LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

—For a change, we are having no court this week.

—Judge Gordon, of Clearfield county, is frequently seen on our streets.

—John M. Ward, the base-ballist, was in Bellefonte for the past few days.

—T. A. Lucas, of Chicago, formerly of Howard, visited friends in Bellefonte this week.

—Last Friday a gang of workmen began tearing away the ruins of the old Conrad building.

—Newton Gibson is erecting a new residence on Thous street. It will be a handsome building.

—Next Wednesday, February 14th, will be St. Valentine's day. Artistic chromos will be in order.

—The Lutheran congregation will hold a sociable at the parsonage, on east High street, this evening.

—The Fisk Jubilee Singers drew a very large house on Monday evening. Their program was appreciated.

—Some of our young people expect to attend the mid-winter assembly at Lewisburg this coming Friday evening.

—The thermometer was down to several degrees below zero on Monday morning. That will make good ice.

—T. C. Hopkins, Ph. D., professor of Geology at State College, was accepted a similar position in the Chicago University.

—Moyer Lyon, the bustling merchant, is home again at his post of duty after spending several weeks in the eastern cities.

—The American Express company's turnout for snow came handy last week. When there is snow they believe in sliding.

—On Monday night a steam pipe burst in front of the Presbyterian church and did some damage to the interior furnishings.

—A special train was run from Penna. State College on Monday evening for the jubilee singers. Over one hundred passengers came to town.

—There has been, in some parts of the county, a total of two feet of snow fall this season. That is what some have calculated.

—Some of the Bellefonte post office aspirants have been putting in considerable time visiting, as it were, at Washington, D. C.

—The snow that is being housed this week is from about six to nine inches thick with a great deal of snow in it, but it is the best to be had.

—During the past six months there have been 1,088 births in Clearfield county and 369 deaths. Clearfield always was considered a good growing county.

—J. C. Meyer, attorney, of Bellefonte, has been drawn as a petit juror to serve in the March term of the United States circuit and district courts to be held at Scranton.

—The ground hog prophets say we will have cold weather until April. Last Friday was a bright sunny day and would have scared the critter back to his nest.

—On Monday Harrison Kline, of near Bellefonte, killed a porker that dressed over 600 pounds. Several such hogs would make a man feel happy these hard times.

—Company B. is figuring on having an armory building put up at some convenient point about Bellefonte. The plans have been designed by Architect Cole.

—The CENTRE DEMOCRAT has seven hands at work in the various departments of the office. Phoenix like we have arisen from the recent fire, with renewed energy.

—Hon. Geo. F. Kribbs, congressman from this district, has brought a suit of criminal libel against the Clarion Jacksonian, a democratic newspaper published in his home town.

—Mr. H. B. Pontius has resigned his position in Daniel Irvin & Son's hardware store. In almost twenty-five years Mr. Pontius was employed in this store he never had a day's lost time.

—At a special meeting of the Phillipsburg borough council, held last week, that body refused to accept Judge Furst's recent ruling in the Lohr case, by which he gave Mrs. Lohr $1,050 damages for injuries sustained on a defective board walk in the borough of Phillipsburg.

A SUDDEN DEATH.

STRUCK BY A PASSENGER TRAIN.

Isaac Yarnell Killed at Hecla Station on last Friday Morning—His Body Badly Bruised—Peculiar Accident.

Last Friday morning the first fatality occurred on the Central Railroad of Penna., which was due to no negligence on their part. The particulars of the shocking affair can be briefly stated:

Mr. Isaac Yarnell is a farmer living about one mile from Hecla, Walker twp. That morning he decided to take his first ride on the new railroad, by going to Bellefonte. On his way to the station he met Judge Cyrus Gordon, of Clearfield. As they neared the station the passenger train was approaching, and it was necessary to cross over a switch between freight cars, to the opposite side of the track, to signal the train to stop.

Mr. Gordon passed through first and waved his hand to the engineer. The train was close to them and running at a good speed. Mr. Yarnell followed Judge Gordon across, but just as he got on the track the engine struck him and hurled him a distance of sixty feet before he struck the ground and then he turned over several times. After the train passed, persons about the depot saw Mr. Yarnell lying on the ground.

