GORMAN'S BROADSIDE.

The Maryland Senator Vigorously Assails the President.

HE CHARGES BREACH OF FAITH.

A Pointed Defense of the Senate Compummise as the Best Measure That Could Pass the Higher Body-Senator Hill Defends the President.

WASHINGTON, July 24. - Perhaps no more remarkable scene was ever witnessed In the United States senate than that which occurred there yesterday when for two and a half hours Senator Gorman, the Democratic political leader on the floor. delivered his speech against the president and in defense of the senate tariff bill. The galleries were packed to the doors, and so great was the interest in Mr. Gorman's speech that the members of the house flocked to the senate end of the Capitol, and the house, being unable to hold a quorum, adjourned. Among those who listened most earnestly to Mr. Gorman was Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British minister, who was in the diplomatic gallery. His references to the president created such commotion in the galleries, sometimes of approval and sometimes of disapproval, that the presiding officer was obliged to repeatedly caution them to preserve better order. He was listened to with rapt attention throughout his speech, a deep feeling of excitement being printed on every face.

Mr. Gorman, with a frankness that amazed those present, discussed party secrets, opened the door to party caucuses and flashed his search light into the dark corners of party history. The president was assailed with keenness and vigor by the leader of his party on the floor of the senate. He defended the senate tariff bill and its preparation, and charged in most positive terms that both Mr. Carlisle and Mr. Cleveland were not only aware of the concessions made in that bill to procure its passage through the senate, but that Mr. Carlisle had been consulted at every step, and that Mr. Cleveland had sanctioned all that was done. Mr. Gorman is a cool, easy talker, but he gives to tone and gesture a dramatic effect that thrills the auditor. Yesterday he was at his best. One by one he called Senators Vest, Jones and Harris as witnesses to the truth of his statements, and these gentlemen corroborated him. Then, having freed himself from all restraint, he told the inside history of the conference over the bill. He even went back and told the secrets of the Mills bill and the St. Louis and Chicago platforms, and the demands made upon the national Democratic committee by the sugar senators in 1892.

His personal attack on the president was full of the most sensational characterizations. He told how he had dared, when other people faltered, to walk with Cleveland through "the filth and slime of the campaign of 1884;" how he and his colleagues had fought for tariff reform 'when cowards in high places would not show their heads; " how Mr. Cleveland had tried to "gibbet the senate before the eyes of the country," and said that his action must he attributed to "consuming vanity," an action that was echoed by those who "chirped when they talked."

Senator Gorman practically warned his colleagues that on the material points it must be the senate bill or no bill.

Mr. White, of California, was the only other speaker of the day. While personally in favor of free coal and free iron ore, he, too, declared it to be the part of pa-triotism for the Democrats to stand to-

TWO DESPERATE STRIKERS.

They Kill Two Deputies and Defy a Possa Sent to Arrest Them.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 25.-War has broken out again among the striking miners. Since 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon two deputy sheriffs have been killed, a third fatally wounded and a fourth badly hurt. Two desperate strikers did it all, and they are now surrounded on the mountain near Coalburg, refusing to surrender. The officers are determined to take them dead or alive, and will close in on them as soon as more military reaches the scene. Yesterday afternoon Deputy Sheriff Charley Cole and James Smith went to the residence of R. H. Hudson, near Coalburg, ten miles from here, to arrest his son George on a warrant charging participation in the Pratt mines riot, when half a dozen negroes and deputies were killed by strikers ten days ago. The younger Hudson drew a gun and began firing. His father, who was with him, joined in the shooting. The officers also fired, but the Hudsons were too quick for them, and Deputy Cole was shot in the breast and died three hours later. The younger Hudson killed both the officers. The elder Hudson was wounded in the hand. Smith lived long enough to tell the other officers who came to the rescue the story of the killing.

After the killing the Hudsons fled to the woods, both heavily armed. A posse was organized at Coalburg and another sent from Birmingham on a special train, followed by troops. The first posse surrounded the Hudsons on the mountain a mile from the scene of the first encounter. The Hudsons refused to surrender, and fired on the posse from ambush. Two of the posse fell, Buck Gay being mortally wounded and James Woolson seriously hurt. The Hudsons again fled. As soon as reinforcements arrived the entire place was surrounded and orders sent for more troops. The escape of the desperadoes is impossible.

Illinois Town Devastated by Flames.

CHENOA, Ills., July 25.-A great con-flagration wiped out the finest part of the business portion of this place yesterday afternoon, starting in Ballinger's livery stable. All of the business houses in two blocks on both sides of the street lying east of the Alton and south of the Toledo, Peoria and Western were de-stroyed. This is the same ground that was burned over four years ago, and nearly all the buildings were new and contained valuable stocks. The total loss is not less than $500,000. J. T. McKenzle, a tailor, leaped from the second story window and was impaled on an iron picket. He will die.

