The musical entertainment in the Presbyterian church last Friday evening attracted many visitors to our town.

The prompt manner in which the court disposed of the license applications last week deserves approval. It is an innovation upon former records.

Farmers throughout the county are busy ploughing. They began last week and the soil appears to be in good condition for working.

Archie Allison is having the excavation made for his new residence on Allegheny street, next to the E. C. Humes' property.

There seems to be no limit to the list of social sensations in our town the past season, and the poor newspaper men dare not say a single word.

Bob Garman, who is assisting his uncle in the jewelry business, at Coatsville, Pa., is home on a short visit. He is looking well and says he likes his new location.

The Schuman Quartette drew a very small house on Saturday evening. Two musical entertainments coming so close together was the cause. They gave a splendid entertainment.

The concert given by Prof. Meyer's orchestra last week attracted more people than could get in the room. It being a pleasant evening many enjoyed the excellent renditions from the outside.

Edward Smith, of Snow Shoe, will move to Lock Haven and take charge of the Krom Hotel at that place, on the fourth of April. He purchased the property from William Charles.

The robins are singing and in case the pleasant weather continues we will attempt to wash our office windows this spring. That is the custom of every well regulated print shop.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Shugerts, after spending the past winter with their daughter, Mrs. W. E. Burchfield, at Philipsburg, have returned to their home in Bellefonte.

The old Conrad building is now completely torn away. Everything will be removed as the cellars of the new building will be dug several feet deeper than formerly. We understand that work will progress right along on the new building.

During the past week stacks of boxes have been piled up in front of Mingle's shoe store, and more come each day. Upon inquiry it was learned that he was only getting a portion of his spring stock. Goods come and go continually at that place.

The mine banks connected with the Valentine Furnace company started a force of men laying track and making preparations for an early resumption. Repairs have been going on about the furnace but nothing is definitely known as to when it will be put in blast.

The examination of teachers for permanent certificates, in Centre county, will be held in the stone building, at Bellefonte, on the 15th of April. The former announcement for the 23 of March has been changed by the committee.

There was a small riot among a lot of Italian railroad workmen who have a boarding house near Hecla, along the Central R. R., of Penna. It was caused by boys annoying them, when they became angry and threatened to use fire arms. All is quiet now.

Ex-Register John A. Rupp, will move to Oak Hall next week and will occupy his former residence. John has been one of Bellefonte's best citizens during the past six years and many will be sorry to see him and his family leave this community.

McCalmont & Co., of Bellefonte, recently issued an elaborate, four-page, illustrated circular—it being a treatise on "Foods for Stock and Poultry," in which they point out the best articles to be used. They are a progressive firm, and keep the farmers posted on all the latest and most improved methods, pertaining to that calling.

Col. W. Fred Reynolds and party arrived home on Saturday morning from their trip to the Pacific coast. They attended the California Mid-Winter Exposition and other interesting points. They traveled in a private Pullman car and had an enjoyable time. The party consisted of Col. Fred Reynolds and wife; his brother, Mr. Samuel Reynolds and wife, of Lancaster; and Col. Frank Harris and wife, of Connecticut.

Had for Johnstons.

Congressman Johnson, owner of the Johnstons Steel works, of Johnstown, Pa., authorized the announcement that these mammoth works will be removed to Cleveland as speedily as arrangements can be concluded. The company will erect a $3,000,000 plant in that city. Three thousand men will be employed.

The Milwaukee ball tossers have captured Bellefonte's famous back stop, Wm. Soper. He is an elegant player behind the bat, and did excellent work for the Bellefonte team last season. From present indications Bellefonte will not have a ball team this coming season.

THE SABBATH.

The Seventh Day Adventist people have established a congregation at Bellefonte. Their doctrines and beliefs are opposed in many lines to that taught by other Christian denominations. One of the prominent features is the observance of Saturday as their Sabbath Day. Rev. Ira C. Mitchell, pastor of the Disciple church at Troy, Pa., and at one time one of Centre county's brightest legal lights sends us a communication in which he attacks the position taken by the Adventist people in regard to the Sabbath day. The following is what he has to say upon that subject:

TROY, Pa., March 6th, 1894.
EDITOR CENTRE DEMOCRAT:
Having noticed that the "Seventh Day" propagators have invaded the vicinity of Bellefonte, I ask the favor of your columns for the purpose of stating some wholesome facts, and fortifying Christians against their insidious teaching:

1. It is a fact, that so far as testimony can be produced no human being was commanded to keep God's Sabbath, for two thousand five hundred years.
2. After the Israelites had crossed the Red sea, and were gathering manna, they were ignorant of the existence of a Sabbath, and went out on the seventh day expecting to find manna, and were then told that it was the Lord's Sabbath and He would send none.
3. The reason given for commanding the Hebrews to keep the seventh day as a Sabbath is to commemorate their deliverance from bondage in Egypt. (See Deuteronomy, 5th chapter, verse 5)
4. It is a fact that no commandment can be shown requiring that Jews to keep the Sabbath. Ask Sabbatarian to produce it.
5. Jewish Christians insisted that Gentile converts should be circumcised and keep the law of Moses, and the question was submitted to the full college of Apostles, whose decision is reported in the fifteenth chapter of Acts, and is adverse. This is a final settlement of the question with all who respect Apostolic authority.
6. The Sabbath was a type of death (Hebrews, chapters 3 and 4) and was fulfilled when Jesus remained in the domain of death over the Sabbath and together with all the law of Moses, he took it out of the way.
7. The first day of the week since the resurrection of Jesus, has been observed in commemoration of that important event, and not as a Sabbath.

