

VANDERBILT DIVORCE.

Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt Gains Every Point Asked For.

SHE IS FREE TO MARRY ANOTHER.

Her Ex-husband, However, Cannot Wed Again Without Becoming a Bigamist.

Mrs. Vanderbilt Retains Possession of Her Children and Secures Liberal Allowance.

New York, March 6.—Judge Barrett, of the supreme court, granted a decree of absolute divorce in favor of Mrs. Alva E. Vanderbilt from her husband, William K. Vanderbilt, the well known millionaire.

Although a liberal allowance has been granted Mrs. Vanderbilt, there is no record of the sum which her husband has agreed to give her. The only paper the public can examine is the decree of divorce.

Mrs. Vanderbilt is to have the care and custody of her three children—Consuela, William K. Jr., and Harold, with the proviso that they shall be educated in the United States. Their father shall not be prevented from communicating with them at any time. The decree further decides that "it shall be lawful for the said plaintiff, Alva E. Vanderbilt, to marry again during the life of the defendant, in the same manner as if the defendant, William K. Vanderbilt, were actually dead, but it shall not be lawful for the said defendant to marry again until the death of said Alva E. Vanderbilt."

The decree is granted upon the report of Edmund Kelly, who was appointed to hear and determine all the issues involved. Mr. Vanderbilt raised the issue as to the allegations of the divorce in his answer by denying the charges made in the complaint, and upon the issue the case was sent to Mr. Kelly as referee. His report finds that the allegations of Mrs. Vanderbilt are true, and that Mr. Vanderbilt has been guilty of the acts charged against him.

The "woman in the case" is Nelle Neustreter, one of the most beautiful of the queens of the Parisian demi monde. Mr. Vanderbilt is alleged to have given her all his large winnings at the last grand prize de Paris. At present Mr. Vanderbilt is cruising on board his yacht Valiant, in the Mediterranean, with a party of his friends.

It is said that the break between Mr. and Mrs. Vanderbilt came at the close of the yachting trip on board the Valiant last summer, during which, it is alleged, Mrs. Vanderbilt was subjected to indignities in the presence of their friends that made it impossible to longer defer action. It is alleged that Mr. Vanderbilt's relations with Mile. Neustreter were openly paraded by him with the purpose of forcing his wife to take cognizance of them. Mr. Vanderbilt's friends assert that, prior to his yachting trip, his behavior toward Mrs. Vanderbilt had always been considerate, and that he had before that time conducted himself in an exemplary manner. They assert that he had no affection for Mile. Neustreter, and was in no sense fascinated by her.

Though the fact has been known for some months that the Vanderbilts were agreed upon the general proposition of a divorce, it was not known by the public until the decree was filed that proceedings had begun. Mr. Vanderbilt met Miss Smith, who afterward became his wife, in 1875, when he was 29 years of age. She is a member of an aristocratic southern family. It is understood that the settlement upon Mrs. Vanderbilt includes the marble palace at Newport, the residence at Fifty-second street and Fifth avenue and money and securities that will make her income $200,000 a year. Mrs. Vanderbilt will leave with her children for Europe in a few days.

A Sensational Shortage. NEW YORK, March 6.—There is a shortage in the accounts of the American Missionary society, and the books of the organization have been found to be in such confused condition that the experts at work on them are not as yet in a position to make a detailed statement. The secretary of the society is Rev. William A. Newbold, of Mont Clair, and the treasurer Henry A. Oakley, of New York city. The irregularities extend only to a portion of the society's current receipts for some time, and do not impair the principal of its resources or its trust funds.

Fifteen Thousand Miners Will Strike. PITTSBURGH, March 6.—The coal miners and operators of the Pittsburgh district met yesterday in conference, but failed to agree, and a strike will probably be ordered today, which will affect between 15,000 and 20,000 men. The miners demand the sixty-nine cent rate, and this the operators refuse.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

The Farr Compulsory Education Bill Passes the House.

HARRISBURG, March 5.—The first step toward an early adjournment of the legislature was taken yesterday by the introduction of a concurrent resolution by Mr. Miles, of Tioga, fixing April 25, at 12 o'clock, as the time. The resolution lies over until Monday evening, under the rules. The bill prohibiting the wearing of any religious garb by any teacher in the public schools was read the first time and has been made a special order for second reading on Wednesday, March 6, and third and final passage on Tuesday, March 12.

HARRISBURG, March 4.—The legislature has moved very slowly since the recess. The sessions of the past week were frittered away in useless debate and petty wrangling over trifles without accomplishing anything. If this lack of interest continues spring will find the lawmakers at the state capital with practically nothing done. In the house the entire week was devoted to the consideration and passage on second reading of the Farr compulsory education bill and the bills decreasing the fees of district attorneys and changing the poor system of the state so as to abolish the practice of counties not having poorhouses "farming out" their poor.

