LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Fine job printing, at reasonable rates, at the CENTRE DEMOCRAT office.

Since last Sunday, sleighing has been very poor in this part of the county.

Slowly the old Conrad building is disappearing. In a few weeks very little will be left of this old landmark.

Clearfield county has three families who visited the World's Fair who are now under the care of the overseers of the poor.

Hon. John A. Woodward, who was on his way to attend the Rebersburg institute, on Tuesday stopped in to see us. He is enthusiastic in this work.

W. F. Reeder, Esq., recently delivered an address before the clover club of Philadelphia. That was an honor to one of our local barristers.

Rev. R. A. McKinley, of Clearfield, exchanged pulpits with Dr. Laurie, of the Presbyterian church, last Sunday. Rev. McKinley delivered two very able sermons.

The State College students expect to have a crack ball team next summer. The first game of the season will be with the Altoona team at Hunter's Park about the 21st of April.

There were three attractions in Bellefonte on Monday night. The opera house, the glass blowers and the closing session of council and their banquet.

There were two holidays this week for our public schools. Tuesday was election day, and to-day is "Birthingtons Washday" and none of the young folks would think of attending school on such an important occasion.

Archie Allison will build a residence on Allegheny street, on the strip of ground between the residence of J. Fearon Mann and E. C. Humes. Ground will be broken in the spring.

To-day the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania will extend an excursion over the road to the members of the Bellefonte Board of Trade. The special train will leave at 1 o'clock and return immediately.

Who will get the Bellefonte postmaster plum. It is now about one month since Editor Feidler's term of four years elapsed, and the poor democratic candidates are still struggling for the place.

Recently elected officers of the Bellefonte Wheelmen's Club are: President, Mortimer Donahue; captain, Robert Hunter; treasurer, Frank Rhoads; secretary, Thomas Mitchell; local consul E. F. Garman.

The republicans down at Howard held a meeting last week at which they passed resolutions condemning the Wilson tariff bill. That is too bad. They have no consideration at all for Bill Wilson's feelings.

The following letters remain in the Bellefonte post office uncalled for: J. S. Catenaek, J. W. Heimebrick, W. E. Hussy, Mrs. Johnson, H. H. Mosier, O. P. Myers, Miss Ellis Orvis, J. P. Sanders, John Watson. When called for please say advertised.

Joe McSuley, the sign painter, did up a fine piece of work for us on Monday. It is a handsome gilt frame containing lettering in black and gold leaf with a beautiful centre piece. It can be seen at the Garman house office and is much admired.

Some of our neighboring towns are organizing base ball clubs for the coming summer season. Bellefonte enthusiasts have not, as yet, decided to take a hand in the game this year. For the two past years they completely mopped up everything in Central Pennsylvania and that is enough glory for a while.

About forty years ago Mr. Thos Evans, a young man living at Spring Mills, left for a visit to the West. He engaged in business, got married, settled down as a master mechanic at Monroe, Wis. He is now making his first visit to his old home in Pennsylvania. On Wednesday in company with Com-Jas B. Strohm his nephew, paid us a visit.

Editor W. Matt Savage, of the Clearfield Public Spirit arrived in Bellefonte on Monday evening and circulated among our people. Mr. Savage as we understand, will be a candidate for senatorial honors and thinks that Clearfield county should send the man. Editor Savage is a man of the necessary ability and unquestionable democracy, and could fill the place admirably.

POPULAR EXCURSION.

BRINGS MANY PEOPLE TO BELLEFONTE.

A Large Turnout Over the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania—No Accident or Mishaps.

Last Saturday was a busy day for the Central railroad of Pennsylvania. It was the time for Nittany Valley to turn out and take a ride over the new road. For the purpose of giving everybody a chance to go the price was put at the nominal sum of 25 cents.

The first train that came into Bellefonte in the morning was packed and crowded with people, and all succeeding trains were the same.

