

Head and Arms Seemed on Fire
A Sunstroke Followed by Nervous Prostration
Hood's Restored Health.

Mr. Edward Scottin
Philadelphia, Pa.

C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.
"Gentlemen—On August 10, I was taken to St. Joseph's hospital unconscious from the heat; my temperature was 106°. I remained in the hospital two weeks; I was unable to work for four weeks after that, but then felt compelled to turn in, as I have a wife and five children. I soon began to feel as though undergoing continuous shocks from an electric battery.

Every Nerve and Fibre of my body seemed in a constant state of quivering agitation and tremulousness. Heat flashed from the calves of my legs up through my thighs and body, my left arm and hand felt as though on fire, my head ached as if it would split when I stood down. I had great pains in my back around the base of the spine. I continued to stick to my work, feeling that if I must gain go down I would do so.

Struggling for My Family.
I have always been athletic, but I had lost all appetite, and my strength failed me. I was on the point of giving up. I had read much about Hood's Sarsaparilla, and concluded to give it a trial. Before I had taken half a bottle my appetite became so voracious that I would be compelled to eat between meals.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures
Hood's Sarsaparilla has now fully restored my strength and general health. That terrible nervousness is entirely gone. I feel as hearty and vigorous as ever. The pains in my back have greatly decreased. EDWARD SCOTTIN, 1522 Ogden Street, Philadelphia.

WITHOUT THE
Non-pull-out
BOW (RING)

It is easy to steal or ring watches from the pocket. The thief gets the watch in one hand, the chain in the other and gives a short, quick jerk—the ring slips off the watch stem, and away goes the watch, leaving the victim only the chain.

This idea stopped that little game!
The bow has a groove on each end. A collar runs down inside the pendant (stem) and fits into the groove, firmly locking the bow to the pendant so that it cannot be pulled or twisted off.

Sold by all watch dealers, without cost, on Jas. Ross Filled and other cases containing this trade mark—A watch case open sent free on request.

FRANK HATTON DEAD.

The Ex-Postmaster General Succumbs to Bright's Disease,

AFTER A STROKE OF PARALYSIS.

His Career as Printer, Editor and Cabinet Officer—The Youngest Member of the Cabinet, Excepting Alexander Hamilton, in the History of the Nation.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Mr. Frank Hatton, late editor of the Washington Post, died at his home last evening. Last Tuesday afternoon Mr. Hatton, who apparently had been in good health, was suddenly stricken with paralysis while working alone at his desk. With great difficulty, for his speech was impaired by the attack, he succeeded in summoning assistance and was at once removed to his home. The physicians held out little encouragement and looked for the worst. The last fatal change was manifest yesterday morning, when the dread symptoms of poisoning from Bright's disease appeared. The virus spread rapidly and soon approached the heart. There was no pain, because the faculties were deadened by the destroying agent, and at 4:30 o'clock, unconscious of the presence of his wife and son, and in spite of all that medical aid could accomplish, Mr. Hatton expired.

Mr. Hatton was a native of Ohio, and was 48 years old. After serving his time as a printer he became an editor. After serving as a volunteer throughout the war he re-entered the journalistic profession, and was identified with several papers as editor and proprietor. In 1881 he was appointed assistant postmaster general by President Arthur, and on the retirement of Judge Gresham became postmaster general, serving until Arthur's retirement. He was, with the exception of Alexander Hamilton, the youngest cabinet officer in the history of the government.

Stole $6,000 from an Express Safe.

WILMINGTON, Del., May 2.—Six thousand dollars in greenbacks mysteriously disappeared from the safe in the Adams express car on the Delaware, Maryland and Virginia railroad. At Milford the money was handed to Messenger George Rawley, by an officer of the Milford National bank. It was consigned to the Philadelphia National bank. As the train approached Harrington Rawley, as was his custom, jumped from the car and turned the switch. When he returned he unlocked the safe and found the money missing. It is supposed the money was taken by some one on the train familiar with the safe.

The Many Pension Frauds.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—A statement prepared at the pension bureau shows that during the year ended April 1, 1897, 513 illegally paid to pensioners were recovered, against $16,883 for the previous year. It is also stated that $1,000,000 have been saved to the government in intended payments on admitted and pending claims prevented by the discovery of the fraud and punishment of the offenders. During the year the law division of the bureau caught 199 arrests, 341 indictments, 161 convictions and 93 sentences, while 53 of those arrested were acquitted.

Entombed in a Burning Mine.

ASHLAND, Pa., May 2.—The Lehigh Coal and Iron company have a serious fire on their hands at Packer No. 3 colliery, near Girardville. It was discovered at 1 o'clock yesterday morning by two workmen, who saw smoke issuing through the air passages. They had some difficulty in reaching the surface. Gas Loped and Schar Frazz, laborers, who were working in the mine, have not yet been seen, and it is feared that they have been smothered to death. The fire is so hot that none of the miners can enter the mine.

Terrible Explosion in North Carolina.

RALEIGH, N. C., May 2.—Two large boilers at Robertson & Goodwin's lumber mills at Williamston, exploded yesterday. There were fifteen persons in the buildings, and all were injured. One boiler was blown thirty yards from its bed.

He was an old, and was a moderate user of tobacco and whisky. His faculties were remarkably well preserved, and he could not recall a day's sickness in his long life.

ALTOONA, Pa., May 2.—A freight train going east on the Pennsylvania railroad was wrecked by a broken wheel at Tipton, eight miles east of this city. Thirty-nine cars were piled up. Brakeman John D. Sauserman, of this city, was instantly killed, and Harris L. Marks, of Robertsdale, who was riding on the train, was seriously injured. The other members of the crew escaped. It is feared that the wheels of several tramps are still under the wreck.