When picked up he was unconscious. The injured man was taken to his home and Dr. Fisher was summoned. The injuries were many. The right leg was broken in two places; several ribs were fractured or dislocated; the head and face were covered with severe gashes and cuts. He lingered until 2:30 that afternoon and never regained consciousness.

A strange part of the accident was that neither Mr. Gordon or any one on the train knew of the accident that befell Mr. Yarnell until they arrived at Bellefonte, word having been sent here by telephone.

Mr. Yarnell was about 57 years of age and leaves a wife and seven children. The interment occurred at Zion on Sunday afternoon.

Fire at State College.

About half-past 6 o'clock on Wednesday evening of last week fire was discovered in one of the students' rooms in the preparatory department on the fifth floor of the Pennsylvania State College.

The fire started behind a radiator and burned the floor so that the radiator fell through to the fourth floor. The flames also went up between the partition to the attic, but were then stopped before they had a chance to spread.

The fire department at the college is ample and it was no time at all until the students had the conflagration completely drowned out. The damage, which is as much by water as by fire, will probably aggregate a couple of hundred dollars; of course, covered by insurance.

It is supposed that the fire originated from a steam radiator charring the wood. The fire originated at the radiator and the floor was burned away entirely, letting it drop.

Farmers' Institutes.

On Monday Hon. John A. Woodward was a caller at this office and from him we learned that the farmers' institutes for this year would be held at Rebersburg and Unionville. Each institute will continue for a period of two days and will be in charge of eminent instructors and lecturers upon topics of special interest to farmers.

The Rebersburg institute will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday, February 20 and 21. The Unionville institute will commence the following Thursday and Friday, February 22 and 23.

These institutes are under the general direction of Mr. Woodward, who is one of Centre county's most intelligent farmers and knows what will be the most profitable. The people living at these two points should take interest in the institutes and have them well attended.

Chaplain McCabe Coming.

It is stated that Chaplain McCabe has consented to pay Bellefonte a visit next month. He is to arrive here on Saturday, March 3rd. That evening he will deliver his lecture "The Bright Side of Life in Libby Prison."

On Sunday morning and evening he will preach in the Methodist church. Chaplain McCabe is a man of marked ability and has attained great prominence in the Methodist church.

No Argument.

By the end of this week the commissioners' statement will be placed in the hands of every reader of a newspaper in Centre county. It shows clearly how every dollar of the public funds was expended and for what purpose. They have placed everything they have done before the public in detail and further argument is unnecessary. They have made their statement—it is well done—it is sufficient.

Smallpox Near Tyrone.

Smallpox is spreading at Tyrone Forges and Ironville, two villages near Tyrone. There are now about twelve cases. A woman named Stillwell was the first case reported, but she has recovered, and now all the members of her family are ill with the disease.

LENTEN REGULATIONS.

Rules that are to be Observed by Faithful Catholics.

The following Lenten regulations do not differ from those which have been in force in past years. The season of fast and other mortifications began on Wednesday and will conclude with Saturday, March 24. The signature of the bishop is attached to the following:

All the faithful who have completed their 21st year are, unless legitimately dispensed, bound to observe the fast of Lent.

They are to make only one full meal a day, excepting Sunday.

The meal allowed on fast days is not to be taken till about noon.

A small refreshment, commonly called collation, is allowed in the evening. No general rule as to the quantity of food permitted at this time is or can be made, but the practice of most regular Christians is never to let it exceed the fourth part of an ordinary meal.

In the morning a piece of bread, not exceeding two ounces, with a drink of coffee, tea, chocolate, or any similar beverage, can be taken.

When the principal meal cannot be taken about noon, it is lawful to revert to the order, by taking the collation in the morning and the dinner in the evening.

In preparing food what is permitted, lard or fat may be made use of.

The following persons are exempt from the obligations of fasting: Young persons under 21 years of age, the sick, pregnant women, or those giving suck to infants, persons obliged to hard labor, fast without great prejudice to their health.

By dispensation, the use of flesh meat will be allowed at all meals on Sundays, and once a day on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, with the exception of Saturday in Ember week and the last Saturday of Lent.

The use of butter, cheese, milk and eggs is also permitted every day in Lent. The use of flesh meat and fish at the same meal on any day, even on Sundays, is forbidden.

Persons dispensed from the obligation of fasting are not bound by the restriction of using meat only at one meal on days on which its use is granted by dispensation. Those who are obliged to fast, are permitted to use meat only at one meal.

