

CANADA IN A FERMMENT.

The Manitoba Provincial Legislature Postpones Action

ON THE SEPARATE SCHOOL ORDER.

MEANTIME Protestant Ontario Upholds the Manitoba Argument, While Catholic Quebec Insists Upon Obedience to Superior Authority.

WINNIPEG, Man., March 23.—The remonstrance of the governor general in council, calling upon the government of Manitoba to restore to the Roman Catholics their parochial or separate schools, reached this city yesterday. It was addressed to the lieutenant governor, and by him transmitted to the legislature, which was sitting in readiness to receive it. The legislature was crowded with an intensely earnest gathering when the important document was delivered.

The tenor and language of the order leaves no opening for compromise. It is a command to Manitoba to submit, and plainly says that if the legislature does not obey, the governor general, or more accurately speaking, the Dominion government, will enforce its authority. No definite action was taken last night. After the order had been read it was laid on the table for further consideration.

That the order will be rejected may be taken for certain. Of the forty members of the legislature only four or five will vote against the rejection, these four or five being Catholics and representing purely Catholic constituencies.

Premier Greenway, being interviewed last night, said: "We earnestly desire to act with the constitution, but let all people know this trouble is not of our own making. We claim the right to make our own laws, and this right we will not give up without a struggle. The governor general's order will be rejected in its entirety."

WINNIPEG, Man., March 27.—The first step in the renewed fight over parochial schools in Manitoba began in the legislature yesterday afternoon, when the first full message was presented from the Dominion government at Ottawa, ordering the Manitoba legislature to give the Catholics their rights as they existed before the abolition of the parochial schools in 1890.

The Greenway government contends, on the other hand, that the present school law is satisfactory to many Catholics if it were not for the agitation by the priests of the church. They say that if Manitoba is coerced into recreating a dual system of dualism, both in language and education, will be extended to the territories as well, and thus would be perpetuated in the west the evils which have caused dissatisfaction and stagnation in the province.

IN PROTESTANT ONTARIO.

The Action of the Dominion Government Very Unpopular.

OTTAWA, March 27.—The news from Ottawa that Premier Greenway has declared that "the governor general's order will be rejected in its entirety," while not unexpected, has created great excitement in official circles. It is admitted that the situation is pregnant with critical possibilities, and that much depends upon the action of the Dominion government. It is, of course, possible that the Manitoba legislature may shelve the question for a year, as the federal parliament has no jurisdiction till the government of the province acts, or refuses to act on the remedial order. But this seems hardly likely to happen, judging from the reports of the feeling among the majority of the people of Manitoba.

The British North American act is in many ways an elastic affair, and it will be a difficult matter for the Dominion government to decide that it has or that it has not the right to interfere in the educational legislation of the provinces. If it should decide to interfere it is probable that such interference would make the political divisions of Canada coincide with its great religious division, or would lead to a series of appeals to the courts, the end of which can scarcely be foreseen.

So far the action of the government has resulted in stirring up a feeling in Ontario very hostile to itself, while in Quebec it has had a directly contrary effect. None of the party organs in Ontario dare to commit themselves to any definite statement as to the course to be pursued towards Manitoba, but the independent journals, without exception, cry out against any interference by the Dominion in the school affairs of the province. Their cry is "Hands off," and there is no doubt as to that being the sentiment of the great majority of Protestant Ontario.

IN CATHOLIC QUEBEC.

The French Papers of That Province Denounce "Orangisme."

MONTREAL, March 27.—The excitement in Quebec over the school question is none the less real because it is in a measure subsided for the time being. It is not yet known what will be the action of the Dominion government on the refusal of Manitoba to grant remedial legislation to the Catholics, and until it is known there will be no great public outbreak. The tone of the French press, however, distinctly indicates what will happen if "Orangisme," as they term it, triumphs and the Manitobans are permitted to disobey an order from supreme authority.

Considerable ill feeling among the French Catholics has been created by a paper read before the Protestant Ministerial association by Rev. W. T. Graham, and which has been ordered to be printed in full by the association. Rev. Graham made a bitter attack on the Jesuits, and called on all loyal citizens to unite to secure their eviction from Canada. Mr. Graham closed his address with the declaration that the right of Manitoba to enact her own school laws must be preserved.

Granted the Eight Hour Day.

NEW YORK, March 25.—The Iron League, including in its membership the most prominent architectural iron manufacturers of New York, Brooklyn and Jersey City, has voluntarily reduced the working hours on buildings to eight, the same wages to be paid as are now paid for nine hours. The new rule takes effect May 1.

