DEBS ON THE STAND.

The Strike Leader Before the National Commission.

WHY THE STRIKE WAS DECLARED.

It Was Only Through Sympathy for the Suffering Pullman Workers, After Other Efforts Failed—Government Ownership of Railroads Preferable to Railroad Ownership of Government.

CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—President Eugene V. Debs, of the American Railway union, testified yesterday before the national labor commission. He said, in answer to a question, he was 38 years old, and in addition to being at the head of the American Railway union, was editor of The Locomotive Fireman's Magazine.

He testified that from the beginning he was opposed to a strike and so told Vice President Howard. He then continued: "I twice went to G. M. Pullman and to the town of Pullman to thoroughly investigate the conditions existing at the carshops. I found the employes were not only not getting wages enough to live, but were daily getting deeper into the debt of the Pullman company. No matter how offensive the conditions were, the men were obliged to submit to them."

"When I found out all these things I immediately determined that the A. R. U. should go to the assistance of these unfortunate people. We believed that any fair board of arbitration would have decided in favor of the employes, and all we asked was arbitration. This the Pullman company arbitrarily refused. Not only this, but when we asked them to examine into the question to see whether or not there was anything to arbitrate, they also refused this."

"Very much has been said about an alleged conspiracy against the railroads and against hauling the mails. I want to call attention to this commission to the fact that every meeting of the A. R. U. was held with open doors, and that reporters of the press were allowed to be present. If there had been any conspiracy contemplated we certainly would have been more secret about it."

"Not only did the employes of the various railroads strike because of the injustice being done to the Pullman employes, but because the various roads had grievances of their own, which I shall proceed in time to show. We used our influence to prevent strikes during the World's fair, as we did not believe it just to the public to inaugurate a strike at such a time. It was all that could be done by the leaders of the labor unions to prevent a strike. In view of the men's working throughout the fair, the railway managers on many of the roads promised an increase of wages after the fair was over. Instead of doing this they began immediately after the fair closed to begin a systematic reduction of wages throughout the country."

President Debs said, moreover, no railroad reduced the wages of all its men at the same time, but reduced them by sections. He declared the A. R. U. viewed these reductions with the greatest apprehension. The organization felt that the time had come to act.

The witness enumerated the failures of the old labor organizations to gain redress for the grievances of the employes, and asserted that they felt they only lay in the A. R. U., to which they finally turned for help.

"I would like to state," said Mr. Debs, "that the railroad companies have never raised wages of their own accord. Every increase in wages has been wrung from them by organized labor."

"Do you claim," asked Mr. Wright, "that the railroads were responsible for the strike because they insisted on hauling Pullman cars?"

"No, sir. The American Railway union was responsible for it, but under aggravating circumstances. The general managers are united to reduce wages. The employes are united to resist such reductions. In case of a reduction that leads to a strike we think the company responsible."

"What is your opinion as to methods of averting strikes?" asked Commissioner Worthington.

"My own idea, and it is the idea of the American Railway union, is to unify all the railroad men of the country. A power like that, prudently managed, would avert strikes. The railroad managers would recognize the wisdom of treating it fairly and meeting it in a conciliatory spirit."

"Do you believe a strike is justifiable that interferes with public convenience?"

"I believe striking is justifiable, no matter what the result, when it is to resist degradation."

"Do you believe in government ownership of railroads?" asked Mr. Kernan.

APPEAL FOR PULLMAN STRIKERS

Governor Altgeld Asks the People of Illinois for Assistance.

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—"I can do little myself," said Governor Altgeld yesterday, "and if anything considerable were to be done the money would have to come out of the government reserve fund. I might convene the legislature for the purpose of making an appropriation, or I might make an appeal to the people of the state. I think we have gone to the bottom of things now, and can proceed intelligently until it remains to be seen what will be done."

The governor said these words at the close of a conference with the committee respecting the Pullman strike. At the invitation of the governor, the committee met at his office to give him information regarding the starving strikers. He was told that 2,400 families have been helped since the beginning of the strike, and that about $30,000 has been given the relief committee, all of which has been expended.

Last night the governor issued a proclamation addressed to the people of Illinois, calling attention to the suffering in Pullman, and urging that assistance be at once sent to them. He says that as a rule the men of Pullman are of a superior class of working people, industrious, capable and steady.

On Sunday last the governor sent a telegram to Mr. Pullman calling his attention to the situation, and yesterday, after his investigation, he wrote Mr. Pullman a letter asking him to put the men on half time. Mr. Pullman replied at length, making reference to the governor's declaration of Vice President Wickes' escort, which he regretted. Mr. Pullman claimed that the governor had been misled in some instances, but admitted the distress, "due to the obstinacy of old employes refusing to apply for their old places after the strike was virtually over."