The time for making the Easter communion will date from the first Sunday in Lent till the Sunday within the Octave of Ascension (May 6th) inclusive.

The use of flesh meat on Saturdays throughout the year is allowed, for a term of years, by dispensation from the holy see.

A Bear Hunter.

While out hunting last Saturday, Mr. Alfred Lucas, of Moshannon, was attracted to the vicinity of South fork by the barking of his dogs. He thought they had run up a porcupine, which he knew to be in that region; he hurried up to get them away from it before they would get so full of quills as to be unfit for further hunting.

Accordingly he ran through the brush to the place where they were barking and found them making a great fuss near a fallen tree. Thinking, of course, that they had the porcupine under the log he ran up to pull them off and just when he reached them he found that instead of a porcupine a huge size bear was under the log. He was then too close to get his gun up so he retreated a few steps, where he could take aim, and fired. His gun was only loaded with No. 8 shot, but they did the work.

After he became positive that she was dead he stooped down to drag the carcass out when, imagine his surprise, three tiny cubs ran out. They were so small they did not have their eyes open. They could not have been more than three days old and Mr. Lucas caught them and carried them home, where he is now raising them on a bottle.

Down Went the Democrats.

Saturday afternoon last, one of the first floor front rooms of Andrew Imel's hotel was crowded with about 100 democrats, who were holding a primary election. Suddenly the floor gave way and nearly the whole outfit fell through into the cellar. Several were considerably hurt, and some were burned by coming in contact with the stove, but none fatally injured, we are glad to say. Austin Raup received more injuries than any of the others, but he will soon be able to be around again.—Sunbury Daily.

Cheap Horses.

The Greensburg Press says: Horse flesh seems to be on the bargain counter in the vicinity of Parnassus, judging from the remarkably low prices at which a number of good horses have been sold lately. A farmer bought a 3 year old the other day for $3 and was offered another for nothing. Another farmer bought one for 75 cents. The horses are all "good ones" but their owners, who had no work nor money, preferred selling them at a sacrifice rather than let them starve to death.

His Eye Teeth Cut.

A man in Jersey Shore who is troubled with ingrowing nails saw an advertisement in a paper that guaranteed a cure for 50 cents. The "cure" consisted of holding a sharp chisel on his toe and letting some one hit the chisel a sharp blow with a sledge. At least that was the advice his 50 cents brought him.

THE BOROUGHS TICKET.

The borough ticket, as well as the several ward tickets, placed in nomination by the Democratic Caucus is an exceptionally strong one, and should receive the full democratic vote. We feel satisfied that it will receive the solid vote of the party, and also a goodly number of republicans who are dissatisfied with the conduct of the affairs of the borough under the present republican regime. For years the opposition has had control of the borough government, poor, school and borough, and both debt and taxes are constantly increasing. If we had made any apparent advance in the improvement of the town, or in the value of public property, there should be no complaint, but most of our streets are in a miserable condition, in fact some of them are almost impassable, and our public property is worth less than it was ten years ago, when compared with our increase of population. The water service is anything but satisfactory, and our police service is a delusion and a snare—yet we are annually expending money enough to have all the comforts and protection that a town of its size and importance should have, and deserves to have. There is, undoubtedly, something seriously wrong, and a change of rulers could certainly not do any harm. The trouble seems to be that a few men have absolute control of the affairs of the borough, and until a change is made in the political complexion of the different departments, this state of affairs will continue. This fact has become so notorious that minstrel troupes will burlesque our councils with impunity, and put to shame our people by publicly ridiculing our officials, because they are in the leading strings of a few ward politicians, who care more for their own interests, than those of the people of the town. A change is necessary for the welfare of our town. By electing the democratic ticket the affairs of the town will be placed in the hands of young and energetic business men, who will administer the business of the borough, according to honest business rules.

Vote the entire democratic ticket—our nominees are all qualified for the places for which they are nominated and should be elected.

ONE MONTH ONLY.

During the past week Edward Chambers, Esq., circulated a report to the effect that he had been reappointed deputy revenue collector of this district for four years. The fact being that he was simply asked to renew his bond.

To confirm the above, on Wednesday we sent the following dispatch:

HON. GRANT HERRING, Bloomsburg, Pa.: Telegraph me true nature of Chambers' re-appointment; need it for publication. CENTRE DEMOCRAT.

