LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Kentuck drew a very small house on Tuesday. It was ordinary.

The Gilhoolys Abroad at the opera house on Saturday evening.

George Smull, of Rebersburg, was a pleasant caller at this office on Tuesday.

With two courts in session this week, the attendance from about the county is quite large.

Next Tuesday afternoon and evening a fair and lunch will be given in the Presbyterian chapel.

Turkey dinner at the Y. M. C. A. rooms on Wednesday and Thursday Dec. 16th and 20th, by the ladies of the U. B. church.

Thomas Benner, a mail carrier in the Bellefonte office, and one of the first appointed in the free delivery system at this place, resigned last week.

Mr. Lewis E. Beiler, Gen. Hastings private secretary, has been spending the past two weeks assisting the "Gov. elect" in disposing business.

The hotel registers contain the names of many prominent republicans who have come to Bellefonte in the last week. All of them have axes to grind.

Senator Baker, of Delaware county, author of the Baker Ballot act, was one of Bellefonte's distinguished visitors on Monday. He came here for the purpose of having a consultation with Gen. Hastings.

Terrence V. Powderly, recently the head of the Knights of Labor, now out of a job, and who played a republican tune for Gen. Hastings during the last campaign, came on to Bellefonte on Monday to claim his reward.

Worth your while to come and see 2,400 heavy flannel shirts, worth $1, $1.25 and $1.50, we bought from a manufacturer declining business, our price 35 and 50 cents.

Lyon & Co.

Willis W. Rishel, engaged in the hotel business at Harrisburg, and formerly located at Coburn, Pa., is now proprietor of Hotel Cumberland, at New Cumberland, Pa. He removed to that place several months ago.

On Monday afternoon a large five-ton roller, from McCallum & Co's., was used to break down the embankment over the water pipes. The edge of the roller sunk in the ditch and it toppled over. It required six horses to pull it out of the mud.

Rev. Illingsworth and wife are rejoicing upon the advent of a son in their family circle. For the present they are visiting at the home of Mr. H. M. Snyder, Pinegrove Mills, Mrs. Illingsworth's parents who are especially delighted over the good news. Rev. Illingsworth supplies a Methodist charge in Pennsylvania.

Prof. Henry Meyer, of Rebersburg, was in attendance at court this week. Mr. Meyer has about completed and ready for press a history of the "Meyer family," in this county. It will be quite a comprehensive work, requiring much research and labor to compile. It will contain illustrations of many of the prominent members of that family. The work will cover about 300 pages and will be published soon.

COURT NOTES.

THE SECOND WEEK IN SESSION.

Some of the Unfinished Commonwealth Cases—Grand Jury Report and Civil Cases Tried.

Last week at the hour of going to press, Wednesday evening, the case of Wm. Garis, policeman of Bellefonte, charged with stealing $40 from Mrs. Lydia Gibson, at her house, in Bellefonte, was being argued. On Thursday morning the court charged the jury and they retired to the jury room at about 11 a. m. There they remained over night and Friday afternoon returned a verdict of not guilty. This was the principal case of the week and attracted much attention and comment.

The case against John H. Rishel, surety of the peace and maintenance, continued for the purpose of taking further testimony.

On Friday morning an interesting case came up, Mrs. Amanda Rote against Thomas and Roy Johnson and Lemuel Poorman. She alleged that the defendants, during the May flood, tore down her yard fence, at Coleville, and thereby allowed the water to cut a deep channel through her property, destroying her garden and fruit trees. The verdict was not guilty and the county pay the costs.

Chas. Meyer and Stanley Ryan, the two horse thieves of Milton, who plead guilty to stealing Michael Strohm's horse, at Centre Hill, will be sent to the Huntingdon Industrial reformatory. As they were boys this was the proper course. A dispute arose as to who should be entitled to the statutory reward of $50 for apprehending a horse thief. The officer from Milton, who made the arrest wanted it. Com. Jas. B. Strohm, who followed them and located the horse and the thieves, claimed he was entitled to it and the court decided in his favor. The two boys, Meyer and Ryan, and Newton Pennington, were taken to the reformatory by Sheriff Condo this week.

