

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

This office is full equipped for turning out fine job work.

The funeral of Mrs. J. J. Lingle will take place on Friday at 2 p. m.

The musical entertainment in the Presbyterian church, on Friday evening, promises to be well attended.

The corrected time table of the Central Railroad of Penna. appears on another page of this issue.

Supt. S. S. Blair, of Tyrone and Major McCauley, of Chester, Pa., were the guests of Gen. Hastings last Sunday.

Gen. Beaver is getting considerable notoriety about the state since he was elected councilman from the North Ward.

Our "Roll of Honor" caused some comment last week. It indicated that the CENTRE DEMOCRAT has a large list of readers.

Mayor R. A. Cassidy, of Canton, O., was a pleasant caller on Monday morning. He is looking well and as full of life as ever.

"The Dazzler" will be at the opera house on Thursday evening March 22nd. It was a good attraction when here during the past season.

The Zion Institute will open its spring term on Monday April 16th under the direction of Prof. D. J. Wolf. A large attendance is expected.

This evening there will be another orchestra and band recital, in the rooms at the Centre County Bank building. An elaborate programme has been prepared.

Rev. Jas. Boal, of the Presbyterian church, who resided at Centre Hall for a short time, has accepted a call from the Port Carbon, Pa., Presbyterian church. He will leave for there this week.

Gen. James A. Beaver will be the orator at the reunion of the Army of the Potomac, at Concord, N. H., on June 21st and 22nd. Bellefonte can always supply material for such an occasion.

No Deputy Revenue collector has been appointed for this district. The report that James C. Noll, Esq., was the lucky one is a mistake. James is one of the foremost in the race and his friends are confident of his success.

Miss Laura K., daughter of Dr. A. W. Hafer, of Bellefonte, has passed her final examinations in the Penna. Dental College, at Philadelphia, and will be one of the graduates this year. She expects to practice her profession in her father's office at this place.

Mr. B. C. Achenbach recently disposed of his bakery and confectionery establishment at State College to Mr. Abraham Miller. He will continue the stand at Bellefonte. The report that he had sold to a party from Chambersburg was not correct.

Editor C. G. Nissley, of the Tyrone Times, was in Bellefonte on Monday. He was taking a look over the Centre county newspaper field and may conclude to locate in Bellefonte. The Keystone Gazette office was the object that attracted him here.

Last Saturday Ed. Chambers created quite a stir by taking down his sign as Revenue Collector, on the front of his office. It gave the impression that the appointment of a democratic successor had been made, and the Bellefonte applicants became quite uneasy. Later it was learned that Chambers was only having a bit of fun at the other fellows expense.

The Daily Gazette was discontinued with its issue of last Saturday. The present proprietors evidently do not believe that Bellefonte can support two daily publications. The Daily News is being published regularly from the Republican office and continues to give its readers the news of the town in good shape. It is deserving of patronage.

Col. Austin Curtin, of Roland, Gen. John I. Curtin and Chas. Smith, of Bellefonte, have been selected by Gov. Pattison as a portion of the commission of 100 to assist in the location of the troops upon the Antietam battlefield so that the positions can be properly marked. The commission will serve without pay. They will meet in June.

Rev. Wheeler, the Seventh Day Adventist minister left on Tuesday for Armstrong county, where he will endeavor to organize a congregation. He succeeded in organizing enough converts to the Adventist doctrines for a congregation at this place. They hold their meetings in the old Methodist church, on High street, near the jail.

The Bellefonte Club, League of American Wheelmen have a nice meeting place, second floor of Centre county bank building where they have two rooms handsomely furnished. The reading room is supplied with the very best selections of current literature. In another room they have a fine pool table that is a recent addition to their place. The club has a membership of about fifty young men.

GEORGE HARMAN.

A VISIT TO THE POOR HOUSE.

The Little Boy Recovering From His Bruises And Injuries—Growing Fat and Plump—Many Scars.

Of late many of our readers, about the county, have inquired of the condition of little George Harman, the boy who was so inhumanly treated by his parents. It is about seven weeks since the officers made the raid upon the Harman residence, at Axemann, where they found a little nine year-old boy covered over with scars, cuts, bruises and running sores caused by the brutal treatment of the parents who evidently were trying to put an end to the little one's existence.