Many of the excursionists were people who never were in Bellefonte before, and they spent the day seeing the sights about our town, or visiting the stores and making purchases.

The excursionists represented, to a large extent, people living at the other end of the line, in Clinton county, and who generally do their trading at Lock Haven and Williamsport. The new road brings them in closer touch with Bellefonte and its business houses. That is one of the great benefits to be derived by the opening of the new railroad.

The number of passengers carried on Saturday aggregated 939, distributed as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Location and Passenger Count. Locations include Mill Hall, Salona, Mackeyville, Clintondale, Lamar, Huston, Nittany, Hubersburg, Zion, Snyderport, Hecla and Nigh.

On Tuesday a similar opportunity was given to the people of Bellefonte for a round trip, at the same rate. A great many went on the different trains. The total number of tickets sold amounted to about 400. Tuesday being election day many could not go and the announcement of the excursion came rather late also.

The railroad company handled the crowd without a mishap or a delay and they demonstrated that their equipment and train service were of the highest order.

Gregg Post.

To-day, Gregg Post will observe Washington's birthday in an appropriate manner. A turkey dinner will be served at noon by the lady friends of the post. During the afternoon and the evening a restaurant will be prepared to serve oysters, ice cream and other seasonable delicacies. In the evening Prof. W. T. Meyer's orchestra will be present to enliven the exercises which will be in charge of General Beaver. An interesting program has been prepared for this occasion, to which all are invited to be present. The Post is a deserving organization and should receive proper encouragement.

Stand by the boys who stood by the country's flag.

Sugar Valley Anxious.

Since the completion of the Central R. R. of Penna., the railroad magnates of the vicinity of Sugar Valley have been lying low. No railroad schemes have been palmed off on the public since the famous Sugar Valley Journal wound up its illustrious career. They have stopped building railroads.

These ambitious citizens have turned their efforts in another direction. Since no railroad will be built they insist on having an electric line run from Loganton to Lock Haven and are trying to interest capitalists in that place in such a scheme. They claim such an enterprise would prevent Bellefonte from catching much of this trade.

Store Sold.

The two-third interest of Witmer Wolf, in the store of Wolf & Crawford was knocked off at sheriff's sale last week to Orvis, Bower & Orvis, attys., for $2,500. The personal property of Wm. Wolf was sold for $100.

The store of Wolf & Crawford will be continued in the future. It is expected that in a short time Witmer will have the present financial difficulties settled.

Won the Race.

On Thursday of last week Mr. Harvey Royer, of Zion, was appointed to carry the mails from that place to the station of the Central railroad, a distance of about one-half mile. There were five applicants for the position, and "Pat," as he is familiarly known, won the race. The appointment is very satisfactory to all concerned. The new road will begin to carry the mail next Monday.

Sunbury Girl Attempts Suicide.

At Sunbury Clara Mantz, aged 16, piqued at her mother for scolding her for going to Lewisburg, drank an ounce of laudanum, with suicidal intent. She then told her mother what she had done. A physician was sent for who saved the girl's life by hyperdermic injections of morphine and atropine.

Will not Stop There.

On account of small pox at Tyrone Forges the Pennsylvania Railroad company has discontinued the sale of tickets to that point until further notice and no passenger train will stop there until further advised.

License Petitions.

The following petitions for license have been filed with the Clerk of the Court and will be presented at License Court the first Tuesday of March 1894.

Musical Convention.

A convention of vocal and instrumental music will be held in the Reformed church, at Boalsburg, Pa., beginning on Monday evening, February 20, 1894, continuing four days, with three rehearsals daily, closing with two grand concerts on the evenings of Thursday and Friday, March 1st and 2nd.

The convention will be under the direction of P. H. Meyer, of Boalsburg, assisted on the piano by Miss Annie Miller, of Bellefonte. Miss May Myton, of Huntingdon, one of the finest soprano soloists in Central Penna., will be present the entire week. Prof. Lowell M. Meyer will also be in attendance. An orchestra will assist in the choruses. Singers and lovers of music are cordially invited to take part. The programme will consist of full choruses, quartets, duets, solos, etc.

