commission. His own appointment was by resolution. As the Fifty-third congress came to its end the doxology was sung by the correspondents in the press gallery.

The last measure signed by the president yesterday, and one in which a great deal of interest has been taken, is the anti-lottery bill. The measure is a brief one of but four sections, the most important of which is the first. This provides that any person engaging in the sale of lottery tickets, or advertising the same in circulars or otherwise, shall be liable to punishment for the first offense by imprisonment for not more than two years, or by a fine of not more than $1,000, or both, and for friends and the other incidentals represent the second and after offenses by such imprisonment only.

Some important action was taken in the closing days. On Saturday the house agreed to the senate amendments providing for the payment of $5,000,000 in sugar bounties, while on Sunday the senate agreed to the house vote to strike out the appropriation for a Hawailan cable. In the Sunday session (which was presumably a continuation of Saturday's session) the senate passed the bills providing for additional warships and the international monetary conference. The senate selected Senators Jones of Arkansas, Teller of Colorado and Daniel of Virginia as delegates to the international monetary conference.

Singular Homicide in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, March 6 .- A most peculiar homicide occurred in front of James Martin's residence on Dalton avenue in the west end of the city. Mr. Herman Wessling, a varnisher in a furniture factory, was on his way to work when a pistol ball entered his chest, passing through his heart, and he fell dead. Mrs. Martin says she was making up their folding bed in the lower front room and took the revolver from under the pillow and placed it on the mantelpiece. Just as she did so she heard a shot, but did not know it was the one she was handling. Her husband rushed in from the back room to ask about it and they found it was their pistol, and an exemplary prisoner. It is believed her Beliefonte, Feb, 26, '95. petition will be favorably acted upon.