On Wednesday morning the writer took an early stroll to the old stone building, near the car works, once a stately mansion occupied by the Valentines, but now the borough poor house. The surroundings are quite dilapidated and by no means inviting. A knock at the door was answered by Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Garbrick who occupy the building and care for those sent there. The object of our visit was away when we called, but in a few minutes later a plump, fat little boy came trotting towards the house singing and laughing, and as happy as could be and to our surprise found it was little George Harman. He was neatly attired and appeared to be in the best of health.

The sores and bruises about his body are nearly all healed up and he has grown quite fat. Mr. Garbrick pronounces his appetite something phenomenal. The upper lip is deformed, having been cut away and prevents him from speaking distinctly. A large scar can be seen at his eyebrow, and the right ear is also healed up, but distorted. His scalp is covered with blotches, which had been running sores caused by severe bruises. The fractured limb has healed up and gives him no trouble. One of the deep cuts near the thigh is still sore and that is about all. The little fellow is bright and chipper as a spring colt. He answers all questions quite rapidly and is fairly intelligent. He is happy in his new home and says he does not want to leave "Grandpa and Grandma Garbrick" who have been very kind to him.

The little fellow has some money saved up, which he received from the many visitors. He has been the recipient of candies and confectionery which he gets away with as rapidly as they come. He and Warren Burnside are the only two boarders at the establishment at present. Warren has no other home and little George says he don't want to see his parents again.

Gun Club.

Some of Bellefonte's sportsmen recently organized a gun club and last Friday they had their first outing, consisting of a shoot on Halfmoon hill. About eighty live pigeons were let fly, one-half of which were killed. The balance of the day was put in banging away at blue rocks, clay pigeons. Those who participated were W. H. Hughes, of Williamsport; J. M. Ward, of New York City; and Frank Warfield, John Lane, John Furst, Thomas Morris, George Jackson, George Meek, Harry Valentine and Mr. Terry.

Physicians Must Present License.

On Thursday, March 1st a new law relative to the state board of medical examiners goes into effect. Section 14 of the act provides that from and after the first day of March, 1894, no person shall enter upon the practice of medicine or surgery in the state unless he or she has complied with the provisions of the act and shall exhibit to the prothonotary in the county in which he or she desires to practice medicine or surgery a license duly granted by the state board. After exhibiting the license and upon the payment of one dollar the applicant shall be registered. Prothonotary Leshner this morning received a letter from H. G. McCormick, of Williamsport, member of the state board of medical examiners, giving notice that after March 1st, he cannot accept the registration of physicians unless he presents a license from the state board. Lock Haven Democrat.

The Lutheran congregation will hold their regular social Thursday evening at the home of Mr. Harry Gehrett. Everybody is invited to attend.

Gen. Hastings has now got an even one hundred delegates instructed for him, leaving but the addition of thirty-three more to make his nomination secure.

Samuel Foster, justice of the peace, who has been on the sick list for some time, is not improving. During the past few days he has been confined to his bed and was in a delirious condition. Mr. Foster is well advanced in years and one of our old and well known citizens.

All kinds of job printing done at this office. Our prices are reasonable.

Harmony and Song.

The programme for the musical entertainment in the Presbyterian church on Friday evening, is announced and it is sure to be one of the finest entertainments given in Bellefonte for a long time. It is composed entirely of eminent performers gathered from all directions and will be an opportunity to hear the best. The following is the full programme:

- FIRST PART. Concerto (No. 19) Adagio Allegro Aria-Hande S. Tudor Straug. "Flower Song" Osgood Mr. George Ford. Violin Solo "Blue Bells of Scotland" Miss Jennie Gillan. La Reina de Saba Gounod Miss Mary Derr. Piano Solo-La Campanella Liszt Miss Julia Doran. Duet Miss Keim and Mr. Ford. Nymphs Solo Selected W. A. White. Andantino in A flat Chauvet S. Tudor Straug. SECOND PART. Ara from Fortza Deo Destino Verdi Miss Mammie Keim with quartette. Song-Sing, Smile, Slumber Gounod Miss Julia A. Dorman. Violin Solo "Polish Dance" Miss Jennie Gillan. Funeral March and Hymn of the Seraphs Gullonus S. Tudor Straug.

Single fare tickets will be sold over the Central Railroad of Pa. Over the Bellefonte Central Railroad the fare, including admission, will be: State College, 80 cents; Waddie, 75 cents; Fillmore, 75 cents; Hunter, 75 cents. General admission 50 cents.

