

THE RACKET.

No. 9, CRIDER EX., BELLEFONTE, PA.

Business Revives

And as soon as she is fairly awake will make a tremendous stir. Now is the time to buy before the greater demand has advanced prices. This is good philosophy and common sense as well.

WE PRACTICE WHAT WE PREACH, and have been crowding our big room with rock bottom values in every department. Kom and C for URSUL.

Just In

4 bales of Haps, 3 bales of Cotton Blankets, 2 bales All Wool Factory Blankets. Good nights are here and unless all signs, weather prophets and almanacs, fall, colder nights are coming.

Counters and shelves are loaded with new Dress Goods, and ladies of taste are unanimous in the opinion that there is no such assortment in Bellefonte. Nuf eed.

G. R. SPIGLEMAYER, SHERIFF.

Special.

We would request the especial attention of the readers of the DEMOCRAT to the advertisement of Lyon & Co. on our 4th page. It is of the utmost importance to everybody to save money these times and for that reason we suggest in all earnestness your attention to the above.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

The free show, on Allegheny street, Monday evening was well patronized.

A special drive in children's caps, goods worth $1.50 being sold for less than one-half their value, at Lyon & Co's store.

The Brockers are delighted over the prospects of filling their new building with desirable tenants, as soon as completed.

Have you taken a chance on the Undine cabinet? If not, do so. Don't give any excuse if solicited to patronize the company.

Rev. J. B. Soule, of Milesburg, is the prohibition candidate for state senator in this, the 34th district. The conference met in Philipsburg.

Mr. William Smith and family, for the past seven years residents of Kansas, last week arrived in Bellefonte and will in the future make their home here.

The "Spider and Fly" attraction at the opera house on next Monday evening. This company will positively be one of the best for the season.

George Baldwin, late gardener of Pennsylvania State College, has opened a fine display of flowering plants, ferns, bulbs, etc., at the McClain block, this place.

On Friday evening a meeting will be held in Orvis, Bower & Orvis' office for the purpose of electing officers of the Bellefonte Democratic Club. Let every democrat be there!

Moyer Lyon recently purchased 150 dozen suspenders—enough to supply a regiment. They are being sold at exactly one half the regular retail price. You want a pair.

New 12 inch water mains are in place along Water street to near the bridge. The old 6-inch mains, which are still in good condition, will be laid along Spring street.

Centre county's taxable real estate is valued at $10,283,040. Including personal property, $11,587,802 is taxable. The people's money at interest subject to tax amounts to $2,554,658.

Manager Garman guarantees the "Spider & Fly" company for next Monday evening as one of the best attractions for the season. It has been well received where ever presented.

Mrs. D. H. Hastings and daughters have gone to Philadelphia where they will remain until the end of the month. Miss Helen has become a member of Miss Anable's select school in that city.

County Chairman Orvis has been assured that Wm. M. Singery, the democratic candidate for governor, will be in Bellefonte the latter part of October. He should receive an enthusiastic reception.

About the first of November the members of the Catholic church, of Bellefonte, will hold an elaborate fair in the rooms of Brockers new "Temple Court." The proceeds will be devoted to the parsonage fund.

A number of business firms in this place send to Philadelphia to have their stationery printed, when they pay more than by patronizing home offices. These same parties complain the loudest about others sending away for their merchandise.

THE GANG REJOICES

OVER LOVE'S NOMINATION LAST FRIDAY.

Nominated on the 333 Ballot—Ajax Defies All Opposition—Some of the Speeches—Lively Reception.

The judicial problem has at last been solved by the republicans of the 49th district. On Friday noon, after one month of scheming, wire pulling, tiresome pilgrimages to Tyrone—the political Mecca, and endless editorials in the party organs at home and abroad, at last the "mountain labored" and John G. Love, Esq., of Bellefonte, came forth.

This result was accomplished by Mr. Lovell withdrawing in favor of the Centre county Ajax who so successfully defied the powers that were on the bench at home and wore out the patience of the Huntingdon Sampson in the remarkable four week's "Ghost Dance," at Tyrone, on the 333 ballot—Lovell became disgusted and went home.

The arrival home of such a hero naturally demanded a demonstration. The same gang—Messrs. Hewes, Chambers, Fleming, Williams, Hill-bish and others—who claim the credit for knocking out Judge Furst, at the primaries, engineered the reception. When the 9 p. m. train pulled into Bellefonte the Bellefonte and Coleville bands, upon a promise of ten dollars apiece, began the serenade. Fireworks were plenty, also fire water. The crowd howled heartily. The party were escorted to carriages and the procession proceeded to Mr. Love's home, where a crowd gathered.