On receiving this letter Governor Altgeld determined to appeal for aid.

VICTORIES FOR CHINA

The Japanese Forces Driven From Ping-Yang and Chung-Ho.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 22.—General Tio, commander of the Feng-Tien division of the Chinese forces, telegraphs as follows: "The Chinese on Friday attacked the Japanese forces at Ping-Yang, driving them back with a heavy loss, a distance of eleven miles, to Chung-Ho. The Chinese made a second attack on Saturday and drove the Japanese from Chung-Ho, which is now in Chinese hands. The Japanese again lost heavily in Saturday's fighting. Another great battle is expected."

The Chinese force which occupied Yashan has evacuated that place and marched eastward in the direction of Seoul. The force, which is under General Yeh, who was falsely reported to have been killed in a recent battle, has been augmented by the adhesion of numbers of sympathizing Koreans. The Chinese forces are converging on Ping-Yang. The telegraph at the latter point remains in the possession of the Chinese. The Chinese are enjoying full possession of the Gulf of Pe-Chi-Li.

The Japanese are re-embarking large numbers of troops at Fusan. Nothing is known regarding their destination. Nine thousand Japanese troops have left Seoul and marched in the direction of Ping-Yang.

Two German fathers of the Catholic mission at Si-Ning-Chou, in the southern part of the province of Shan-Tung, have been captured by banditti and held for ransom.

It is stated that James Wylie, a Presbyterian missionary, has died from injuries received at the hands of Chinese soldiers marching to Corea at Liao-Yang, north of New-Chwang, China.

Buried in a Collapsed Building.

WORCESTER, Mass., Aug. 22.—While workmen were tearing down an old brick building at the corner of Ward and Richmond streets yesterday the house collapsed, burying about a dozen children and three men in the ruins. Four of the children were taken out badly injured and three others with severe cuts and bruises. The injured are: Willie Sullivan, aged 14, cut and bruised and spine injured, recovery doubtful; Carl Grundberg, 17 years old, cut and bruised about the body and nose nearly severed. John McGovern, aged 9 years, severely injured about the chest. Willie Ward, 10 years old, arm crushed and badly bruised. The children were carrying away the old wood.

Allis' Great Performance.

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—Allis yesterday trotted in 2:06 1/4 at Washington Park, and the exhibition was pronounced by nearly all the horsemen present to be the greatest ever made in the sulky. It reduced the track record of 2:06 1/4 held by Nancy Hanks, and, while it fell 1/4, seconds short of the world's record, was really a better performance, conditions considered. The Washington Park is at least a second and a half slow. John Kelley, who handled Directum last year, said: "This is the greatest mile ever trotted. Had Allis been sent against the record last week at Terre Haute she would have undoubtedly have beaten it."

Wife Murderer and Attempted Suicide.

READING, Pa., Aug. 22.—A murder and attempted suicide occurred in this city yesterday. The murderer was Reuben H. Walters, aged 55 years, a hatter by trade, and the victim his wife, aged 45 years. Walters was of a quarrelsome disposition, and came home drunk Monday night. He immediately began a quarrel with his wife, and the two renewed the dispute yesterday afternoon. While they were in their bedroom Walters drew a weapon and shot his wife three times. Then he shot himself, inflicting two slight wounds.

Five Sailors Lost.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Aug. 21.—A special report from Ocoos says that on Saturday morning, while making a landing through the surf at Joe Creek, fifteen miles north of Gray's Harbor, a whaleboat and crew of nine men, in command of Lieutenant Freeman H. Crosby, U. S. N., of the United States coast survey steamer McArdle, was capsized and five men are missing, namely: Lieutenant Freeman H. Crosby, John Freyer, Jens Gudmundsen, William Nehm, Alexander Smith.

A Colored Desperado Killed.

LANSDOWNE, Pa., Aug. 22.—Henry Saxton, a colored desperado who has long terrorized Delaware county, was shot and killed by Constable Benjamin R. Day, of Yeadon, yesterday. The constable had a warrant for Saxton's arrest, and in attempting to arrest the negro was stabbed several times. Finally, after a desperate fight, the constable drew his revolver and fired two shots. Constable Day is seriously wounded, but will recover.

YACHTING FATALITY.

Overcome by a Gale During a Race at St. John.

EIGHT MEN MET A WATERY GRAVE.