TERMS:—Singers ticket 50c, concert ticket 5c, single rehearsal 10c, concerts 25c.

Books furnished free. Singers entertained free. The opening session free to all. All singers coming by railroad will stop off at Oak Hill station where a hack will meet all trains. It is important that singers from a distance will be in attendance as early in the week as possible. For further particulars address any of the committeemen.

COMMITTEE:—S. F. Ishler, A. W. Dale, O. W. Stover, A. H. Hosterman, D. W. Meyer, and Alfred Osman.

Mr. Wheeler will speak.

After several months silence, spent in teaching the Bible among the people, and distributing religious reading matter, during which the Adventist cause has been strengthened.

Mr. Wheeler is now opening a chapel for regular Sabbath service, in what was formerly the Methodist church, on jail hill, which is expected to be ready in a few days, and occupied by him Saturday evening and Sunday.

The Adventists base their belief in the near coming of Christ upon the prophecies of the Bible. They keep the seventh day [Saturday] for Sabbath because they believe the ten commandments to be eternal and unchangeable as shown by the fact that they were graven upon stone, as well as by many positive assertions that affirm it.

Mr. Wheeler is from Battle Creek, Mich., where that people have built up some of the largest institutions of this country.

He Attends Balls.

There was a time when Governor Pattison refused to attend balls under any circumstances, but he has changed with time, or learned more of "practical politics," to quote a member of his official family, and now he rarely misses an opportunity to attend the social events to which he is invited. About two weeks ago he went to Philadelphia to attend the Catholic Philopatrian ball and recently he was among the guests at the dance given in that city by the Second regiment.

Governor Pattison is frequently quoted as an ideal, conscientious, orthodox, regulation, dyed-in-the-wool Methodist and they are pronounced in their opposition to dancing. The Governor must be getting giddy. Conference had better take him in hand.

Over $7,000 Paid Out.

The Central Pennsylvania railroad paid over $7,000 to employes on its line from Bellefonte to Mill Hall Thursday of last week. This amount was the last instalment of money for constructing the road.

The road is now in good condition and all trains are running regularly on schedule time. Freight and passenger traffic is picking up daily and the promoters of the road are very much encouraged with their business thus far.

Altoona City Sued.

Suit has been brought by the Continental construction company, of Philadelphia, against Altoona for $18,500 damages, claimed to be due for failure to award the company a contract to construct an impounding reservoir. The suit was brought on the grounds that the commissioners had awarded the company the contract, but council refused to sustain the commissioners' action, and is advertising for new bids.

Death of Wm. Green.

On Monday evening at about 5 o'clock Wm. Green, who for many years past held the position of porter at the Brock-erhoff House, died from the effects of a continued spell of sickness with pneumonia. Mr. Green was one of the oldest colored citizens of Bellefonte. He was an old soldier having served as a member of Company K, of the United States infantry. The interment will take place this, Thursday, afternoon.

A Large Contract.

The Phoenix Iron company, at Phoenixville, Pa., has just received the contract from the Southern Pacific railroad to put up near New Orleans an iron bridge over two miles long, which will take fifty million pounds of iron. The contract will keep the works busy two years. The bridge is to be erected across the Mississippi river.

Low Thermometer.

Last Saturday morning was a scorching—instead of being hot, it was bitter cold. At some places about town the thermometer stood ten degrees below zero. That is pretty cold, considering the general mild season we have had thus far.

COUNCIL MEETING.

CLOSING SESSION FOR THE YEAR 1893.

A Banquet Tendered the Retiring Members—An Efficient Body—They Have Done Very Well.