Pennsylvania Railroad Relief.

The receipts of the Pennsylvania relief for the past year were $680,000 and expenses $634,000, leaving a deficiency of $4,000 to be made up from the balance in the treasury. The membership is now 82,827, an increase of 1,189 over 1892. This represents over 50 per cent. of the employers. There were 468 deaths and 22,843 cases of sickness and accidents in 1893. Since its organization the department has received $3,553,922 and disbursed $3,459,316.

Will Meet Next Week.

The Central Pennsylvania conference of the Methodist church will meet in Harrisburg on March 15, over which Bishop John F. Hurst, of Washington, will preside. In this conference are a total of 51,398 members, 551 churches, worth $2,382,000, and 156 parsonages. There are 683 Sunday schools, 9,355 officers and 67,842 scholars. In the conference $359,452 was raised for all purposes.

Fine job printing, at reasonable rates at the CENTRE DEMOCRAT office.

The roads dried off considerably on Monday and the wheelmen were out for a spin.

The next attraction at the opera house will be "The Dazzler." This is a good company and has some special features in it.

The Shuman quartette will be at the opera house, Saturday evening, March 10th. They will appear for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A.

Geo. S. Lenhart, editor and publisher of the Williamsport Breakfast Table has accepted a position as manager of the Harrisburg Telegram.

Mingie's shoe store has put on a new appearance. Handsome new paper on the walls and fresh paint has made it as cozy as a parlor. Mr. Mingie believes in keeping up general appearance in his place of business as well as a large and elegant stock.

There are some fellows in town who think they were imposed upon when they paid 50 cents admission to hear Chaplain McCabe abuse President Cleveland and the democratic party. When preachers tackle politics they usually put their foot in it.

Tuesday and Wednesday of license court was devoted to considering the various applications for license. A number of remonstrances were filed to new applicants. No decision will likely be made until the latter part of this week.

Wm. Lyon, the Bishop street butcher, is having the store room in Lyon & Co's building, on Allegheny street, put in shape for his meat market. Everything is being put in first class order. The day of the moving a keg of nails will be opened for the benefit of visitors and "boneless liver" will be given away as souvenirs.

One night last week a prowler gained an entrance to the Hunter residence near Fillmore, by cutting through the cellar door. He managed to find his way to the up stairs where his movements awakened the daughter who gave an alarm. The fellow was in the sleeping apartments, evidently in search of valuables. He made a hasty retreat, falling over furniture and chairs and got away.

Owing to the great increase in the number of letters received at the dead letter office in Washington, the postal authorities make the following requests to the public: "Don't mail your package without having your own address written or printed upon the upper left hand corner. This will insure its prompt return if not delivered, and will prevent its being sent to and opened at the dead letter office." This request will hardly be complied with by writers of love letters, especially in small towns.

RECENT DEATHS.

DANIEL HINES.

On Sunday morning Spring township lost one of its oldest and most respected citizens in the death of Mr. Dan. Hines who for some years lived with his son two miles east of Bellefonte. He was engaged, with his son John, in conversation when his head suddenly fell forward and he expired. The deceased was 91 years of age. The interment occurred on Tuesday morning. Services were held in the Catholic church, of which he was a member.

ROBERT HAYNES.

Last Saturday morning Mr. Robert Haynes, one of Snow Shoe's most respected citizens died suddenly while seated in a chair. For several weeks past he was not enjoying good health, yet he was able to move about as usual. It was while sitting in an arm chair that his head dropped forward and before medical assistance could be summoned he expired. Mr. Haynes was 61 years of age and leaves a wife and several grown sons. The interment occurred on Tuesday.

J. M. THOMPSON.

On Sunday evening about 9 o'clock Squire J. M. Thompson, of State College, breathed his last after a protracted illness with that dread disease, consumption. Mr. Thompson was probably one of the best known men in that locality. He has been Justice of the Peace for many years and was always a careful official. He was aged about 48 years and leaves a wife and four children to mourn his death. The funeral occurred on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock from his late residence.

DEATH OF A CHILD.

Mary Elizabeth Wasson, the only child of Dr. James E. and Mrs. Wasson, died at their home at Spruce Creek on Monday evening, aged 5 months and 3 days. The child had not been well from infancy. The funeral occurred on Wednesday afternoon, interment being made at Arch Springs cemetery.

MISS CATHARINE MOYER.

