

THE BRIDE AT LIVADIA.

Princess Alix Has Arrived at the Stricken Ruler's Bedside.

MANY PRAYERS FOR HIS RECOVERY

In All Parts of Russia, and on All Russian Vessels Petitions Are Unceasingly Ascending to the Throne of Grace—To Hurry the Royal Wedding.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—Today has produced practically nothing to the point in regard to the situation of the czar. In all the continental capitals and in London there have been streams of callers, officials, dignitaries, aristocrats and humble people, at the Russian embassies. To those, however, little information was vouchsafed, and that little consisted of gloomy forebodings. Prayers and masses are unceasingly offered from St. Petersburg to Vladivostok, from Rome to Buenos Ayres.

Besides the offering of prayer for the recovery of the czar in all the churches, the Holy Synod has ordered that there be prayers for the same offered in the army and navy and on board the vessels of the Russian Pacific and Mediterranean squadrons. Archbishop Moghileff has ordered prayers in all the Catholic churches.

The Cologne Gazette prints a St. Petersburg telegram stating that the czar has given orders for a settlement of the succession to the imperial council. He has advised that Grand Duke George, his second son, should on account of the state of his health renounce his claim in favor of his brother, Grand Duke Michael, who ought to take the oath as heir presumptive to the throne.

The Berliner Tageblatt publishes a telegram from Livadia asserting that the betrothal of the czarowitz and Princess Alix formally occurred today, and that the marriage will be celebrated tomorrow. This hastening of the ceremony is said to be rendered necessary by the rule of the Romanoff family compelling every heir apparent to marry before ascending the throne, and to proclaim his successor.

Princess Alix arrived at Livadia last night. The zarina accompanied her to the chapel of the castle, where both prayed earnestly that the life of the czar be spared.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 24.—The rumors that the czarowitz proposed to renounce the throne were based upon a misconception of the czar's order that Grand Duke George, his majesty's second son, who is seriously ill with consumption, renounces his rights of succession to his younger brother, Grand Duke Michael. The issuing of this order was a mere formality, as Grand Duke George's condition is almost as desperate as that of his father.

czar's somnolence, which abated for two days, reappeared yesterday with slight spasmodic fits, indicating uremia. A dispatch from Livadia says that Princess Alix was admitted into the Orthodox church yesterday. No confirmation of this dispatch has been received here.

Another Kansas Cyclone.

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan., Oct. 23.—Reports just coming in tell of the ravages of a tornado which struck Genda Springs, eight-and-a-half miles west of the Arkansas river, late Saturday evening. Much damage was done to farm houses and crops, and it is feared that more serious reports will be received when telegraphic communication is restored. As far as known there were no fatalities. Two people are known to have been injured. The property loss will aggregate nearly $100,000. The tornado struck Genda Springs from the southwest and continued in a northeasterly direction till it reached Winfield before spending its force.

To be Tried for Extortion.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The following ex-police officers were arrested on Saturday: Ex-Captain Doherty and his ward detectives, Hock and Mehan; ex-Sergeants Liebner, Parkinson, Jordan, Clark and McKenna. The warrants were issued on charges brought out before the Lerow committee and substantiated at the defendants' trial before the police board. The alleged offenses consist chiefly of extortion.

The Hungarian Mine Horror.

BUDA PESTH, Oct. 24.—It is now known that sixty-two persons lost their lives through the explosion in the Anina colliery. Twenty-three of those who were rescued alive have since died.

THE PROGRAM OF EXERCISES.

Oratorical Tributes to "Little Mac" by Generals Franklin and Smith, Governor Pattison, Major Veale and Others—A Grand Military and Civic Procession.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 24.—After repeated and disappointing delays the imposing equestrian statue of General George B. McClellan, "the hero of Antietam," was unveiled in Philadelphia today.

Major Veale, chairman of the executive committee of the association, called the assembly to order promptly at 1:30 o'clock, and introduced General William Farrar Smith, president of the association, who presided. This was followed by a prayer by Rev. Dr. Henry C. McCook, pastor of Tabernacle Presbyterian church. After the prayer General Smith made an address, which was followed by the unveiling. As the cloth which enveloped the monument was removed Battery A, N. G. P., fired a salute of seventeen guns, and the First Regiment band played selections. The vested choir of St. Mark's P. E. church, then sang an original ode.

