

SWEEP BY A TORNAO.

Disastrous Effects of Its Visit in Iowa and Minnesota.

TERRIBLE WORK OF THE WIND.

A Funnel Shaped Cloud Which Carried Everything Before It—The Loss of Life and Property Not Yet Fully Known, but Will be Very Heavy.

ST. PAUL, Sept. 24.—By a tornado that swept through this state and Iowa at least fifty lives were wiped out and thousands of dollars worth of property was wrecked. The storm assumed a cyclonic character west of northern Iowa in Palo Alto or Clay county, extending eastward through Kosuth and Hancock counties, north-east through Cerro Gordo, Worth and Mitchell counties into Minnesota, continuing through Mower and Olmstead counties and spending its force in Winona county without leaving Minnesota.

Reports from Iowa show that Emmetsburg and the surrounding country suffered severely, and that several were killed and many seriously injured. In Kosuth county many dwellings were blown down, and two deaths are reported. Parts of Hancock county were also devastated, and three deaths are reported near Brett. North Cerro Gordo was struck and several people are missing there. Malby and Plymouth were in the track of the wind.

In Minnesota three people were killed at Leroy, and the whole eastern part of the town was being destroyed. The loss being fully $150,000. The tornado struck Leroy from the southeast. The storm first struck the Milwaukee depot there, demolishing it. J. F. Trask's two story store was crushed in, causing a loss of $2,000. Three elevators and three warehouses on the Milwaukee line were demolished. The Union Opera house fell on a dancing party and two dead bodies were taken away. During the storm a fire broke out, destroying a hotel and three stores. Eighteen people who sought shelter in one of the demolished houses were severely hurt and one woman will die.

Lowther, a small town near Leroy, is wiped out of existence. Spring Valley suffers heavy losses, and three were killed and forty or fifty badly injured there. The storm then passed in a northeasterly direction, crossing the Root river and striking north of Preston, through the county of Fillmore, north of Rushford, and into Winona county, where it struck the little village of Homer, four miles south of Winona, destroying several houses. Heavy winds are reported from other parts of the state out of the line of the tornado.

George W. Beavers, of Algona, Ia., had just returned from the county fair with his wife and three children when the tornado struck the house and demolished it completely. The whole family was buried in the ruins.

The tornado struck the Cotter residence, three miles northeast of Osage, Ia., demolishing the house and farm buildings. At the same place Mrs. P. Loneragan's house was razed, and she was blown several rods into a hay lot, where she was picked up dead. Her daughter was badly injured. It destroyed P. R. Herbert's dwelling, killing Mrs. Herbert and two children, and it struck F. Perry's house, killing his daughter Anna, and it is thought fatally injuring several others.

At Burt, Ia., it is definitely known that eight people were killed and several injured, and a large number of farm houses and barns were blown down and destroyed.

Burr Oak, Ia., a village four miles northeast of Osage, was destroyed. Thirteen farm houses in the vicinity were totally demolished, even fences and stumps of trees being blown away and uprooted.

North of Mason City, Ia., four persons were battered to death by falling timbers, and nine badly injured are not expected to live. At the farm of David Haddow the house was lifted in the air over a grove of trees, landed in a cornfield, then swept back against the trees, smashing it to bits and killing Haddow and his wife. A 15 year old was blown three fourths of a mile away. He still lives.

At the farm of D. E. McKercher, three miles west of Manley, his 12-year-old son and his hired man, Louis Gravgald, were killed.

Three miles north of Wesley, Kosuth county, J. Bingham's house was overturned and set afire. The inmates had a narrow escape. There were a total of fourteen killed in the vicinity of Mason City so far as heard from.

The storm struck near Crystal Lake. At Brit, Hancock county, two persons are known to have been killed and several were seriously injured.

ALGONA, Ia., Sept. 24.—Yesterday was a day of sorrow for Kosuth county. Nineteen funerals were held and others will be held this afternoon. The death list in the county is now known to reach eighteen, and at least six will die. The injured are reported as thirty-nine in number.

Professor A. J. Lilly, of Northern Iowa Normal school, came in from Garner and reports thirteen dead in Ellington township. Coffins for the dead are piled up at every station, and scenes of the wildest grief are being enacted. The storm as witnessed from this place was one of indescribable grandeur. A funnel shaped cloud of inky blackness swept along to the northeast, illuminated by almost continuous flashes of lightning and a roar of thunder that was deep and continuous.

Robert Stevenson, living about four miles north of Whittemore, was the first victim. He was hit in several places and was fatally injured. His grove looked as though it had been mowed down by a scythe. Calvin Barrack's house, on the Henry Durant place, was made into kindling wood in an instant, and all of the fourteen occupants but two children were injured. Mrs. Barrack was hurt in the back by timber, and her spine was so badly injured that her body and lower limbs were paralyzed. A 6-year-old boy named Charles Lee was hit on the head and will die. The house of Fred Pompe was completely demolished.

