Big Fire in Washington Attended | The Chinese Defeated in an Enwith Fatal Results.

SEARCHING THE RUINS FOR VIOTIMS

The Hands and Feet Were Burned from All the Dead, Their Features Entirely Obliterated and Clothing Con-

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—The most fatal fire of recent years in Washington was the burning of the mattress factory of Stump & Bros. yesterday. Six bodies are at the morgue, charred and crushed beyond recognition and three injured men are at the Emergency hospital.

The identified dead are: J. E. Vaughn, white, aged 36, married, clerk, died at the Emergency hospital from injuries received by jumping: W. P. Tennyson, white, aged about 35, widower, mattress maker; Willie Ashe, white, aged 15; Robert Reitzell, single, aged 21. The other bodies of men were recovered, but have not been iden-

The factory which is owned by Claude N. and Edward B. Stump, stood at the intersection of Seventh and K streets and Massachusetts avenue, a five story structure with thin brick walls, windows only at back and front and no fire escapes. It was stored with feathers, shavings and other inflamable materials, and twentyfive persons were at work on it, six of them young women. Fifteen minutes before noon fire was discovered in the picking room at the front of the second floor. Almost before the alarm could be given by the workmen it had spread through the second story and burst up the elevator well. There was delay in turning in an alarm on account of the panic. The escape of those on the upper floors was cut off. They stood in the windows shouting for help while hundreds on the streets, unable to give assistance, yelled to them to wait for the book and ladder. Three men were seen on the roof, two of them gesticulating frantically while the other leaned calmly against a chimney waiting.

Policeman Phil Brown found a ladder, and with the help of two stalwart men dragged a mattress to the roof of a blacksmith shop beneath the eaves of the factory. While these preparations were under way J. Haske jumped from the roof and was caught in the mattress. Vaughn leaped headlong so that in the force of his fall he tore through the mattresses as though it had been a blanket. Bacon jumped from a third story window and landed on his stomach across a barrel twenty-five feet below. Other men clung to narrow projections outside the windows until a pile of mattresses had been heaped on the sidewalk, and jumped off, sustaining severe injuries.

Twenty minutes after the fire had been discovered the east wall fell, crushing the blacksmith shop, Palmer's oyster house and the Horse and Cattle Food company's Shortly afterward the other walls tottered and came down, crushing the two story brick building of the Woodruff File Holder company, George J. Bennett's marble shop and Hall & Cammack's furniture store, a frame building. One fireman and several spectators were hurt by falling bricks.

Yacht club's autumn sweepstakes regatta was sailed over the cup course outside of Sandy Haok in a spanking breeze and heavy sea. A finer contest than that between the Emerald and Ariel, which the the Chinese warship Chin Yuen was sunk by the fire from the attacking fleet. One former won by only fourteen seconds over a thirty triangular mile course, has seldom been seen. The finish was so close that the result was in doubt until the official returns showed that the Emerald had won by fourteen seconds. Ariel takes the second prize of $100, and Queen Mab wins the prize for sloops, $200.

Will Not Yield to the Pope.

Rome, Sept. 19.—The Tribuna publishes an inspired interview with an intimate friend of Prime Minister Crispi, in which the friend declares that Signor Crispi has always believed in a supreme being, and says that at Naples the premier invoked the drity as the symbol of morality and justice against the ideal of destruction and crime embodied in anarchism. It is added that Signor Crispi will never bend to the Vatican, and that he is convinced that an agreement between Italy and the pope is impossible.

THOUSANDS REPORTED KILLED.

The Battle Raged All Day Saturday and During the Night Until the Japanese Succeeded in Forming a Cordon Around the Enemy's Works.

LONDON, Sept. 18 .- A dispatch from Seoul says a great battle has been fought at Ping Yang between the Chipese and Japanese troops, in which the Chinese were utterly routed. The Chinese loss is estimated at 2,300 killed, wounded and taken prisoners. Among those captured by the Japanese are several of the Chinese commanding officers, including General Tso Fung, commander in chief of the Manchurian army, who was severely wounded. The Japanese loss is only thirty killed and 270 wounded, iscluding eleven officers. Most of the casualties among the Japanese occurred during the first day's fighting, and very few were the result of the night attack.

The Japanese forces are in active pursuit of the fugitives, who have thrown away their arms and readily yield themselves prisoners.

A dusultory war may be carried on for some time to come, but unless China shall succeed in getting another army into the peninsula Corea will undoubtedly remain in possession of the Japanese.

On Thursday a Japanese column from Pong-San made a reconnoissance in force, drawing the fire of the Chinese forts, and thus ascertained their position. The column then fell back in good order, with little loss. By Friday night all the Japanese were in position for a combined attack upon the enemy. The battle was opened on Saturday at daybreak by a Japanese cannoade of the Chinese works, which was continued without cessation until afternoon, the Chinese responding. At about 2 o'clock a body of infantry was thrown forward by the Japanese, and maintained a rifle fire upon the enemy un-til dusk. Throughout the day only the Pong San column was engaged. The Chinese defences had suffered greatly, but the losses on either side were small, both the Chinese and Japanese having taken advantage of all the shelter available. The Japanese troops, however, had gained some advanced positions. The firing continued at intervals during the night, and, in the meantime two Japanese flanking columns had formed a cor don around the Chinese.

At 8 o'clock in the morning an attack was made by severl of the Japanese columns simultaneously and with admir-ably precision. The Chinese lines, which were so strong in front, were found to be weak in the rear, and here the attack was a perfect sucess. The Chinese were com-pletely taken by surprise, and were thrown into a panic. Hundreds were cut down, and those who escaped death, finding themselves surrounded at every point, broke and fled.

Those of the Chinese prisoners who were not wounded were paraded in a circle of Japanese troops, and it was seen that they numbered 14,500. It is probable, however, that this number will be increased during the next few days.

Besides General Tso Fonk Wai, com-magne desphiat of the Chinese arms, The dered only onen ne was badly wounded, relatives, was most distressing. The hands and feet were burned from all the Japanese captured four other important commanders of the Chinese forces. namely: General Tso Paok Woi, General Wei Ink Woi, General Nayu Kow Eng and General Sei Kin Lin, practically all the effective Chinese staff. A naval engagement has taken place off Yalu, where a Chinese squadron was covering the landing of a large force. The landing was effected with success, but in the meantime a Japanese fleet attacked other Chinese ship is reported to have been sunk. The Japanese are also reported to have sustained a heavy loss, three of their vessels having been sunk by the fire from the Chinese. Admiral Ting and Major Hannekin are reported to have been killed during the action.

A dispatch from Shanghai says that an imperial edict has been issued depriving Viceroy Li Hung Chang of his three eyed peacock feather, because of his mismanagement of the Corean campaign.

RUTLAND, Vt., Sept. 19. - David O. Hearn, a well known citizen, about noon went to the office of Hon. G. Lawrence, a representative in the legislature and prominent in politics, and drawing a revolver, opened fire on him. The bullet passed through the lapel of Lawrence's coat, but did not injure him. Hearn had sworn to kill Lawrence within twentyfour hours. He is under arrest. The cause of the shooting is unknown.

An Alleged Murderer Arrested. READING, Pa., Sept. 19 .- Gabriel Manzello, charged with the murder of Tilmano Thomas, a fellow countryman, at Port Clinton last May, was arrested here yesterday. WASHINGTON, Sept. 19 .- The marine hospital service has reports of a marked diminution of yellow fever and smallpox at Cienfugos, Cuba, which has been a danger point of yellow fever contagion for some time past.