The following is the report of the Grand Jury:

REPORT OF THE GRAND JURY. To the Honorable A. O. Furst, President Judge, and Hon. Thomas F. Riley and Hon. C. A. Faulkner, Associate Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions of Centre County.

The Grand Inquest of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in the county of Centre, in all matters relating to it, very respectfully submit the following report: We have acted on all bills of indictment offered by the prosecuting attorney—thirty-five in all—returning twenty-five true bills and ignoring four, six being recalled by the District attorney, no witnesses appearing.

Several of the cases should have been disposed of by the Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction of the cases, and we deem it not out of place here to commend and endorse the very emphatic and vigorous protest recently made by the President Judge of this county against the practice indulged in by so many Justices of the Peace in our county, in sending to court cases of the most trivial character.

The Grand Jury labored under considerable difficulty, and their labors were prolonged on account of non attendance of witnesses when called.

THE COUNTY PRISON. We find the jail in proper condition so far as cleanliness is concerned, but improvement in ventilation is necessary. We recommend that the cells be provided with new water-closets and wash basins. The floor repaired in several places, the same being rotted. We also recommend that some place be provided for the storage of the scaffold. We further recommend the removal of the shed in the corner of the jail yard as it may facilitate the escape of prisoners. The roof of the jail house needs repairs. The woodwork should be painted inside and out, and several of the rooms should be papered.

THE COURT HOUSE. We would further recommend a new roof of modern style on the court house. We believe it would furnish three rooms, one for the grand jury, one for the traverse jury and one for witnesses, on the third floor. We recommend the changing of the stairs leading to the court room in such a manner as to increase the capacity of the court room and afford more office room on the first floor. We find that the District Attorney's office needs a new floor, painted and papered. We find the other offices of the court house in fair condition.

All of which is respectfully submitted, G. W. MCGAFFEY, Foreman.

The following civil cases were disposed of last week: A Walter, trustee for the Millheim Hosiery and Knitting factory vs. Hon. W. K. Alexander. An action to recover the balance due on a $100 subscription to said enterprise. Defendant claimed the subscription was to be paid in lumber for the factory building, which he was willing to supply, but they purchased from other parties instead. Verdict of $65.48 for the plaintiff.

Dr. E. S. Dorworth, of Bellefonte, vs. James McMullen. An action in non-assumpsit. Verdict for plaintiff of $32.35.

Bridget A. Smith vs. Jas. Burns, Sr., of Snow Shoe. An action to recover a store debt with an offset for services of Mr. Burns' son who worked in the store. There was a dispute as to the amount of wages to which the son was entitled. The jury returned a verdict of $168.01 for plaintiff.

Hannah Groves, of Milesburg, adm'x. of Dr. Wm. Groves, dec'd. vs. Sarah Yarnell. An action to recover amount due for professional services. An account in the day book not being carefully kept the plaintiff could only recover for items that were fully set out, stating what they were for. Verdict for plaintiff of $50.

Hannah Groves, etc., same as above, vs. Lewis Miller. Verdict for plaintiff of $5.25.

Hannah Groves, etc. vs. Daniel Malone. Defendant worth the benefit of the statute of limitation. Plaintiff then pled surprise and the case was continued at the cost of defendant.

SECOND WEEK.

Court opened on Monday morning with Judge Furst and Associate Faulkner on the bench. The attendance was much smaller than usual. The first case taken up was Jacob McClarren vs. Davidson & Son, litigants from Phillipsburg. An action to test title to property of Isaac McClarren, known as a marble yard in Phillipsburg. Beaver and Dale appear for the plaintiff, Crosby and Reeder for defendants.

Verdict establishes the title of the property held by Jacob McClarren, the claimant, except a horse and buggy and some other personal property.

Hon. R. W. Archibald, P. J., of Lackawanna county, arrived on Tuesday morning and presided in the court room. T. A. Lucas, of Howard, formerly of Chicago, qualified as a stenographer for this week. Judge Furst held court in the arbitration room, with Mr. Coudon stenographer and D. W. Woodring as clerk.

Lucy Auman vs. Jonathan Lingle, an action in ejectment for a tract of land in Gregg township. Verdict for the plaintiff, the land described in the writ.