To the above the following prompt and significant reply was received:

Bloomsburg, Pa. Feb. 7, 1894. CENTRE DEMOCRAT: He was re-appointed for one month, and only that. GRANT HERRING.

Our friend Chambers can now prepare for the worst—his term is short.

Change of Time.

The Central Railroad Co., of Pennsylvania announces that taking effect Thursday Feb. 9th, the Local Freight train will leave Bellefonte at 9:30 a. m., in place of 6:25 a. m., as heretofore, and on the return trip leave Mill Hall at 2:00 p. m., reaching Bellefonte at 4:00 p. m. This change is made to enable shippers to deliver freight in the morning up to 8:30 a. m., for shipment that day, which is not possible on the present schedule. By departing from Mill Hall at a later hour the through Philadelphia freight service will also be improved.

Opera House.

The next attraction at the Opera House will be Bartholomew's horse show for two days, commencing February 14th. This is considered the finest combination of trained animals ever put on the stage. Arrangements are being made for excursion trains over the various railroads for this attraction. After the first performance everybody will want to see these animals perform.

Zion Normal.

The normal school will be opened at Zion this spring by Prof. D. J. Wolf, of Lancaster, Pa. A large number of pupils have been obtained already for the session, and many more are expected.

—Last Thursday evening a large audience assembled in the Centre County Bank Hall, to attend the musical entertainment prepared by Prof. Meyer's band and orchestra. Gen. Beaver was present and delivered a stirring and appropriate address. The band will be under the direction of Mr. Culveyhouse, and promises to flourish. The start is a very good one.

—The barn-door-election-proclamation-policy is in force again.

—Bartholomew's horse show at the opera house next Monday evening.

—McSuley Bros. striped Graham's barber shop in attractive style this week.

—During the past week not a single marriage license was issued by Register G. W. Rumberger.

SOME MISTAKES.

THE JUDGESHIP CONTEST BOOMING.

Democratic Lawyers will not Support a Republican Nominee—What may happen—Republican Disaffection.

The comments in our last issue, in regard to the judicial contest in this district, had the effect of arousing some interest among politicians. Many were surprised to learn of the activity among the republican aspirants in this county.

In our last issue, reference was made to a gathering of certain republican politicians, at which time one of the aspirants withdrew. Another interesting judicial gathering is reported and is of some importance. The story goes as follows:

At the instance of Gen. Beaver there was a meeting of republican attorneys and the judicial question was sprung. Gen. Beaver strongly advocated the re-nomination and re-election of Judge Furst, and proceeded to draw up a set of resolutions to that effect which he signed. Then it was passed to another member of the bar, who also attached his signature, but the third barrister objected and the paper stopped. That indicated that the gathering was not strictly "Furst"—they were mistaken in their surmises.

That is the story frequently told and we presume it is substantially correct.

There is another and more serious error in this matter to which we wish to call the attention of the public. It is said that reports have been circulated by a certain faction of the republican party that, in case Judge Furst would be re-nominated, a large number of prominent democratic members of the bar would support him in preference to any one put on their own ticket. Where the rumor started is not definitely known, but it was sufficient to arouse curiosity and on Tuesday a canvass was made among most of the democratic lawyers and the emphatic answers received were a surprise. Not a single one was found who gave an evasive answer. All said they would be first, last and all the time for the democratic ticket nominated and felt positive that the district would go that way at all events. From this personal canvass we can say, with positive assurance, that any republican candidate who bases his claims upon democratic disaffection will be woefully mistaken. If the story is being circulated for booming any one's candidacy, it is a mistake to build on such faulty assumptions. The fact of the matter is, from the present aspect of the judicial contest, there is a likelihood of many republican lawyers supporting any nominee on the Democratic ticket.

That is the exact situation as found by a disinterested party. The democrats will be united and for their ticket.

Removed to Bellefonte.

The family of Mr. Geo. W. Rumberger took their departure last Friday for their new home in Bellefonte, due to the election of Mr. R. to the office of register, excepting two of the sons, Harry and George, both of whom are holding good positions in our city, the former with Denlinger Bros., oil dealers, and the latter as baggage agent for the T. & C. R. R. In the removal of Mr. R. and a portion of his family Phillipsburg suffers a loss that will be keenly felt, but which we trust will be only temporary. Miss Laura will be specially missed in the M. E. church, in which she was an earnest worker—a member of the choir and holding an office in the Epworth League, to which she gave her best attention.—Phillipsburg Journal.

