

REPUBLICAN CONGRESS.

Returns Indicate That Result of the Election.

CONGRESSMAN WILSON'S DEFEAT.

It Is Claimed That Dayton, His Opponent, Wins by a Thousand Votes—A Republican Succeeds Congressman Breckinridge—The Re-election of Speaker Crisp.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Returns received by the Associated Press show that the next house of representatives will be Republican. The returns now show a gain for the Republicans of 56. These gains are distributed as follows: West Virginia, 3; New York, 12; Massachusetts, 4; Maryland, 3; Kentucky, 2; Pennsylvania, 5; Illinois, 5; New Jersey, 3; Connecticut, 3; Kansas, 1; Ohio, 6; Indiana, 1; North Carolina, 1; Rhode Island, 2; Michigan, 3; Colorado, 1; Wisconsin, 1; total, 56.

A dispatch from Wheeling, W. Va., says: The Republican state central committee claim that Wilson is defeated for congress by 1,000. They also claim that Hull, rep., in the Wheeling district is elected by a safe majority. Governor, rep., carries the first congressional district.

THE BUCKEYE STATE.

Ohio Breaks Her Record on Big Republican Plurality.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 7.—Ohio elected minor state officers. The candidates for secretary of state, the Democrat electing Governor Bishop in 1877, Governor Hoadley in 1883 and Governor Campbell in 1889. While the Republicans claim a plurality for Secretary of State Taylor of 125,000 to 130,000, the Democrats concede that the Republicans have made large gains over the McKinley vote of last year, and possibly beaten the high water mark of 1863.

On the basis of the state vote the Republicans claim seventeen of the twenty-one congressional districts, the present delegation in congress consisting of eleven Democrats and ten Republicans.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

YANKTOWN, Nov. 7.—South Dakota elected state officers for two years and the legislature, which will choose a United States senator to succeed Richard F. Pettigrew, rep. The people also voted upon three proposed amendments to the constitution of the state, one making the superintendent of schools eligible to hold the office for more than four years in succession, the second giving women the right to vote for school officers, and the third empowering the legislature to exempt homesteads and personal property for attachment, with certain exceptions, to a reasonable amount. The candidates for governor were: James A. Ward, dem.; Charles H. Sheldon, present incumbent, rep.; Isaac Howe, pop.; M. D. Alexander, pro.

COLORADO.

DENVER, Nov. 7.—Colorado voted yesterday for state officers, to serve two years, and the legislature, which will choose a United States senator to succeed Edward O. Wolcott, rep. The people also voted upon two proposed amendments to the constitution of the state, one of which allows cities of over 25,000 inhabitants to incur indebtedness to the amount of 5 per cent. of their assessed valuation, and the other provides for $1,500,000 of bonds to take up old state warrants, most of which are now held by the school fund. The candidates for governor were: Charles P. Thomas, dem.; Albert W. McIntire, rep.; Davis H. Waite, present incumbent, pop.

The indications are that McIntire, rep., for governor, will have 30,000 majority over Waite, pop. Waite has run behind his ticket many thousands. The Republicans will undoubtedly control the legislature and re-elect Senator Wolcott. Peace, pop., is beaten by Shafroth, rep., for congress, in the First district. Bell, pop., may defeat Bowen in the Second district.

NEVADA.

CARSON CITY, Nov. 7.—Nevada elected state officers for four years and the legislature, and voted upon twenty-five proposed amendments to the constitution of the state, chief among which were sections consolidating certain state offices, authorizing the investment of school money in other than United States and Nevada bonds, and refusing amnesty to persons who, after reaching the age of 18 years, bear arms against the United States. The candidates for governor were: R. P. Keating, dem.; Theodore Winters, dem.; A. C. Cleveland, rep.; George Peckham, pop., and John E. Jones, silverite.

TENNESSEE.

MEMPHIS, Nov. 7.—Tennessee elected a governor for two years, judge of the supreme court, and the legislature, which will choose a United States senator to succeed Isham G. Harris, dem. The candidates for governor were: Peter Turney, present incumbent, dem.; Henry Clay Evans, rep.; A. L. Mims, pop.

Turney, dem., for governor, has about 500 majority over Evans, rep., in Davidson county. Ten Democrats elected to the legislature from this county. Returns from over the state are coming in slowly, but indicate a diminished vote by all parties.

NEBRASKA.

LINCOLN, Nov. 7.—Nebraska elected state officers for four years and the legislature, which will choose a United States senator to succeed Charles F. Manderson, rep. The candidates for governor were: P. D. Steurdivant, dem.; Silas A. Holcomb, dem.-pop.-fusion; Thomas J. Majors, rep.; E. A. Gerrard, pro.

Returns on legislature are limited and mixed, with prospects that the complexion of that body will be so close as to be in doubt for several days. Both parties claim it. Impartially viewed the situation shows the Republican strength about equal to the Fusion combination, with nineteen doubtful districts that may go either way to hear from.

TEXAS.

AUSTIN, Nov. 7.—Texas elected state officers for two years and the legislature, which will choose a United States senator to succeed Richard Coke, dem. The candidates for governor were: Charles A. Culberson, dem.; John B. Schmitz, ily white rep.; W. K. Makemson, rep.; T. L. Nugent, pop.; J. M. Dunn, pro.

Democrats Carry Alabama.

MONTGOMERY, Nov. 7.—The returns from this state indicate the election of all the Democratic nominees, with the possible exception of Denson, in the Seventh congressional district, which at present seems to be in doubt. The Republicans are very active in the Fourth and Ninth districts, but Robbins and Underwood have good majorities in the Fifth. Cobb defeats Goodwin, leader of the Populists.

All Democrats in Georgia.

