

REINA REGENTE FOUND.

The Spanish Cruiser Sunk Near the Straits of Gibraltar.

THERE IS NO TRACE OF HER CREW.

There were Four Hundred and Twenty Men on Board the Vessel, and It is Believed That Every Soul Perished—The Search for Dead Bodies.

CADIZ, March 20.—The Spanish cruiser Alfonso XII has returned here after a search for the missing cruiser Reina Regente, and reports having found the latter vessel sunk near Bujaco Acatanos, not far from the Straits of Gibraltar. Only twenty inches of the Reina Regente's masts were above water.

The Alfonso XII has returned to the scene of the wreck with a number of divers and diving appliances, in order to recover the bodies of the crew of the sunken warship.

The Reina Regente was reported missing on March 13. She had just conveyed from Cadiz to Tangier the returning Moorish mission to Spain. The cruiser left Tangier on March 10 for Cadiz, and whereabouts had not been definitely ascertained until yesterday. Pieces of one of her boats and semaphore flags were reported to have been picked up along the shore near Ceuta and Tarifa. She carried a crew of 430 officers and men, and all hands are believed to have perished.

MADRID, March 20.—The positive news of the loss of the Spanish cruiser Reina Regente, which reached here from Cadiz immediately after the arrival there of the cruiser Alfonso XII, caused the greatest emotion in Madrid and throughout Spain. The queen regent was deeply distressed. By her majesty's orders the sacrament has been exposed night and day in the royal chapel from the time the first report of the disaster reached her, and by her direction prayers for the safety of the Reina Regente have been said continuously ever since.

The officials here consider that it is still possible that the officers of the Alfonso XII are mistaken in their identification of the wreck as that of the Reina Regente. Senor Moure, lately the commander of the cruiser Conde de Venadito, said in an interview that he believes that such an expert sailor as the captain of the Reina Regente would have quit the dangerous coast in the vicinity of Tangier at the first symptom of a storm.

The government probably knows whether or not the vessel has been lost, but is hiding the truth until a new ministry shall have been formed. It is stated that the search will be continued, but this is a faint hope. The common people are loud in their maledictions, which they direct against the Moorish mission, to convey which back to Morocco the Reina Regente was sent to Tangier.

The Correspondencia de Espana is responsible for the statement that the Alfonso XII brought to Cadiz the bodies of thirty men belonging to the Reina Regente.

A Child Victim of Christian Science. DAYTON, O., March 20.—Lilah Thurston Meade, 10 years of age, daughter of Colonel Harry E. Meade, and granddaughter of the late Congressman George Houk, died Sunday morning without medical attendance. The little one was the victim of faith cure. Mrs. George Houk and her daughter, Mrs. Meade, are from the best families in Dayton, but of late years have drifted voluntarily into Christian science practice. The child, suffering from typhoid fever, was taken to a place kept by John H. Hutton and wife, who are at the head of faith cure circles here, and the child died from neglect. Hutton and his wife are in jail.

Shortage at the Carson Mint. CARSON, Nev., March 20.—Andrew Mason, government mint inspector and superintendent of the New York assay department, has been in Carson for the past week inspecting the United States mint in this city. It has been learned from Hirsch Harris, the melter and refiner, that a shortage was discovered about a month ago. Over $20,000 has mysteriously disappeared, and five clean ups in quick succession failed to reveal the cause of the shortage. Inspector Mason expects to be able to clear up the mystery in a day or two.

Spain Has Not Yet Answered. MADRID, March 20.—El Correo denies totally the truthfulness of the report that the Spanish government has expressed to the United States its disapproval of the action of the gunboat which it is claimed fired on the American steamer Alliance off Cape May, the eastern extremity of Cuba. The paper adds that Senor Grotzard, the foreign minister, is awaiting an official report from Havana before definitely replying to the note presented to the government by the Hon. Hannis Taylor, the American minister.

A Dishonest Broker Convicted. NEW YORK, March 20.—David L. Kellam, a broker who has been on trial before Recorder Goff in Part III of the general sessions for forgery, was adjudged guilty by a jury after three hours deliberation. The complainant was Henry E. Simmons, who gave to Kellam three notes of $6,000 each to buy whisky and put it in bond. Instead of buying the whisky Kellam used the money for his own purposes. The jury recommended mercy. Kellam will be sentenced on Friday.

Shot Up for Carrying Concealed Weapons. WASHINGTON, March 20.—J. O. Wheeler and Irs Greathouse, who came here from West Virginia to negotiate with two green goods men, A. P. Hill and J. R. Hickman, were sentenced to six months' imprisonment for carrying concealed weapons. Hickman also received six months for the same offense, but Hill was acquitted. Judge Miller severely rebuked the jury for its verdict, and ordered Hill and Hickman to be remanded for trial.

