

WILD BALTIMOREANS.

Enthusiastic Reception to the Baseball Heroes.

THE WELCOME OF THE "ROOTERS."

A Monster Parade, Led by the Governor of Maryland, a Public Reception and a Banquet to the Pennant Winners of 1904.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 3.—Probably never in the history of the national game was there anything in the way of a demonstration to greet the victors approaching the scenes depicted here yesterday. From early morning the streets wore a holiday aspect. Every business house and dwelling along the route of the procession last night, almost without exception, was covered with the orange and black colors of the Orioles. All day long the streets were crowded with an unending stream of humanity, many carrying "pennant" flags, and all wearing Oriole badges. Many staid business men were noticed with the gaudiest of orange and black cravats, each wearing a happy countenance, as if some great personal success had been achieved. Some women were abroad in jackets composed of the Baltimore club's colors. The situation can be briefly stated by saying that Baltimore is baseball wild.

Mingled with the crowds of "rooters" on the streets during the day were scores of fads with "rooters' badges," "rooters' canes," "rooters' ties" and in fact about everything that could be utilized as an article of wearing apparel or personal adornment, gotten up with the proper colors, found ready purchasers, and the small boys and others reaped a rich harvest from the sales.

The enthusiasm is not confined to Baltimore by any means, as is manifested by the reports from along the entire line of travel through Maryland. At Cumberland, on the arrival of the train bearing the "heroes," the entire city seemed to have turned out to welcome them. The mayor of that place headed a delegation of business men, and waited on Manager Hanlon and the team to thank the Orioles on the great victory they had accomplished.

The reception at Hagerstown and all other points along the journey through Maryland was a repetition of the Cumberland greeting. As an evidence of the extent to which the "rooters" of the state shared in the "rooting," the boys brought back with them half a carload of souvenirs in the way of slippers, necktie cases, and all such products of feminine hands. These were handed in at each stop made by the train.

The enthusiasm exhibited during the day in Baltimore was but mild to that of last night, when the "heroes" themselves arrived. The scene at Camden station when their train pulled in was of the maddest ever witnessed in Baltimore. As the Orioles filed out of the beautifully decorated special car, preceded by the committee of citizens who had gone to Washington to meet and escort the team to this city, there was one long cheer from the thousands of throats. This was followed by a throwing up of hats, canes and handkerchiefs and a general scrambling to get near the birds, and if possible to grasp one of the players by the hand.

The procession of the night was such, both from a point of length and interesting features, as but few have seen. It was participated in by delegates from nearly every town in Maryland.

The "rooters" in the first carriage, in advance of the ones containing Baltimore's idols. Others carrying were Mayor Latrobe, ex-Postmaster Johnson, and, in fact, nearly every prominent man in the city. As the carriages containing the Orioles came along the street the tooting of horns, cheering of the vast multitude, ringing of bells, together with the constant noise caused by fringing rockets, etc., caused a racket that will long live in every Baltimorean's memory. The procession occupied nearly three hours in passing a given point.

After the procession had gone through the principal streets of the city they headed for the Fifth Regiment armory, where a reception was held, in order to give the general public an opportunity to still further demonstrate the affection with which the "pets" are held in Baltimore.

After the reception, which lasted about two hours, the players were escorted to the Hotel Rennett, where a banquet wound up the festivities. At the banquet speeches were made by ex-Postmaster Johnson, City Solicitor Bryan, Manager Hanlon and others.

Judge Ricks' Ruling Affirmed.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 3.—During the recent A. R. U. strike James Lannon, an engineer of the Ann Arbor railroad, left his engine on the main line without bringing it in. For this he was arrested and fined $50 for contempt of court by Judge Ricks, of the United States district court, sitting at Toledo. The A. R. U. appealed the case to the United States supreme court, which sent it to the United States circuit court of appeals, holding that the supreme court had no jurisdiction in the case. In Cincinnati, yesterday, the circuit court of appeals affirmed the ruling of Judge Ricks.

Russia's Afflicted Ruler.

BERLIN, Oct. 2.—The National Zeitung states, on the best authority, that the czar has suffered from Bright's disease of the kidneys since last summer. But, the newspaper adds, the disease is of a moderate type, and there is no immediate danger. Both Professor Leyden and Professor Zacharin declare that a sojourn in a milder climate will result in marked improvement.