County Chairman Reeder made the opening speech and it was an enthusiastic one, as he spoke from his heart, for during the fight at the local primaries he did all his work on the quiet. Mr. Love responded in a nicely worded speech in which he made many pledges of what he would do if elected. Gottlieb Boonastiel Harter, the Gazette editor, next got off some witticisms on the democrats and pronounced his eulogy on Ajax. Colonel Chas. P. Hewes, who had a finger in the pie, and imagines he is about even with His Honor, intimated that in the future Centre county would have an impartial court where attorneys and clients would receive courteous treatment. Ed. Chambers smiled all over when he came forward. He had been for Love first, last and all the time. It was Chambers, Hewes and Fleming that made the bullets that were put in the little gun that killed Cook Robin (Hon. A. O. Furst) last August. Among things said by him were that when Blaine was a candidate the democrats shouted "Romanism and Rebellion," but this year they had "Hill, Hell and Rebellion."

Two Fires.

On Tuesday evening at about 9 o'clock fire broke out in Haag's hotel stable on Bishop street. The flames made great headway and the building with most of its contents were destroyed. All the live stock was removed, including vehicles and harness. A large quantity of oats, fourteen ton of hay, straw and potatoes are lost. The building was a new one and well arranged. His insurance policies amount to $1,800, which falls far from the total loss.

A small stable on the lot of A. Baum was also entirely destroyed. Mr. Henry Montgomery's stable was partly burned.

At 3 a. m., Wednesday morning the stable at the rear of Ed. Power's property was discovered in flames. Mr. Powers rushed out in his night clothes and succeeded in saving his horse and some other property. The fire spread to J. H. Sands' stable which also was consumed. Dr. Seibert's stable was burned on one side.

There was little or no damage on any of these buildings. The cause of these two fires is considered the work of some incendiary. Our fire departments responded promptly to these calls and rendered valuable service in each case.

Mock Trial.

This Thursday evening an entertainment will be provided at the Y. M. C. A. that will be sure to attract an audience. It will be a "mock trial." The court officials will be: J. C. Meyer, as judge; James Harris, as prothonotary; Dale Musser, court crier; Christy Smith, as sheriff; Allie Maitland and Newlin Irvin, tipstiffs. The indictment will be against Mrs. Smith (Harris Heylman), for assault and battery with intent to kill Billy Smith, her husband, who is the plaintiff. The attorneys will be Francis Speer for the defendant, and S. D. Gettig, Esq., for the plaintiff, Billy Smith. The witnesses for the commonwealth will be Burt Bayard as a woman; Samuel Taylor and Charles Bosner as man and wife. The witnesses for the defendant will be Paul Shaffer as a woman, George Williams and Evan Goodfellow. An admission of ten cents will be charged.

Barn Burned.

On Monday night a large barn on W. W. Spangler's farm, about one mile west of Potters Mills was discovered on fire. By hard work they were able to save most of the farm implements and all of the live stock. The cause of the fire is unknown; supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

Mr. Spangler's loss will be several thousand dollars, which is partly covered by a policy in the Patrons' insurance company, of this county.

Shortlidge Insane.

After being closeted about an hour and a half the jury in the case of Prof. Swinthin Shortlidge, charged with shooting his young wife, at Media, Pa., returned a verdict of not guilty by reason of insanity.

The verdict was not much of a surprise, and after it was announced Professor Shortlidge was heartily congratulated by friends who crowded around him. He was remanded to Norristown asylum until cured or released by death.

Attention Comrades.

All members of Gregg Post No. 95 are requested to be present on Saturday Oct 6th, 1894 at 7.30 p. m. The regular annual inspection and other important business demands a full attendance.

Shot a Deer.

On Monday a party of about a half dozen hunters from Pleasant Gap, went to the seven mountains for a deer hunt. Mr. John Horner, one of the best shots in the county, was with the party and while taking a rest at a crossing he fell into a nap. A noise awakened him that proved to be a fine doe approaching. His unerring aim brought it down and it was a fine animal. This is the first deer reported killed for the season.

Arm Broken.

Mr. Joseph Poorman, of Romola, while driving team at Eddy Run, on Monday last week, had the misfortune to get his arm broken by a dead chestnut tree falling on it. He walked to his home, a distance of 15 or 20 miles, and from there went on horseback to Howard where the bone was set by Dr. L. R. Hensyl.