ATLANTA, Nov. 7.—In the state congressional elections all the Democrats are elected. There was no uneasiness felt in any but the Fourth, Seventh, Ninth and Tenth districts, and in each of those districts Democrats were elected by decisive majorities.

Maryland Goes Republican.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 7.—Returns up to midnight that Maryland, for the first time in a great many years, has gone Republican. The Republicans have elected three congressmen, with a probability of four out of six.

BOARD OF HEALTH ORDINANCE.

MILESBERG BORO. Adopted October 1st, 1894.

SECTION 1.—That whatever is dangerous to human life or health, whatever renders the air, or food, or water, or other drink unwholesome, and whatever building, erection, or part or cellar thereof not sufficiently ventilated, sewer, drained or cleaned, are declared to be nuisances, and to be liable to be removed by whomsoever, and to be liable for the expense of the abatement and remedy therefor.

SECTION 2.—No house refuse, offal, garbage, dead animals, decaying vegetable matter, or organic waste substance of any kind, shall be thrown on any street, alley or public place within the limits of this borough.

SECTION 3.—No slaughter houses, bone boiling establishments, or any manufactory or place of business dangerous to life, or detrimental to health, or which is unwholesome, offensive or deleterious to the health, or which is a source of annoyance, shall be erected or maintained within the borough without permit of the board of health.

SECTION 4.—All stables and stable yards, pig pens, privy vaults, cess pools and water closets, drains and all other places liable to become offensive and dangerous to health, residing in the limits of this borough, must be kept and maintained in a good sanitary condition, by using disinfectants or removal if necessary.

SECTION 5.—The following named diseases are declared to be communicable and dangerous to the public health, viz: small pox, cholera, scarlet fever, measles, diphtheria, typhoid fever, typhus fever, yellow fever, spotted fever, relapsing fever, epidemic dysentery, hydrophobia, glanders and erysipelas, and shall be understood to be included in the following regulations unless certain of them only are specified.

SECTION 6.—Whenever any person knows that any person within his family or household has a communicable disease dangerous to the public health, or whenever any physician finds that any person whom he is called upon to visit has a communicable disease dangerous to the public health, he or she shall immediately report the same to the board of health, the secretary shall notify the teachers of every school, requiring them to dispense with the attendance of the pupils residing in the family in which such disease exists.

SECTION 7.—No person shall within the limits of this borough, unless by permit of the board of health, carry or remove from one building to another, any patient affected with any communicable disease dangerous to the public health, nor shall any person, by any exposure of any kind, or by any article capable of carrying contagion or infection, or by any needless exposure of himself or herself, cause or contribute to the spread of disease from any such individual or dead body.

SECTION 8.—Members of any household in which small pox, diphtheria, scarlet fever or measles shall exist, shall abstain from attending places of public amusement, worship or education, and as far as possible from visiting other private houses.

SECTION 9.—The clothing, bed clothing and bedding of persons who have been sick with any communicable disease dangerous to the public health, and the rooms which they have occupied during such sickness, together with their furniture shall be disinfected under the direction of the board of health.

SECTION 10.—All persons residing within this borough who have not been vaccinated so as to have taken cow pox within seven years shall be vaccinated whenever the board of health shall require.

SECTION 11.—Every undertaker, or other person who may have charge of the funeral of any dead person, shall procure a properly filled out certificate of the death and its probable cause, in accordance with form prescribed by the State Board of Health, and shall present the same to the Secretary of the Board of Health of Milesburg borough, and obtain a burial or transit permit, and he shall not remove any dead body until burial or transit permit shall have been procured.

SECTION 12.—Every person who acts as sexton or undertaker shall so conduct his business as to avoid detriment or danger to the public health and every person undertaking preparations for the burial of a body dead from communicable disease as herein before enumerated, shall adopt such precautions as the board of health may prescribe to prevent the spread of such disease. No dead body shall be exhumed or removed between the month of May and October inclusive, and nobody dead from small pox, diphtheria or scarlet fever, shall ever be exhumed or removed.

SECTION 13.—When cases occur not provided for in this ordinance the laws and rules of the state board of health shall govern.

SECTION 14.—Every person violating sections 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 of this ordinance shall be liable for every such offense upon conviction before any justice or magistrate, to a fine not less than $10 or more than $50, at the discretion of the convicting justice, justice or magistrate besides costs which the convicting justice, justice or magistrate, may inflict if he sees fit.

SECTION 15.—Every person violating any other section or provision of this ordinance, shall be liable for every such offense upon conviction before any justice or magistrate, to a fine not less than $20 at the discretion of the convicting justice, justice or magistrate, besides costs which the convicting justice, justice or magistrate, may inflict if he sees fit.

By order of Council.
Attest: A. G. RAGER, Clerk. A. S. SMITH, Pres.
GEORGE S. GRAY, Chief Burgess.

COURT PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the Hon. A. O. Furst, President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of the 6th judicial district, consisting of the counties of Centre and Huntingdon, and the Hon. Thos. F. Riley, and the Hon. C. A. Faulkner, Associate Judges in Centre, having issued their precept bearing date the 29th day of Oct., 1894, to me directed for holding a Court of Oyer and Terminer and general Jail Delivery and Quarter Sessions of the Peace in Bellefonte, for the county of Centre, and commence on the 4th Monday of November the 29th day of November, 1894, and to continue two weeks, Notice is hereby given to the Coroner, Justices of the Peace, Aldermen and Constables of said county of Centre, that they be then and there in the proper persons, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, with their records, inquiries, examinations, and which to their office appertain to be done, and those who are bound in recognizances to prosecute against the prisoners that are or shall be in the jail of Centre county, be then and there to prosecute against them as shall be just.

Given under my hand, at Bellefonte the 29th day of Oct., in the year of our Lord, 1894 and of the one hundred and eighteenth year of the Independence of the United States.
