REFORMATORY ABUSES

More Damaging Evidence Against Superintendent Brockway.

BRUTAL TREATMENT OF A BOY.

Handcuffed to a Ring in a Cell for Seven Days and Confined in the "Rest Cure" for Seventy-two Days—Kicked in the Face by Brockway.

ELMIRA, N. Y., July 25.—At yesterday's session of the Reformatory investigating committee, an ex-convict, whose name is omitted at the request of the commissioners, admitted that he had lied when charged with improper conduct, and that he had implicated innocent men, who, he said, were sent to Auburn and made to serve out their maximum terms. The witness was a respectable and intelligent man, and proved that it was possible for one prisoner to benefit himself to the injury of others by adroit manipulation and lying. Frank Wallace, the Auburn transfer whose letters caused both the reformatory investigations, is a bright looking boy. He was punished and transferred to Auburn because of his refusal to tell Superintendent Brockway where his relatives lived, desiring to save his mother from disgrace. Wallace again told his story, giving the details as have already been published. He told of being handcuffed to a ring in a cell and being confined in the "rest cure" seventy-two days in a screened cell, being fed on hash and bread and water. Before beginning his testimony he asked that he be sent back to Auburn as soon as possible.

Judge Gilbert offered in evidence the correspondence in the case between Wallace, Judge Seaver and Brockway, but Mr. Devo admitted only the latter's letter. When cross-examined Wallace refused to answer any of the questions put to him except that he lived in New York city with his mother, and that his father was dead. Wallace admitted having attempted to escape from the police court in Buffalo when sentenced by jumping from a three story window and receiving injuries from which he has not yet fully recovered. Witness said that while sitting in a chair on the guard room floor Mr. Brockway kicked him in the face. Judge Seaver, of Erie county, who sentenced Wallace to the reformatory, was called. Judge Gilbert again attempted to introduce the entire correspondence in the case, but all was excluded save the letter from the prisoner to Judge Seaver. William Facey, an Auburn transfer, next told his story. He said he was punished in the bath room in January, 1898; that Brockway hit him in the chest, and told him that he was a nice kind of a man. He was paddled four times, and at last admitted anything they asked him. On these statements he was transferred to Auburn prison.

"Were the statements you made true?" asked Judge Gilbert. "They were false," replied the witness. He swore that a scar on his left shin was the result of punishment received, but the defense again introduced the records to prove he had it when he entered the reformatory.

The War in Corea.

SHANGHAI, July 25.—A dispatch received here from Nagasaki, on the southwest side of the island of Kioo-Soo, Japan, says that a detachment of Korean troops, at the instigation of the Chinese resident, have attacked the Japanese garrison at Seoul, the capital of Corea, and were defeated. A later telegram says that a Japanese cruiser and a Chinese transport have been engaged, and that the cruiser sunk the transport. Koreans and Chinese engaged in a battle on the 12th inst. with Tunzsis' rebels and a large number were killed. It is reported that the Korean king has been kidnaped by the Japanese.

Rebuke for Maryland's Senators.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., July 25.—Queen Anne's county, a stronghold of Maryland Democracy, the native county of Senator Gibson, and formerly a firm supporter of Senator Gorman, yesterday in convention gave the Maryland senators a hard slap. The convention, held to elect delegates to the district congressional convention, adopted resolutions demanding that "the nominee of the district shall accord President Cleveland his full support and shall be sound on the tariff reform, as the people are not disposed to tolerate nominees who will not actively support true Democratic principles."

Victims of the Nicol Disaster.

ASBURY PARK, July 25.—The body lying at Morris morgue, though badly mutilated, was identified yesterday as that of Theodore Sechlizer, of New York. Sechlizer was lost in the disaster to the tug James S. Nicol on Sunday, June 24. Another headless body was found at Tackannax Lake by Captain Wardell, and a third, badly disfigured, near Seabright yesterday afternoon. The head of the latter was also missing and the body was decomposed.

