RIOTERS SUPPRESSED.

Ex-Priest Slattery Narrowly Escapes the Fury of a Mob.

MILITIAMEN PREVENT BLOODSHED

Mobs Surround the Lecture Hall and Break in the Windows-Dispersed at the Point of the Bayonet-Savannah's Determined Mayor Acted Promptly.

SAVANNAH, Feb. 27.-Last night was the most exci.ing night in the history of Sayannah. For five hours the city trembled on the verge of religious riots. The entire white military force of the city except the artillery has been on duty. There are ten infantry companies and the Georgia Hussars, the latter being dismounted. A mob offrom 3,000 to 5,000, the greater part being Catholics, challenged their forbearance to the extreme.

For three days it had been apparent that grave trouble was brewing. The city had been liberally placarded with notices that ex-Priest Slattery and his wife, described as an ex-nun, would lecture here on Catholicism. Members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians at once took steps to prevent their appearance here. Petitions were circulated asking Mayor Myers to refuse to permit the ex-priest to hold his lecture. The petition said that if Slattery was allowed to speak there would be disorder and riot. About 500 signed the pe-

When the petition was presented to the mayor by a committee of twelve Cathelies, including the presidents of two divisions of the A. O. H., he handed them a written opinion from the corporation attorney to the effect that he, as mayor, had no power to abridge the right of free h guaranteed by the constitution of United States and Georgia. In his on the city attorney said that there estable the city attorney sand be no disorder or trouble if those mowould be offended by Slattery's reburged all to do so. Mayor Myers also saled the committee to advise all Cathto keep away from the lecture.

The committee stated that it was their There to avoid trouble, and that they would use their influence in that direction. They did so, but their efforts utterly failed. All day yesterday it had been rumored mobs would come from different sechilled. The fact that he was to put on Ge garb of a priest in the course of his bure spread like wildfire, and raised an intense feeling among Catholics.

By 7 o'clock several hundred people had collected. When Slattery arrived the mob had not assumed large enough propor-tions to cope with the police. By 8 o'clock showling mob of over fifteen hundred surrounded Masonic Temple. In the hall me an audience of about four hundred, including a number of ladies. The lecturer had hardly begun before bricks and cobblestones began to rain on the wininside shutters, thus saving the audience from injury, only two or three being injured by flying glass. The rest of the po-

Hee force was called out. The mob made rushes to secure an enmee, but were driven back sime after me by the police. Before 9 o'clock the theb had grown to probably between three ndow in the Masonic Temple was shed. Cries of "Kill him," "Down with "Death to the renegade," were Upstairs a number of members of secret declarations who had cheered Slattery's declaration that he belonged to them had inthered around the ex-priest to defend him as they left the hall. A number, it was evident, had come armed in anticipation of such trouble. As the ex-priest was about to leave the hall with his friends, the chief of police stopped them and refused to allow any one to go down stairs. The military alarm was sent in, lint some of the leaders shouted. "To I with them, they cannot save Slat-

Very soon there were eleven companies in front of the hall, with fixed bayonets and rifles loaded with ball and cartridges. By order of the mayor the guards formed in two single lines and charged the mob with fixed bayonets in hope of breaking it.
The mob was shoved back slowly, but refised to break, and occasional rocks were firown at the hall. The mob was sullen and defiant, and apparently determined.

The military were then deployed so as to drive the mob back and form a hollow K Dillon, one of the most prominent Catholics of the city, brought Vicar Gen-Cafferty to the scene of the trouble. The vicar general addressed a portion of the mob, saying they were bringing diswith them to disperse and go home and metrender it necessary to shed blood. A those he addressed shook the vicar general by the hand and left, but the ma-jurity of them stood still. With a double line of soldiers a block was formed, and while the rest of the military kept the eroud back, nearly all of the audience passed out of the hall amid hisses.