HUNTINGDON, Pa., May 1.—The large county bridge at Cypher, Bedford county, blew down during a terrific hail and wind storm, carrying with it a party of seven men, who were returning home from a delegate election at Riddlesburg, and who had sought shelter in the bridge. There were several visitors in the jail, and as they were leaving the prisoners' quarters Cardeburg forced his way out with them. He brushed aside the sheriff's wife, ran on the main door of the jail, and escaped to the woods. Cardeburg has been in this country five years, and boasts that he never worked for a living.

READING, Pa., April 28.—Mrs. Marie Lauer brought an action against "Miss" Rebecca Poettiger, charging the latter with having alienated the affections of the former's husband, George F. Lauer, a wealthy brewer of this city. It is said the damages are laid at $50,000. The defendant is an attractive woman, who but recently returned to this country after having lived abroad for many years, during which time she was married to an English baronet named Sir Henry Reed, who recently died, after which Miss Poettiger resumed her maiden name.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., May 2.—James J. Slatyer, an agent for an installment concern in this place, has been notified that he is one of ten heirs to vast English estates valued at $10,000,000. His grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Slatyer, late of Port Carbon, was a sister of the late Sir William K. Ball, whose estate consists of the flourishing town of Gloucestershire, comprising twenty-five hundred houses. The sum of $300,000 with compound interest that has lain in the Melrose bank in Scotland, since 1806, will also fall to the American heirs, as the English relatives died without issue. The other heirs are all residents of this state.

WELLSBORO, Pa., May 1.—Between 600 and 700 Italian laborers employed on the extension of the Buffalo and Susquehanna railroad struck yesterday and gathered at Gaines. Each man was armed with a club as he marched into the village, the war cry being, "We work no more for 81 a day; we must get 13.5." Frank Greco, the contractor, hired the men for 81 a day, but he runs a supply store and furnishes everything to the men, from a pound of rice to a keg of beer, at good round prices. The trouble started over Greco's refusal to pay wages in cash, insisting that the men should take their earnings in trade at his store. The Italians are very ugly, and it is feared that there will be an outbreak on the slightest provocation.

HAZLETON, Pa., April 30.—Anthony G. Franko, a laborer, was ordered to use six-inch iron dynamite in order to break up old iron at the Jeansville iron works. Instead he used sixteen sticks of the explosive, and the result was a terrific explosion. A portion of the casting weighing some 2,000 pounds descended upon the roof of James McGlynn's house, which stood 300 yards away. The house was wrecked complete to the cellar, and how the inmates escaped being crushed to death seems miraculous. A bed on the second floor, in which an infant was sleeping, was broken in twain. In the kitchen beneath Mrs. McGlynn was engaged washing dishes. She heard the noise, but had no time to move when the casting dropped upon the table, carving it and dishes through the floor into the cellar. The woman was prostrated by fright, but otherwise was uninjured.

RIOTING IN CLEVELAND

A May Day Demonstration Leads to Great Disorder.

THE MOB WRECKED STREET CARS.

Motormen Refused to Stop Their Cars While the Procession Passed and Were Assaulted—A Fusillade of Bullets Fired, but Nobody Seriously Hurt.

CLEVELAND, May 2.—The unemployed of Cleveland celebrated May Day with a meeting, a procession that was marked by several riotous demonstrations, and by listening to and applauding a rank anarchist address on the public square when they had finished their marching. The procession was composed of between 6,000 and 10,000 men and boys, mostly foreigners. They followed a United States flag, and started in military order. They had not gone a mile, however, before the procession collided with an electric car. The motorman refused to stop, and the car was wrecked.

A few minutes later another car came with policemen on the front platform and ordered them to give way. They refused to do so, and a policeman fired his revolver into them. Many of the men drew pistols and began firing, at least 100 shots being discharged, but nobody was hurt. Some of the bullets went through the windows of a store, however, and two of the clerks had narrow escapes.

The procession was broken up temporarily by the police. Soon after a third car was seen, and when the driver refused to stop he was filled with a brick, though not seriously hurt. As the procession moved up Superior street, on the return, it filled that thoroughfare from building to building. Street cars were stopped and all traffic suspended for a time. The driver of a truck who refused to take his team out of the way received a bad wound in the side of the face from an iron bar thrown by one of the marchers.

During all these disturbances not a single arrest was made, the police evidently not desiring to court trouble with a mob of such an ugly temper. When the procession had returned to the square several speeches were made by Central Labor union leaders who advised the men to go home, but an anarchist finally got hold of the crowd and made a speech which started another procession. It headed out through the manufacturing district, in the eastern part of the city, and it was feared that more violence would be committed, but the reports indicate that nothing more serious than the breaking of a few windows in a factory occurred.

Coal Famine in Illinois.

CENTRALIA, Ill., May 2.—The strike in the mines here is complete. The operators have not been conferred with, and no grievance has been submitted for adjustment. About 1,300 individuals, men, women and children, are without means of support. There is no disturbance. The Illinois Central railway gets most of its coal for three divisions of the road at this place, and there is now no coal in sight, even for local consumption. The miners at Sandoval and Odin, a few miles north of here, are still at work, but the opinion is that they will not hold out through the week.

Hook's District Still Democratic.

CINCINNATI, May 2.—Returns from the Third congressional district show that Paul J. Sorg (Dem.) has a plurality of 2,000 over E. G. Rathbun (Rep.). The soldier's home was carried by Rathbun by 2,000. The Democratic gain at Sorg's home in Middletown was over 300. Hook's Democratic plurality in 1892 was 4,300. The three counties of the district gave McKinley last year a plurality of 569.

Democrats Lead in St. Paul.

There are 113 precincts in all, and the remaining ones are about equally divided between the two leading parties.