Will Resume as Union Men.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., July 25.—All the striking miners of the McClain county coal shaft, operated by a company of which Vice President Stevenson is the president, who have been on strike ninety days, will resume work. They get the old wages and go back as union men. Vice President Stevenson was present at the meeting yesterday at which the agreement was reached.

Smothered to Death by Corn.

THOSE, Pa., July 25.—Ambrose Byer, aged 7 years, while playing in his father's mill here, got in a bin through which corn was being dropped to a lower floor. The corn covered him up and smothered him. His feet stuck through the funnel, and the corn had to be shoveled out before the body could be removed.

Drowned While Swimming Horses.

HARRISON, Idaho, July 24.—Frank Brammel, aged 21, and Alfred Mott, aged 13, of Pullman, Wash., were drowned in St. Joe lake while swimming horses. Frank was a son of President Brammel, of the Farmers and Traders' bank and Alfred was a son of A. W. Mott, a merchant.

Mrs. Leland Stanford Will Fight.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—Mrs. Leland Stanford and her attorneys have notified the government that its claim for $15,000,000 against the estate of Senator Stanford has been rejected. This means that the demand of the government will be paid only at the end of long litigation.

JENKINTOWNS, Pa., July 24.—The borough officers made a big sweep of tramps and lodged a dozen of them in the lockup. They were given a hearing before Burgess Jermier, who imposed a fine on some and committed others to jail. The people have been much annoyed by petty thieving, and it is thought these knights of the road were responsible for a good deal of it.

HONESDALE, Pa., July 23.—Four prisoners escaped from the county jail by sawing in two the iron bars of their cell window. The sheriff collected a posse and started in pursuit, but thus far they have not been recaptured. The fugitives are John Fitzpatrick, convicted of thievery; Dennis O'Donnell, a horse thief; Thomas Connell, suspected of murder, and a tramp.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 23.—At Duryea, near this city, Thomas Robert and James Oliver, three young toughs, became boisterous and began shooting promiscuously into the crowd. Being remonstrated with, they set upon John Toole, against whom they were much embittered, and beat him so brutally that he died from his injuries. James Oliver has been arrested, but the others are at large.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., July 23.—The coroner's jury inquiring into the murder of Frank Bagnato, which occurred at Girardville on Sunday of last week, returned a verdict to the effect that the deceased "came to his death by being struck with a blunt instrument at the hands of parties unknown." A warrant was sworn out by Peter Frazco charging John Tahoney, of Jackson's Park, with the murder.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., July 23.—Peter Gillespie, a school teacher of Mill Creek, East Norwegian township, has fallen heir to a fortune of $85,000 in an estate in Ireland. Burt has assumed a serious vein of late and passes his time in silent meditations.

ALTOONA, Pa., July 24.—Policeman Philip Burkhardt attempted to arrest one of a drunken crowd of fighters last night when the gang murderously assaulted him. He fired in self defense and hit John McEnany two inches below the heart. McEnany is a boiler maker, who came here recently from Baltimore. The ball was extracted at the hospital and he will probably recover. The policeman was badly cut about the head and face.

HAZLETON, Pa., July 24.—The breaker hands at Wentz & Co.'s Silver Brook colliery struck yesterday for an advance in wages. The operators continued to work the colliery with outside hands. It was anticipated that violent demonstrations would be indulged in and the coal and iron police were called out. Their presence intimidated the men and the day passed without incident. The strikers are mostly foreigners, who are desperate when aroused, and an outbreak is possible.

SCANTON, Pa., July 21.—Mrs. Bridget Richards, her son Peter and her daughter Nellie and Maud and Bryan Campbell, the latter a Jersey Central conductor, ate some pork chops and were seized with severe pains and an attack of vomiting. Dr. Dolan pronounced the trouble to be an attack of poisoning caused by eating the pork, which was part of a shipment from Chicago held in the stock yards six days before being forwarded. Peter Richards is not expected to live, but the others are improving.