Should advocates of the seventh day as a perpetual Sabbath question any of these statements, I am prepared to substantiate them, and defend them, either through the public press, or in oral discussion.

Patrons Picnic 1894.

They agreed on the week of the 17th of Sept. as the time of holding the next annual encampment and exhibition. The committee has already had overtures for the exhibition of live stock from eminent breeders in the State. The auditorium is to be completed in the early part of the Summer and other improvements were placed in the hands of the chairman and superintendent of the grounds.

Fire Near Fleming.

On Wednesday night of last week fire destroyed the house and barn on the farm of ex-county commissioner, A. J. Griest, near Unionville. At time of the fire the occupants were away from home and it is thought the fire may have been of incendiary origin. All the household furniture and everything that was in the barn, including some stock, was burned. The loss is about $1,400, with an insurance of $600.

Successful Entertainment.

The musical entertainment given in the Presbyterian church on last Friday evening, came up to what was promised. All the prominent performers, previously announced, were present and contributed their efforts in rendering an elaborate programme. The vast building was crowded and the enthusiastic applause clearly indicated that every part was appreciated.

—Dr. Theodore Christ, of Lemont, will be one of the forty-five delegates to attend the National encampment of the G. A. R. at Pittsburgh in September. He was chosen at the recent convention in Philadelphia.

RECENT DEATHS.

On Thursday evening, of last week, 15th, Henry Robb died at his residence at Nittany, Pa. Mr. Robb had been on the sick list for a long time from an attack of paralysis. In fact, for some years past he had been in failing health and during his last illness his recovery seemed impossible. The interment occurred on Saturday afternoon services being held at the house. A large delegation of members of Gregg Posts, G. A. R., of Bellefonte, also from Howard, Milesburg and other points were in attendance and their appropriate funeral services were conducted at the grave.

Mr. Robb was born and reared in Walker township and spent most of his life in the vicinity where he died. For over twenty-eight days he conducted the hotel at Nittany, Pa., and always kept a creditable house and never was refused a license.

During the war Mr. Robb served with company E, 5th Pa., reserves and afterwards with company K, 51st Pa. volunteers.

At the time of his death he was 53 years, 1 month and 13 days. He leaves a wife, eleven children, four brothers and one sister to mourn his death. His family consists of his widow, Alice Robb; Nelson, his oldest son, Blanche, Cora, Alfred, Lewis, Edward, Claire, Katie, Bertha, Lottie and Helen. His oldest brother is John Robb, who resides in Vinton county, Ohio; George, who is living at Coleville; Erastus, who resides in Bellefonte; Daniel, living in Joe Davis county, Ill., and a sister, Mrs. Charlotte Bibbett, residing in Birmingham, Huntingdon county, Pa.

ARMSTRONG ASKEY.
Mr. Armstrong Askey, a former resident of Howard Pa., died at his home in Jackson, Amador county, California, on Wednesday, March 7th, of consumption. He left this county in 1832. He leaves to mourn his death one brother and three sisters—Ellis Askey, who lives in Illinois; Mrs. Rachael Snavely, who is 84 years old, residing at Nittany; Mrs. Eliza McKibben, of Cedar Springs, Pa., and Mrs. Orpha Pletcher, of Howard, Pa., all but the latter named have passed the period of eighty years.

Chained to his Bed.

The witnesses in the case of Prof. Swithin C. Shortledge, who shot and killed his bride of six weeks at Media Pa., while walking along the street two months ago, were before the grand jury and Professor Shortledge was indicted on three counts—murder, manslaughter and involuntary manslaughter. Counsel for the accused desired an immediate trial, but the district attorney objected, stating that Prof. Shortledge was in such condition that he had to be chained to his bed at the Norristown hospital and that the state would not consent to a trial before the June term of court. The case was therefore postponed.

Homes Wanted.

Notwithstanding the present condition of times there are few desirable vacant properties in Bellefonte, at this time. During the past week persons desiring to locate here have been canvassing the town to find houses provided with modern conveniences. Houses that have water and steam heat in them can scarcely be found anywhere. Of course there are a number of the cheaper and poorly built properties on hand but there are few who want to move to such a place. We think our capitalists could put their surplus to a good use by building desirable homes, supplied with modern conveniences. Bellefonte needs more houses.

—At present all the printing offices in Bellefonte are crowded with job work, printing paper books to the supreme court, which is held in the latter part of April, causes all the rush.