The death of Miss Catharine Moyer occurred on Saturday morning March 3, at the residence of her brother John Moyer, near Penn Hall. Deceased had reached the advanced age of 87 years. The funeral occurred yesterday, the 6th, at the Salem Reformed church, the services being conducted by Rev. D. M. Wolf, D. D.

MRS. J. J. LINGLE.

After a long and protracted illness Mrs. J. J. Lingle died at her residence, on Spring street, on Tuesday morning. For some time she was at death's door and quietly and peacefully she sank into her final rest.

The deceased was the widow of Mr. J. J. Lingle who preceded her to the grave a little over a year ago. They were long residents of the town and have many relatives and friends in the community. Five children survive: Mrs. W. W. Montgomery, of Bellefonte; Wickliffe Lingle, of Phillipsburg; J. Howard, of this place; Frank I., of Phillipsburg, and Mrs. Ed. F. Garman of Bellefonte.

The 12th Snow—A Big Blizzard.

The Reporter says: The 12 snows of this winter, set in on Sunday night and by Monday morning it was 4 inches in depth and the fiercest storm of this winter raging; the temperature was considerably higher than on Saturday and Sunday. We kept a record of this winter's snows, showing twelve in number and a total snowfall of 41 1/2 inches; viz: Nov. 1, 0 1/2 inches; Nov. 14, 0 1/2 inches; Nov. 21, 3 inches; Dec. 2, 2 inches; Dec. 27 1 inch; Dec. 30 and 31 3 inches; Jan. 23 6 inches; Jan. 24 5 inches; Feb. 4 4 inches; Feb. 12 and 13 11 inches; Feb. 14 2 inches; Feb. 25 4 inches; Total, 41 1/2 inches.

Will Issue Bonds.

The commissioners of Clinton county will issue bonds to the amount of $16,500 to cover the indebtedness, interest and cost of the Lock Haven bridge. These bonds will be issued in denominations of $100 to $500 and will bear 4-10 per cent. interest per annum, payable semi-annually. The bonds will run twenty years, but will be redeemable at the option of the commissioners any time after the expiration of fifteen years. Sealed proposals for these bonds must be handed in at the commissioners' office before 12 o'clock noon Tuesday, March 17.

Royal Arcanum Officers.

The Bellefonte Council, No 1050 Royal Arcanum, has elected the following officers to serve during the ensuing year: Regent—E. F. Garman, Vice Regent—C. D. Krider, Orator—W. A. Lyon, Secretary—John C. Miller, Col.—J. K. McFarlane, Treasurer—Geo. Van Tries, Chaplain—S. C. Showers, Guide—H. Holtz, Warden—J. A. Aikens, Sentinel—John P. Harris, Trustees—Charles Smith, H. Holtz and John Meese.

Business Improving.

According to the Lock Haven Democrat that town is having a general revival of business. Nearly all their manufacturing industries have resumed operation. Among the list are the Lock Haven furniture factory, the fire-brick works, the clay works, the Woolrich woolen mills, the paper mill and minor establishments. The people down there can't be afraid of the Wilson bill. They must have faith in the measure.

CONFIDENT REPUBLICANS.

The meeting of the republican county committee, in Bellefonte, on Tuesday, was an enthusiastic gathering. The overwhelming majority given for Grow, at the recent election, has aroused them from their hiding places, to which they were driven by the defeat of Harrison. They imagine they can read some propitious sign in the heavens that they will march on to victory in the next presidential contest.

The fact that Centre county slid into the republican column, by a handsome majority for Grow, has had a magnetic effect upon them. They are alert, enthusiastic and even confident of carrying Centre county again at the coming election in November. They are aggressive and will make a strong and well directed battle. That is the exact situation, as we see it, and all signs point that way. The democrats, of Centre county, will find this to be the situation and there is no use in evading the plain fact.

There is no occasion, under these circumstances, for undue alarm, but there will be no time for fooling. The democratic party of Centre county is composed of noble, sterling men, and when they become thoroughly awakened and aroused to their duty there should be no trouble in rolling up one of our famous old-time majorities.

The first step necessary to accomplish this is to select the very best material we have for positions on the ticket this year. We have plenty of good material at hand. Men who can fill the appointments of Congress, State Senator, Legislature or President Judge with distinction and credit to their constituents. Strong men, able men, men of ability, integrity and moral worth is what we want. Such a ticket will have the confidence of the entire party and would win the approval of all voters. These are facts for thoughtful consideration of every democrat and upon which they will be called upon to act in a short time. If this part is well done, the fight will be won from the start.