The regular session of our council was attended by all the members except George Bush, who is out of town. After reading the minutes Supt. J. W. Gephart appeared in behalf of the Central railroad of Pennsylvania and asked for the privilege of constructing a switch across Lamb street to the electric light station. Mr. Gephart spoke at some length in regard to the course the town council should pursue in regard to railroads entering the town, the extension of switches and building of sidings. He argued that where it was a necessity for the transportation companies to come into the town by utilizing a street the privilege should be granted. If a railroad is to be of any value to a town it must have access to certain points. He argued that not in regard to this one road, but in all cases, proper encouragement should be given to anything that tends to improve and benefit a town or city. Permission was granted for this siding.

Under the head of nuisances the sewer on Allegheny street near Munson's residence was reported. Gas is continually escaping at that point. The condition of Water street along the new board walk was also referred to the street commissioners.

Other committees reported progress. Bills amounting to $246.75 were approved.

A PARTING BANQUET.

At the conclusion of the proceedings Councilman John Miller announced that as this was the last meeting of the present council for the year, and from the fact that two members, President Geo. L. Potter and Nicholas Bauer, would retire from the body as their terms expired, the closing event would be recognized in a more formal way. He wanted all to proceed to Ceadar's restaurant where an elaborate spread was awaiting them.

Fourteen persons sat at the banquet table. They were councilman S. H. Williams presiding, George L. Potter, C. T. Gerbrick, Al. S. Garman, W. T. Hillish, John C. Miller, Dr. R. L. Darrt. Also Isaac Mitchell, secretary of council and C. M. Dale, Esq., borough solicitor. The press of the town was represented by J. A. Feidler, of the Gazette; C. L. Gates of the Daily News; Geo. Meck of the Watchman and the editor of the DEMOCRAT.

The banquet was an elaborate coalition of toothsome delicacies, and the councilman along with the hungry newspaper men enjoyed the repast. Mr. Miller responded to the toast—"Our Guest, Mr. Geo. L. Potter President of the council of 1893," to which Mr. Potter replied in a few well chosen words. In turn all the members were called upon and their impromptu remarks were exceedingly original and entertaining. Of course, the poor newspaper men could not escape and were compelled to say their little speeches for the meal they had just partaken.

The banquet was a most enjoyable affair. The members of council had considerable amusement in recalling the memorable struggle over the cow question, how the street roller was purchased, the paying for the Water street board walk and other interesting topics of the past year.

To the credit of the council of 1893 it can be truly said they were an efficient body; always careful in their deliberations, economical in all their expenditures, public-spirited and liberal in their views and always carefully guarding the interest of their constituents and anxious for the promotion and advancement of the town—they are deserving of all the highest praise and the thanks of the entire community for valuable services gratuitously rendered.

Frozen to Death.

Another warning to drunkards comes from Entriken, Huntingdon county. John K. Johnson, a married man and the father of four children, came to Huntingdon on Tuesday of last week and after attending to some business matters proceeded to get drunk and his efforts were successful. At Entriken Johnson had purchased a round trip ticket, but when he boarded the train for the purpose of returning home he was unable to find that very necessary piece of paper. Naturally he was ejected from the train at the next station which was McConnelstown. From there he started to walk home, a distance of eight or nine miles, but when he reached Grafton several persons took him in charge and placed him in a stable. In the morning he was found almost frozen to death, and despite the efforts of physicians he died that morning.

Good Houses.

The Toledo Daily News says: "True Irish Hearts" is drawing good houses to the People's this week, and were the merits of play generally known the house would not accommodate the crowds. It is one of the best Irish dramas that has ever been in Toledo, and it is put on in splendid style. At Garman's Opera House Thursday March 1st.

"True Irish Hearts"

The next attraction at the opera house will be "True Irish Hearts," on Thursday, March 1st, 1894. The Chicago Mail in speaking of this attraction says: "A large audience applauded the excellent company which presented 'True Irish Hearts' at the Clark Street Theatre. It is a picturesque Irish comedy drama, charmingly set with beautiful and effective scenery."