Becomes a Presbyterian Minister.

By a unanimous vote of Presbytery Rev. D. J. Mitterling, of La Grange, Ind., has been accepted into the ministry of the Presbyterian church. Rev. Mitterling is a native of Potter township, this county, and was formerly a minister of the Lutheran church.

TURN OUT TO-NIGHT.

This Thursday evening an important meeting will be held in the court house that will be of special interest to everybody in the community. It will mean either the organization of a county fair near Bellefonte, or the abandonment of the project. Everybody would like to see the move succeed, but to attain this end it will be necessary for every business man in Bellefonte to lend his encouragement first, by taking an active interest in attaining a practical basis of organization and second, to contribute as liberally, as he possibly can or as his business would justify. A county fair ground will be a desirable adjunct to the town and will prove a source of revenue for every line of business. If conducted successfully it would bring many thousand people here, who would also make it a point to make large purchases before leaving. A county fair ground would also be a suitable place for holding athletic sports, in which we are lacking. Our horsemen would have a place for speeding their flyers and that would tend to develop the quality of our roadsters in the community. Other communities have successful fair grounds that are self supporting and this one could be made so.

If the movement now started should prove a failure, it will be a long time before another attempt will be made in this direction. For these reasons it is important that every representative, public spirited citizen attend this meeting to night. Go and encourage the project. Don't stand back like a moss back and throw cold water upon the enterprise.

Bellefonte should embrace every opportunity to improve the town, and this one especially should be speedily pushed through.

A DAYLIGHT ROBBERY.

A WOODSMAN IS KNOCKED DOWN AND ROBBED.

The Perpetrator Caught—Charles Boyer Induced by a Companion Into an Alley to Take a Drink when he is assaulted and Robbed of Eighty Dollars.

The Lock Haven Express of Monday says: Saturday afternoon Charles Boyer, aged 53 years, a resident of Julian, Centre county, was robbed of eighty dollars in Lock Haven by a man named McKenzie. Boyer had been working for some time at Mix's lumber job near North Bend and Saturday morning he drew his pay amounting to eighty-four dollars and came to Lock Haven intending to go to his home at Julian by the afternoon train. At North Bend he made the acquaintance of McKenzie and the two came to this city together. The two men were together all day up to the time the robbery was committed.

When it came near time for Boyer to go to the station to take the train McKenzie accompanied him, and persuaded him to go out into the alley and take a drink of whiskey out of a bottle he had in his pocket. While Boyer was drinking McKenzie struck him a powerful blow which knocked him down, and then he took the purse containing the money and ran. Boyer called for help and a number of persons ran to the spot but the robber was fleet of foot and made his escape into Woodward township by crossing the river on the dam. Constable Myers started in pursuit of the fugitive but failed to find him.

About 3 o'clock Sunday morning Officer John Brendel saw a man acting suspiciously in the vicinity of the passenger depot, and from the description he had received of the robber concluded he was the man wanted.

The officer was right in his conjectures for when he approached the stranger he started out Washington street on a run with the policeman close after him. He refused to stop when called upon to do so, but three bullets from the policeman's revolver sent whizzing past his head brought him to a standstill. Brendel arrested the man and lodged him in jail, where he denied all knowledge of the robbery. Sunday morning, however, he admitted to the policeman that he had robbed Boyer, and told Brendel he had hid the purse near where he committed the crime. The officers went at once to the place designated by McKenzie and found the purse which contained seven bank notes of the denomination of ten dollars, a total of eighty dollars.

Boyer was delighted when he learned that the money had been recovered. McKenzie will be given a hearing this afternoon. He is charged with assault and battery with intent to rob and steal, robbery and larceny. He is a man of about 29 years, is very strong and injured Boyer severely when he struck him.

Robbers at Howard.

A daring burglary was committed at Howard on Thursday night, 27th. Thieves entered Lucas Bros' store through a rear window, and drilled a hole in the safe which they filled with dynamite, blowing out the front part of the safe and lining. Webs of cotton goods were piled around the safe to deaden the sound, but the explosion blew them away.

They got only a small amount of money, a few pennies and nickels, in the money drawers for their trouble. They ransacked the entire store, and all that is missing are a few eggs that were in the cellar.

This is the sixth or seventh time the same store has been burglarized, three of the former burglars being captured and sent to the western penitentiary.

Two Cases.