Four companies of soldiers were then banked about the door of the hall with the police, and Slattery was brought down. As he came out with eight policemen and the mayor there was a howl from the mob, but the other military charged bayonets and pushed it back in all directions. Slattery was placed in the center of the military and, headed by a detachment of mounted police and with foot police on the sides, the four companies of infantry, smid hisses and jeers, marched to the Pulaski House, followed by hundreds. Slattery was so buried in the midst of the mil-Werd had gone among them that any aswant would be promptly met with bullets. At the hotel a mob of five or six hundred had gathered. The military made a solid mass in front of the entrance, presented hayonets, and Slattery walked in unin-

A large detachment of police was left at the hotel to guard him over night. At the hall the other seven companies remained as a guard to Mrs. Slattery and to prevent further damage to property. Finding that Sluttery had gone the moblargely dwindled away. Mrs. Slattery was placed in a carriage later in the night and, with mutrong force of police, taken to the hotel. During the excitement several policemen were injured so badly that they had to be sent home. Several of the military were wounded by being struck by rocks. Mattery's manager was knocked senseless

Mrs. Slattery is booked for a lecture to wemen this afternoon and Slattery for a lecture to men tonight. Threats are made that they will be driven from the city.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

The Governor Urges the Necessity for Economy in Expenditures. HARRISBURG, Feb. 25 .- This will be an eventful week at the state capital. The legislature will reconvene tonight after a ten days' recess, and will probably remain in session until Friday night. Beginning tomorrow the house will hold two sessions daily. A meeting of the board of public buildings and grounds will be held this afternoon, at which Colonel John K. Robinson, of Mifflintown, will be chosen as the successor to Major John Lockhart, of Philadelphia, as superintendent of that department. Major Lockhart has been asked to resign, but has refused.

The board of pardons will organize tomorrow and consider applications in nineteen cases in which elemency is sought. Among these is the case of Hugh F. Dempsey, the Pittsburg labor leader, serving a seven years' sentence in the eastern penitentiary for poisoning nonunion men in the Carnegie mills, at Homestead, during the memerable strike. The new board will consist of Lieutenant Governor Lyon, Secretary of the Commonwealth Reeder, Attorney General McCor-mick and Secretary of Internal Affairs

Governor Hastings is expected to send to the senate tomorrow a number of important nominations.

Tomorrow evening a reception will be given at the executive mansion to the United States senators, congressmen and congressmen-elect of Pennsylvania, state judiciary, governor's staff, the generals and field officers of the National Guard.

At the close of the session of the senate on Wednesday ex-Lieutenant Governor Watres will be presented with a solid silver service, valued at $1,000, as a testimonial from his colleagues during his four years' service as presiding officer in the senate. Senator McCarrell, of this city, will make the presentation speech.

Chairman Moore, of the house agriculture committee, will present, during the week, memorials from the subordinate granges throughout the state, protesting against repeal of the eleomargerine law. The bill providing for the publication of 25,000 copies of the famous "bird book" will be sent to the governor today for his action. The Farr compulsory education bill is near the head of the bouse calendar, and will be considered tomorrow unless its advocates allow it to go over. Another bill on the house calendar for second reading is that creating the office of state custodian, against which there is much opposition. It will probable be reached to HARRISBURG, Feb. 26.-The legislature reconvened last evening, after a ten days' recess, and disposed of a vast amount of routine business. The governor's veto of the bill relating to certain decrees of registers of wills and courts of appeals from decrees of registers was sustained. The consideration of the vetoes of bills for additional law judges for Washington and Westmoreland counties was postponed until today. A resolution was adopted eulogistic of the patriotic services ren-dered the country and the negro race by Frederick Douglass.

A bill was introduced by Mr. Page, of Dauphin, to create a middle penitentiary district, including the counties of Potter, Tioga, Bradford, Sullivan, Lycoming. Northumberland, Columbia, Montour, Fulton, Bedford, Cumberland, Franklin, Adams, Somerset, Blair, Cambria, Hunt ingdon, Union, Lebanon, Perry, Juniata, Mifflin, Clearfield, Clinton and Centre. The penitentiary is to be located at or near Harrisburg. The bill provides for the appointment by the governor of a commission to select a site and appropriates $100,000 for the purchase of ground.

Among other bills introduced were: Making it a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine not exceeding $25 or ten days' imprisonment, or both, for making false representations to assessors and tax collectors; providing that train robbery, or any attempt by train robbers by obstructing tracks, be punishable by death; compelling street railway companies to protect their employes from the weather by proper devices, to heat their cars and use fenders; making hazing a conspiracy, punishable by fine and imprisonment.

Among the bills presented in the senate were: To provide for the election of two additional judges of the supreme court, and to divide that court into two parts. To establish a court of appeals, to consist of five members. HARRISBURG, Feb. 27 .- A lively debate was precipitated in the house yesterday by the motion of Mr. Smith, of Bedford, that the vote be considered by which the bill providing that one-third of the school appropriation be distributed evenly among all the schools and the balance according to the number of taxables was recommitted to the committee on education. After spending an hour in the discussion of the motion it was adopted.