The indifference of the democratic voters, throughout this county, in February, was an expensive lesson and we should profit by it in the future.

Speckled Trout.

Only a few weeks remain until the opening of the trout season. It is morally certain that long before that time hundreds of trout will have been captured contrary to law. This section contains a number of trout streams and they should be looked after, and violators of the law prosecuted to the full extent of that law. The penalty for catching trout out of season is severe. The act of 1885 the last legislation on the point, reads as follows:

"It shall be unlawful for any person to catch, kill or expose to sale or have in his or her possession after the same has been caught or killed, any speckled trout, save only from the 15th day of April to the 15th day of July, under a penalty of $10 for each trout so killed or had possession, but this act shall not prevent any person from catching trout in nets in waters owned by himself to stock other waters." Half the penalty goes to the informer.

Five Children at a Birth.

All previous records in Pennsylvania, if not in the country, were smashed to smithereens when Mrs. David Rosenberger, a farmer's wife, gave birth to five bouncing babies, her home near Kittanning, Pa., on Monday night.

The children, all of whom are well developed and full of animation, are three girls and two boys. They appear to be strong, and the attending physician says that all of them are likely to live and grow up. But the astounded father, who is 40 years old and only five feet tall, has by no means recovered from his surprise, though Mrs. Rosenberger is quite as well as could be expected.

"I thought," said Farmer Rosenberger with a sigh, to a neighbor, "that we were coming to a time of astonishing pluralities when they began to count up the vote for Grow a week ago. But oh, my! I didn't look for anything like this—hard times, and five babies at once!"

New Trial Refused.

Judge McPherson, of Harrisburg, recently filed his opinion refusing a new trial in the case of Geo. W. Jackson vs. Nittany Valley Railroad Co., who prosecuted for damages to ore tract, which the railroad crosses on the old Barnhart property about three miles east of Bellefonte. A board of viewers awarded Mr. Jackson $4,000. On an appeal the jury found no damages.

The Third Test.

The experiment station herd, at the Pennsylvania State College, will be submitted for the third time to Koch's test for tuberculosis, Prof. H. J. Waters, on Friday, March 23rd, under the direction of Dr. Leonard Pearson. The test will be open to the public, and any one feeling an interest in the matter will be welcome.

Profitable Chickens.

Mr. J. J. Hoy, of Marion township, is quite successful in raising poultry. He has the brown leghorn variety—pure, well bred stock. From 225 hens he cleared over $200 last year which is quite an item. Persons desiring a setting can get 15 eggs for 25 cents. Address J. J. Hoy, Walker, Pa.

Comment Unnecessary.

An advertisement was placed in a recent issue of the CENTRE DEMOCRAT by Mr. C. F. Nailer, of Lock Haven. This week the following letter was received from him:

Dear Sir:—From the letters I am receiving from all quarters, it looks as though your paper has a very large circulation. Please send bill for same and oblige

Yours truly,

C. F. NAILER.

This paper has a much larger circulation in Centre county than is generally credited to it. Advertisers always find returns when they utilize it as a medium for reaching the public.

Peculiar Evidence.

James Perry, a colored barber of Altoona, confessed to robbing the general store of Lawrence Kimbell last Friday night. While engaged in the robbery he took a bite out of a piece of cheese, disclosing the fact that one of his front teeth was missing. This led to his arrest, as, when a dentist made a cast of the negro's mouth and compared it with the bitten cheese, he proved him to be the guilty man.

He implicated William Smith, white, and two Arabians, who had purchased the stolen goods. All the parties are now under arrest, and most of the goods have been recovered.

Clothing.

In addition to our large line of men's, boys' and children's clothing, we show a line of samples representing several of the leading clothing houses in the east. A full and complete measure taken.

- Men's suits, 7.50 to 15.00.
- Boys suits, 3.50 to 10.00.
- Childs suits, 1.50 to 5.00.
- All new, fresh, spring styles.

MONTGOMERY & CO.

Advertising.

The CENTRE DEMOCRAT has the largest circulation throughout Nittany valley and other portions of Centre county, of any paper published in Bellefonte. We can substantiate this assertion. The paper is sent, only, to persons who pay their subscription. Therefore our list embraces the most desirable trade. Advertisers find that space in this paper brings large profits.