UNIONTOWNS, Pa., July 24.—Dynamiters made an attempt to blow up the town of Dunbar. At 1 o'clock in the morning a large bomb was exploded under the house of a non-union workman named Vaughan, in the center of town. The building was blown to pieces and the larger portion of the town was badly shaken by the explosion. Windows were broken all over the borough and chimneys thrown from their position. The family escaped without injury. A short time later a dynamite bomb was found under the house of William Boden, another non-unionist. The bomb did not explode.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 25.—The committee sent to Philadelphia on Sunday to confer with the Berwind-White company from the Houtzdale district, failed to return yesterday, though private dispatches received stated that the company would not pay more than forty cents a ton for three feet thick coal, with a better price for lower grade coal. The mass meeting called to hear the report of the committee was therefore postponed until this afternoon. An earnest effort will be made to start all the mines with new men. The trial of the twenty-four miners at Osceola, charged with being implicated in the burning of the Imperial mine tipple, was continued today.

FELL TO THEIR DEATH.

Plunged Down Five Stories on a Broken Elevator.

THREE MEN KILLED, TWO INJURED.

The Victims Were Carrying Meal on the Elevator of a Brewery, and Disobeyed the Rules of the Establishment in Filling It with Human Freight.

NEW YORK, July 25.—The drum shaft of an elevator at Clauson & Price's brewery, One Hundred and Ninetieth street and Eleventh avenue, snapped in two yesterday afternoon, and the loaded elevator plunged down five stories. Three men were killed and two others seriously injured. The dead are: Louis Boes, 40 years old, skull fractured and neck broken; Bernard Schneider, 46 years old, skull and back broken; Anthony Karl, 45 years old, skull fractured. The injured are: Henry Hornebler, 39 years old, right leg fractured and injured internally; William Embeck, 36 years old, both legs fractured and injured internally.

Six men were engaged in piling up 100 pound sacks of meal on a 10x10 freight elevator, which is erected in the center of the brewery building. The elevator runs from the fifth floor to the basement. These men had to take the meal from the first floor to the wash house on the fifth. Under the platform of the elevator and across the shaft two heavy beams were placed, on which the elevator rested. These beams were to prevent any jarring as the men threw the heavy sacks of meal on the platform.

Twenty-five bags were piled up. Then five men jumped on top and the elevator was started toward the top of the building. The sixth man had gone back to get another sack, and as he returned with his burden he saw the elevator moving upward. The men on the elevator shouted derisively at him. He looked up the shaft, and as he did so there came a crackling sound and a loud crash. The elevator had dropped like a massive bit of lead, the two great beams which a minute before had supported the platform were crushed like match wood, and the elevator car with its load of life and death dropped to the cemented basement and shook the foundation of the building.

Of the five men on the loaded elevator car two were found dead. All lay in a heap together. The broken sacks had thrown out mounds of meal, which were quickly dyed with blood. The dreadful concussion had killed Boes and Karl instantly. Schneider was still breathing, but died a few minutes after he had been dragged out of the wreck.

Whether the machinery was defective or the load on the elevator too great has yet to be determined. On each floor through which the elevator passed was a notice prohibiting employes to ride on the elevator.

Indignant French Journalists.
PARIS, July 25.—In the chamber of deputies during the discussion of the clause in the government's anti-anarchist measure, providing for a restriction being placed upon the reports published of the trials of anarchists, Deputy Denoix remarked that the press should not be considered a privileged trade. Thereupon the newspaper men present in the gallery raised such a disturbance that the president of the chamber ordered the gallery to be cleared. Later the press representatives were invited to return, but declined to do so. The newspaper men drew lots to decide who should challenge M. Denoix.

Would-be Lynchers Thwarted.
LAURELVILLE, Fla., July 25.—Early in the morning a mob of negroes, led by a negro preacher named Marshall, went to the house of Jack Thomas, colored, to lynch him for committing a rape on a negro girl. As the mob approached Thomas opened fire with a Winchester. His first shot killed Marshall, the preacher. Thomas continued firing, shooting down in succession six other members of the mob, four of whom are thought to be mortally wounded. The mob fired at Thomas without effect. Thomas has surrendered to the authorities.