The Yacht Primrose Thrown on Her Beam Ends and Sunk—Captain Hutton, Who Sailed Her, Was Once a Famous Oarsman, of International Reputation.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Aug. 22.—During many years St. John has had many sporting events of more than local importance, and the great majority have passed off without serious accident, but yesterday's yacht race for the Corporation cup resulted in putting mourning into at least eight families.

The yachts started out with a good stiff breeze. Nothing of importance happened until the yachts had rounded the last buoy and homeward bound, when all were becalmed. To the westward plain indications of a storm could be seen. The tug Lillie, which had on board the referee, judges, timers and other officials, came to off the point, where the yachts were becalmed. In a short time the storm came, with rain and a high wind, followed a few minutes later by a hailstorm. The yachts had their sails all set when the squall struck.

The Lillie remained at anchor, and in a short time the yachts were all out of sight, with the storm raging furiously. The Maple Leaf was some little distance off from the others, and was the first to be overtaken by the squall. The crew made an effort to take in sail, but before they could accomplish this work the topmast was carried away.

The Primrose was well in shore when struck, and she lasted but a few minutes. She was thrown on her beam ends and in an instant she plunged bow first to the bottom. Captain Hutton had ordered all sails taken in, but the squall came up before the crew could obey his orders. Hutton stood at the tiller and told the crew to take in the sails, and the next minute all were in the water and the Primrose had disappeared from sight.

As the storm subsided the people on the Lillie discovered one yacht was missing and immediately got up steam for a search for the missing yacht. After going about a quarter of a mile four men, in close proximity, were found swimming about in the still heavy running sea. Life buoys were thrown out, and each of the men begged the occupants of the tug not to mind them, as they could swim, but to proceed along and search for the others. This the Lillie did, but only some hats and caps could be seen floating about, and the tug returned and picked up the four men, who were still swimming about, after having been in the water over half an hour.

The following are the names of the drowned: Samuel Hutton, aged 50, leaves a widow; Fred Priest, son of Captain Hutton, aged 20, single; George Heathfield, aged 22, A. Akery, aged 20, single, and the only son of a widowed mother. George Bartlett, aged 27, leaves a widow and two children; James Hurley, aged 32, leaves a widow and seven children; William Russell, aged 20, single; H. Hoyt, aged 19, single.

Hutton was one of the best known oarsmen in the world. He was a member of the celebrated Paris crew, which won fame on both sides of the Atlantic a quarter of a century ago. The drowning of Hutton makes the first break in this crew, which, although they have not sat in a boat since the Philadelphia centennial regatta, hold to this day the world's record in a match six mile race. On the Seine, the Connecticut and Kennebec Hutton helped to make the crew famous. Probably the Paris crew of St. John will be best remembered in the United States by old sporting men as having administered a severe defeat to the once famous Ward brothers.

The four rescued men cannot tell anything about the sad accident. They were all seemingly bewildered, while the crew of the Maple Leaf, which was but a hundred yards from the Primrose, were so thoroughly panic stricken that they don't know exactly what happened. The other four yachts sustained more or less damage.

Necessity for Anti-Anarchist Laws.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—This report favoring the rigid exclusion and deportation of alien anarchists has been made by the house committee on judiciary. "It is admitted on all hands that the question is one of very great importance and that legislation on the subject is called for by every consideration of public safety. The committee is advised that, owing to the severe legislation recently adopted by France and Italy, a great many dangerous anarchists are making their way to the United States, and as under existing laws they cannot be denied admission to our territory, the United States will soon be the rendezvous of these human monsters unless the proposed legislation is speedily adopted."

A Murderous Texas Train Robber.

LUFKIN, Tex., Aug. 20.—While an engine on the State road was running to the coal camp, about eighteen miles from here, the engineer observed a pile of ties across the track. He reversed his engine and all on board jumped. Among the party was Dr. Dreweney, of Itusk. As he alighted a masked man stepped from the brush and shot him dead. Holding the other men off with a pistol he robbed the body of the doctor, obtaining $45 and a gold watch and chain. The country is being scourred for the man.

A Bank Examiner's Suicide.

ALTOONA, Pa., Aug. 18.—Bank Examiner William Miller, who has been working on the accounts of the suspended Second National bank, of this city, the past two weeks, committed suicide yesterday by shooting himself through the head. He died instantly. Mr. Miller had just completed the examination of the affairs of the bank, and submitted the result to Washington.

To Be Tried for Murder.

WOODLAND, Cal., Aug. 22.—Knox, Compton, Mullin and Hatch, the members of the mediation committee of the Sacramento A. R. U., arrested for ditching a train on July 11 and causing the death of Engineer Sam Clark and four United States soldiers, were held for murder by the superior court. They were released on $10,000 bail.

A British Steamer Seized.
