The opponents of the Jones bill present said they were willing there should be a vote on the declaratory resolution pre-sented by Mr. Wolcott, and it is believed that this private agreement will be adhered to in the senate. This ends the silver fight for this session, and the appropriation bills will monopolize the remainder of the session, with perhaps some time devoted to the bankruptcy bill and the pooling bill.

The silver forces asserted their strength at the outset of the proceedings yesterday, and by a vote of 36 to 27 displaced the morning business and took up the silver explosion of a boiler at an oil well a quarbill before the regular order had been

The house spent yesterday in the further consideration of the naval appropriation bill. The points of order made by Mr. Sayers against the item for the increase of the enlisted force of the navy were overruled, and his amendments looking to their elimination were defeated. The committee on naval affairs were victorious on every test of strength taken. The paragraphs providing for the increase of the navy (battleships and torpedo boats) Irvin, of Kittaning Point, this county, will be reached today, and the committee while crossing the Pennsylvania tracks at is sanguine that the increases recommended will be authorized.
