A "SUGAR" CAMPAIGN.

Mr. Havemeyer Before the Senate Investigating Committee.

WHERE THE "SUGAR" WAS PLACED.

The Head of the Great Trust Admits That Contributions Were Made to the Campaign Funds of the Two Leading Political Parties.

WASHINGTON, June 13 .- When Mr. H. O. Havemeyer, president of the American Sugar Refining company, otherwise known as the sugar trust, was excused by the senate investigating committee, at 4:15 yesterday afternoon, he had been with the committee about five hours, and was asked to appear again today. The inquiry was begun by asking Mr. Havemeyer about the published statement that he had, either on Mr. E. C. Benedict's yacht or at Greenwich, Conn., been in consultation with Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Benedict in 1892, after Mr. Cleveland's nomination for the presidency, about the sugar interests as affected by the Hawaiian treaty. To this Mr. Havemeyer said there was "not one word of truth." He also declared that no such consultation had ever occurred at any time or place. With reference to the reported conference at the Arlington hotel in this city he said: "Some time in March I was in Mr. Terrell's room at the Arlington hotel when Mr. Brice, Mr. Smith and Mr. Reed were present. There was nothing at that interview said about the obligations of the Democratic party to the sugar trust, there existing no obligation between them, and there was no mention of any. I have no recollection of any reference to any obligation on the part of Smith, Brice or any one present."

Explaining his visit to Secretary Carlisle Mr. Havemeyer said: "I called upon him at his house before the senate finance committee reported the bill to ascertain what his views were about the administration of an ad valorem duty on sugar, whether he thought it could be efficiently and honestly administered. His reply was that he thought it could. I likewise asked him if he did not agree with me that the ad valorem was the proper one upon which to assess the duty on raw sugar, if there was to be a duty. He said he did, provided the duty was to be a moderate one."

Mr. Havemeyer admitted that the principal object of the organization was that of controlling the price and output of sugar in this country, and that the company had succeeded in doing this.

Senator Allen asked whether the trust had not endeavored to control the legislation of congress with a view of protecting its interests, and with a view of making money out of such legislation as might be enacted here, to which Mr. Havemeyer replied: "Undoubtedly, that is what I have been down here for."

Mr. Have meyer made some rather start-ling statements toward the close of his testimony. He was asked about the contributions of the sugar trust to the campaign funds of political parties, and said any printing house in Centre that the records of the trust showed that county. We can supply business contributions were made, but that they were made to the state committees, not houses with anything they may to the national committees. He was asked need. We make a specialty of if the contributions of the trust were Note Heads, Letter Heads, Bill given to both parties in the same state, and replied, "Oh, no."

"How do you arrange it?" he was asked. Order Books, etc., all work being put up in tablets or bound in the the Republicans in Massachusetts. We UNIONTOWN, Pa., June 9.-John Hussar, the coke rioter on trial for the murder of Chief Engineer Paddock, of the Frick Coke company, was convicted yesterday of manslaughter. About thirty others will be tried on the same charge.

READING, Pa., June 9 .-- George Lengel, a laborer at the Keystone furnace, was fatally burned by hot cinder last night. While handling a car loaded with the cinder the slide slipped out, causing the red hot mass to splash over his body.

SCRANTON, Pa., June 12 .- The Scranton bricklayers who have been on strike since May 1 for an increase in their wages of five cents per hour, yesterday gave in to the contractors, and will resume work at the old rate-thirty-five cents per hour.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., June 11. - Jacob Miller, a baker, hung himself to a tree yesterday, the act being prompted by the disgrace arising out of a quarrel in which he became engaged at a picnic Saturday night, during which he received a black 876

READING, Pa., June 12 .- Colonel A. Harvey Tyson, late of Governor Pattison's staff, was released from jail here last night, where he has been confined for one year. The charges against him, growing out of alleged irregular financial transactions, have all been settled and withdrawn.

PHILADELPHIA, June 13.-Herman Passio, a 12-year-old Italian boy, was arrested and held under $2,500 bail to appear before a coroner's jury on the charge of causing the death of Abram Satroousky, 6 years of age, whom he beat over the head with a club on March 28, at school. Passic has been a fugitive since the assault.

HAZLETON, Pa., June 12 .- The strike among the anthracite coal miners at Silverbrook mine has been settled by the operators acceding an advance of from five to ten cents a ton in wages. This is considered a fair compromise, the strikers not getting the sum demanded. This was the only strike in the Pennsylvania anthracite coal region

PHILADELPHIA, June 11.-Four desperate thieves, armed with no weapons save lumps of coal, held up a Reading railway freight train within the city limits at high noon yesterday. They were repulsed after a desperate fight with the crew of the train attacked and that of another following it, aided by the police. Two of the robbers were captured.

