

THE RACKET.

No. 9, CRIDER EX., BELLEFONTE, PA. The Simple Truth, Simply told, is what we would like U to expect in Racket Store advertisements.

If U will take the trouble to refer to our "ad" of May 9th, 1894, U will C that The Parisian Importing Co., of N. Y., awarded us first prize for original advertising, over all competition. We received the following letter last Saturday, which explains itself:

New York, March 15, 1895. Racket Store Co., Bellefonte, Pa.,

Gentlemen:—We are happy to state that you have won the third prize for introduction sales, which we offered a short time since, the competition was keen, and allow us to congratulate yourselves and your department people on this triumph. Yours Truly, C. G. PHELPS, Treasurer.

Thirty stores in different parts of the United States in the competition above referred to, is anything more wanted to show that your own "Racket" is up to date.

G. R. SPIGLEMYER, I SHEM SPIGLEMYER, JR.

Your Attention. Your attention is hereby called to an important announcement to be found in another column from LYON & Co. They have a large stock of goods and are offering same at prices that deserve your attention. See what they have to say. It may be of interest to you.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

—Achenbach (the baker) is moving into his new rooms this week.

—The venerable E. C. Humes has been on the sick list during the past week.

—During the past week bicycles began to make their appearance on our streets.

—A genuine horse race at "The County Fair" on Friday night, at Garman's opera house.

—Dr. T. R. Hayes, who spent the past winter in California, at Pasadena, returned to his home.

—Ex-Burgess John Powers, the veteran shoe dealer of Bellefonte, is ill at his home with catarrh of the stomach.

—Mrs. D. H. Hastings arrived in Bellefonte on Monday evening. This is her first visit to Bellefonte since the inauguration.

—If you go to the Garman opera house, on Friday evening, remember that betting money on the horses will not be allowed.

—Bridge contractors are as thick as honey bees about the commissioners office. The erection of a new iron bridge near Philipsburg is the cause.

—Rev. J. H. McGarrah will move from Bellefonte to Altoona, as soon as his health will permit. He will retire from active ministerial duties.

—Four trained horses will run a race at full speed, at the "County Fair" on Friday evening. This is one of the cleverest features ever put on the stage.

—Rev. R. L. Guarhart the new reformed minister, will arrive from Bedford Pa., the latter part of this week, and will officiate at the regular Sunday services.

—Rev. G. Tarring Gray, the new Methodist appointment, comes from Mt. Carmel. He is a native of Centre county, and is well known to many of our people.

—This Thursday evening inspection of company B will take place in the armory. A number of prominent military dignitaries will be in attendance. The inspection will be free to the public.

—Col. Amos Mullen has resigned his position in the Bellefonte postoffice as mail carrier. But one republican remains in this office and that is John Bair, carrier in the South ward. Removals and appointments are made by the Civil Service commission.

—There is quite a bit of fun going on between John S. Waite and some of the women who dont want him to erect his bicycle store along Spring creek. John says he will and the women are determined that he shall not, and that makes a complication of matters.

—C. F. Delinger, teller in the Pennsylvania Bank, at Centre Hill, was in town on Monday and launched his boom as a candidate for the republican nomination for Prothonotary this year. He made it a point to consult the leaders of the machine. Since last fall's election our republican friends have been getting exceedingly anxious to hold office in Centre county. The woods seem full of them.

CAUGHT BY A SHAFT.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT ON MON. DAY.

Robert Hepburn Terribly Injured—Will Recover—Bucked a Buzz Saw and had a Narrow Escape.

On Monday morning a severe accident happened to the venerable Robt. Hepburn, while working at the Valentine rolling mill near this place. Mr. Hepburn is a carpenter and was working near an upright shaft when his clothing caught in a cog-wheel and he was whirled around at a high speed. The machinery was stopped as soon as possible but not until considerable injury was done to his person. He was at once removed to his home and Drs. Selbert and Harris were called who looked after his injuries. The bones in the left ankle were smashed and the right elbow dislocated with minor bruises about his body.

It is not anticipated that his condition will prove fatal, only that it will take some time for his recovery. Mr. Hepburn is about 70 years of age and at the recent election was chosen as one of our poor overseers.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

—Shaeffer is again offering a great inducement.