The governor's vetoes of the bills giving law judges to Washington and Westmoreland counties were sustained. Among the bills passed finally were: The firemen's relief bill; compensating three members of the National Guard for disability produced by typhoid fever con-tracted at Homestead; amending the act to require the county commissioners to furnish supplies and fuels for county offices, so as to include sheriffs and district attorneys.

Mr. Anderson, of Washington, presented a bill to protect coal miners and operators, and providing for the appointment by the governor of a sealer of weights and measures, whose duty it shall be to visit all mines in his district and test all scales at least once every three months. A bill introduced by Mr. Mackrell, of Allegheny, repeals the local option law at Derry. Westmoreland county.

A message was submitted to the legis-lature from Governor Hastings, urging the necessity for economy in public expenditures and expressing the opinion that "no office bearing a salary should be created unless there is absolute necessity there-

The senate did a big day's work in the consideration of bills on final passage, among the measures passed being one to extend the limitation of actions to a right to mine coal, stone, limestone, ores, timber, gas, oil, roads and rights of way in and on lands where the same has not been exercised for twenty-one years, and prescribing the remedy and means for the application of the statute of limitations to such estates or rights. The governor submitted a communica-tion recalling the nomination of Dr. H. S. McConnell, of New Brighton, Beaver county, as a member of the State Medical society. Senator White had filed an objection to confirmation. Burned in an Explosion.

NEWCASTLE, Pa., Feb. 27 .- In an explosion of molten metal at the furnace of the Shenango Steel company James O'Brien and Jeremiah Sullivan were probably fatally burned, while Matthew Curtis and six others were painfully injured.

MARTIAL LAW IN CUBA

The Authorities Prepared to Suppress an Anticipated Revolt.

HAVANA, Feb. 27 .- Martial law has been declared here, and the police and Spanish garrisons throughout the island are on the alert to prevent an uprising. Outbreaks have already occurred at Clenfuegos and Matanzas. At the latter place three Cuban patriots have been arrested and a small quantity of arms seized. The coast guards on land and gunboats by sea are patroling the coasts to prevent the landing of fill busterers from Florida, Honduras or Costa Rica. Spies in Tampa and Key West have reported unusual activity among the refugees, and have forwarded some information of a general conspiracy afoot. The government seems to fear an insurrection, and to be taking extreme measures to stamp it out.

KEY WEST, Feb. 27 .- Several thousand Cubans are permanent residents of this city, and nearly all of them are monthly subscribers to the revolutionary fund. This fund, the accumulation of years and contributed to from all over America, is supposed to amount to several millions of dollars. For weeks and months patriots here have been expecting that a blow would be struck and the revolutionary flag raised again in Cuba. News from Havana has been disseminated swiftly, and is being excitedly discussed in the places of Cuban resort.

New York, Feb. 27.—Enrique Trufillo, proprietor of El Provenir, a Cuban revolutionary journal, declared to a reporter last night that there has undoubtedly been an uprising, and he predicts success. Gonzales Quesada, secretary of the Cuban Revolutionary club, says the revolution broke out on Sunday, and that the whole island is in arms.

Indiana's New Liquor Law.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 27.—The Nicholson temperance bill passed the house of repre-sentatives by a vote of 75 to 20. It is very stringent, although it lost some of its force by being amended. It provides for local option in this way: That a majority petition against a saloon in a certain com munity will prevent one being established there for two years. It provides against music in saloons, and a saloon cannot be run in connection with any other business-a direct blow at the restaurant with bar attachment. It also does away with screens, and all saloons must be operated on the first floor—a provision to knock out wine rooms. The bill will have trouble in passing the senate.

Filling Uncle Sam's Money Box. NEW YORK, Feb. 27 .- The deposits of gold at the sub-treasury yesterday on account of the Belmont-Morgan syndicate amounted to $1,550,000. The government's gold reserve now exceeds $80,000,000. The gold that the Belmont-Morgan syndicate is now depositing is surplus over and above the contract requirements. That surplus already amounts to over $6,000,000.

Our New Minister to Mexico. Washington, Feb. 25.—The president on Saturday nominated Senator Matthew W. Ransom, of North Carolina (whose term will expire March 4), to be minister to Mexico, vice Gray, deceased. Mr. Blackburn at once moved for an executive session, and the senate confirmed the nomfastion without reference.