J. H. McCauley, admr., vs. Henry Brown, admr. of John Diven deceased; verdict for plaintiff, $131.

Chesta Miller vs. Daniel Garman; case tried before Judge Archibald. The plaintiff received a fall about two years ago on Daniel Garman's pavement, in front of his residence on High street. The plaintiff claimed that through negligence ice and snow were allowed to accumulate on the walk. Her injury consisted of a broken forearm. Harry Keller appeared for plaintiff, and Orvis Bower & Orvis for defendant. Judge Archibald charged the jury Wednesday morning. No verdict at hour of going to press.

Mary Cook, admr., vs. Robert Confer; an action to test title of property held by Robert Confer, formerly owned by Michael Confer, his father. Verdict for the defendant, which sustains title to property.

Martha Hicks vs. Thomas Cowher; action compromised and verdict taken for $125 for plaintiff.

John I. Thompson vs. Graysdale Mining Co. Verdict taken by agreement of council for the plaintiff $1,899.62.

B. S. Trauerman & Bro. vs. Wm. A. Ishler. Being tried before Hon. A. O. Furst.

Centre County Bank vs. J. P. Gephart. Being tried before Hon. R. W. Archibald.

Koib Will Stay.

Capt. Kolb, who claims to have been elected governor of Alabama and took the oath of office before a magistrate, is quoted at Montgomery as saying: "I shall stay here with my cabinet and continue to be the right governor of Alabama. I shall issue messages to the Legislature and shall recommend legislation and call upon the Legislature to pass a contest law, and if they do not do it I will convene an extra session after they have departed. I am determined to obtain control of the State government, which has been intrusted to my care by the voice of the people at the polls or I will bite the dust in the attempt. I have been twice elected governor and I believe that the people who elected me will insist upon it if it has to be obtained by revolution. I have been taught that the first principle of Democracy is the rule of the people. In Alabama that has heretofore been construed to mean the rule of the white people. I believe that as the law allows the negro the right to vote, he should have his vote counted."

Reform in Southern Farming.

The curious fact is noted by several papers that the South has been shipping Indian corn to the Northern markets this fall. The phenomenon is unprecedented since the movement of this crop has hitherto always been in the opposite direction. It has been discovered by Northern farmers that worn-out tobacco plantations are quite capable, under scientific treatment, to produce fine crops, such as corn, wheat and potatoes, etc. These lands can be had in any quantities at very low rates, and the stories of the success of this kind of farming are so well authenticated that it would not be a matter of surprise at all if a renovation in the agricultural system of the South should take place, producing important results, even in their politics. The Southerner, once taught by example that prosperity is before him, will not be long in substituting persistent industry for vain and idle theories.

Board of Health Resolutions.

The following resolutions were adopted by the board of health of Bellefonte, on Monday evening, Dec. 3, 1894: WHEREAS, it has come to the knowledge of the Board of Health of the borough of Bellefonte, that diphtheria is now prevailing in the villages of Pleasant Gap, Lauertown and in some parts of the surrounding community. Therefore be it

Resolved, That all citizens residing in and about the above named places, together with all persons who may frequent these localities, be urged to make publicly known any such cases and adopt all known measures to prevent a further spread of this highly contagious and largely fatal disease.

The following instructions were given to the health officers: The health officer is hereby instructed to inspect all cess pools and privies in the vicinity of the spring from which the borough receives its supply of water, and report the condition of the same to the Board, at its next meeting.

By order of the Board, H. C. QUELLEY, Sec.

—The Gentzel hunting party left on Wednesday for the Green woods. This is their second trip this season.

(THE END.)

This week we complete the pension roll for Centre county. A hasty calculation shows that there are about 625 pensioners in this county under the general and dependent laws, there being over three hundred of each.

Each month $2,900, in round numbers, is paid to Dependent pensioners and $4,300 to those under the General law, a total of $7,200 per month or $86,400 per year. That is a handsome sum of money, a magnificent benefit to those who took up arms for the country's protection. It comes to them too, at a period of their lives when it is appreciated.

The Band Concerts.