—See Shaeffer's advertisement in another column. Remember the time is very short.

—Dr. Harry Lichenthaler, a well known physician of Lock Haven died suddenly on Tuesday. He was 84 years of age.

—The chicken thieves who were arrested last week for looting John Ayres chicken coop, will have a chance to explain their doings in April court.

—Mrs. Wm. Eckley died at her home on Reynolds avenue, on Tuesday afternoon. She had been ill for some time. Her age was about 59 years; interment on Friday in Union cemetery.

—On Tuesday evening two gentlemen from Kensington, Pa., with a patent for manufacturing structural glass by a new roller process, attempted to interest the Board of Trade in the scheme. They wanted the citizens to subscribe $20,000 to the scheme but the effort failed.

—Some machinery and material were recently received at the Bellefonte nail works. Experiments are to be made upon an improved appliance for the manufacture of tin plate. Nothing definite could be learned as the experiments will be made by the inventor in secret.

A Close Call.

On Wednesday Geo. Derner, a farm hand employed by Harrison Kline, went to Gettig's saw mill at Pleasant Gap with a team for a load of saw dust. It was necessary for Mr. Derner to get under the floor of the mill and shovel the saw dust out to the wagon. The mill was in operation at the time.

While busily engaged at shoveling he got closer to the rapidly revolving saw. In stooping forward he suddenly felt his hat fly off his head and disappear from view, while the hair on the top of his head was disturbed. He was badly frightened by his close contact with the saw, which had it been an inch closer would have ripped his skull open. The men on the floor of the mill were equally frightened by seeing the hat brought up and cut in two. The machinery was immediately stopped and when they reached the bottom of the mill they were surprised to find Mr. Derner all right, but almost frightened to death.

Tumbled Out.

There is no man in Bellefonte who finds as much satisfaction in holding the ribbons behind a fine piece of horse-flesh as Merchant Fauble, and he is sure to be out whenever the weather is fine giving his stepper a bit of exercise. On Sunday morning he drove out towards Pleasant Gap. In coming back at the furnace, a door had fallen over in the road and the horse suddenly frightened and jumped to the side towards the embankment. The result was that before Mr. Fauble and son Joe could say Jack Robinson they were lying in the middle of the road with blankets on top of them, while their spirited driver was going up the pike at a great pace, and managed to break up the buggy pretty well. No one was injured but the buggy was a wreck.

The County Fair.

The attraction at the opera house on Friday evening is one which deserves patronage, "The County Fair." It comes direct from the large cities, all of last week it was at the Chestnut street Theatre, Philadelphia. This week it appears on Monday night at Camden, N. J., Tuesday at Chester, Wednesday at Lancaster, Thursday at Harrisburg, Friday at Bellefonte and Saturday at Johnstown, then the following week at Pittsburg. It only plays in the larger towns.

More Than They Can Fill.

No more applications for black bass, rock bass, strawberry bass, white bass or yellow perch can be filled by the Pennsylvania commissioners of fisheries, as there are now more at the hatcheries than can be filled.

MRS. HASTINGS ENTERTAINED.

On Tuesday afternoon the social circles of Bellefonte were astir, and the handsomely furnished apartments of the Spangler residence was the scene of a brilliant gathering. It was a "high tea," given by Mrs. J. L. Spangler in honor of her friend Mrs. Hastings, wife of Governor D. H. Hastings, who is now making her first visit to Bellefonte since their departure in January to Harrisburg. From 3 to 5 p. m. there was a constant stream of carriages to their home. The interior was handsomely decorated for the occasion with an abundance of smilax, potted plants and a profusion of cut flowers. The presence of the many elegantly dressed ladies, adorned in choice jewels which sparkled in the gleam of the gas lights, completed the most beautiful picture.

The guests were received by the following ladies, in order; Mrs. J. L. Spangler, Mrs. D. H. Hastings, Mrs. D. G. Bush, Mrs. D. L. Krebs, of Clearfield Mrs. W. F. Crider and Mrs. Geo. W. Jackson. The entertainment of the many guests was carefully looked after by the following hostesses: Mrs. S. M. Buck, Mrs. W. L. Malin, Mrs. L. T. Munson, Mrs. Chas. L. Callaway Mrs. W. F. Reber and Mrs. W. F. Reeder. Elegant refreshments were nicely served that embraced some of the choicest delicacies. Miss Myra Holliday had charge of the tea table, Miss Millie Smith presided at the cocoa table and Miss Emma Holliday served at the coffee table.

