

PRENDERGAST'S DOOM.

Mayor Harrison's Murderer Must Die for His Crime.

MET THE VERDICT LIKE A COWARD.

As the Words Were Pronounced That Consigned Him to the Gallows He Would Have Fallen to the Floor but for the Assistance of a Bailiff.

CHICAGO, Dec. 30.—Prendergast, the murderer of Carter H. Harrison, will be hanged for his crime. The verdict of the jury has said it, and the people of Chicago approve it. Aply defended as the assassin has been, strong as has been the evidence adduced to save his neck from the halter, the jury has found him sane, responsible for his act, and demanded that he pay the highest price for his offense against the law.

Mr. Trude resumed his argument at the opening of court and spoke until within a few minutes of 12 o'clock. He closed with an eloquent plea for the conviction of the prisoner, who had, he declared, been proven sane by the preponderance of evidence. When he finished the court announced a recess until 1 o'clock. Court was in session a few minutes before that time, and Judge Brentano began his charge to the jury precisely at 1 o'clock. Twenty-five minutes were consumed in delivering the charge, and then the judge said: "Gentlemen, you may retire to consider your verdict."

Leaving the court room at 1:25, there was nothing heard from the jury until exactly an hour had elapsed. Then the jury filed into the room and took their places. Judge Brentano came from his room and took his seat on the bench, and simultaneously the prisoner was led in.

As Prendergast took his seat the judge said: "Have you agreed upon a verdict?"

The twelve men bowed assent and several of them answered, "Yes sir." Juror Jacob Sutter had been chosen foreman, and in his hand he held a sheet of paper. "Hand your verdict to the clerk to be read," said the judge. Mr. Sutter walked to where Clerk Fitzgerald stood beside his desk and handed him the document. Fitzgerald's voice was clear and calm as he read:

"We, the jury, find the defendant, Patrick Eugene John Prendergast, guilty of murder in manner and form as charged in the indictment, and fix the penalty at death."

Then Prendergast proved himself the utter coward. His face turned pale, he opened his mouth to speak, but only a faint murmur came from between his hot and quivering lips. He moved slightly and would have fallen to the floor but for the assistance of a bailiff. When the jury was polled he listened with avidity to each and every answer to Judge Brentano's question: "Was this, and is this your verdict?"

"It is," said Foreman Jacob Sutter, and "It is" repeated every other juror, and then hope and the last vestige of courage faded utterly in Prendergast's breast. He was half led, half carried, back to his cell, where, refusing to speak, he threw himself upon his bunk in the attempt to hide from his fellow prisoners, whose expressions of satisfaction over the verdict were more emphatic than graceful and more sincere than polite.

Before the adjournment of court Mr. Wade made the usual application for a new trial.

Lehigh Strikers Fairly Treated.

BUFFALO, Jan. 2.—Commissioner Edward Feeney, of the state board of arbitration, has spent a day or two in Buffalo recently to satisfy himself that the Lehigh is carrying on its agreement with the strikers. He says: "I am satisfied the company's officials are living up to the agreement, and that the strikers are being taken back as rapidly as positions can be found for them." Superintendent Fennell corroborates the statement of the situation made by Mr. Feeney.

Terrible Quadruple Tragedy.

OMAHA, Jan. 1.—On marble slabs at the city morgue lie the charred remains of the family of John Cummings. Father, mother, baby and grandmother are there. Cummings has been in ill health for some time, and according to 12-year-old Tommy Fox, who was present, he deliberately set fire to his own house and caused the death of his mother-in-law, his wife, himself and his 1-year-old baby in the flames.

Bishop McNeirney's intellectual accomplishments were known throughout the state, and at the last session of the legislature he was chosen a member of the state board of regents.

Fierce rioting is also reported from Madura, and much damage to property was caused by the mob. Many buildings were burned, and the streets and squares are strewn with the ruins. Four persons were wounded at that place.

A Boy's Eyes Blown Out.

BRAZIL, Ind., Jan. 8.—Frank Hadley, Frederick Phelps, and two boys named Hawkins secured a can of powder and took it to a near by grove to celebrate the new year. The can was prematurely exploded, and the eyes of one of the Hawkins boys were blown entirely out, while the other boy's were horribly burned.

Mr. Lesse Ahead.

OLATHIE, Kan., Jan. 2.—The board of charities met at the Deaf and Dumb institution in this city, and Mrs. Lesse presided in the chair as president, the board recognizing her as such, notwithstanding the dispatch received by that body to ignore her.

A MANIAC HUSBAND'S CRIME.

A Well Known Educator Murders His Bride of a Month.