On Thanksgiving afternoon the people of Bellefonte had the pleasure of listening to some excellent band music. At about 2 o'clock the Coleville band appeared on the diamond and rendered several selections in good style. Just as they were marching away, the Bellefonte band, made up largely of the best players from different bands over the county, appeared and also played very nicely. Promptly at three o'clock, as was announced, the new Undine band, under the direction of Mr. W. H. Cuiveyhouse, made its appearance. Although this band is the youngest of the three, being organized just one month ago, they played in a manner that would have done justice to a much older band. This organization numbers just fifteen members, but they are all "hard blowers," and on this occasion wore brand new uniforms. Each band, of course, claims to have played the best, and if this rivalry continues we may expect to hear lots of good band music this winter.

BELLEFONTE, Pa., Dec. 4.—It has been announced from the Pennsylvania state experiment station that milk heated to only 170 degrees will totally destroy all disease germs, including tuberculosis, and not mar the flavor of the milk or cream.

ALTOONA, Pa., Dec. 5.—It has just been made public that the Second National bank of this city, has been swindled out of $1,200 by means of a bogus draft on a New York bank. Further than that the draft was presented and the money collected by a stranger no details can be had.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 3.—It is now possible that all suits against George M. Irwin, the discretionary pool operator, may be withdrawn and the whole matter settled along business lines, as Irwin and his friends say would have been done anyhow if no prosecutions had been entered.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 3.—Fire in a boarding house at 318 South Broad street resulted in the death of two people and serious injuries to four others. The dead are Mrs. Agnes B. Cullinan, aged 40, and Mrs. Ella May Smith, a widow, 47 years old. Death was due to suffocation.

LEBANON, Pa., Dec. 4.—An attempt was made during the night to burglarize the residence of Arthur Beck. Hiram Garrett was found in the neighborhood and arrested on suspicion. He is a brother of Charles Garrett, the wife murderer, and has been wanted for some time on another charge.

GREENSBURG, Pa., Dec. 3.—In a mine accident near here Joseph L. Taylor was instantly killed. Matthew Taylor and Joseph Kurtz fatally injured, and Vincent Kurtz and Frank Blanet badly hurt. The men were engaged in pulling down a hog back, when a great mass of slate and coal fell upon them.

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Dec. 5.—While a party of woodchoppers were at work felling trees in a tract of woodland in Skipack township, a tree in falling struck John C. Kratz, 22 years old, pinning him against another tree, inflicting fatal injuries about the abdomen. Kratz expired several hours later.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Dec. 3.—John Alexa, a well-to-do Poleander, while returning to Avondale from a church dedication at Elymouth, late at night, was waylaid by three men, stabbed twice, and then robbed. His cries brought aid, and he talked sufficiently to tell his story, but died some hours after the assault. His assailants escaped.

NEW HOPE, Pa., Dec. 3.—John Denison, of this place, aged 18, met with severe injuries while experimenting with powder. He put a quart of powder in a bottle, and after stopping it with paper, touched it off with a match. The whole charge went off in his face, the glass from the bottle cutting him severely. It is feared he will lose his sight.

Pastor Resigns

Rev. Father D. J. Gallaher, who has been pastor of St. Matthew's church, Tyrone, since April, 1892, has tendered his resignation. Father Gallaher has been a partial invalid and in the hope of rest and change of climate restoring his health he has asked to be indefinitely relieved of pastoral duties.

Toboggan Slide in Williamsport. Operations on a toboggan slide, 1,000 feet long, were begun recently on the old fair grounds, in Williamsport.

—The Burgess has been directed to purchase new winter uniforms for our police force.

—Farmers institutes are in session this week, at Fort Matilda on Tuesday and Wednesday, and at Millheim on Thursday and Friday.

—The famous Gorman brothers will be at the opera house on Saturday evening. If you want to enjoy a jolly good comedy, take this in. The Gormans have a reputation that will guarantee this attraction.

—The Logan Fire Company, of Bellefonte, decided to get new uniforms, on Tuesday. The outfit will consist of coachman's drab overcoats, extreme length, with caps and belts. The order was placed with Geo. Evans & Co., of Philadelphia, and will be filled at once.