A Partial Victory for Belva.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 3.—Mrs. Belva A. Lockwood is qualified to practice law in Henri county district court. Mrs. Lockwood's application to be allowed to practice before the Virginia court of appeals was refused last spring. She carried the case to the supreme court, which sustained the Virginia court.

New Zealand's Sweeping Exclusion Law.

AUCKLAND, N. Z., Oct. 3.—The minister of labor has introduced a bill in the house of representatives, providing for the exclusion from the colony of undesirable immigrants, such as Chinese and other Asiatics, contract workmen, cripples, consumptives and paupers.

On the Lookout for Escaped Anarchists.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—The bureau of immigration has received personal descriptions of sixty-six anarchists recently expelled from France. Officers at all ports will be furnished with duplicates of this list for purposes of identification.

WRECKED BY CYCLONE.

Fearful Work of the Wind and Rain at Little Rock.

SEVERAL KILLED AND INJURED.

The Main Portion of the Business Section of the City Practically in Ruins, Buildings Unroofed and Stocks Greatly Damaged by Water.

LITTLE ROCK, Oct. 3.—A terrible cyclone struck the city at 7:30 o'clock last evening, and almost devastated the business portion of the city. Several people are known to have been killed and injured, while it is feared scores of others have met the same fate. The main portion of the business center is practically in ruins, and the amount of damage is incalculable. The total property loss will probably approximate $500,000. The cyclone was accompanied by a terrific rain storm, and the stocks of goods in the business houses which were unroofed, though not otherwise wrecked, were destroyed by water.

The storm struck the state penitentiary, which stands on a hill in the western part of the city, with fearful force, destroying the dining room, tearing down the stable and shops, unroofing the main cell building and demolishing the warden's office. Several of the convicts were seriously injured, one of whom died an hour afterwards. Down town the lightning struck the Martin block, wrecking the third floor. A man named Eaton was fatally injured there. The Tilles building was unroofed, and a part of the fourth floor of Gleason's hotel was blown away. At Main and Second streets the tops of several adjacent buildings were piled up in an indescribable heap.

The worst damage, however, was done to property on Markham and Commerce streets. Nearly every building in that district was unroofed, and many are totally wrecked. The large three story building at Market and Cumberland, occupied by the E. H. McCarthy company, is a total wreck, as is also the two story building on the opposite corner, occupied by Max Elkans as a saloon. The third story of the old Deming House was blown off, and the several stores under it were flooded by water and filled with debris.

The large cotton warehouse, situated at Second and Scott, owned by J. H. Bacon, was wrecked. It fell on the Western Union Telegraph office, next door, and wrecked it, thus cutting off all telegraphic communication with outside points. The city was left in the densest darkness, and the streets are veritable streams of mud.

A message was received from the insane asylum, situated two miles from the city, and the state penitentiary, just west of the Union depot, calling for a corps of physicians and other assistance. A number of patients at the asylum are fatally injured, and great damage was done to the buildings. Reports from the penitentiary say six convicts were injured by falling timbers, two of whom will die.

Among those known to have been seriously and probably fatally wounded are C. P. Monroe, member of the Arkansas legislature, and John Eaton and Sam Smith, a prominent cotton buyer, is also badly injured.

The streets are filled with tin roofs, electric wires and other wreckage, and it will be several days before the extent of the damage is known accurately. Recurring reports are being made of the dead and wounded, but a list of casualties is utterly unobtainable.

The Mother Won Her Case.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 2.—A case decided by the supreme court yesterday involves an interesting story. About twenty-one years ago Mrs. Annie Enders surrendered the custody of her little boy to his grandfather until he should reach majority, the grandfather agreeing to pay her $50,000 as a consideration. On the death of the grandfather the estate refused to pay the money, and the mother brought suit to recover it. The son had in the meantime grown to manhood, and being administrator of his grandfather's estate, was made defendant in his mother's suit. Judge Simonton decided against Mrs. Enders on the ground that the contract was against public policy, but the supreme court reverses him, and the administrator will have to pay his mother $50,000 as consideration for his own transfer when a babe.

Postmaster Fatally Assaulted.