The selection of a steering committee, which has been decided upon by Governor Hastings and Speaker Walton, will, it is thought, bring order out of disorder, and result in much good.

In the senate a few bills passed the final stage, the most important being the Marshall pipe line repeal measure and the act creating a department of agriculture. Both have passed the house and are now awaiting the action of the governor. The "bird book" bill is also with the governor. It is believed that he will dispose of it tomorrow by returning it to the legislature without his approval.

Senator Quay will be here after congress adjourns to consult with the governor and his lieutenants relative to certain legislation in which he is interested. It is thought the senator's visit will settle the dispute over the Philadelphia appointments and the proposition for a Philadelphia investigation committee.

HARRISBURG, March 5.—A resolution was introduced in the house last evening by Mr. Cochran, of Armstrong, and adopted, for a committee of five members of the house and three of the senate to investigate the charges of W. J. Peart, a member of the Armstrong county bar, against the management of the State Insane hospital at Warren.

Resolutions were also adopted limiting debate to five minutes and placing upon the calendar the bill prohibiting any but American citizens from being employed upon public works. Another resolution adopted invites "all patriotic citizens in all parts of the country to celebrate our deliverance" by the adjournment of the Fifty-third congress. A resolution was also adopted placing upon the calendar the bill directed against company stores.

A bill was introduced by Mr. Mackrell, of Allegheny, making trespassing on railway premises a misdemeanor, punishable by fine or imprisonment. By the bill it is also a misdemeanor to lead or ride a horse on a railroad at any point other than the regular crossings. It also requires railroad companies to fence their tracks in cities and towns, and provide gates at every crossing.

Among other bills introduced was one providing for the prevention of fraud upon users of commercial fertilizers by using the word "bone" with intent to deceive, and another appropriating $750,000 for the support of the National Guard for the next ten years.

In the senate, among other bills introduced, was one to ascertain and adopt the best methods of utilizing convict labor in the institutions of Pennsylvania so as not to interfere with legitimate institutions. The senate also passed a resolution congratulating the people upon the adjournment of congress.

HARRISBURG, March 6.—The Farr compulsory education bill passed finally in the house yesterday with only thirteen votes against it. The Democrats tried to kill the bill on third reading and failing in this refused to vote on final passage. The vote on final passage was 124 to 13. Among other bills passed finally was the one amending the ballot act so as to abolish the December registry and changing the spring registry from May to June.

The bill requiring the election proclamation of the sheriff to be published in two or more papers in each county was defeated on final passage. The vote was reconsidered and a second ballot taken, which also resulted in the defeat of the measure.

A bill was introduced by Mr. Fow, of Philadelphia, relating to suits for libel. It provides that "before suit shall be brought for publication of a libel in any newspaper in this state the aggrieved party shall, at least three days before filing or serving the complaint in such suit, serve special notice on the publisher or publishers. If it shall appear that the said article was published in good faith, and that a full and fair retraction was published in such newspaper, then the plaintiff in such case shall recover only actual damages. Provided, however, that the provisions of this act shall not apply to the case of any libel against any candidate for a public office in this state, unless the retraction of the charge is made editorially in a conspicuous manner at least three days before the election, in case such libelous article was published in a daily paper, and in case such libelous article was published in a weekly paper at least ten days before the election."

Mr. Fow also introduced a bill to prohibit the printing, posting or distributing of any circular or poster reflecting upon any candidate for office.

In the senate Mr. Haines, of York, introduced a bill prohibiting the use of school houses for election purposes.

Setting the Philadelphia Middle. HARRISBURG, March 6.—Mayor-elect Warwick came to this city last evening with Senator Penrose. "Dick" Quay also reached here about the same time and had a conference at the executive mansion with Governor Hastings, Mr. Warwick and Chris L. Magee. It is believed that the meeting was for the purpose of adjusting the trouble in Philadelphia between David Martin and the followers of Senator Penrose. Friends of Senator Quay declare that the quarrel will be settled, and that a senate committee will not be appointed to investigate the municipal affairs of Philadelphia.

WITHOUT THE Non-pull-out BOW (RING)

It is easy to steal or ring watches from the pocket. The thief gets the watch in one hand, the chain in the other and gives a short, quick jerk—the ring slips off the watch stem, and away goes the watch, leaving the victim only the chain.

This idea stopped that little game. The bow has a groove on each end. A collar runs down inside the pendant (stem) and fits into the grooves, firmly locking the bow to the pendant, so that it cannot be pulled or twisted off.