READING, Pa., June 13.-A. J. Dress was yesterday found guilty of swindling in connection with the Spang estate in Gen many. Dress made his dupes believe that they were the heirs to 15,000,000 marks, and spent three years in Germany at their expense, encouraging them in the meantime with flctitious wills, family records, etc. Sentence was deferred.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., June 9 .- The mystery surrounding the disappearance of little Eddie Brotherton, of Ashley, is at last solved. Mrs. Brotherton, who went to Danville in response to a summons, has identified the body found in the river as that of her boy. It seems undoubted that the boy was kidnaped and thrown into the river by his abductors to avoid cap ture.

FRANKLIN, Pa., June 12.-Samuel Mc Kelvey and William Minnis, two young men of this city, were killed by a freight train on the Western New York and Pennsylvania road near Polk, Pa. They had been on a protracted spree and laid down on the track to sleep, and were not no ticed by the engineer until too late to stor the train. Their bodies were horribly mutilated.

READING, Pa., June 12 .- William Weber, aged 26, shot and killed Justice Clemmer, his father-in-law, an old man of 61, last night in a quarrel arising out of Weber's domestic affairs. Weber and his wife had agreed to separate, and had met at the house of Wallace Miller, a neighbor, to divide their furniture. It was here that the killing took place. Weber then fired at his wife and Miller, missing them, and fled. Later he gave himself up. NEWPORT, Pa., June 13 .-- During a se vere thunder and hailstorm the barn of James C. Bristline, a farmer living two miles from here, containing a large amount of live stock and farming imple ments, produce, etc., was struck by lightning and burned. While the fire was in progress Mr. Bristline entered the building to try to save the horses. One of the frenzied animals kicked him in the stomach, inflicting injuries that may prove fatal. MAUCH CHUNK, June 13.-James W. Maloy, proprietor of the Lansford Record, was on trial in the Carbon county court yesterday, charged with having violated the election laws at the last election by printing two Democratic tickets in the same column for one of the wards in Lansford borough. After hearing the testimony Judge Albright directed the jury to find a verdict of not guilty, as it was shown that Mr. Maloy had merely acted under instructions. POTTSTOWN, Pa., June 11 .- The nail mill of Ellis & Lessig, one of the largest industrial establishments of this city, was destroyed by fire yesterday. The flames are supposed to have originated from the gas producers connected with the furnaces. It was only by hard work that the puddling mill and stock house, two adjoining buildings, were saved. The loss will aggregate between $80,000 and $100,000, chiefly on the valuable nail making machinery that the mill contained. Six hundred hands will be temporaily thrown out of work. GREENSBURG, Pa., June 13 .- About 9 o'clock p. m. three burglars forced an entrance to the residence of James Muffler, a farmer living in Bell township, near Perrysville. The noise made by the burglars aroused the inmates, who hastily jumped out of bed and rushed down stairs. They were no sooner down than they were confronted in the dark by the thieves, who commenced shooting, one of the shots taking effect in the hand and arm of a hired boy named John Mansfield. Mansfield rushed into an adjoining room and got a shotgun, and upon entering the appartment where the three ruffians were opened fire, the load striking one of them, and he fell to the floor. The others fled and have since not been apprehended. The neighbors wers aroused, and it was soon discovered that the burglar was fataily wounded, the load of shot having struck him in the right side, making a terrible wound. He was shortly afterward identified as the notorious Jim Ward, of Apollo, who on the night of Nov. 13, 1881, murdered the two Means sisters near Sardis, and who was subsequently arrested, thied and convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for twelve years. Ward, having served his time, has been living with his family at Apollo since his return, and has been a terror to the community ever since.

never give to the minority.' "Did you contribute to the anti-snap-pers?" asked Senator Lodge.

"Oh, no; I am quite sore on that point. Nothing to the anti-snappers."

This feature was considered about the most interesting of Mr. Havemeyer's testimony. He could not give the committee the amounts contributed by the sugar trust to the different campaign funds, but he promised them if he could get them. Cord Meyer was called after Mr. Havemeyer finished. He gave the committee little or no information. He was asked if the sugar trust or any of its agents had employed any senator or representative as an attorney or in other capacity during the time the bill was pending in either house, and he answered in the negative.

Edwards Will be Indicted.

WASHINGTON, June 13 .- While no one at the district attorney's office will talk about the proceedings of the grand jury further than to say that no true bill has yet been reported against Messrs. Edwards and Shriver, the newspaper correspondents, it is known that the grand jury has informed Mr. Birney that it would report a true bill, and that it was in consequence of this information that Mr. Birney notified the two newspaper men to be prepared with bail next Saturday if they did not wish to be imprisoned. The same action will be taken in the case of Broker Chapman as has been taken in Edwards' and Shriver's cases.

Minister Thompson's Vigorous Work.

WASHINGTON, June 12 .- The annual correspondence of the department of state, just published, has a long and interesting chapter on the rise, progress and fall of the Brazilian revolution. One fact shown very clearly in this year's red book is that our minister to Brazil, Mr. Thompson, pursued a vigorous policy in support of the rights of Americans. He was the first of the diplomation corps to take a positive stand in the matter.