EAST PALESTINE, O., Oct. 3.—Late last night Postmaster David S. Smythe was attacked by footpads, and received injuries which will probably result in his death. He had called on the office and started for home, carrying a tin box containing stamps and money. When a short distance from the office two men sprang upon him and beat him until he was senseless. He recovered partially and crawled to his home. His head and face were battered to a jelly. The physicians say he can not recover. No clew.

ALL EYE OPERATIONS SUCCESSFULLY PERFORMED.

"This is the way I have looked all my life." JOHN MORGANROTH, Altoona, Pa.

A Blind Eye made to see by Dr. Salm making a wonderful operation. For over ten years I have been badly cross-eyed. Dr. Salm operated upon me without giving me chloroform causing pain or loss of blood. My eyes are straight once more, and my friends told me afterwards that they could see me again so splendidly with Somerset, Pa. MARY E. LONG.

Four of the best doctors in the county said the case was incurable, but Dr. Salm made her see. For over 5 years I have been suffering with heart trouble and a bad case of dropsy. We went to four of the best doctors in the county for relief, but all of them said a cure was impossible. At times I felt so bad that I was certain I had to die. I fainted away very often and my friends told me afterwards that they thought every moment would be my last. And I hereby affirm that had it not been for the splendid treatment received from Dr. Salm, who has entirely cured me of that great trouble, I would have been under the sod long ago. Leechburg, Armstrong co., PA. S. H. I. ROSS. Attested by her husband, Henry T. Ross.

Suffered with catarrh and bronchitis for 30 years but was cured by Dr. Salm. For the last 16 years I have been suffering with catarrh, bronchitis and general trouble. I took cold very easily then I became choked up in my chest and could hardly breathe. My lungs became badly affected, lost flesh rapidly and altered in looks amazingly. In fact it went from bad to worse continually. Tried different kinds of medicines, but without effect. After a course of treatment with Dr. Salm I am once more a well woman, do not take cold any more, and can rest and eat splendidly. In fact my neighbors tell me that I look 10 years younger and I can assure you I feel that way. Thanks to the doctor's wonderful cure of my case. WILMORE, PA. MARY M. FRASIER.

Spinal and brain trouble cured by Dr. Salm. Our boy became suddenly affected with spinal trouble, and it was but a short time before he had lost almost the entire use of his legs. Of course we became very much alarmed and worried about him, particularly as the four physicians we consulted told us there was no hope for him, but Dr. Salm has again done a wonderful piece of work, for he can again use his limbs as well as ever, and he is cured of a terrible disease by this wonderful physician after four of our best doctors had pronounced him incurable. DANIEL F. POORMAN, Milesburg, Pa.

He will visit this county EVERY FOUR WEEKS, thus saving his patients the trouble and expense of visiting the city, as he is the only physician and surgeon in the county who carries his own manikins, models, diagrams, etc., to illustrate and make plain to all afflicted the cause and nature of their disease. This will give his numerous patients and others who are in need of medical treatment an opportunity to consult this distinguished physician, whose duties at the institute will permit only of monthly visits to your community.

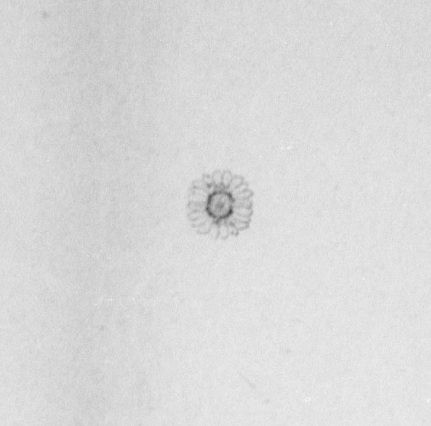

Manhood perfectly restored. Quick, painless and certain cure for impotence, lost manhood, spermatorrhea losses, weak and nervous debility; also for prostrations, varicoele and all private diseases, whether from imprudent habits of youth or sexual excesses in mature years, or any cause that debilitates sexual functions, speedily and permanently cured. Free examination of the urine—each person applying for medical treatment should send or bring 10 cones of urine, which will receive a careful chemical and microscopic examination.

Small tumors, cancers, warts, moles, etc., removed without acids, knife, pain or scar. New method. Photosty, epitepo or fits scientifically treated and positively cured by a never-failing method. Address all communications to Box 790, Columbus, Ohio.

CONSULTATION FREE.