The orator of the occasion, General William B. Franklin, of Hartford, Conn., was then introduced by the presiding officer, and paid a heartfelt tribute to General McClellan. He was followed by Governor Robert E. Pattison, treasurer of the association, with an address, after which Major Veale made the address of presentation to the city on behalf of the association, and Mayor Stuart that of acceptance on behalf of the city.

Ex-Vice President Levi P. Morton, the Republican candidate for governor of New York, attended the exercises, together with Governor R. J. Reynolds, of Delaware; Governor Werts, of New Jersey; Governor McCorkle, of West Virginia, and Governor Fishback, of Arkansas.

A procession followed the unveiling, which was participated in by United States marines and sailors and regiments of the Pennsylvania and New Jersey National Guards. The guardsmen were followed by the various G. A. R. posts, and the veterans were followed by the Girard College and other cadet corps, while the rear column was formed of the various veteran regimental associations, under command of Colonel Sellers, Colonel Richard S. Edwards was chief marshal of the procession.

The parade formed at Broad street and Susquehanna avenue and marched down Broad street as far as Tasker street, with a review at the place of the exercises. A marching salute was given to the reviewing officer, Major General Schofield, commanding United States army, on passing the reviewing stand about thirty yards south of the McClellan statue.

The bronze statue, which was cast in a dozen pieces, weighing altogether about four tons, is the design of Henry J. Elliott, of Washington, and represents "Little Mac" as he appeared at Antietam checking the advance of Lee. Horse and rider are about one and a half times life size and are of United States statutory bronze. The horse, which is modeled after the charger General McClellan rode at Antietam, is represented as passing upon the crest of a hill with head and ears erect and mouth and nostrils dilated, as if scenting the smoke of battle. On his back sits the stern, grim, thoughtful soldier, with his army cap over his eyes and his cool, calm pose in striking contrast with the nervous, excited pose of the noble animal beneath him.

The pedestal, which is of granite, is said to be one of the most ornate and beautiful pedestals in the country. Its broad base is embellished with graceful wreaths of bronze. From the surface of the pavement to the top of the general's cap is about twenty feet, and the effect is artistic and imposing. The statue stands at the north-west corner of the city hall plaza.

Chicago Firebugs Sentenced.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—Five people were convicted of arson yesterday and sentenced to the penitentiary. The convicted persons and the allotted terms in prison are: William Scarf, seven years; W. B. Nelson, five years; Caroline E. Nelson, his wife, two years; Carl Herlitz, three years; Josephine Herlitz, his wife, two years. It was proven in the trial that Scarf, who is said to be a friend and disciple of Herr Most, induced both the Herlitz and Nelson families to burn their homesteads for the purpose of defrauding the insurance companies.

Wholesale Murder Prevented.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Patrick Riley was detected while arranging to blow up with dynamite a shanty near New Rochelle in which a hundred Italian laborers were sleeping. But for the appearance of a night watchman he would have accomplished his object. Riley says he is only sorry he was discovered so soon, as in another minute it would have been all over, and he would then be satisfied. Riley was held without bail for the action of the grand jury.

Train Wreckers Recaptured.

DENVER, Oct. 24.—Frank Murray and James Bartlett, escaped prisoners charged with having wrecked a train on the Santa Fe road near this city on the night of Oct. 18 and the looting of several stores in Littleton, have been captured at Salt Lake City. It is said they have told where the third fugitive, Ted Newell, can be found.

An English Nobleman Dead.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—Baron Basing is dead. George Selator-Booth, first Baron Basing, was born in 1826. He was financial secretary to the treasury in 1895, and president of the local government board from 1874 to 1880. He was created Baron Basing in 1887.

"This is the way I have looked all my life." JOHN MORGANROTH, Altoona, Pa. "This is the way I appear after Dr. Salm's operation." JOHN MORGANROTH, Altoona, Pa. A case of deafness of 25 years standing, cured by Dr. Salm. For 25 years or more my hearing has been bad. My left ear almost deaf. I have been under Dr. Salm's treatment for the past five months, and my hearing has been very greatly improved. In fact the change has been remarkable. I am still under treatment, and hope for an entire cure. ISAAC PIERSON, Bedford, Pa. On account of the very vague explanation of was going the same way rapidly. I put myself in the above. I give the history of the case in detail. About 20 years ago, Mr. Pierson, on happy to state that I am not troubled any more in his left ear, that the same might not have direction, and the sight of the right eye has been there at all, for the actual services it did improved to a great extent. I am wonderfully him. The right one for the last 25 years it came worse and worse, and it took some very Coburn, Pa. JACOB EMERICK. Inward trouble cured by Dr. Salm.