$60,000 FOR A BALL.

MILLIONAIRE TOME FORGOT A PACKAGE.

Tossed about in the Car—The Port Deposit Banker had a Fortune in a Baggage which Young Players Had Fun with, but he got it all Right.

An ordinary-looking little package, containing $60,000 in cash, was carelessly tossed about like a ball on a railroad train by a party of young men. Millionaire Jacob Tome, of Port Deposit, Md., had left the money on his seat in the car, and didn't miss the treasure for an hour.

On Thursday last Mr. Tome, who is president of the Cecil National Bank and one of the wealthiest men in the State, returned from Washington, where he had sold some bonds. He came back on the Baltimore and Oxford express. He had received $60,000 cash for the bonds, and not to create suspicion, had money tied up in a little package, which he carried in his hand. Mr. Tome is an old man, and forgot his package when he reached Port Deposit Station.

At that place the Port Deposit Musical and Dramatic Association boarded the train. Two young men of this party of gay folks sat in the seat but recently vacated by the Millionaire. One of them picked up the treasure and tossed it to a friend across the aisle. For 2 minutes this splendid sum of money was thrown back and forth among the young men who didn't dream of the fortune they were using for a ball.

They thought it was only a paltry package. When the train halted at Rising Sun and the amateur funmakers dismounted from the car, they, too, left the little bundle of paper behind them. The conductor, E. L. Gilligan, saw it, and picking it up, ran to the door. He called to the young players that they had forgotten the package, but the train was speeding on, and he could no longer throw it to them.

When Conductor Gilligan's train reached Nottingham, he received a telegram from Millionaire Tome. The message told the conductor that there was $60,000 in the package, and he should keep it until the next morning. That night the treasure was locked in the safe of the mail car, rich enough booty for the king of Western train robbers. It was not disturbed, and the next day the financial prince of Port Deposit got the money. The package had not been untied.

ONCE LOST $9000.

It is stated that several years ago Mr. Tome forgot a package containing $9000. He left it in a Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore car, and it is said he never found it. Mr. Tome is building a splendid industrial school at Port Deposit, which will cost $500,000. Mr. Tome is a brother of Mrs D. G. Bush, of this place, and is well known to many of our readers.

His Farewell Sermon.

On last Sunday evening the Methodist church at Bellefonte was filled to overflowing to hear Rev. W. A. Houck preach his final sermon to the congregation he served as pastor for the last five years. According to the custom of that church five years is the longest period which any minister can remain with any congregation. Conference meets at Harrisburg this week and the new appointment will be made then.

In speaking to the congregation Rev. Houck referred to what had taken place in the congregation during the pastorate and it is a splendid showing.

During the past five years $7,500 have been raised for improvements, the payment of church debts, and the erection of the Coleville chapel. Ten years ago the amount of money collected for missionary purposes was $120. Five years ago, the amount collected was $460. Last year $518 were collected, and this year the money collected for all kinds of missionary purposes will foot up almost $750.

Five years ago the church book showed a total of 339 members. During Rev. Houck's pastorate 245 new members were added. During the same time 170 members have either died or been dismissed to other churches (sixteen of which number went to Coleville on the erection of the chapel at that place) leaving a net roll of membership at the present time of 414. During the past three years the Epworth League and the Junior Epworth League, the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and the Young Woman's Foreign Missionary Society have been organized, giving four new arms for church work. During Mr. Houck's pastorate he attended 101 funerals, all either members of his church or members of families whose heads were Methodists.

Reduced Fare to Philadelphia.

On March 24th, the Central Railroad of Penn'a., reduced their mileage ticket rate from a basis of 254 miles to 235 miles from Bellefonte. Those traveling Philadelphia or New York will find the train leaving this point at 2:52 p. m. makes close connection at Mill Hall with the Beech Creek train and at Williamsport the sleeping car is accessible at 10 p. m. to any desiring to retire early. Sleeping car berths are sold at $1.50 each. Passengers taking this are landed in Philadelphia at 7:15 and New York at 9:30 a. m.

Against the Railroad Company.

Judge Simonton at Harrisburg last week awarded a writ of alternative mandamus against the Pennsylvania railroad company to compel that corporation to cease discrimination against R. B. Wigton & Sons in freight charges for coal shipped from mines in Bedford, Clearfield and Westmoreland counties. The discrimination, it is alleged in the petition, has been practiced since last September. The writ is returnable March 19.

Profitable Chickens.

Mr. J. J. Hoy, of Marion township, is quite successful in raising poultry. He has the brown leghorn variety—pure, well bred stock. From 125 hens he cleared over $200 last year which is quite an item. Persons desiring a setting can get 15 eggs for 25 cents. Address J. J. Hoy, Walker, Pa.

If a stranger was to ask you for the loan of a dollar, chances are he would not get it. Why are you so willing to pay Three to Five dollars more to other people for a suit, when we give you better goods, made in better style at a positive saving of these extra dollars.