MEDIA, Pa., Jan. 1.—Professor Swithin C. Shoethidge, principal of the Media Academy for Boys, shot and instantly killed his wife yesterday while promenading on one of the principal streets of this city. The couple had been married but a month, and the only cause that can be assigned for the deed is temporary insanity from the effects of a recent attack of the grip, combined with business reverses. There were no witnesses to the murder who were near enough to hear any conversation that may have preceded it, and Professor Shoethidge has been totally irrational ever since it occurred.

All that can be learned, until he recovers his reason, is that the couple went out for a walk during the morning, and that when they had reached a point on Jefferson street, a few minutes walk from their home, the frenzied man suddenly drew a pistol and fired six shots in rapid succession into the woman's head. Then he threw himself upon her prostrate form, and when those who saw the tragedy rushed to the scene he was beyond all human aid, and he was frantically calling to her to come back to him.

Crash on the Union Pacific.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 3.—Three men were killed, four seriously injured and a dozen more slightly hurt in a wreck on the Union Pacific railroad near Linwood, Kan., twenty-seven miles west of Kansas City. The wreck was caused by a freight train on the Rock Island railway, which was using the Union Pacific track between Kansas City and Topeka, running into the rear end of a mixed freight and passenger train of the Union Pacific. The Union Pacific train was near a water tank west of Linwood, and was slowing up when the other train crashed into it.

Fatal Fire in Buffalo.

BUFFALO, Jan. 3.—A cheap lodging house on Swan street, between Main and Washington, kept by Lizzie Hacker, was destroyed by fire at 3 o'clock in the morning. Of the scores or more of lodgers three perished, and all the others were more or less seriously burned and injured. The dead are: Edna Farley, day cook; Isaac Bradley, printer, and Louis Anderson, car repairer. David E. Ward, a negro cook; Charles Van Ever, negro detective, and Edward Cross are dying, while eight more injured ones are lying at the hospital.

Another Ancient City Unearthed.

PARIS, Jan. 8.—Excavations in Oisseau le Petit, department of the Sarthe, have revealed a Gallo-Roman city, which appears to have been destroyed by an earthquake. The city probably contained some thirty thousand inhabitants, but its name is not known in French history. The ruins include a great temple, part of which is still standing, and also theatres and monuments. A number of men have also been found, which include one of the time of Emperor Constantine.

Trouse to Death on the Mountains.

FURU, Jan. 3.—A party of nine men started on Sunday evening to climb the mountain, intending to greet the new year from its summit. The ascent of Gialfetti peak was very difficult, and the party were overtaken by a storm. Five of the men were compelled to spend the night on the glacier, and their sufferings from the cold was very severe. One of the five, Lieutenant Guiana, died during the night. The other four were rescued alive.

Boston's Globe Theater Destroyed.

BOSTON, Jan. 2.—Fire destroyed the Globe theater last night. The inflammable nature of the scenery and propensities of the Union Superba company helped on the blaze, and it was with great difficulty that surrounding property was saved. The loss on the theater is estimated at $300,000, and to the Hanlon Superba company, who lost all their valuable scenery at $50,000. Two adjoining buildings were also burned.

Terrible Quadruple Tragedy.

OMAHA, Jan. 1.—On marble slabs at the city morgue lie the charred remains of the family of John Cummings. Father, mother, baby and grandmother are there. Cummings has been in ill health for some time, and according to 12-year-old Tommy Fox, who was present, he deliberately set fire to his own house and caused the death of his mother-in-law, his wife, himself and his 1-year-old baby in the flames.

INDIVIDUAL INCOME TAX.

It Finds a Place in the Wilson Tariff Bill.

THE TAX ON WHISKY INCREASED.

The Income Tax Provision Provides That All Individual and Corporation Incomes Over Four Thousand Dollars Shall Pay Two Per Cent—To Vote on the Bill Jan. 17.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—The advocates of the individual income tax proposition triumphed at the meeting of the Democratic members of the ways and means committee last evening. The eleven members were present when the final meeting was held at the treasury department at 4 o'clock. Comparatively little time was wasted in discussion. The ground had all been argued and fought over time and again, and the issue was joined on two propositions, one to levy a tax of 2 per cent. against individual incomes over $4,000 and against the incomes from corporations—that is, the difference between the gross income and the operating expenses, or, in other words, the net income; and second, a proposition offered as a substitute by Mr. Cockran, of New York, to tax the incomes from corporations 1 per cent. and inheritances 5 per cent., to place a tax of ten cents on whisky and to restore sugar to the dutiable list at half a cent a pound. The vote on Mr. Cockran's substitute proposition, which was taken first, resulted in its defeat, 7 to 4, as follows:

