

TWO WANTED CRIMINALS.

Wanted in London for Complicity in Many Crimes.

ONE UNDER ARREST IN AFRICA.

The Men Were Awaiting Trial for Murderous Assault, and Jumped Their Jail.

LONDON, Jan. 2.—It is reported that Frank Tarbo, alias Frank Taylor, who, together with William Carroll Woodward, alias Hon. Lionel Musgrave, were arrested here charged with participating in a fight with cut-throats at No. 13 Uster place, Regents Park, and who afterwards jumped his bail, has been arrested at Cape Town.

Subsequent to the disappearance of Tarbo and Woodward, who also jumped his bail, the police learned that both were notorious American criminals, and that the case fight here its origin in a dispute over the spoils of a robbery. On Sunday, Oct. 7, a well dressed man who gave his name as Arthur Saville was thrown out of the house referred to above, seriously cutting his head and face. After the police entered the house another man, who said he was Arthur Cockburn, was found lying in the hallway bleeding profusely from wounds similar to those inflicted on Saville.

Living near Cockburn were two cut-throats, Tarbo and Woodward, the occupants of the house, were placed under arrest. They declared that Saville and Cockburn had been wounded in a fight following a drinking bout, and that the cut-throats had been used by them (the prisoners) in self defense. Later they were admitted to bail, whereupon they disappeared.

Then the police discovered, aided by the New York police, that their quarry were not the international criminals who were badly wanted. The man Saville turned out to be the younger son of one of the wealthiest dukes, whom Tarbo and Woodward had robbed by means of cards of about $300,000. Investigation showed that they had swindled many other persons out of very large sums of money, one of their victims being Sam Lewis, probably the best known and sharpest money lender in England.

Tarbo was at one time a leader of the notorious Johnnie Irving gang, in New York. The London police have been indefatigable in their efforts to locate the pair, and it is thought that they have been successful as far as Tarbo is concerned. Woodward is wanted to answer for an additional offense committed just as he and his pal were about to quit the country. A man to whom they owed money in some way learned that they had gone to Gravesend. He followed, met them, and demanded the payment of the debt. Woodward hit him on the head with some sort of a weapon, and nearly killed him.

Miss Willard Encourages Strikers. Haverhill, Mass., Jan. 2.—The demonstration of the strikers of this city last night was by far the largest of its kind ever held here. Five or six thousand shoe workers and their sympathizers paraded the principal streets, while fireworks and decorations greeted them. The procession made its way to the city hall, where a mass meeting was held. Miss Frances E. Willard, president of the national W. C. T. U., delivered a stirring address, urging the women to continue their work of organization. Lady Henry Somerset said she knew the strikers were making a fight for manhood and womanhood, and urged them to stand out persistently.

County Treasurer Probably Lynched. O'NEILL, Neb., Jan. 2.—The defaulting treasurer of Holt county, Barrett Scott, is supposed to have been hanged by a mob Monday night. He was captured about midnight in a lonely part of the county, north of this city. He was returning with his wife, baby, a hired man named John Schmidt, and a Miss McWhorter from a trip to relatives about thirteen miles from O'Neil, when six masked men sprang from the roadside, where they had been concealed, and carried Scott off. Scott, who was recently extradited from Mexico, convicted and sentenced, was out on $40,000 bail pending an appeal.

To Revise Cuba's Tariff. MADRID, Jan. 2.—The queen regent yesterday signed a decree appointing a commission to revise the Cuban and Porto Rico tariffs. The commission is composed of members representing all the political parties in Cuba and a number of Spanish colonial merchants trading with Cuba and officials of the ministry of the colonies. Her majesty has also decreed the appointment of a commission empowered to prevent evasion of the payment of taxes on taxable property and industries in Cuba.

Hamilton Fish for Speaker. ALBANY, Jan. 2.—The struggle for the speakership is over, and Hamilton Fish is the choice of the Republican majority. In many ways it has been a close and almost bitterly contested fight, but it ended in a burst of enthusiasm for the selected nominee for the office. All the afternoon Mr. Maibay and Mr. Fish, with formidable backings, waged the fight for votes in the caucus. When the caucus met the vote resulted: Hamilton Fish, 73, George K. Maibay, 22; Danforth E. Atsworth, 6.

The War in the Glass Industry. PITTSBURGH, Jan. 2.—With the new year begins the war to death between the glass manufacturers of this country. A cut of 29 per cent. from existing prices will be made by the Diamond Plate Glass company, of Kokomo, Ind., and the Pittsburgh Plate Glass company. The cut is caused by the recent conference in Pittsburgh of plate glass manufacturers. At this meeting an attempt was made to form a combination of plate glass interests, but finally fell through.

Mother and Five Children Cremated. ELLSWORTH Wis., Jan. 1.—The residence of Michael O'Connell, in the town of El Paso, Pierce county, was burned, and Mrs. O'Connell and five children perished in the flames. Mr. O'Connell slept below, and was awakened by the fire. He just had time to escape in night robes. His wife appeared at the window and dropped one child and returned for the others, but did not appear again.