WILLIAM AND BISMARCK.

Germany's Emperor Honors the Venerable Statesman.

PRESENTED A SWORD OF HONOR.

The Emperor's Presentation Speech—His Majesty Headed a Body of Troops Who Had Been Detailed to Honor the Prince. The Artillery Fires a Royal Salute.

BERLIN, March 27.—Emperor William, who visited Prince Bismarck yesterday, accompanied by the crown prince, left the special train near the village of Aumuehle, where he mounted a horse, and, attended by a brilliantly uniformed staff, rode quickly to the spot selected for the assembling of the troops who had been detailed to do honor to the prince.

With Emperor William at its head this force was marched to an open space in Prince Bismarck's park, and upon arriving there the troops were deployed in parade order. Prince Bismarck had come in an open carriage, and wore the uniform of the Haaberstadt cuirassiers. The officers saluted, the troops presented arms, the bands played patriotic airs, and the emperor welcomed the prince with the greatest heartiness.

His majesty then took up a position in front of the troops, and delivered an address of congratulation to the prince. Then, in the name of the army, the emperor presented Prince Bismarck with a sword of honor of antique form, richly embossed and inlaid with gold. After this ceremony Emperor William, accompanied by Prince Bismarck, drove along the ranks of the troops, the prince returning the salutes with evident pleasure.

In presenting Prince Bismarck with the sword of honor Emperor William, referring to the presence of the cuirassiers, said that he handed him the gift in recognition of his deeds, adding: "I could not have found a better present than a sword, whether as a weapon of the ancient Germans or as a symbol of never failing resource, and upon it are engraved the united arms of the Reichsland. May your serene highness look upon this as a token of gratitude for deeds recorded in history which were brought to a conclusion twenty-five years ago. Let us, comrades, salute a hurrah for his serene highness, Prince Bismarck, duke of Leuchtenberg."

Recovering his composure, the ex-chancellor said: "Your majesty permit me to lay at your feet my humblest thanks. My military position towards your majesty will not allow me to further express my feelings. I thank your majesty."

He then kissed the kaiser's hands, and his majesty urged him to mount his carriage, which Prince Bismarck only did when the crown prince had first entered the vehicle and taken a seat to the right. Then the ex-chancellor, escorted by the emperor, drove in front of the troops, and after the rounds had been made the troops filed past Prince Bismarck, the emperor personally leading Bismarck's cuirassiers. Court Master Count Eulenbourg brought Prince Bismarck's daughter, Countess von Hantauz, and her sons, and led them across the field to stand at the side of the prince.

After the review the cuirassiers, with the emperor in command, mounted guard at the castle. The emperor ordered double sentinels at each door, and presented all the members of his suite to the ex-chancellor.

Luncheon was served shortly afterwards, and when the emperor proposed Prince Bismarck's health the artillery fired a salute of twenty-one guns.

Emperor William, in proposing Prince Bismarck's health after the luncheon, referred to the services which the latter had rendered to Emperor William I. Prince Bismarck in reply said that since 1848 he had only done his duty and nothing more. As for the recent action of the reichstag in refusing congratulations, he added, he could only deplore the lack of national sentiment thereby displayed.

The empress of Germany commissioned the crown prince to present to Prince Bismarck a beautiful basket of roses and a letter of congratulation. The young prince handed the gift to Prince Bismarck with the simple words, "From mamma."

Emperor William has appointed Prince Bismarck's physician, Dr. Schweninger, to be privy medical councillor, and has conferred upon Dr. Crysander, Prince Bismarck's secretary, the Order of the Crown.

Mrs. Stowe Not Violently Insane.

HARTFORD, March 27.—During the past two days the family of Harriet Beecher Stowe has been deluged with inquiries as to the condition of the noted novelist, owing to the publication in New York of a story that she had become violently insane and was to be confined in an insane asylum. Edward Beecher Hooker, M. D., her physician, issues a card in which he states that Mrs. Stowe is in better health than usual, and that she devotes considerable of her time out of doors, visiting freely her friends and neighbors.

A Sixty-Year-Old Murderer.

SARATOGA, N. Y., March 27.—Julius Bartlett, of Fort Wedward, murdered Richard Jackson and terribly slashed William Palmer, but the latter will probably recover. Bartlett used a razor, and almost decapitated Jackson. All are negroes. They got into a quarrel while drunk. Bartlett, who is about 60 years of age, was locked up.

Free Anti-Toxine for New York.

ALBANY, March 27.—Governor Morton has signed the bill authorizing the board of health of New York to employ a corps of physicians to collect and administer anti-toxine.