Last Saturday Policeman Wm. Garis was arrested on a charge of taking money from Mr. Newton Gibson, at his home on Thomas street, while sleeping. The information was made by Mrs. Gibson. Mr. Garis emphatically denies the charge and waived a hearing before Justice Keichline to have the same heard before next court.

Mr. Samuel Immel, of Bellefonte, was arrested on Monday morning upon information made by his daughter Mary on the charge of abuse and ill treatment of a very serious nature. He was bound over for hearing at next court. In default of bail he was committed to jail. If the reports in regard to Immel are correct, tar and feathers would be a lenient punishment.

A Good Rule.

Judge Mayer has adopted a rule relative to the naturalization of foreigners that can not help but have a wholesome effect upon the community. Last week two foreigners of different nationalities, who could neither read nor write the English language, made known their desires to be naturalized. The court emphatically refused, and stated that he would not confer citizenship upon any foreigner who did not understand the English language.

Mrs. Emanuel Twitmeyer.

On last Friday morning, Sept. 28th, Mrs. Emanuel Twitmeyer died at her home at Zion, Pa., at the advanced age of 71 years and 15 days. She was taken ill with apoplexy several months ago which terminated fatally. During her sickness, and especially the last few hours, she suffered intensely. Her maiden name was Lucey Gephart, and was born in Union county. At the age of seven her family moved to Zion, a community which at that time was almost uninhabited, where she always lived. Eight children survive her: Six sons—Henry, a carpenter, Pleasant Gap; Dr. John Sharpville, Mercer county, Pa.; George, principal of public schools at Honesdale, Pa.; Jere, contractor at Dakota, Ill.; Edwin, principal of public schools at Seattle, Wash.; Harvey, instructor at Pittsburg, and two daughters—Mary, wife of Alfred Shreffler, Mill Hill, Pa., and Nancy, wife of Samuel Decker, of Zion. The husband and father, Emanuel Twitmeyer, died December 25th, 1881. Her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Gephart, now nearly 91 years of age and enjoying comparatively good health, seven sisters and two brothers also survive her.

Mrs. Twitmeyer's interment occurred on Sunday morning at Zion, services being held in the Reformed church; by her pastor, Rev. M. O. Noll, and were largely attended. She was a devout christian lady, a kind and devoted mother and one who was held in high regard by her friends and neighbors for her many endearing traits of character. Two of her sons, Edwin and Jere, were not present at the funeral, being unable to get here in time on account of the great distance. For some years past Mrs. Twitmeyer has lived with her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Decker.

Wandered off.

The Reporter of last week says: A son of Mr. Treaster, living at Old Fort, wandered from the picnic ground last Saturday. He is about twenty-two years of age and weak minded. He became bewildered while on the ground, no doubt from the confusion. Not appearing at home, search was made Sunday and Monday without getting any track of him. On Monday evening a telephone message from State College announced that he had been found beyond the College, whither he had wandered, a distance of some twelve miles from home. Mr. Treaster and family, of course, were overjoyed at the information, and that the lost one had been found.

A Brakeman Killed.

Shortly after 8 o'clock Wednesday night of last week, David Wilt, a Beech Creek brakeman, met with a fatal accident at Viaduct. He was standing on the platform of the caboose preparatory to getting off to throw a switch for a train that was running around them, when the slack of the train jerked the caboose and precipitated Wilt under it. The caboose passed over him cutting off his left leg below the knee. He was removed to the cottage hospital at Philipsburg, on the evening passenger train, where he died Thursday night. His remains were taken to his home at Jersey shore yesterday. His age was about 21 years.

Post Office Robbed.

The post office at Jersey Shore was entered by three burglars at 2.30 o'clock one morning of last week. The robbers drilled two holes in the door of the safe. The thieves were frightened off before finishing the job. The cash stamp drawer, containing several dollars, was robbed. Twenty-seven three-quarter inch bit holes were bored into the lower part of the back door to the office, making a hole 5x16 inches.

Flag Raising.

Tussey Council, No. 515, Junior O. U. A. M., of Pine Grove Mills, Pa., will raise a flag over the academy building, at that place, on Saturday, Oct. 15. A grand parade composed of Junior Mechanics, Odd Fellows and P. O. S. of A. will be an interesting feature. An elaborate programme has been prepared for the occasion.

Mill Hall's New Industry.

The manufacture of a new cement or plaster for the interior finish of houses will be commenced at Mill Hall next week on a large scale. The plaster will be made after a new formula, said to be greatly superior to anything on the market, and the manufacturer expects large sales of their product.
