If the boast of our government that it seeks to do justice in all things without regard to the strength or weakness of those with whom it deals is to be realized the wrong done to Hawaii should be righted. A wrong has been done which a due regard for our national character, as well as the rights of the injured people of a feeble but independent government enjoins upon us, should be rectified. There can be no international law for weak powers and special law for first class powers. International morality requires that all should be treated alike.

"Actuated by these desires and not unmindful of the inherent perplexities of the situation, nor of the limitations of my power," writes the president, "Instructed Minister Willis to advise the queen and her supporters of my desire to aid in the restoration of the status existing before the lawless landing of the United States the lawiess landing of the United States forces, if such restoration could be effected upon terms providing for clemency as well as justice to all parties concerned.

'These conditions contemplate a general amnesty to those concerned in setting up the provisional government and a recognition of all its bona fide acts and obligations. These conditions have not proved acceptable to the queen, and though she has been informed that they will be insisted upon, and that unless acceded to, the efforts of the president to aid in the restoration of her government will cease, I have not thus far learned that she is willing to yield them her acquiescence."

The use of troops, Mr. Willis was to inform the queen, could only be authorized by congress.

AMBASSADOR MACVEAGH

A Philadelphian Named for the Italian Mission.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.-The president sent to the senate the name of Hon. Wayne MacVeagh, of Pennsylvania, to be ambassador extraordinary and plenipotentiary of the United States to Italy. The nomiration was received with surprise and many sarcastic references by Democrats. There is little doubt expressed, however, that Mr. MacVeagh will be confirmed. Whatever opposition to the confirmation rises will be chiefly from Republicans on secount of MacVeagh's attack on Egan and Whitelaw Reid.

Wayne MacVeagh was born in Phonixville, Chester county, Pa., April 19, 1833. He was graduated at Yale in 1853, studied law, was samitted to the bar in 1856 and served as district attorney for Chester county from 1859 to 1864. In 1862 he was captain of cavalry when the invasion of Pennsylvania was threatened, and in 1863 he was chairman of the Republican central committee of Pennsylvania. In 1870-1 he was United States minister to Turkey, and in 1872-3 was a member of the Pennsylvania constitutional convention. He was chief member of the "MacVeagh commission" that was sent to Louisiana in 1877 by President Hayes to represent him unofficially and to endeavor to bring the conflicting parties in that state to an understanding. In 1881 he was appointed United States attorney general in the cabinet of President Garfield, but resigned, with other members, on the accession of President Arthur and resumed his law practice in Philadelphia. He received the degree of LL. D. from Amherst in 1881. He has been chairman of the Civil Service Reform association of Philadelphia and also chairman of the Indian Rights association of that city for several years. During the campaign of last year he cast off his Republican party ties and participated in the campaign on behalf of the candidacy of Mr. Cleveland for the presidency.

CONCISELY TOLD AND BRIGHTLY COMMENTED UPON.

THE PATRIOT is the only complete morning newspaper that reaches Central Pennsylvania at an early heur of the day. It is one of the foremost Democratic newspapers in the Ntate and the ouly one printed at the State Capital, the official and political centre of the Commonwealth. It prints the news, receiving it over its own wires through the extraordinary facilities of the great Press Associations, aided by its own correspondents.

THE PATRIOT is Democratic to the core. It is opposed to bosses and an enemy of corrupt monopolies. It isn't afraid to fight the wrong; it never hesitates to speak for the wrong; it never hesitates to speak for the right.

It makes a specialty of department news and gives more each day than all the other State papers combined.

The leading question during the winter will be Tariff Reform. In November next Pennsylvania will elect a Governor, members of Congress, and a State Legislature. The man who desires to keep informed must read, and the man who reads should get THE PARIOT, daily or weekly.

To place THE PATRIOT in the hands of a yet larger constituency we will send the Daily from now until March 1.1895, by mail to any new subscriber on receipt of FIVE DOLLARS. The Weekly will be sent to any new subscriber from now until March 1, 1895, on receipt of ONE DOLLAR.

THE PATRIOT is the best advertising medium in Pennsylvania outside of Pittsburg and Philadelphia.