Fifteen Thousand Were Massacred. BOSTON, Jan. 2.—A letter just received in this city from a point near the scene of the recent outrages in eastern Turkey places the number of slaughtered Armenians at fully fifteen thousand. It is written by a man in whom the highest confidence is placed, and portions are too horrible to repeat.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 29.—George M. Irwin, the discretionary pool operator, has decided to return all the money placed in his hands by customers and which was not actually invested by him in grain deals.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Jan. 2.—Emma Haston, aged 9 years, was shot by her brother George, aged 6, yesterday afternoon, by accident. The bullet from the revolver carried away part of her ear, and inflicted a severe but not fatal wound in the neck.

DOYLESTOWN, Pa., Jan. 1.—Four members of the family of Mrs. Edwin Stout, of Quakertown, this county, were overcome by coal gas, which escaped from a stove. One, a 2-year-old child, died from the effects, and the others were revived with great difficulty.

CARLISLE, Pa., Jan. 1.—While Thomas Anderson and wife, of New Kingston, were returning from church in a sleigh some fast drivers frightened their horse, causing him to run away. Mrs. Anderson was thrown from the sleigh and killed, her neck being broken.

YORK, Pa., Jan. 1.—The 3-year-old son of John Glatfelter, of Snyderstown, killed his 2-month-old brother. A neighbor's baby was teasing the boy about taking the girl home, when the boy became angered and threw a pair of scissors at her. The missile struck the baby in the head, killing it instantly.

LANCASTER, Pa., Jan. 2.—Rachel Kirk, an aged colored woman, was working about the stove yesterday when her clothes caught fire and she was completely enveloped in flames. Her hands and wrists were burned to a crisp, and her body was horribly charred and blistered. She is still alive, but cannot recover.

MEDIA, Pa., Dec. 31.—The condition of Professor Swithin C. Shortridge, confined in the Norristown asylum, and whose insane act of shooting his bride six weeks started this community a year ago yesterday, is said to have improved very much. It is believed that before long an application will be made to have him discharged from the asylum as cured.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 1.—James McMullen, a laborer living in a small tenement house opposite the position buildings at the Point, with a hatchet chopped his wife to death early in the morning, and then attempted suicide. McMullen lived with his wife and three children in three small rooms on the second floor. He has not been working for several months, and his wife and children have been suffering from the necessities of life. After hacking his wife to death the murderer cut his throat from ear to ear. He cannot recover.

BRADDOCK, Pa., Jan. 2.—Last night all the ore wheels at the blast furnaces of the Edgar Thomson Steel works on both the day and night turns went out on strike against a reduction in wages. About 600 Slaves are now out. All the furnaces, in one or more, are closed with the exception of Furnace A, which is filled with ferro manganese, which the company will try to keep running, as it would be a very heavy loss to allow it to close with such a precious material in it. Much uneasiness is felt over the outcome of this strike.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Dec. 31.—Frank Wingerfelt, aged 12 years, and Harry Miller, aged 11 years, who have been committing petty robberies in Pottsville for some time past, were arrested Saturday, charged with robbing Isaac Kerchner, a farmer of South Manheim township, of a large sum of money. The boys rode on the farmer's wagon, and extracted his wallet from his inside overcoat pocket undetected. They divided the money between themselves and two other boys of their own age, Joseph Wingerfelt and John Anderson. All were arrested and, with the exception of Miller, are out on bail.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE. Governor Pattison Discusses the Losses to Workmen by Strikes.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 2.—The legislature convened in biennial session at noon yesterday. After the oath of office had been administered to the members of both houses, and other preliminaries had been gone through with, recesses were taken until 3 p. m. In the senate C. Wesley Thomas, of Philadelphia, was chosen president pro tem., and E. W. Smiley, of Venango, was re-elected chief clerk. Henry F. Walton, of Philadelphia, was elected speaker of the house and A. D. Patterson, of Montgomery, chief clerk. Both branches of the legislature are overwhelmingly Republican, there being only twenty-nine Democrats in the house and nine in the senate out of a total membership of 254.

The senate and house reassembled at 3 o'clock, and listened to the reading of the message of retiring Governor Pattison. The governor makes a number of recommendations looking to legislative reforms. He says, among other things: "Nothing could more vividly illustrate the unprofitable nature of labor strikes and the resulting disadvantages to those who direct them than the statistics of the department of internal affairs, according to which the loss in wages in 1903 in Pennsylvania incurred by the striking employes in fifty-three strikes was $1,395,435.75, while the loss of the employers was estimated at $131,650.

The riot of Jan. 27 in Mansfield, Allegheny county, resulting in the burning and destruction of property and loss of at least one life, was largely due to the impulse of a population alien to our laws and language to destroy life and property. Like influences inspired the spirit of destructiveness which permeated the strike of the coke workers in the Connellsville region. Non-English speaking miners were conspicuous, too, in the June (1904) strike in Jefferson county, to check which two regiments and a troop of cavalry and the National Guard were called out. Of the twenty-seven strikes which occurred during the year all save three failed to effect the purposes at which they were aimed.

The governor urges the abolition of "pluck me" stores for miners, and the enactment of legislation looking to the placing of additional safeguards around the hazardous work of coal miners.

With reference to railroad discrimination the governor says: "More stringent and positive legislation is needed to enforce the anti-discrimination laws. The constitutional inhibition of free passes is practically a dead letter, because appropriate legislation has not been enacted to enforce it."

A feature of the day in the house was an address by George V. Lawrence, of Washington, who has been in public life continuously for fifty years, dedicating to the remodeled hall of the house of representatives.
