than any time since the war." J. H. STILLMAN, the steam whistles were carried away. The bunker ports were stove in, and all the officers' berths and other berths amidships were flooded. The after cabin door, made of two inch teak, was smashed to atoms, and the cabin was flooded. The deck rail-Every person having sale bills printed ing, made of iron an inch and a half in diameter, was bent and twisted into scrolls. A number of the crew were struck by it and hurled in all directions, and four were washed overboard. A returning wave brought three back, but the other one was drowned. The accident took place in the Gulf stream, 300 miles northwest from Halifax. After the damage was sustained the captain immediately headed his vessel for this port.

Following is the list of the men who were injured and who are now in the hospital here: Charles C. Brunn, captain, two ribs broken and otherwise injured; George Dunn, chief officer, head badly gashed, scalp torn, left leg and right foot injured; Albert Daniels, second officer, internal injuries; James Payne, chief engineer, back hurt; George Hosier, carpenter, badly bruised; James Heenie, boatswain, arm dislocated and one leg supposed to be fractured; Thomas Morgan, leg cut and bruised and back hurt; Nicholas Falk, one foot broken at instep; Charles Christiansen, left arm wrenched and badly cut about head; Robert Howrie, cabin boy, foot injured; James Brown, fireman, back badly injured; Amos S. Carfe, fireman, ends of all fingers on one hand cut off and the top of the other hand cut; Robert Brotherton, fireman, wrist broken. The name of the seaman who washed overboard was William Carney.

Trying to Save Berkman. PITTSBURG, Feb. 7.-New York anarchists are making a strong effort to secure the pardon of Alexander Berkman, the anarchist who shot and wounded H. C. Frick. Thomas M. Marshall, the well known criminal lawyer, has received a letter stating that the New York "group" was collecting money to help Berkman, the lover of Emma Goldman, out of the penitentiary, where he has been sentenced to twenty-two years imprisonment. The wording of the letter shows that Berkman went to Pittsburg with the knowledge of his New York compatriots, and for the express purpose of killing Frick.

TRAIN ROBBERS SENTENCED.

Three Must Hang and Two Others Get Life Imprisonment.

NEWPORT, Ark., Feb. 7 .- The jury in the case of Albert Mansker, one of the Oliphant train robbers who killed Conductor W. P. McNally, of the St. Louis and Iron Mountain road, returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree. Judge Butler sentenced Mansker and his previously convicted accomplices, James L. Wyrick and Thomas Brady, to be hanged on April 6. The three desperadoes took their sentences coolly.

PINE BLUFF, Ark., Feb. 7.-A telegram from Oswego, Kan., states that Hans Hyndrick and Claude Shepherd, the Mound Valley, Kan., train robbers, were sentenced to death yesterday, which in that state means life imprisonment. This ends the short but very eventful career of the two bandits. About a year ago, in this city, Hyndrick murdered Clem Ingram, a livery stable keeper, in a quarrel with his mistress. Hyndrick and Shepherd then turned towards Kansas and committed the daring train robbery for which they have been sentenced. Shepherd killed the Wells Fargo messenger at the time. They next appeared near Jackson, Miss., again plying their old trade of burglarizing, and were sentenced to a term of five years in the penitentiary, part of which they were serving when on a requisition they were taken by detectives to Kansas.

Hugh O'Donnell in Hard Luck. HARRISBURG, Feb. 7.-Hugh O'Donneil, the leader of the strike at Homestead two years ago, called at the adjutant general's department yesterday to renew his acquaintance with General Greenland. O'Donnell's clothing was much the worse

FOR TARIFF REFORM.

The Wilson Bill Goes Through the National House.

IT HAS A MAJORITY OF SIXTY-FOUR.

Seventeen Democrats Oppose It-The Galleries Crowded to Overflowing-Wildest Enthusiasm Over the Speeches of Messrs. Reed, Wilson and Crisp. WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.-At 6 o'clock last night, at the conclusion of one of the grandest, most imposing and most impressive scenes ever witnessed in the American capital, the Wilson tariff bill passed the house of representatives by a vote of 204 to 140. The events leading up to it were almost unparalleled in our annals. At 12 o'clock, after a preliminary skirmish of an hour over the barley schedule, the bill was reported to the house and the closing speeches were made. Such a vast concourse of people as assembled to hear these last arguments had never before been seen within the precinct of the nation's legislative capital. Nothing like it was ever known in the story of the oldest inhabitant of the capital. For hours before the debate began the corridors leading to the galleries were a sorging mass of humanity, which finally became so great that men cried out in terror and women fainted in fright. It was estimated that over 20,000 attempted to gain admittance to the galleries of the house. Their seating capacity is about 3,000, and every available seat was occupied long before the gavel dropped. The people were lined against the walls and banked against the doors. So great did the crush become that the members of the house secured permission to bring their wives upon the floor.

When Mr. Reed, the first speaker, arose at last to deliver the final plea for pro-tection the overhanging galleries were black and dense with the spectators who thronged them, and every inch of space upon the floor was taken. Only ten of the 354 members of the house were absent, and many grave and reverend senators and other distinguished personages were on the floor, while in the galleries were Mrs. Cleveland, Mrs. Vice President Stevenson and other ladies of eminence and

Then for three hours the oratory of the champions of the two economic systems followed-Reed, Crisp and Wilson-while their partisans made the air vocal with their shouts of their approval. The appearance of the speaker of the house upon the floor engaged in debate was in itself a remarkable as well as an unusual thing. Each of the speakers seemed to be in his best form, and the speeches which they delivered will rank among the most brilliant of their lives. When these were finished Mr. Wilson, who spoke last, was lifted on the shoulders of his admiring colleagues and carried triumphantly from the hall amid a scene of unmatched en-

When it came to voting the victory for the measure was overwhelming. vote upon the income tax proposition (taken in connection with the internal revenue amendment) stood 182 to 50. Only 12 Republicans voted upon this proposition-7 for and 5 against. The Democratic opposition amounted to 45. The last effort was made by those Democrats who are opposed to the measure in whole or in part, led by Mr. Covert (N. Y.), to recommit the bill, but the Republicans refused to join in this attempt to scotch the measure, and it ended in a dismal lanure. But 35 Democrats voted for it. not even enough to secure the ayes and

The vote upon the final passage of the bill was a surprise. Only 17 Democrats of all the boasted Democratic opposition to the measure stood out to the end and voted against it.

The majority for the bill, 64, exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the Democratic members of the ways and means committee. When the speaker announced the vote cheer followed cheer upon the Democratic side. Papers, hats, congressional records and in fact everything which Democrats could lay their hands upon were flung high in the air, and amid a perfect pandemonium of joy the house adjourned.

Senator Walthall's Successor.

JACKSON, Miss., Feb. 7.-Hon. A. J. Mc-Laurin, of Rankin county, was nominated last night by the Democratic caucus of the Mississippi legislature on the sixty-seventh ballot, which practically amounts to an election.