At George Holman's the roof of the house went, leaving the walls standing, and the whole family was carried up from between the walls and a few about twenty rods, one of the children being killed. M. W. Ferguson's family was carried through the air, and all but one landed in a willow hedge. The baby went a little further and was found seated on a piece of the roof. The wife of Swan Peterson had her skull open in two places, and some exposed parts of her head were literally packed with sand, plaster, hair and glass.

Particulars are coming in all the time which indicate that half of the terrors of the cyclone has not been told.

GENERAL EZETA'S AMBITION

It is to Form a Union of All Central American Republics.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 23.—The interest of President Diaz, of Mexico, in Ezeta is said to be due to Mexico's desire for the formation of a general republic of Central American countries, believing that with it would end revolutions, which injure commerce and retard development. "Ezeta intends to get aid from the Mexicans to regain his prestige in San Salvador," said Colonel Cienfuegos, who talked with it would end revolutions, which injure commerce and retard development. "Ezeta intends to get aid from the Mexicans to regain his prestige in San Salvador," said Colonel Cienfuegos, who talked with it would end revolutions, which injure commerce and retard development. "Ezeta intends to get aid from the Mexicans to regain his prestige in San Salvador," said Colonel Cienfuegos, who talked with it would end revolutions, which injure commerce and retard development.

"If the general succeeds in this campaign (which he proposes to carry on vigorously immediately after his arrival in Mexico) the result will probably be the organization of one common republic of all the Central American states. All the governments except Guatemala are favorable to it. Ezeta, however, is confident that even Guatemala will accede to the proposition, and that the result will be a strong and prosperous republic, in which the little wars and petty strifes of the several nations will be forever lost."

THE ROMANCE OF A WAIF.

An Heiress to $125,000 in the Poor House at Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 23.—A waif, said to be heiress to $125,000, was claimed yesterday by a man who said he was a New York traveling salesman. The gentleman, who would not give his name at present, called on Mrs. Dora Henderson, of Lawrenceville, and told her that the 9-months-old girl baby left with her on June 17 last was the sole heiress of his mother, who died in Brooklyn last week, leaving an estate valued at $125,000.

Mrs. Henderson, who received the babe from a young woman calling herself Helen Smith, turned the little one over to the department of charities some time ago because she was too poor to care for it. The department will investigate.

Probably Killed by His Wife's Paranoia.

ALLEGANY, Mich., Sept. 23.—The coroner's jury is holding a secret inquest upon the remains of Ira Hurd, who was shot at his home by his wife, as the latter claims, through accident Saturday night. Mrs. Hurd claims that her husband entered her bedroom at midnight, and supposing it to be a stranger she fired, killing him. The revolver with which she claimed to have fired the fatal shot, it transpires, was not discharged at all, but one bullet had been extracted. The general belief is that the shot was fired by another person, who was with Mrs. Hurd at the time.

Sugar Refineries Close Down.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Mr. Henry C. Havemeyer said today: "The operations of the new tariff law has already closed half the sugar refineries in the country, throwing the men who worked in them out of employment, and it will probably close all the rest of them next week. This will mean putting at least 10,000 men out of work. The price of sugar is below the cost of production. For some time past the company has been working the refineries at a considerable loss."

Cleveland's Latest Murder Mystery.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 23.—J. B. Caven, general passenger and freight agent of the Valley Railroad company, and one of the best known railroad men in the state, was murdered in a questionable part of the city some time after midnight. The body when found was riddled with bullets. Robbery was the motive. Caven was a man of good character, and so far as known did not drink. He was 50 years of age, a widower and leaves six children.

Miss Melton's Assailants Sentenced.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Nearly two years ago Miss Melton, an American missionary, was brutally assaulted and beaten at a place called Mosulin, a Turkish province remote from the capital. United States Minister Terrell yesterday notified the state department by cable that four of the missionary's assailants—Halli, Fakhri, Abdullah and Jerweh—have been sentenced to three years' imprisonment.

Captured an Elusive Still.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 23.—News has reached here of the capture of the Weeks still, one of the oldest wildcat stills in Tennessee, located in Overton county, by Deputy Marshal Curtis and two assistants. John Weeks operated the still and when away, watching the movements of the raiders, his wife turned out the "mountain dew." The daily output was only seven gallons.

Dempsey's Case Again Postponed.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 23.—The board of pardons last night recommended pardons for George McCormack, of Fayette, and Jacob Willis Barr, of Adams. The hearing in the case of Hugh F. Dempsey, of Pittsburg, leader of the alleged conspirators to poison non-union men in the mills at Homestead, in 1892, was continued until October.