Everything was carefully and neatly arranged and the many guests were nicely entertained. Over one hundred were present during the reception, to pay their respects to Mrs. Hastings.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. W. F. Reeder, entertained a large number of lady friends at her residence. Mrs. Hastings being the principal guest of the evening.

MILITARY DINNER.

This Thursday evening Col. W. F. Reeder, Assistant Adjutant General, will entertain a large number of military dignitaries at a 6 p. m. dinner. Col. Reeder was recently promoted from the position of 1st Lieutenant of Co. B. The annual inspection of Co. B. occurs this evening and a number of prominent military men connected with the state guards and the 2nd Brigade particularly will be present.

Council Meeting.

There was a busy evening for council on Monday. The following were some of the more important matters taken up:

Mrs. Fasig asked for exoneration of taxes. A new board walk was asked for by citizens on South Potter street.

The butchers of Bellefonte appeared and wanted the curb stone market ordinance enforced in the case of those butchers who peddle meat about town from their wagons. They were informed that it was entirely in their own hands to enforce this case.

A delegation of ladies presented a petition asking council to reconsider the privilege granted John S. Waite to erect a booth or stand at the bridge on High street. Mr. Waite notified the council that he intended to go on with the same. The matter will be taken up at the next regular meeting, for further consideration. A water schedule was approved and a scheme also to assess rates against property owners instead of the tenants.

The village improvement committee reported over $25 collected for trees.

The finance committee showed the depleted condition of our treasury.

W. E. Gray Burgess, made his report for the year 1894. The total receipts being $131; expenditures $95.15 leaving a balance of $35.85 paid the treasurer.

Bills to the amount of $133.13 were approved.

Spring Opening.

It certainly will be a rare treat for the ladies to see the handsome line of ladies' tailor-made garments, just received at Aikens' store. There you can see the latest ideas for spring and summer wear.

Tailor-made suits in twenty styles. Ladies skirts in crepon, satin, silk crepe, morai radina and brocads. Ladies Capes in different styles in silk, velvet and cloth, ranging in price from $2.75 to $25. Silk waists from $2.75 to $10. Linen Waists, percales, satines, from 50 cents on up to $2. Refers for children.

Mrs. Aikens just returned from a trip to New York where the above selection was made. The ladies are invited to come in and see the new patterns and styles at AIKEN'S STORE.

New Store.

On Friday Mr. A. Katz and son paid us a short call. They are now having the old Loeb store room, on Allegheny street cleaned up, repapered, painted and refurnished for their opening of a strictly first-class dry goods, notion and millinery store, the early part of April. Mr. Katz hails from Wichita, Kansas, and is a man of considerable experience in the mercantile business.

Easter Ball.

On Monday evening April 15th, the Undine Fire Company will hold their annual Easter ball in the Bush Arcade. It will be a select affair. Elegant music will be furnished by the company's orchestra.

THE DEATH LIST.

AS CHRONICLED FOR THE PAST WEEK.

Much Larger than Usual—Sudden Death of Rev. Elliott, an Eminent Divine—Other deaths in this Community.

REV. GEORGE ELLIOTT.

Rev. George Elliott, of this place, died suddenly at the home of Ex-Treasurer Wm. B. Mitchell, of Pine Grove Mills on Saturday morning. He was conducting a profitable religious meeting in the Presbyterian church there, being assisted by the Rev. M. McKinley of Clearfield. Rev. Mr. Elliott contracted a cold, which caused pneumonia and quickly resulted in his death. His wife was with him during his severe illness and at the hour of dissolution.

Rev. Mr. Elliott's church record is a long and interesting one, invariably attended with much success. He entered the ministry of the Presbyterian church 48 years ago, his first charge being Alexandria in Huntingdon county. His next charge was at Reedsville, Pa., then Northumberland, McConnellsville, and Newton Hamilton. For some years he had been in Bellefonte, his four churches being Fort Matilda, Unionville (Uffalo Run) and Pine Grove Mills.

