Saved My Life

25 Worth of Hood's Sarsaparilla

Severe Case of Nicotine Poisoning.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:
Gentlemen:—I write these lines to certify that Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured me of a most painful disease from which I have suffered the past four years. It appeared in the form of eruptions on my neck and face, spreading over my body, so painful that I could not sleep at night, and could not work in the day time, and when I did lay down and get into a little doze, if I would move just a little, it would start that terrible sensation, and from the eruptions on my legs and body. I had to wear bandages all the time. My eyes were badly swollen, my back in terrible condition. One physician said it was weed poison, another eczema, and the last told me it was and that I would have to go to a physician who made a specialty of my disease. (I omitted to say that I am a cigar maker by trade.) But Hood's Sarsaparilla had been recommended, and I thought I would try it, and I am heartily thankful that I did. I can truly say that Hood's Sarsaparilla has effected it.

I am free from sores, have a good appetite, no dull feelings, and that continual sick headache is gone. This wonderful cure has only cost me five dollars. This small amount of money has rid me of all my sufferings. I am still taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, my faithful friend which has saved my life. I cannot praise it enough."

TRAIN ROBBERS AGAIN.

They Make a Successful Hold Up on a Southern Railroad.

STOLE TWELVE HUNDRED DOLLARS

The Robbers Left Passengers Unmolested, Confining Themselves to the Money in the Express Car, Which They Forced Open with Dynamite.

SAVANNAH, June 27.—Train No. 6, of the Savannah, Florida and Western railway, was held up one mile this side of Homerville, 126 miles southwest of Savannah, early in the morning by six masked white men. The safe in the express car was robbed of its contents, $1,222 in cash. Two of the men boarded the train at Homerville, concealing themselves behind the tender. As soon as it started they climbed over the tender, covered the engineer and fireman with pistols, and told Engineer Jenkins to stop. The train was about a mile from Homerville the order was given and the train was brought to a standstill. Then four other masked men joined the party, and while two kept the engineer covered they proceeded to get into the express car. Conductor Faris came out with a train hand to investigate the cause for stopping, but did not stand on ceremony when ordered to return to his car.

While two of the men kept watch the other two ordered Messenger Calder to open the door. He refused, and was told he had better get out of the car. He heard one of the men lighting a fuse and before he could reach the corner a dynamite cartridge exploded, breaking the door from its fastenings and completely stunning the messenger. When he came to he was looking into the barrel of a revolver, and was ordered to throw up his hands. He did not hesitate long, and when told to open the safe he did so, taking the packages out as ordered.

The robber (there was only one in the car) gathered up the money in his arms and went to join his associates. They got on the engine, made the fireman un耦ple it from the cars, and then compelled both engineer and fireman to leave it. They ran the engine up to a point in the woods near Argyle, eleven miles from the scene of the robbery, where they left it and took to the woods. As soon as they left word was sent to the officials here, who ordered a freight to bring up the passenger coaches to their engine.

The robbers did not enter the mail car nor any of the passenger coaches, their only apparent object being to secure the money in the express car. The passengers were considerably alarmed for the time being, but no one was hurt.

Ex-Sheriff Hurst, of Thomas county, one of the most daring officers in the state, at the head of a posse, reached the scene about four hours later and with a pack of hounds from McRae's convict camp started in pursuit of the robbers, who were thought to have gone off in the direction of Okfevisee swamp. The officials believe the posse has the right trail and that the robbers will be captured.

Assaulted by a Negro.

CUMBERLAND, Md., June 27.—A felonious assault was committed upon Mrs. Wesley Welsh, wife of a farmer, who lives about three miles out of town. It happened about noon yesterday. A negro stopped near the house to pick wild strawberries. Mrs. Welsh ordered him away. He made some impudent reply and moved around to another patch just back of Welsh's barn. She again ordered him to go away, threatening to send a dog after him. She ran toward the house, but he caught her and overpowered her, dragged her to the house and accomplished his purpose. Upon hearing of the crime the farmers in the neighborhood began searching for the negro. A sheriff's posse has been organized to hunt him down.