General Ezeta Goes Free.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 24.—Ex-Vice President Antonio Ezeta, of Salvador, who was detained here pending extradition proceedings, has not been held for extradition, as his offenses were on Saturday judged to be purely political. Lieutenant Colonel Juan Cienfuegos will be extradited on the charge of attempted murder.

Victorious New York Shirtmakers.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—The shirtmakers' strike will practically be settled before the end of the week. The contractors are generally conceding the demands made by the strikers, and in some instances the men have already returned to work under the improved scale of wages.

Professor Mendenhall's Successor.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—The president yesterday appointed General William Ward Duffield, of Detroit, Mich., superintendent of the coast and geodetic survey, to succeed Professor T. C. Mendenhall, resigned. The position is worth $6,000 per annum.

Suicide to Avoid Marriage.

BELLEVIDUE, Ill., Sept. 23.—John Bradley committed suicide under peculiar circumstances. He was to have been married yesterday afternoon to Julia Ackerman. Bradley shot himself just before noon, leaving no word that might throw light upon his motive.

Schools of the state.

Over 1,000,000 children are enrolled in the schools of Pennsylvania. The property used in carrying on these schools is over $40,000,000. Over $14,000,000 a year is expended upon them. The state makes an appropriation of $5,500,000 a year for them.

Right Arm Paralyzed! Saved from St. Vitus Dance.

"Our daughter, Blanche, now fifteen years of age, had been terribly afflicted with nervousness, and had lost the entire use of her right arm. We feared St. Vitus dance, and tried the best physicians, with no benefit. She has taken three bottles of Dr. Miles' Nervine and has gained 31 pounds. Her nervousness and symptoms of St. Vitus dance are entirely gone, she attends school regularly, and has recovered complete use of her arm, her appetite is splendid."

Dr. Miles' Nervine Cures.

DR. MORITZ SALM,

WILL BE AT THE BROCKERHOFF HOUSE, BELLEFONTE, PA. on Saturdays of the following dates: July 14; Aug. 11; Sept. 8; Oct. 6; Nov. 3; Dec. 1 and 29.

CENTRE HALL, PA., at OLD FORT HOTEL—Fridays July 13, Aug. 10, Sept. 7, Oct. 5, Nov. 2 and Dec. 23. From 7 a. m. till 3.30 p. m.

ALL BY OPERATIONS SUCCESSFULLY PERFORMED.

"This is the way I have looked all my life." JOHN MORGAN ROTH, Altona, Pa.

A Blind Eye made to see by Dr. Salm making a wonderful operation. For over ten years I have been badly crossed-eyed. Dr. Salm operated upon me without giving me chloroform nor causing pain or loss of blood. My eyes are straight once more, and the eye that heretofore was almost totally blind I can again see splendidly with.

Four of the best doctors in the county said she was incurable, but Dr. Salm made her well. For over 5 years I have been suffering with heart trouble and a bad case of dropsy. We went to four of the best doctors in the county for relief, but all of them said a cure was impossible. At times I felt so bad that I was certain I had to die. I fainted away very often and my friends told me afterwards that they thought every moment would be my last. I hereby affirm that had it not been for Dr. Salm, who has entirely cured me of that great trouble, I would have died on the sod long ago.

Attested by her husband, Henry T. Ross. MARY E. LONG, Somerset, Pa.

A peculiar affection of the legs cured by Dr. Salm. For the last ten years our son had the most peculiar affection of both legs. They became covered with scabs and scales. They oozed out considerable secretion, and the disease troubled him constantly, even interrupted his sleep on account of the terrible itching. We tried the best doctors in our county and near by, without any results. None of them made the correct diagnosis, until we brought him to Dr. Salm, who diagnosed the disease as a scrofulous affection, and as a result of his treatment he has succeeded in making a perfect cure in the time stated. We believe he understands his business, and hence we do not hesitate to recommend him to our citizens.

FRED S. COOK, Hyndman, Pa.

Spinal and brain trouble cured by Dr. Salm. Our boy became suddenly affected with spinal trouble, and it was but a short time before he had lost almost the entire use of his legs. Of course we became very much alarmed and worried about him, particularly as the four physicians we consulted told us there was no help for him, but Dr. Salm has again done a wonderful piece of work for us. He can again use his limbs as well as ever, and he is cured of a terrible disease by this wonderful physician after four of our best doctors had pronounced him incurable.

DANIEL F. POEGMAN, Mifflsburg, Pa.

He will visit this county EVERY FOUR WEEKS, thus saving his patients the trouble and expense of visiting the city, as he is the only physician and surgeon in the country who carries his own manikins, models, diagrams, etc., to illustrate and make plain to all afflicted the cause and nature of their disease. This will give his numerous patients and others who are in need of medical treatment an opportunity to consult this distinguished physician, whose duties at the institute will permit only of monthly visits to your community.

CONSULTATION FREE. This advertisement appears twice before each visit.