Ayes—Messrs. Wilson, Cockran, Stevens and Montgomery.
Nays—Messrs. McMillin, Turner, Whitling, Bryan, Bynum, Tarnsey and Breckinridge.
The original proposition was then submitted, and carried by a vote of 6 to 5, as follows:
Ayes—Messrs. McMillin, Turner, Whitling, Bryan, Bynum and Tarnsey.
Nays—Messrs. Wilson, Cockran, Stevens, Montgomery and Breckinridge.
It was also decided, in connection with the latter proposition, to increase the whisky tax ten cents per gallon; that is, from ninety cents to $1, to be levied against whisky in as well as out of bond. Upon the representation that this increase would work undue hardship to the owners of whisky in bond, it was decided to extend the bonded period from three to eight years. The tax on playing cards, at one time fixed at six cents per pack, was reduced to two cents, and the contemplated tax on perfumes and cosmetics was discarded. No increase was made in the tax on cigars, but the increase on cigarettes, $1 per thousand, was allowed to stand.

The committee estimate that the tax on the incomes from corporations and individuals (corporations being treated as individuals) will raise $30,000,000 revenue, $12,000,000 from corporations and $18,000,000 from individuals. The increase in the whisky tax, it is estimated, will give an additional revenue of $10,000,000 per annum. The proposed tax on inheritances, which was to be levied in case the proposition for an individual income tax failed, was not deemed necessary.

Summarized, the internal revenue features of the Wilson bill are as follows: A tax of 2 per cent. on individual incomes over $4,000 and net corporation incomes, and a tax of two cents per pack on playing cards; $1 per gallon on whisky, $1 per barrel on beer, $1.50 per thousand on cigarettes and $2 per thousand on cigars and shroets. These features of the bill were presented to the full committee this afternoon, and will be formally introduced in the house tomorrow. Before the final vote on the individual income tax proposition was taken Mr. Cockran offered a proposition that a bond issue should be authorized. When the question was put the proposition was only supported by one affirmative vote, that of Mr. Cockran himself.

Before the Democratic members adjourned they decided upon the program for the tariff debate. The general debate will continue until Monday night, Jan. 8. Nine days will be allowed for debate under the five minute rule, during which time the bill will be open for amendment. The final vote is to be taken Jan. 17.

A Deadly Visit.

COLUMBIA, Tex., Jan. 2.—Full accounts of a wholesale killing at Cedar, about eight miles from here, have just been received. E. N. Williams was dancing and aroused the animosity of Lamon Gayle, who demanded the Williams surrender his place on the floor. Williams refused, but Gayle became bolder and Williams started from the room, when Gayle, his brother, London Gayle, and Bob Ealy began firing at Williams and others. Three are dead, and a fourth fatally injured, two seriously, and about half a dozen have minor injuries.

Attempt to Poison the Czar.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—A Czarow (Poland) newspaper is the authority for the statement that an attempt was made to poison the czar at a banquet given some time ago by the Imperial Order of St. George, of which the czar is the head. The first course was but half consumed, and the czar ordered that what was left be sent to the Nicholas Orphan asylum. The orphans were all taken sick, and an investigation revealed that the fish had been poisoned.

When War is Declared.

Against a man's happiness by his stomach, the enemy may be pacified and brought speedily and easily to terms. That potent regulator of digestion, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, disciplines the rebellious organ thoroughly. Indigestion arises from weakness of the stomach and the food in it, for want of power to digest, decomposes and acidifies, giving rise to heart burn, flatulence and pain, besides a multitude of symptoms both changeable and perplexing. But peace soon reigns when the great stomachic is resorted to and used with persistence. Dyspepsia gives rise to morbid discomposure of mind, and even sleeplessness and hypochondria in chronic cases. To the complete dismissal of these the Bitters is fully adequate. Liver complaint, constipation, debility, rheumatism and malaria are completely subdued by this genial medicine.

They all Passed.

A railroad conductor passed nine people on one ticket the other day. They were a mother and eight children. The detachment consisted of four sets of twins, the oldest pair being just a few days under six years of age. The conductor kicked at what seemed a wholesale business, but the mother had the bulge on him and they all passed.

Lanes family medicine moves the bowels each day.

In order to be healthy this is necessary.

Assigned.

Last week S. S. Blair, of Tyrone, superintendent of the Bald Eagle Railroad made an assignment in favor of his sons. This was a great surprise to the public, and of considerable importance as he was connected with a number of enterprises in that vicinity.