The Pullman Boycott.

CHICAGO, June 27.—The threatened strike to enforce the boycott of Pullman cars was inaugurated at 9 o'clock last night, when the American Railway union ordered the Illinois Central men out. The switchmen were the first to obey, and quickly walked out, tying up the suburban as well as the express train service. President Debs asks the co-operation of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen. The officers of that body manifest a disposition not to be drawn into the trouble, asserting that they had nothing to do with the strike at Pullman or its consequences.

A Father's Terrible Crime.

MILLVILLE, N. J., June 27.—Joseph Whitsett stabbed his wife with a blacksmith's file, cut his daughter's throat with a razor, set fire to his house and tried to burn himself to death in the flames in this place yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Whitsett will recover, but her daughter will probably die. Whitsett, who is 55 years old, came to this place from Paterson about two years ago, and bought the house in which the tragedy took place. Neither he nor his family were socially inclined, and but little is known of them.

Mine Horror in Wales.

PONT-Y-FRIDD, Wales, June 25.—A terrible explosion of fire damp occurred Saturday afternoon in the Albion colliery, at Gillyfield, near this place. The force of the explosion may be judged from the fact that a beam fifteen inches by fifteen inches and twenty feet long was blown to a considerable distance from the top of the shaft. Of 275 men and boys only seventeen escaped. There have been 254 bodies recovered.

Two Killed in a Freight Wreck.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., June 27.—A freight wreck occurred near Dunlop, on the Norfolk and Western railroad, yesterday, in which George Donald, brakeman, and Henry Meyers, a negro stealing a ride, were killed. The train was composed of coal cars, one of which jumped the track and ten followed, including the caboose, down a high embankment.

Not Guilty of Embezzlement.

RICHMOND, Va., June 27.—Seymour S. Cadot was acquitted in the hustings court here of the charge of embezzling funds from the Live Oak Distillery company, of Cincinnati. A singular fatality was attached to the case, five deaths having occurred since its beginning among those connected with or interested in the litigation.

Judge Phelps Resigns.

TRENTON, June 27.—Governor Werts has appointed Vice Chancellor Green to succeed the late Judge William Walter Phelps, of the court of errors and appeals. The vice chancellor can hold both positions.

COATESVILLE, Pa., June 25.—The barn and stock house of N. P. Boyer & Co. were destroyed by fire Saturday night, with 100 head of fine cattle and the black stallion Midnight, valued at $1,500. Loss, $12,000.

CHESTER, Pa., June 26.—Cressy Bradley, a girl of 2 years, was run down by an electric car at Seventh and Butler streets and dragged several yards. The little one had her skull fractured, and will probably die.

READING, Pa., June 25.—The court sentenced Alderman Henry Wickel and Constable Borrell, of the Twelfth ward, this city, convicted of taking illegal fees from the county, to pay fines of $250 and $100, respectively, and costs.

PITTSBURG, June 26.—The laborers employed in the 35 and 40-inch mills of the Homestead steel works have struck, and the departments are idle. The men formerly worked in gangs of ten, but lately the number has been reduced to six.

HARRISBURG, June 23.—Two masked men broke in a door at the Hummelstown railroad station during the night. The telegraph operator inside heard the burglars and was armed with a revolver, but did not use it. He was gagged and robbed of $40.

READING, Pa., June 23.—James M. Lyons, ex-treasurer of the Reading school board, was arrested yesterday afternoon on the charge of embezzling $2,000. He had held the office for twelve years, and retired two months ago. Subsequently Lyons was released on bail.