Council Meeting.

The boro council held its regular meeting on last Monday evening.

The Cornet Hook and Ladder property was turned over to the Logan fire company upon the condition that they take proper care of the appliances, convey it to and from all fires, and are to have the regular annual boro appropriation in addition, for the support of their team.

It was voted to convert $2,000 into the sinking fund. There were reports from some of the committees of no special importance.

Bills amounting to $2,828.43 were approved.

A motion exonerating the Lamokin car works from taxation for a period of ten years, in case they located at Bellefonte, was unanimously passed.

Civil Case.

As we went to press last week the civil case of Conrad Immel vs. Beecher & Sober, lumber operators, of Penn Twp. was in progress. Action to recover damages claimed due upon a contract. Verdict for plaintiff $127.00.

B. F. Nearhood vs. Jonathan Auman. Plaintiff not suited.

Elizabeth Kunes vs. John B. Shaw et al. Ejectment for a tract of land in Liberty Twp. Verdict for defendant.

John M. Ward vs. Rev. Honesty, pastor of A. M. E. church. An action to test title to property on Lamb street, Bellefonte, Pa. Verdict for the plaintiff.

This concluded the week. Other cases on the trial list were continued.

RECENT DEATHS.

HENRY L. BARNHART.

On Monday evening, Feb. 5th, Mr. Henry L. Barnhart died at his home, near Roland, from diabetes. His illness was for a brief time, having taken sick on Thursday, when he continued to grow worse. Mr. Barnhart was a well known and highly respected citizen of that community. He spent the greater portion of his life in that vicinity and was a prosperous farmer. He is survived by an only brother, Mr. P. W. Barnhart, and three sons, John C., William and Irvin. His daughter was the wife of Dr. H. K. Hry, of this place, who died a number of years ago. He was an uncle of James Barnhart of the First National bank, and Mrs. J. C. Weaver of this place; also of the late Mrs. H. H. Harshbarger. His age was about 70 years. The interment occurred on Wednesday morning, services being held in the Evangelical church.

MRS. BRICKLEY'S DEATH.

Sarah Jane Brickley, widow of David Brickley, died at Romola, last week, aged 59 years and six months. She leaves ten children to mourn her loss—seven sons and three daughters. She was a consistent member of the Christian church for thirty years, strong in her religious views and died in that faith.

She was the youngest of a family of ten, being the fourth called to the world beyond. She was the daughter of John Packer.

EPHRAIM GLENN.

On Sunday night at 11 o'clock Mr. Ephraim Glenn, of Fillmore, after an illness of only four days, breathed his last at his home near the above named place, the cause of his death being heart disease. Mr. Glenn was perhaps one of the best known and most successful farmers in the Buffalo Run valley. He was aged about 65 years and leaves a small family to mourn his death.

GEORGE L. GRAY.

At his home near Fillmore, Mr. Geo. L. Gray departed this life on Saturday evening about 5 o'clock, aged about 67 years. The cause of death was Bright's disease. A wife and five children are left to mourn their loss. The funeral took place Tuesday; interment at Gray's church.

Sale Bills.

By this time our presses have been moved to their new location and we have every facility for turning out job work on very short notice. As this is the time of the year for public sales we would invite our patrons to call upon us in due time to have their dates placed in the sale register. Remember we furnish each patron with a book of sale notes free.

Muscle and Vigor—A Difference.

Many muscular men succumb to fatigues borne with ease by persons far their inferiors in physical strength, since does not imply vigor. In fact, it is not difficult of proof that athletes do not live as long nor enjoy as good health as the average individual who is vigorous—that is to say, whose digestion and sleep are unimpaired, whose nerves are tranquil and who has no "stomach tendency" to disease. These requisites of vigor are considered upon those inherently weak, no less than upon those debilitated through wasting disease, by a thorough, persistent course of Hostetter's Stomach and Bowel Remedy, the leading national tonic, indorsed and recommended by physicians of eminence. It will not enervate you with the muscle of a Corbett, but it will infuse energy into your system, and renew the active and healthful performance of its functions. It cures and cures malarial, rheumatic and kidney complaints, and overcomes dyspepsia, constipation, liver trouble and nervousness.