Rev. Mr. Elliott was 69 years old, just verging into his seventieth year. Four sons survive him, viz.: George W., who lives in Chicago, Ill., W. W., of Denison, Texas; James W. of Bangor, Pa., and John H., of Denison, Texas.

The funeral services were in the Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

JAMES P. MCGARRAH.

James Plummer McGarrah, eldest son of Rev. James H. McGarrah, of Bellefonte, and dispensary clerk at Rhodes' drug store at Ramey, Pa., died on Thursday morning about 7 o'clock. Soon after going to bed at the hotel he was taken very ill. Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes went to him, and a physician was sent for, but the unfortunate young man grew worse and finally became unconscious and died. His death was the result of heart failure produced by excessive hemorrhages.

He was a handsome young man, refined and highly educated and much liked wherever he was known. His death is a sad surprise to everybody, and will be a crushing blow to his aged father, whose beloved wife died only a year ago, and who is illly prepared to meet this second bereavement. The deceased was about 30 years old, and was a graduate in pharmacy. Beside his father, he is survived by a brother, Olin K. who is a medical student at the University of Pennsylvania, and a sister, Junia wife of Rev. J. Ellis Bell, of Altoona. The remains were brought to Bellefonte for interment, which occurred on Saturday afternoon. The Masonic order attended the funeral.

MRS. SMITH.

Mrs. Mary Smith, widow of John Smith deceased, died at her home in Millin county on Monday night, 11, at the advanced age of 74 years. She is survived by four children, Benjamin Smith, of this place; Mrs. J. A. Hazel, Mrs. Samuel Garret and Mrs. F. V. Jodon, all of near Bellefonte. The remains were brought to Bellefonte for interment in the Union cemetery.

DEATH OF MRS. J. P. SEBRING.

Mrs. John P. Sebring died at her home at Centre Line, in Halfmoon townehip, this county, on Wednesday night the 13th, death being caused by heart failure. The deceased was aged about 33 years and was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Buck, of that place, and is survived by but one brother, Miles Buck, who lives on the old home-stead.

HENRY KORMAN.

Miles township has lost one of its oldest and best known citizens, in the death of Henry Korman, at his home in Rebersburg, on Wednesday 6 inst. The deceased was a life long resident of Miles twp. He leaves a widow, four sons and two daughters, to mourn his departure, namely James, George, Henry, Noah, Ellen and Emma.

MICHAEL KELLEY.

Mr. Michael Kelley, who was about 20 years of age, died at the home of Mrs. Strong at the toll gate, Saturday evening, after a brief illness with pneumonia. The funeral took place on Tuesday morning, services being held in the Catholic church.

MRS. SUSAN ALLEN.

Susan, wife of John Allen, died near Tusseyville, on the 9 inst. Susan Straub, was born near Freeburg, Snyder county, April 27, 1827, was married to John Allen on the 18 of Feb. 1853. Her age was 67 years, 10 months and 9 days.

MRS. MALONE.

Sunday morning Mrs. Daniel Malone, died at her home at Walker settlement Bogg township. Interment was made Thursday in the Advent cemetery, north of Milesburg. The deceased leaves three sons and two daughters.

AN INFANT.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Clevan Dinges died Thursday morning at their home in Williamsport. The remains were brought here for interment. Mrs. Dinges is a daughter of druggist F. Potts Green.

Election Day.

Tuesday, April 2nd is the time set for argument before Judge Love in regard to the pay of the North and South ward election boards who claim to have worked two days but the commissioners would only award them pay for one. It is an important question and this is looked upon as a test case. Messrs Charles P. Hewes and Harry Keller will argue the case for the election boards while D. F. Fortney, Esq., will appear for the county commissioners.

Company B. Happy.

Everything is serene now in company B, Bellefonte. The warring elements buried the hatchet on Wednesday evening of last week. The terms upon which the compromise was affected were the election of Geo. L. Jackson, first lieutenant and H. S. Taylor as second lieutenant. The elections were made unanimous.

Concert at Axemann.

This Saturday evening a concert will be given at Axemann by the singing class at that place. The Bellefonte orchestra will assist in the entertainment, for which a small admission will be charged.