A Setback for Debs.

CHICAGO, July 25 .- Debs and the other officers of the American Railway union met with a decided reverse yesterday in their fight against the prosecution for contempt in the United States court. The court decided that the answer filed by the defendants is not a sufficient reply to the charge of contempt, and the motion of their attorneys that they be discharged was overruled. Today the court is hearing the evidence of the government to sustain the contempt charge, and the defendants will be given the opportunity to produce evidence in their defense.

CHERRY, July 12 Administratrix.

cluded the senate adjourned, with the situation seemingly in as chaotic a state as ever.

WASHINGTON, July 25 .- Another dramatic scene occurred in the senate yesterday, but President Cleveland, instead of being, as on Monday, the object of attack by the leader of his party, was de-fended with vigor and vim. Mr. Cleve-land's champion was his old political rival and enemy, Senator David B. Hill, of New York. The New York senator spoke for almost two hours to breathless galleries and a full senate. Several times the presiding officer was unable to restrain the enthusiasm his remarks evoked, notably when Mr. Hill declared that personal considerations would not prevent him from defending the president when he was unjustly attacked.

He defended Mr. Cleveland's letter, his right to send it and the sentiments it contained, and made a strong point against his adversaries when he pointed out that they criticised the president for siding with the house, when they admitted that they had used all their influence to induce him to interpose in behalf of the senate amendments to the tariff bill. He took up Mr. Gorman's argument and met it point by point in a manner satisfactory to himself at least, and concluded with a piece of satire that stung those on the por and tickled the galleries unmeasur-

Mr. Gorman on Monday compared Mr. Hill to Iago. Mr. Hill likened those who had joined in the assault on Mr. Cleveland to the conspirators who stabbed Cæsar to death at the foot of Pompeii's statue in the Roman senate. Mr. Gorman he characterized as the lean and hungry Cassius; Mr. Jones as Marcus Brutus, the honest Brutus of the senate; Mr. Vest, who struck the first blow on Friday, as Casca; Mr. Voorhees as Trebonius, "testy but earnest," and Mr. Harris as Metallus Cimber. They had struck down the president, Mr. Hill said, not that they loved Mr. Cleveland less, but that they loved the senate compromise more. "And yet,' he concluded, and each word rang out like a hammer on an anvil, "I can say with Anthony, 'They are all honorable men.

Mr. Caffery, of Louisiana, who followed Mr. Hill with a brief speech, also gave to the country his share of the secrets of the political prison house. He detailed at length the manner in which the sugar schedule had been prepared, insisting that it was made by and in the interest of the sugar trust. He then gave way in order to give the Democrats a chance to caucus. Altogether it was a very exciting day, and the indications are that others as interesting will follow.

Another Fruitless Conference.

WASHINGTON, July 25 .- The Democrats of the senate yesterday afternoon decided to retire behind closed doors for the purpose of settling their differences on the tariff and trying to reach an amicable un-derstanding. Senators Hill, Murphy and Irby were the only Democrats present at the Capitol who did not respond to the caucus call. The caucus continued for three hours, and without reaching any conclusion or taking a vote on any propo-sition, adjourned until today at 3 o'clock, when another meeting will be held.

1875, shares this belief. The Pall Mall Gazette is in receipt of similar advices from Tromsoe, all confirming the general belief in the fate of the expedition.

The President's Strike Commission.

WASHINGTON, July 23 .- It is stated on what is considered reliable authority that the president has, in addition to Carroll D. Wright, commissioner of labor, chosen Judge Lyman Trumbull, of Chicago, and "a prominent New Yorker, who has always taken a deep interest in the cause of labor, and whose judgment in questions of this kind is regarded as fair and impartial." to serve as members of the commission to investigate the Chicago strike.

A Convict's Windfall.

BOSTON, July 25 .- Michael Welch, 35 years of age, an inmate of the Suffolk county house of correction because of his thievish proclivities, has fallen heir to $75,000 by the death of his father, Thomas Welch, of Quebec. Michael was in solitary confinement for complicity in the recent riot at the house of correction when the officer who went to identify him appeared. It is said that an effort will be made to secure pardon for Welch.

Four Persons Buried Alive.

WINONA, Minn., July 25.-By the caving in of the walls of a cistern at the Young Ladies' Catholic seminary three bricklayers and a boy 9 years old, were buried eighteen feet under the earth and brick. All were dead when found. The dead are Joseph Schneider, Albert Stanek, Mike Kulasa and Henry Griebach.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 25 .- Three men named Frank Matchicz, Michael Delonneg and Charles Drewiawicz were drowned in the Susquehanna river at Plymouth Monday night. The men attended a picnic at Hanover Park, and were crossing the river in a boat - when it upset. The bodies were recovered.