NOBISTOWN, Pa., June 23.—Mrs. John Schontz, aged 55 years, of Hatfield, committed suicide by cutting her throat with a butcher knife. She had been driven crazy by religion. John Stout, aged 18 years, was drowned in an abandoned stone quarry at Cold Point.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23.—Mayor Stuart has ordered a trial of all the lieutenants of police, thirty in number, with a view of ascertaining the identity of the lieutenant whom Simon Muhr, the jeweler, said confessed to him some time ago of obtaining money for police protection.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., June 23.—Rev. Charles Warmkessel, of the Evangelical denomination, committed suicide at an early hour in the morning by hanging himself. His nephew, Eli Warmkessel, was killed on the Reading railroad near Port Carbon, about the same time of the uncle's self-destruction.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., June 26.—During a thunder storm lightning struck the barn of Joseph Keller, penetrated into the lower hallway, and fatally injured Reuben Whartman, severely shocked Sylvanus Keller, who was sitting by his side, and instantly killed a dog lying between the two men.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., June 25.—Ella Regan, a 10-year-old girl, is lying in a precarious condition, suffering from the effects of a kick in the abdomen by Edward Boyle, 13 years of age. Boyle and the girl are employed in the thread mill. Boyle began fighting with another boy, and kicked the girl when she urged him to stop.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., June 23.—John Bastline and David Yope, two miners in Cameron colliery, were terribly burned and mutilated by the explosion of a bag of powder while at work yesterday. Their clothes were burned from their bodies, and one victim begged his rescuers to kill him and end his misery. Both men will die.

SHARON, Pa., June 25.—County School Superintendent Eckels has sent a circular to the Mercer county school boards asking them to act on the question of teachers attending "ungodly dances." Eckels wants them to be prevented from dancing. He claims that in dancing the teachers set a bad example to their pupils.

CARLISLE, Pa., June 26.—The Democratic conference in this, the Nineteenth congressional district, met at Mount Holly and nominated Peter H. Strubinger, of Adams county, for congress. The district is now represented by Frank E. Belthoover, of this city, who was elected by the Democrats, and was a candidate for renomination.

HOLLIDAYSBURG, Pa., June 25.—A jury convicted W. J. McCormick of murder in the second degree. The case was the outcome of a boisterous and drunken quarrel between McCormick and Joseph Bender, in a barroom at Altoona, over the ownership of a glass of beer. Bender took the beer, but his skull was subsequently fractured by a brick thrown by McCormick.

HAZLETON, Pa., June 23.—John Burke was mangled past recognition and instantly killed, and his cousin, Edward Burke, sustained fatal injuries in a blast at Van Winkle's Milesville colliery yesterday. Daniel Gallagher blasted out a dock in a chute, and sent his assistant, a Hungarian, to warn the other workmen. The assistant misunderstood the order and left for dinner.

PITTSBURG, June 23.—A sad case of double drowning took place yesterday at the Forty-third street bridge in Lawrenceville. Henry and Andrew Lear, aged 11 and 10 respectively, were in bathing, when Andrew got beyond his depth. Neither boy could swim, but Henry bravely went to the rescue of his brother. The little fellow, who was sinking, clasped his arms around the other's neck and both were drowned. Fifteen minutes later their bodies were recovered, still clasped tightly in each other's embrace.

HARRISBURG, June 27.—The Democratic state convention met at 12 o'clock this forenoon, with the following temporary officers: Robert E. Wright of Allentown, chairman; Ben N. Nead of Harrisburg, John Senneder of Philadelphia, and Thomas Sloop of Allegheny, secretaries. George H. Hoffman of Philadelphia, reading clerk; Ben F. Byrne of Philadelphia, and Thomas Mallen of Pittsburg, sergeants-at-arms. William M. Singler is the only name mentioned in connection with the nomination for governor.

ADRIAN, Pa., June 25.—A serious riot occurred here last night. I. W. Robinson, superintendent of the Rochester and Pittsburg company, and Sheriff Gourley were stoned, while a Polish woman was bayoneted by a soldier. The sheriff was cut over the eyes with a rock and struck with a club on the back. Mr. Robinson has an ugly cut on the chin, but otherwise he is not badly hurt. The Polish woman was the most seriously injured, but it is reported that she will recover. Robinson and Sheriff Gourley brought a carload of special police. The miners thought they were non-union men, and the women stoned the train, being urged on by the men.