Shot in Defense of His Mother. BALTIMORE, March 20.—Christian Prisdorfer, aged 46, a driver, was shot dead at his home last night by his stepson, Joseph Kress, aged 17 years. The man was beating his wife, the mother of the boy, when the lad shot him. The boy went to the police station and informed the officers there of the affair.

Buried Under a Falling Building. MIDDLETOWN, Md., March 20.—While a dilapidated building which was used as a stable in the rear of Sparrow's hotel was being demolished, suddenly collapsed, burying in the ruins Mrs. Howard H. Sparrow, wife of the proprietor of the hotel, and Edward C. Herring. They are probably fatally injured.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

Thomas J. Edge Chosen for State Secretary of Agriculture.

HARRISBURG, March 19.—The house spent the greater part of the time yesterday trying to secure special orders for bills. In some cases the members were successful, but each time there was strong opposition. Mr. Burrell had Senator Osborn's pictorial chart bill recommitted to the education committee. That body has already negatived the measure, and it is altogether probable that the bill will be killed again. Mr. Moore, of Chester, asked to have placed upon the calendar his civil service bill, which was negatived by the general judiciary committee. The matter will be decided Monday night, when the house meets again.

HARRISBURG, March 18.—This will be a busy week for the lawmakers. The senate and house have settled down to routine work. This means that the members must stay in their seats and keep a watchful eye on their bills if they desire them to go through. The day which the pending legislation is being considered would indicate that the session will not continue longer than the middle of May. The talk among those who speak by authority is that a resolution will be offered during the week fixing the final adjournment for the first week in May.

Governor Hastings favors an early adjournment. In this he has the support of Speaker Walcott, who is doing what he can to bring it about. The older members of the house say the legislature cannot get away before the first week of June and do its work well.

HARRISBURG, March 19.—The house granted special orders last night for the state custodian and judicial appointment bills. The former will on Wednesday be put on third reading. The other measure will come up on second reading next Thursday and for third reading and final passage the following Wednesday. Mr. Nickell, of Philadelphia, was refused a special order for his amendment to the constitution abolishing spring elections, and M. Kerkeslager, of Philadelphia, was accorded the same treatment for the Penrose anti-sweat shop bill.

Mr. Tillbrook, of Allegheny, presented a bill to authorize any veteran and soldier or sailor to bring suit against any county, town or township, being a military subject, to recover an amount of money to which he became entitled by reason of his being accredited to such county, borough or township, on his re-enlistment to fill the quota of men then or afterwards called for from such county, borough or township.

Mr. Mackrell, of Allegheny, presented a bill appropriating $50,000 for an asylum for the chronic epileptic and criminal insane of western Pennsylvania. A bill was introduced by Mr. Kern, of Lehigh, providing for the health and safety of persons employed in and about slate quarries and mines, and for the protection and skillful operation of slate quarries and mines and property connected therewith.

In the senate bills were passed finally: To empower councils in cities of the third class to enact ordinances governing street sprinkling, fix rates for same and provide for their collection; to provide that the right of action for personal injury shall survive against the personal estate of the wrongdoer; to amend the act relating to fraudulent debtors by granting the right of appeal to the supreme court; to improve school and other grounds for park purposes.

HARRISBURG, March 20.—The state custodian bill passed second reading on a special order in the house yesterday, and will be considered this afternoon on third reading. The Hicks bill to create a public employment bureau in cities, under the direction of the chief of the bureau of industrial statistics, was killed on final passage.

Governor Hastings sent to the house his veto of the bill granting a pension to Hamilton Smith, of Jefferson county. The governor says that more than thirty-one years have elapsed since the alleged injury was received in the service of the state, and the lapse of time makes it difficult to establish the claim and right to the bounty of the state. He suggests that the legislature should establish some tribunal to determine the merits of such claims before appropriations are made.

The senate passed a large number of bills finally. Among them were these: To constitute the board of school directors in each township a board of health, changing the rate of taxation on agricultural, farm and suburban land from one-half to one-fourth in cities of the second class; providing for callisthenic exercises in educational institutions supported wholly or in part by public money; changing Labor Day from the first Saturday in September to the first Monday in that month; creating a commission to ascertain the best method of utilizing convict labor in Pennsylvania institutions so as not to interfere with legitimate industries.

The governor sent to the senate the nomination of Thomas J. Edge, of Harrisburg, for many years secretary of the state board of agriculture, for secretary of agriculture under the act approved by the governor last week; Ezra H. Ripplie, of Scranton, for commissary general; Major Wilson C. Kress, of Lock Haven, for supreme court reporter, in place of Robert E. Monaghan, removed. The nominations were confirmed.
